Subject: July 13, 2015; Dear Colleagues, In 2000, Congress authorized a study of children's health and development - the National Children's Study (NCS) - as part of the Children's Health Act. In response to a 2014 IOM report and a review by a working group of the Advisory Committee to the Director (ACD) of NIH, Dr. Collins accepted the ACD’s recommendation to discontinue the NCS, while emphasizing that the overall goals of the NCS should remain a priority for future NIH scientific support.; To make best use of fiscal year (FY) 2015 appropriated funds, NIH identified opportunities to address challenges at the intersection of child and environmental health through alternative approaches that are consistent with the original goals of the NCS. A major focus is the development of tools to enhance measurement of environmental exposures (e.g., physical, chemical, biological, psychosocial). Another key component is studying environmental influence on placental and \textit{in utero} development to identify the “seeds” of future diseases and conditions. Finally, by leveraging extant programs, the plan aims to expand examination of environmental influences on later child development. The Funding Opportunity Announcements (FOAs) were released earlier this year and applications currently are under review.; Going forward, NIH has begun developing the FY 2016 plan for the new program – \textit{Environmental influences on Child Health Outcomes (ECHO)}. The overarching goal of ECHO is to investigate the longitudinal impact of prenatal, perinatal, and postnatal environmental exposures on pediatric health outcomes with high public health impact by leveraging and expanding extant cohorts. To do so, NIH proposes to support multiple synergistic, longitudinal studies using extant cohorts that represent variable environmental exposures (e.g., physical, chemical, biological, psychosocial, natural and built environments) that will share standardized research questions and focus on four key pediatric outcomes – upper and lower airway; obesity; pre-, peri-, and postnatal outcomes; and neurodevelopment. All longitudinal studies will collect the same standardized, targeted data (Core Elements) as a component of the project, and will be managed through a Coordinating Center. An additional opportunity for creating an IDEAS States National Pediatric Clinical Research Network also is being considered. In keeping with the spirit of the NCS, this new program aims to address the critical goal of understanding the impact of environmental influences on children’s health and development.; I invite you to review the FY16 plan for ECHO in our Request for Information (RFI; \url{http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-15-117.html}), and provide your feedback via the submission site \url{http://dev.grants.nih.gov/grants/rfi/rfi.cfm?ID=45}. I encourage organizations (e.g., patient advocacy groups, professional organizations) to submit a single response reflective of the views of the organization/membership as a whole. We also will be hosting webinars to gather additional input. These webinars will be held on July 22, July 27, and July 29. For additional information and to register, please visit the registration site \url{http://www.etouches.com/NIH072015}; Your input is vital to ensuring that the ECHO program will direct research at the intersection of child and environmental health on a promising and visionary path, and I appreciate your time and consideration in assisting us with this effort.; Sincerely, Lawrence A. Tabak, D.D.S., Ph.D.; Principal Deputy Director, NIH;

\textbf{[NTW] [WEEKLY HIGHLIGHT/ASPPH/PERRC/PERLC/CENTERS FOR DISEASE CONTROL (CDC)] Title: ASPPH: Potential CDC funding opportunity for ASPPH-member CEPH-accredited schools of public health designated as PERRC and/or PERLC; Sponsor: CDC; Deadline(s): TBD; Contact: prf1@columbia.edu; Link(s): \url{https://r2eport.files.wordpress.com/2014/04/workforceimprovementprojectswips_modifiedrfp_forr2eport_07-17-15_pdf.pdf};}

\textbf{Additional Information: Will those faculty interested please contact Pam Factor-Litvak (prf1). This is especially important if you are part of the ongoing PERRC/PERLC at the school.} [Circulated to all faculty per Dean Fried]; Dear Dean Fried, The CDC Office of Public Health Preparedness and Response recently informed us of a new funding opportunity for ASPPH and the PERRC and PERLC programs. The announcement focuses on the translation, application, and evaluation of promising PERRC and PERLC research products and trainings to improve public health preparedness and response practice, policy, program and the workforce. Activities conducted as part of the announcement will lead to improved public health practice and enhanced health security by providing workforce development opportunities in public health.

\textbf{Research Resources:} \url{http://www.mailman.columbia.edu/faculty-staff/research-resources-r2-office}
The eligibility for the sub-projects, as determined by the CDC, is limited to ASPPH member CEPH-accredited schools of public health designated as a PERRC and/or PERLC.; ASPPH will be applying for the role of the coordinating center, and should we be funded, we will then announce a call for proposals for each of the three sub-projects. ASPPH will manage an open, fair and transparent review of the applications. Please see the attached RFP, modified to reflect only the information for the sub-projects, for more information including the proposed scope of work for each of the sub-projects.; As outlined in the attached RFP, one award of $500,000 will be provided for sub-project 1, one award of $500,000 for sub-project 2, and between five and ten awards ranging from $611,000 up to $1,100,000 each will be provided for sub-project 3. All projects will be for a two year period.; If ASPPH is funded for the role of the coordinating center, we will go out immediately to our members that received funding for a PERRC and PERLC with a full request for proposals and additional details. I am copying faculty members involved in training programs, specifically the PERLC project, on this email but we also recognize that we may not have the most current list of contacts.; [Forwarded to our attention by] Regards, Rita; Rita Kelliher, MSPH | Senior Director; Association of Schools and Programs of Public Health (ASPPH) | www.aspph.org; 1900 M Street NW, Suite 710 | Washington, DC 20036; Tel: 202-296-1099, ext. 141 | Email: rkelliher@aspph.org;

[NTW] [WEEKLY HIGHLIGHT/ANNOUNCEMENTS (COLUMBIA)/INTERNAL VETTING] Title: Dean’s Initiative Awards to Promote NIH Research; Pilot Funding in Preparation for R01 Awards; Dean’s Initiative Awards to Promote NIH Research; Pilot Funding for Center/Program Project Awards;
Sponsor: NIH; COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY;
Deadline(s): 10/01/2015;
Contact: Investigators interested in submitting applications are encouraged to discuss them with Pam Factor-Litvak (prf1) prf1@columbia.edu; or Regina Santella (rps1) rps1@columbia.edu; For administrative issues please contact Craig Kandell (ckk7). Proposals should be submitted electronically in a single Adobe file to Craig Kandell (ckk7);
ckk7@columbia.edu;
Additional Information: A Message From Dean Linda P. Fried; Dear Colleagues, The Dean’s Office is seeking innovative and promising pilot proposals which will increase likelihood of successful funding of NIH R01 or equivalent grants as well as NIH program project or center grants. We anticipate funding four R01 pilots at a level of $25,000 and two program project/center pilots at a level of $75,000. Please see the attached files for details. ; Best, Linda; Linda P. Fried, MD, MPH; Dean and DeLamar Professor of Public Health; Mailman School of Public Health; Senior Vice President; Columbia University Mailman School of Public Health; Senior Vice President, Columbia University Medical Center; Professor of Epidemiology and Medicine; 722 West 168th Street, 14th Floor (MSPH Box 1), New York, NY 10032; 212-305-9300 | FAX: 212-305-9342; Lf2296@columbia.edu; www.mailman.columbia.edu; R01: DEAN’S INITIATIVE AWARDS TO PROMOTE NIH; RESEARCH; PILOT FUNDING IN PREPARATION FOR R01 AWARDS; PROPOSALS DUE OCTOBER 1, 2015; The Dean’s Office is seeking innovative and promising pilot proposals which will increase likelihood of successful funding of NIH R01 or equivalent grants. Priority will be given to pilot proposals which are interdisciplinary in nature and that cross departments within the Mailman School of Public Health. We also encourage submissions with multiple PIs. We anticipate that 4 proposals will be funded. Pilot applications can request up to $25,000 and must be completed within one year; in rare circumstances, a second year may be used for completion of the project. International collaborations are permitted but must be discussed with Pam Factor-Litvak (prf1) or Regina Santella (rps1) prior to submission. Since the major goal of this program is to assist in the development of collaborations and pilot data in support of an R01 or equivalent application, applicants must have either a professorial or a Research Scientist title.; Instructions for Submission: The written application should be no more than 5 pages, exclusive of references, budget and biosketches and include the following sections: (A) Title Page (1 page maximum, title, investigators and affiliations, abstract); (B) Specific Aims (1 page maximum); (C) Background; (D) Goals; (E) Future Plans, including a timeline for submission to NIH; (F) Budget and Justification (may include reasonable salary support for the PI); (G) NIH Formatted Biosketches for all Key Personnel (in new NIH format); Review Criteria and Mechanism: An Internal Review Committee will review all proposals.; Contacts: Investigators interested in submitting applications are encouraged to discuss them with Pam Factor-Litvak (prf1) or Regina Santella (rps1). For administrative issues please contact Craig Kandell (ckk7). Proposals should be submitted electronically in a single Adobe file to Craig Kandell (ckk7).

CENTER / PROGRAM PROJECT AWARDS: DEAN’S INITIATIVE AWARDS TO PROMOTE NIH RESEARCH; PILOT FUNDING FOR CENTER/PROGRAM PROJECT AWARDS; PROPOSALS DUE OCTOBER 1, 2015: The Dean’s Office is seeking innovative and promising pilot proposals which will be necessary bases for developing successful Center or Program Project grants to NIH. Priority will be given to pilot proposals which are interdisciplinary in nature and that cross departments within the Mailman School of Public Health. We also encourage submissions with multiple PIs. We anticipate that 2 proposals will be funded. The goal is to support preliminary data and team development necessary to successfully funded proposals.; Pilot applications can request up to $75,000; pilots must be completed within two years. Applicants must check whether the NIH Institute or Center to which the full grant will be submitted accepts centers and program projects; contact us for examples. International collaborations are permitted but must be discussed with Pam Factor-Litvak (prf1) or Regina Santella (rps1) prior to submission. Since the major goal of this program is to assist in the development of collaborations and pilot data in support of a center or program project grant, applicants must have a professorial title of Associate Professor or Professor to be competitive for these types of NIH awards.; Instructions for Submission: The written application should be no more than 7 pages, exclusive of references, budget and biosketches and include the following sections: (A) Title Page (1 page maximum, title, investigators and affiliations, abstract); (B) Specific Aims (1 page maximum); (C) Background; (D) Goals of the center/program project, description of the coherence of the individual projects and cores, how project as a whole will be greater than the sum of the parts; (E) Future Plans, including a timeline for submission to NIH; (F) Budget and Justification (may include reasonable salary support for the PI); (G) NIH Formatted Biosketches for all Key Personnel (in new NIH format); Review Criteria and Mechanism: An Internal Review Committee will review all proposals.; Contacts: Investigators interested in submitting applications are encouraged to discuss them with Pam Factor-Litvak (prf1) or Regina Santella (rps1). For administrative issues please contact Craig Kandell (ckk7). Proposals should be submitted electronically in a single Adobe file to Craig Kandell (ckk7).;

Link(s): http://www.bwfund.org/grant-programs/biomedical-sciences/career-awards-medical-scientists; Subject: Funding Opportunity; The Burroughs Wellcome Fund Career Awards for Medical Scientists (CAMS); Overview: CAMS is a highly competitive program that provides $700,000 in support over five years for physician scientists (M.D., D.O., D.V.M., D.D.S.), who are committed to an academic career, to bridge postdoctoral/fellowship training and the early years of faculty service.; Proposals must be in the area of basic biomedical, disease oriented, or translational research. Proposals in health services research or involving large-scale clinical trials are not eligible. BWF anticipates making 12 to 14 awards for the upcoming cycle. In addition, up to two awards will be made to clinically trained psychiatrists who focus their research at the interface between psychiatry and neuroscience.; New for 2016 Program Cycle Beginning with the August 2015 deadline, CAMS will move from an institutional nomination to self-nomination process. Self-nominations will remove the limit of applications per institution and diversify the applicant pool. Proposals will only be accepted from degree-granting institutions in the U.S. or Canada. They will solicit around 80 -90 full proposals from the best preproposals. The preproposals are due on August 5.; To learn more please go to the Burroughs Wellcome Fund CAMS website http://www.bwfund.org/grant-programs/biomedical-sciences/career-awards-medical-scientists; This information was forwarded to our attention by Greg Culler; Associate Director | Research Initiatives; Columbia | Research; Office of the Executive Vice President for Research; Columbia University in the City of New York; 408A Low Memorial Library, MC 4312; 535 West 116th Street; New York, New York 10027; Phone: (212) 854-6285; Email: gregory.culler@columbia.edu;

The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Future of Nursing Scholars program seeks to develop the next generation of PhD-prepared nurse leaders who are committed to long-term careers that advance science and discovery, strengthen nursing education, and bring transformational change to nursing and health care. Schools with research-focused PhD programs in nursing are eligible to apply for the 2016 cohort, which will support up to 75 Scholars across the selected schools. Program funds should be used to increase the number of PhD nursing students who are admitted to the selected schools.

Additional Information: The latest NIH Items of Interest contains good information regarding the importance of maintaining the Personal Profile in the eRA Commons. The Personal Profile must be fully complete and current. It can delay the submission of proposals and progress reports, as the profile information pre-populates in several other systems and causes errors if not complete. The profiles also pre-populate in the new NIH Biosketches if using SciENcv to create them. Take a look at the information below, and please forward to postdocs and students supported on NIH awards as a reminder to maintain their profiles! In addition, the newsletter below has a reminder about the upcoming 2015 NIH Regional Seminar in San Diego, taking place October 14th - 16th. See details below.; Steph: NIH eRA Items of Interest — July 2015; Keeping Your Personal Profile Up to Date; Seriously, why is it so hard to find a dude dressed like a barber pole? But then again, it is sometimes hard to for us to find and contact people within our own eRA Commons system. Although, really, it shouldn’t be. Unless of course those people haven’t kept their Personal Profile up to date. Then it can be like looking for Waldo in a candy cane factory. Maintaining your Personal Profile is critical for successful interaction with NIH staff and awards processing. And here is why, section by section … Name and ID Section: The Personal Profile data is used to help identify you in cases where two or more people have very similar names. Data fields in this section can be used to correctly identify the account as yours. With almost 400,000 accounts in Commons, you can see why this might be important. And I’m talking to you, John Smith. Also of critical importance is the Email Address for account-related communications. Keep this current! This is the email address we use to send you a temporary password should you forget yours, or lock the account. If you are using an email address given to you by your organization, but then change organizations, you may lose access to that account. Demographics Section: The information from this section helps NIH track how it is doing providing funding as it relates to race, gender, ethnicity, and disability. Each option must have a response, even if the response is “Do not wish to provide.”; Again, while the data is not required, it does help NIH with statistical reporting.; Employment Section: NIH takes many steps to ensure all applicants receive unbiased reviews of their applications. One part of this commitment is to remove any conflict of interests reviewers may have with the applications they are asked to review.; Accurate and up-to-date information in the Employment section is used to identify potential conflicts of interests.; Reviewer Section: What is important about this section is that all PIs, with or without the Internet Assisted Review (IAR) role, are required to complete and maintain this information. So don’t let the tile name fool you. If you are not a reviewer, you still need to complete and maintain the information requested in the section. Of course the left side of the form will let you know what required information is still missing.; If you do have the IAR role, then you have volunteered to share your scientific expertise by making yourself available to review grant applications. And as such, this section must absolutely be completed and maintained.; NIH uses the data in this section to contact you for reviews; determine eligibility for payment for review services; and determine your status for Continuous Submission.; Continuous Submission is a way to help recognize outstanding service in the NIH peer review process and on NIH Advisory Groups by allowing you to submit your research grant applications (R01, R21, or R34) on a continuous basis and to have those applications undergo initial peer review in a timely manner.; Education Section: The Education data is another important aspect of your profile. The data concerning terminal degree and medical residency are used to calculate your eligibility for New and Early Stage Investigator classifications. Applications from Early Stage Investigators (ESIs), like those from all New Investigators, are given special consideration during peer review and at the time of funding. Peer reviewers are instructed to focus more on the proposed approach than on the track record, and to expect less preliminary information than might be provided by an established investigator.; Based on the information provided in the Personal Profile, your status as an Early Stage Investigator will be determined and displayed. If this information is not accurate, you may not be granted the ESI classification and miss out on the advantages that it provides.; To borrow a concept from a colleague, if we ever write a document called The Ten Top Ways Not to Get Funded, having an incomplete or inaccurate Personal Profile will definitely make the list! So review your profile today! Make sure it is complete and make sure it is up to date.; So if you don’t want to feel like Waldo in an Austrian flag factory, be sure to check out the Online Help for the Commons Personal Profile and our video tutorial Personal Profile Overview.; Joseph K Schumaker; eRA Communication Specialist, Communications and Documentation; OD/OER/ORIS/eRA; Direct Line: 301.451.5958; Cell: 240.383.7653; email:joseph.schumaker@nih.gov; Electronic Research Administration (eRA); http://era.nih.gov/help/; New eRA Commons Online Help System is now available, accessible from within Commons.; eRA Electronic Research Administration; NIH Office of Extramural Research; era.nih.gov;

The LRP may repay up to $35,000 of qualified student loan debt per year to outstanding health professionals who commit at least two years to conduct biomedical, behavioral, social, or clinical research. This includes most undergraduate, graduate, and medical school loans. Loan repayment benefits are in addition to the institutional salary received for research.; The NIH will begin accepting applications on September 1, 2015. Applications are limited to one per year. The deadline for applications is November 16th, 2015, 8pm EST.; All applications must be completed and submitted online at: http://www.lrp.nih.gov/index.aspx (note that as of today, it does not appear NIH updated the LRP website with the new 2016 application cycle information); While completing the online application, the Institutional Approver for Columbia University is William Berger at wb2174@columbia.edu of Sponsored Projects Administration.; The five following program areas are included as part of the LRP: () Clinical Research (NOT-OD-15-121); () Pediatric Research (NOT-OD-15-122); () Health Disparities Research (NOT-OD-15-123); () Contraception and Infertility Research (NOT-OD-15-124); () Clinical Research for Individuals from Disadvantaged Backgrounds (NOT-OD-15-125); Pay special attention to the eligibility requirements and commitment obligations, as each announcement has its own criteria.; Please note: Recipients of a Ruth L. Kirschstein National Research Service Award (NRSA) support from an individual postdoctoral fellowship (F32) or an institutional research training grant (T32) will be eligible for loan repayment during the second year of NRSA support if a formal extension of the NRSA service payback is granted (see http://grants1.nih.gov/training/payback.htm). Concurrent fulfillment of LRP and NRSA service obligations is prohibited. A deferral form can be obtained by contacting the LRP Help Line at 866-849-4047 and should be submitted prior to acceptance into the LRP. Please share this announcement with those who may be interested. Questions should be directed to the NIH Loan Repayment Program at lrp@nih.gov or 866-849-4047.; [This information was brought to our attention by] Stephanie F. Additional Information: Next Application due date Aug 20, 2015; The National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA) Cutting-Edge Basic Research Award (CEBRA) is designed to foster highly innovative or conceptually creative research related to drug abuse and addiction and how to prevent and treat them. It supports research that is high-risk and potentially high-impact that is underrepresented or not included in NIDA's current portfolio. The proposed research should: (1) test a highly novel and significant hypothesis for which there are scant precedent or preliminary data and which, if confirmed, would have a substantial impact on current thinking; and/or (2) develop or adapt innovative techniques or methods for addiction research, or that have promising future applicability to drug abuse research.; Contact: Susan Volman, Ph.D.; National Institute on Drug Abuse; Telephone: 301-435-1315; Email: svolman@mail.nih.gov; []

[NTW] [DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE (DOD)] Title: PRE-APPLICATION DEADLINE EXTENDED! FY15 DOD GWIRP Program Announcements (UNCLASSIFIED)
Sponsor: DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE (DOD); Deadline(s): 10/15/2015; 10/29/2015;
Contact: Point of Contact: CDMRP Help Desk; 301-682-5507; help@eBrap.org;
Link(s): http://cdmrp.army.mil; http://cdmrp.army.mil;
Additional Information: Classification: UNCLASSIFIED; Caveats: NONE; The DoD CDMRP Gulf War Illness Research Program (GWIRP) was initiated in 2006 to provide support for research of exceptional scientific merit to study the health effects of deployment to the 1990-1991 Persian Gulf War. The GWIRP is currently focusing funding on innovative projects that have the potential to make a significant impact on the treatment of the complex of symptoms known as Gulf War Illness (GWI). To help achieve this mission, the DoD GWIRP has released several mechanisms spanning basic research to large clinical trials. Brief descriptions of these funding opportunities are below. The full FY15 GWIRP Program Announcements and General Application Instructions can be found on the CDMRP website (http://cdmrp.army.mil). Pre-application deadlines have been extended to August 13, 2015 and application deadline is October 29, 2015.; Clinical Trial Award - Supports large clinical trials (phase II or III or FDA device class I-III) focusing on treatments for GWI. Maximum funding of $1,500,000 direct costs (plus indirect costs) with a 4 year period of performance. Up to 3 Partnering PIs with an additional maximum funding of $1,000,000 each for direct costs (plus indirect costs) are allowed.; Innovative Treatment Evaluation Award - Supports small-scale, early clinical trial evaluations (pilot phase 0, I, and I/II) of innovative treatments not previously studied in GWI. Maximum funding of $700,000 direct costs (plus indirect costs) with a 3 year period of performance.; Investigator Initiated Research Award - Supports new ideas in basic and clinical developmental research focusing on GWI. Maximum funding of $450,000 direct costs (plus indirect costs) with a 3 year period of performance.; Epidemiology Research Award - Supports population-based research to obtain a better understanding of mortality, morbidity and symptomatology over time in veterans with Gulf War illness (GWI). Maximum funding of $975,000 direct costs (plus indirect costs) with a 4 year period of performance.; In addition to the opportunities listed above, the GWIRP is offering a New Investigator Award to support investigators new to the field of GWI research at different stages of career development. This award enables such investigators to compete for funding separately from investigators with established programs of GWI research. PIs may apply under one of the following three eligibility categories: current senior postdoctoral fellows who have completed at least 3 years of postdoctoral training; independent investigators who are within 5 years of their last training position; and established independent investigators at all academic levels (or equivalent) who have received less than $300,000 in federally funded, non-mentored funding for GWI research. Maximum funding is $500,000 direct costs (plus indirect costs) with a 3 year period of performance.; The FY15 GWIRP NIA Program Announcement and General Application Instructions can be found on the CDMRP website (http://cdmrp.army.mil). Pre-application and application deadlines are October 15, 2015 and October 29, 2015, respectively;

| NIH Guide Notice; Dr. Sally Rockey blogged re revised transition time line: NOT-OD-14-103; October 17 Commons Release Notes; Commons Online Help System; eRA Help Desk at http://grants.nih.gov/supported/; | |
| Additional Information: I wanted to forward the latest NIH eRA Items of Interest to you to highlight a new video created by the NIH on using the eRA Commons for grants closeout. Closing out a grant properly is a very important part of the grants lifecycle, and there can be serious consequences if final progress reports, financial reports, and invention statements are not filed in a timely manner. The video is seven minutes long and demonstrates how to: (-)Initiate the closeout process; (-) Access required reports; (-) Respond to Final Progress Report Additional Materials (FRAM) requests.; This video, as well as other NIH tutorials, can be found at http://era.nih.gov/era_training/era_videos.cfm#closeout.; | |

Additional Information: Dear fellow members of the Columbia community: As you may have seen in the media, Dr. Craig Spencer is being treated for Ebola at Bellevue Hospital in Manhattan. Dr. Spencer, an emergency department physician at NewYork-Presbyterian/Columbia University Medical Center, recently returned from a humanitarian mission with Doctors Without Borders to one of the outbreak areas in Western Africa. We admire and appreciate all of those willing to do this vital and selfless public health work around the globe.; It’s critical to bear in mind what our public health and infectious disease experts have emphasized – that the risk to people in New York City and at Columbia remains extremely low. If you or anyone has any concerns, please visit the University’s Ebola Preparedness site or the New York City Department of Health Ebola update page. You may also contact Student Health Services at 212-854-2284 or Workforce Health and Safety for Faculty/Staff with Hospital Responsibilities at 212-305-7590.;

We must keep Dr. Spencer in our thoughts and wish him a full and speedy recovery, as we do the vulnerable populations he serves. We will also continue to keep the Columbia community informed as we learn more from City, State, and Federal health officials.; Sincerely, Lee C. Bollinger;

Additional Information: Dear Colleagues, By now, many of you have learned that a New York Presbyterian physician, Dr. Craig Spencer, who recently returned from treating patients in Guinea, has tested positive for Ebola. I ask you all to keep Dr. Spencer, who is a 2013 Mailman School graduate, in your thoughts, and to acknowledge that the extraordinary efforts of our alumni, current students, and faculty continue to play a critical role in the containment, treatment, and understanding of this outbreak. At a moment of global distress, public health knowledge is vital. It is important to recognize that this crisis will continue, and that all available scientific information suggests the risk of transmission here is extremely low.; Dr. Spencer’s commitment is among many noteworthy examples of our colleagues passing seamlessly from science to service. As we move through this global crisis, we must all take pride in that commitment. ; Sincerely, Linda;

Additional Information: As we get closer to October 2014, I wanted to remind investigators and administrators of the new NIH progress reporting requirement regarding eRA Commons IDs. Postdocs, graduate and undergraduate students supported on NIH awards must have eRA Commons IDs, with complete eRA Commons Personal Profiles. Beginning with NIH progress reports due October 2014, NIH will not accept progress reports that have missing eRA Commons IDs and incomplete profiles. As you are aware, if NIH rejects a progress report, that could delay issuance of the next year’s funding. Complete eRA Commons profiles are just as important as the ID itself. NIH can reject the progress report if the following fields are not complete in the profiles: date of birth, gender, race, ethnicity, disabilities, US citizenship status and country of citizenship. Some fields have “I Do Not Wish to Provide” as one of the acceptable responses. For those who have completed undergraduate or graduate degrees (graduate students and postdoctoral researchers), the highest educational degree, the degree date, and the institution where it was earned also should be completed. Tutorials on the eRA Commons Personal Profile can be found at eRA Commons Manage Personal Profile.; If you have graduate and undergraduate students supported on NIH grants who do not have eRA Commons IDs, please have them request an eRA Commons account from SPA at SPA-eBiz@columbia.edu. ; Finally, the Research Performance Progress Report (RPPR) format will be required for all Type 5 non-SNAP progress reports beginning October 17th, 2014 (the paper PHS 2590 forms are being phased out). See NOT-OD-14-092. As we get closer to October 2014, I wanted to remind investigators and administrators of the new NIH progress reporting requirement regarding eRA Commons IDs. Postdocs, graduate and undergraduate students supported on NIH awards must have eRA Commons IDs, with complete eRA Commons Personal Profiles. Beginning with NIH progress reports due October 2014, NIH will not accept progress reports that have missing eRA Commons IDs and incomplete profiles. As you are aware, if NIH rejects a progress report, that could delay issuance of the next year’s funding. Complete eRA Commons profiles are just as important as the ID itself. NIH can reject the progress report if the following fields are not complete in the profiles: date of birth, gender, race, ethnicity, disabilities, US citizenship status and country of citizenship. Some fields have “I Do Not Wish to Provide” as one of the acceptable responses. For those who have completed undergraduate or graduate degrees (graduate students and postdoctoral researchers), the highest educational degree, the degree date, and the institution where it was earned also should be completed. Tutorials on the eRA Commons Personal Profile can be found at eRA Commons Manage Personal Profile.; If you have graduate and undergraduate students supported on NIH grants who do not have eRA Commons IDs, please have them request an eRA Commons account from SPA at SPA-eBiz@columbia.edu. ; Finally, the Research Performance Progress Report (RPPR) format will be required for all Type 5 non-SNAP progress reports beginning October 17th, 2014 (the paper PHS 2590 forms are being phased out). Additional Information: This is a reminder that beginning October 2014, Research Performance Progress Reports (RPPRs) lacking an eRA Commons ID for graduate and undergraduate students will receive an error and the RPPR will not be accepted by the NIH without this information. RPPRs that are not accepted could delay issuance of Notice of Grant Awards. See full NIH notice at NOT-OD-13-097. Currently, warnings appear in the eRA Commons screens to alert individuals identified as undergraduate students, graduate students, and postdoctoral researchers that the following fields should be completed in their eRA Commons profiles: date of birth, gender, race, ethnicity, disabilities, US citizenship status and country of citizenship. Some fields have “I Do Not Wish to Provide” as one of the acceptable responses. Beginning on October 1, 2014, those fields in the eRA Commons screens will be required for individuals identified in any of those three roles. If you have graduate and undergraduate students supported on NIH grants who do not have eRA Commons IDs, please have them request an eRA Commons account from SPA at SPA-eBiz@columbia.edu. In addition, graduate and undergraduate students, and postdoctoral researchers should complete their Personal Profiles in the eRA Commons, ensuring all fields listed above are complete. Posted on July 17, 2014 by Sally Rockey and Francis Collins; In these times of tight budgets and rapidly evolving science, we must consider new ways to invest biomedical research dollars to achieve maximum impact—to turn scientific discoveries into better health as swiftly as possible. We do this by thinking strategically about the areas of research that we support, as well as the process by which we fund that research. …. We often hear from investigators at all career stages that they spend a significant portion of their careers writing grant applications, consuming precious time that could otherwise be spent conducting research. …. Dear PIs and Administrators, If you are planning to prepare and submit an NIH multi-project application over the next several months, please let me know. Examples of multi-project grant mechanisms include, but are not limited to, P01, P30, P50, and U19. All multi-project Funding Opportunity Announcements (FOAs) now require proposals to be submitted electronically using ASSIST (Application Submission System and Interface for Submission Tracking). For a listing of all multi-project FOAs, go to http://grants.nih.gov/searchGuide/ComplexOnly.cfm. If you plan to submit a multi-project application in the coming months, please contact me and your SPA Project Officer and we will schedule a time to meet to provide you with training and guidance. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions. Our website contains many ASSIST resources: http://spa.columbia.edu/electronic-systems/assist. Thank you: Stephanie F. The Columbia University Medical Center IRB Office has a standing “IRB Consultation Hour”. This service provides an opportunity for researchers to stop in at the IRB office and meet with an IRB professional to discuss regulatory, policy, and procedural questions. The sessions are scheduled for every Tuesday from 10 am to 11 am. No appointment is necessary. The IRB office is located at 154 Haven Avenue, 1st Floor. Attendees should sign in at the IRB receptionist desk, and will meet with IRB staff in the order of arrival. If situations warrant, individual consultations may be limited to 15 minutes. Important Note: If you have questions about a protocol that has already been submitted to the IRB, please contact the staff members who administer the IRB to which the protocol is assigned rather than bringing those questions to a Consultation Hours session. Staff contact information may be obtained on the IRB website: http://www.cumc.columbia.edu/dept/irb/

Researchers may also call in during these times, to the IRB main number, for consultation: 212.305.5883.

Additional Information: Dear Colleagues: The Office of the Executive Vice President of Research (EVPR), including the Office of Postdoctoral Affairs, and the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences (GSAS) are pleased to announce the introduction of an individual development plan (IDP) program for National Institutes of Health (NIH)-funded graduate students and postdoctoral researchers (postdocs). An IDP consists of a self-assessment of skills, interests and values that guides the development of short and long term plans to achieve career goals. In 2012, the NIH published a task force report on the current state of the biomedical workforce which found, among other things, that universities need to better prepare biomedical graduate students and postdocs for a broad range of career opportunities beyond academia. As one of a number of initiatives designed to address the recommendations of the task force, the NIH issued a policy, released on July 23, 2013 and revised on August 4, 2014 (http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-14-113.html), that does not require, but strongly encourages recipients of NIH awards to develop and use IDPs for graduate students and postdocs supported by the NIH. In addition, the revised policy provides that, beginning on October 1, 2014, annual progress reports relating to NIH awards must include a description of whether or not the institution uses IDPs and how they are employed to help manage the training and career development of graduate students and postdocs associated with such awards. The University’s IDP program will begin later this month and will include seminars on topics relating to the development of an IDP. Optional workshops will assist participants in completing an IDP. Career panels and networking events will be held to offer opportunities for participants to learn more about potential career options and the skills and experiences needed to gain employment in a wide array of fields. Complete IDP program details, including registration information, can be found at https://www2.gsas.columbia.edu/idp. Faculty members should strongly encourage their NIH-funded graduate student and postdocs to register and participate in the IDP program. A description of the Columbia IDP program to be utilized in progress reports can be found at https://www2.gsas.columbia.edu/idp/node/3#summary. NEW ITEMS FROM THE NIH

Title: [NIH-Investigators] Reminder for NIH-Investigators: eRA Commons IDs and Complete Profiles;
Sponsor: NIH eRA Commons IDs and Complete Profiles;
Deadline(s): Starting in October 2014;
Contact: Stephanie F. Scott, M.S., CRA; Communications and Outreach Director; Sponsored Projects Administration (SPA); Columbia University; Morningside Ph: 212-854-0606; CUMC Ph: 212-305-1641; Email: sfs2110@columbia.edu;
Website: http://spa.columbia.edu/;
Link(s): eRA Commons Manage Personal Profile; http://era.nih.gov/reg_accounts/manage_personal_profile.cfm;
Additional Information: Complete Profiles Required for Students and Postdocs; As we get closer to October 2014, I wanted to remind investigators and administrators of the new NIH progress reporting requirement regarding eRA Commons IDs. Postdocs, graduate and undergraduate students supported on NIH awards must have eRA Commons IDs, with complete eRA Commons Personal Profiles. Beginning with NIH progress reports due October 2014, NIH will not accept progress reports that have missing eRA Commons IDs and incomplete profiles. As you are aware, if NIH rejects a progress reports, that could delay issuance of the next year’s funding.; Complete eRA Commons profiles are just as important as the ID itself. NIH can reject the progress report if the following fields are not complete in the profiles: date of birth, gender, race, ethnicity, disabilities, US citizenship status and country of citizenship. Some fields have “I Do Not Wish to Provide” as one of the acceptable responses. For those who have completed undergraduate or graduate degrees (graduate students and postdoctoral researchers), the highest educational degree, the degree date, and the institution where it was earned also should be completed. Tutorials on the eRA Commons Personal Profile can be found at eRA Commons Manage Personal Profile.; If you have graduate and undergraduate students supported on NIH grants who do not have eRA Commons IDs, please have them request an eRA Commons account from SPA at SPA-eBiz@columbia.edu. ;

Title: The Research Performance Progress Report (RPPR);
Sponsor: NIH;
Deadline(s): starting October 17, 2014;

RPPRs that are not accepted could delay issuance of Notice of Grant Awards. See full NIH notice at NOT-
Currently, warnings appear in the eRA Commons screens to alert individuals identified as undergraduate students, graduate students, and postdoctoral researchers that the following fields should be completed in their eRA Commons profiles: date of birth, gender, race, ethnicity, disabilities, US citizenship status and country of citizenship. From Stephanie F. Scott, M.S., CRA; Communications and Outreach Director; Sponsored Projects Administration (SPA); “NIH eSubmission Items of Interest” (June 4, 2014) (see below). In particular, it addresses the new Biosketch Pilot program, tips on using non-standard characters in form fields, and the cover letter attachment.
Don’t Forget the eSubmission Basics: I had the privilege of spending some time last week with the eRA Commons Help Desk and posed the question - “If you could tell the applicant community one thing about application submission what would it be?” I was a bit surprised to hear the same key messages that we have been pushing for years. On the other hand, that’s why we consider them ‘the eSubmission basics’.

So, here’s a quick reminder…

- Watch out for form fields required by NIH that are not marked required on federal-wide forms (e.g. Credential for PD/PIs and Organization for all entries on R&R Sr/Key Person Profile form; primary site DUNS on Project/Performance Sites form).
- Use PDF format for all attachments. Follow PDF Guidelines.
- Submit early – days, not minutes – to allow time to correct unforeseen errors.
- Track your submission in eRA Commons. Email can be unreliable.
- Check your entire assembled application image in eRA Commons. If you can’t view it, we can’t review it!
- If federal system issues threaten your on-time submission you need to notify the help desk and follow the Guidelines for Applicants Experiencing System Issues.

Impact of Biosketch Pilot on Non-pilot Applications: Did you see in the NIH Guide (NOT-OD-14-091) or in Rock Talk (Changes to the Biosketch) that NIH is piloting a new biosketch format? The pilot directly impacts applicants applying to a few Funding Opportunity Announcements (FOAs) (e.g., RFA-NR-15-001), but there is an immediate indirect impact to all applicants as well. In order to accommodate the pilot applications, eRA has changed the way we systematically validate the biosketch page limit for all applications. Specifically, a warning will fire if you submit a 5 page biosketch and an error will fire if your biosketch is over 5 pages. Applicants to pilot FOAs can ignore the 5-page warning, but everyone else should take action or risk post-submission rejection of their applications. After your application moves forward to NIH staff, we will do a manual check of the biosketches in applications to FOAs not participating in the pilot. If your non-pilot FOA requires 4 pages, but you included 5 and ignored the warning, then your application may not be reviewed. Applicants must read and follow all FOA and application guide instructions – even those that aren’t enforced by electronic systems.

Non-standard Characters in Form Fields: Although NIH systems now support a broader character set including Greek and other non-standard characters, Grants.gov systems currently do not. When completing application form fields type content directly from your keyboard. Avoid cutting and pasting from Word and other word processors- they often convert your plain text to rich text (e.g. Word converts quotes to ‘smart quotes’ that curve towards the text between them and combines two dashes into one long em-dash.) Also, keep your text as simple as possible. The following characters are typically ‘safe’: letters, numbers, spaces, underscores, periods, dashes (not em-dashes), quotes (not smart quotes), parentheses, brackets, ampersands, tilde, exclamation points, commas, colons, semicolons, at signs, number signs, dollar signs, percent signs, plus signs, equal signs, and asterisks. Limit your use of fancier characters to the body of your PDF attachments.

Submitting Applications with more than 5 Budget Periods: Although NIH typically allows only 5 budget periods to be submitted with grant applications, from time to time you will come across a FOA that allows more than 5 budget periods. Most NIH FOAs include the R&R Budget form which only accommodates data collection for 5 budget periods leaving applicants wondering what to do with the rest of the data. Applicants have been forced to use a rather clunky ‘workaround’ that includes adding the additional budget period information in the budget justification. eRA has just added system support for Grants.gov’s R&R Budget 10YR form that will allow for the collection of up to 10 budget periods of data. Going forward, this form will be included with the few, special FOAs that allow more than 5 budget periods. The bulk of NIH FOAs will continue to use the standard R&R Budget form.

Transition to FORMS-C To Complete in August: If it seems like I’ve been talking about transitioning to FORMS-C for a year – I have. On May 30, 2013, we announced our first transition to updated application forms (FORMS-C) for application due dates on/after September 25, 2013 (NOT-OD-13-074). The Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) and Small Business Technology Transfer (STTR) programs are our last remaining programs to use the older forms. These programs are scheduled to transition to FORMS-C for due dates on/after August 5, 2014 (NOT-OD-14-089) marking the end of a rather lengthy transition. Believe it or not, this summer my friends in policy will start pulling together requirements for the next OMB clearance of the PHS (agency-specific) forms used in our applications (they expire in August 2015). Before you know it we’ll be talking about ‘FORMS-D’ forms. For now, let’s celebrate getting through this one. Woo-hoo!

CYA: Cover Your Application - that’s what you thought I was talking about – right? NIH form packages no longer use a separate, agency-specific PHS Cover Letter form. The version of the SF424 (R&R) cover form included in FORMS-C packages has a new Cover Letter Attachment (item #21 at the very bottom of the form). If you plan to include a cover letter with your application – use this Cover Letter Attachment only! The eRA systems know to keep this attachment separate from your assembled application image and to limit access to it. If you attach it someplace else (e.g., Pre-application attachment on the SF424 (R&R) cover form, Other Attachments on the R&R Other Project Information form) it will become part of your assembled application image and will be visible to everyone with access to your application including reviewers.

[NIH-Investigators] Reminder-eRA Commons IDs and Complete Profiles Required for Students and Postdocs

This is a reminder that beginning October 2014, Research Performance Progress Reports (RPPRs) lacking an eRA Commons ID for graduate and undergraduate students will receive an error and the RPPR will not be accepted by the NIH without this information. RPPRs that are not accepted could delay issuance of Notice of Grant Awards. See full NIH notice at NOT-OD-13-097.

Currently, warnings appear in the eRA Commons screens to alert individuals identified as undergraduate students, graduate students, and postdoctoral researchers that the following fields should be completed in their eRA Commons profiles: date of birth, gender, race, ethnicity, disabilities, US citizenship status and country of citizenship. Some fields have “I Do Not Wish to Provide” as one of the acceptable responses. For those who have completed undergraduate or graduate degrees (graduate students and postdoctoral researchers), the highest educational degree, the degree date, and the institution where it was earned also should be completed. Beginning on October 1, 2014, those fields in the eRA Commons screens will be required for individuals identified in any of those three roles.
If you have graduate and undergraduate students supported on NIH grants who do not have eRA Commons IDs, please have them request an eRA Commons account from SPA at SPA-eBiz@columbia.edu. In addition, graduate and undergraduate students, and postdoctoral researchers should complete their Personal Profiles in the eRA Commons, ensuring all fields listed above are complete. Tutorials on the Personal Profile can be found at eRA Commons Manage Personal Profile.

RPPRs will be required for all Type 5 non-SNAP progress reports beginning October 17th, 2014 (the paper PHS 2590 forms are being phased out). See NOT-OD-14-092. If you are not yet familiar with the RPPR format, resources are available at http://grants.nih.gov/grants/rppr/. Therefore, if you have students supported on non-SNAP awards, now is the time to ensure they have eRA Commons profiles completed. Please share this information with your students and postdocs who are supported on NIH grants. If you have any questions, you may contact me, or your assigned SPA Project Officer.

RPPR Required for Non-SNAP Progress Reports Beginning October 17, 2014

NIH currently requires use of the fed-wide progress reporting format — known as the RPPR (Research Performance Progress Report) — to submit progress reports for Streamlined Non-competing Award Process (SNAP), fellowship, and multi-year funded awards. In April we opened the RPPR for use for all Type 5 Non-SNAP progress reports in anticipation of an October 2014 requirement for RPPR use. Now, it’s official — all type 5 non-SNAP progress reports submitted on or after October 17, 2014 need to be submitted through the RPPR module of eRA Commons. … Continue reading →

Promoting Research Integrity: Building the Foundation of Trust

Exemplifying and promoting the highest level of scientific integrity, public accountability, and social responsibility in the conduct of science are among NIH’s main goals as an agency. Research integrity is not about being flawless. It is about conducting science using honest and verifiable methods, complying with rules and regulations and adhering to professional standards. Ultimately, it is also about trust, the foundation upon which the scientific research enterprise is built. We’ve recently updated our website on research integrity, … Continue reading →

You Ask, We Answer:

- Can I Resubmit My Grant Application While It Is Under Appeal of the Initial Peer Review Results?
- What is the Deadline for Resubmitting my Unfunded Application?
NIH REVISED SUBMISSION RULES

NIH & AHRQ just released more clarifications on the new resubmission policy. In this announcement are clarifications on due dates, applicability, time limits, and the various options PIs have. See NOT-OD-14-082: http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-14-082.html; I know this revised policy is important to you and has many implications. Please feel free to me or your assigned Project Officer questions. I am following up with additional information on the important announcement I sent last week regarding NIH and AHRQ’s new resubmission policy (see below). NIH just posted extensive FAQs describing various scenarios when you may submit applications as ‘new’ that were previously submitted, resubmitted and not funded (including competing renewal applications that were not funded). Refer to the following resources and articles: FAQs: http://grants.nih.gov/grants/policy/resubmission_q&a.htm; The policy announcement: NOT-OD-14-074; A Change in Our Resubmission Policy – Rock Talk article explaining the reasons for the change; NIH Policy on Resubmission Applications; Science Magazine article; NIH to Relax ‘Two Strikes’ Grant Submission Policy; Deciding whether to submit an application as a resubmission or as a new submission can sometimes be complex. You may need to speak with an NIH Program Official or Program Director regarding your specific situation. Please feel free to ask me, or your SPA Project Officer, questions as they arise. Please read full announcement, NOT-OD-14-074 at http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-14-074.html

Effective immediately, for NIH and AHRQ applications due after April 16, 2014, following an unsuccessful resubmission (A1) application, applicants may submit the same idea as a new (A0) application for the next appropriate due date. The NIH and AHRQ will not assess the similarity of the science in the new (A0) application to any previously reviewed submission when accepting an application for review. Although a new (A0) application does not allow an introduction or responses to the previous reviews, the NIH and AHRQ encourage applicants to refine and strengthen all application submissions. Please read the full announcement for more details on the background of this policy change and the policy details. The NIH time limit for accepting resubmission (A1) applications remains in effect, as does the policy for New Investigator R01 resubmission deadlines. Stephanie F. Scott, M.S., CRA

Additional Information for the two above mentioned announcements: This Notice alerts grantees to a change in the implementation timeline, previously announced in NOT-OD-13-120 and NOT-OD-14-093, for the NIH transition to new U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) payment policies for domestic, non-competing continuation awards and use of Payment Management System (PMS) subaccounts. It also announces a change in how competitive revisions/administrative supplements (Type-3s) awards will be processed. This Notice only applies to domestic non-competing continuation awards that have not yet transitioned to PMS subaccounts. In response to critical feedback from the grantee community, NIH requested an amendment to its subaccount implementation plan to delay the transition of domestic, non-competing continuation awards to PMS subaccounts for an additional year; e.g., now beginning October 1, 2015. HHS’s Office of the Assistant Secretary for Financial Resources recently approved the request. This additional time is provided to allow grantees to prepare their systems to accommodate the changes. Grantees with inadequate systems in place to appropriately manage this transition by October 1, 2015, may be unable to appropriately access PMS accounts and risk losing their ability to draw down funding. Grantees are advised that there will be no additional implementation delays considered and no exceptions granted to the deadline. As of October 1, 2015, NIH will utilize only subaccounts for awarding grant funds. Every grant that is awarded funding in FY 2016 (whether it be in the first, second, third or fourth quarter of FY 2016) will be in a subaccount. NIH will continue transitioning payment of grant awards with new document numbers to domestic institutions to PMS subaccounts in FY 2015 as announced in Notice NOT-OD-13-120. The administrative changes announced in NOT-OD-14-093 will now apply to the transition that will occur between October 1, 2015 and September 30, 2016. This Notice reiterates those administrative changes for non-competing, continuation awards and highlights the revised implementation timelines and T-3 award process for all domestic awards.

There are specific exceptions to the Fly America Act that allow travelers to use Federal funds on foreign carriers, but only under certain circumstances. These exceptions can be quite complex to interpret. Therefore, our offices created a Fly America Exception Checklist and Decision Tree Diagram to assist travelers when booking flights internationally as part of the work to be done on a Federal sponsored project. In cases of exceptions, the Fly America Exception Checklist Form will need to accompany the Columbia Travel & Business Expense Report (TBER) to be submitted to AP. Appropriate back-up documentation should accompany the Checklist. The full policy and FAQs outline this process.

Anyone planning to travel internationally as part of work to be done on a Federally sponsored project is responsible for knowing and adhering to this policy. Please share this information with all faculty, administrators, postdocs and students who may be traveling internationally.

When questions arise that are related to the Fly America Act (for example, what is allowable vs. unallowable, Open Skies Agreement exceptions, etc.) you may contact your SPA Project Officer or myself. However, if you have specific questions about reimbursement of travel expenses or regarding your supporting travel documentation, you should contact AP through the Finance Service Center or call 212-854-2122. Thank you.

Thank you, Stephanie F. Scott, M.S., CRA: Communications and Outreach Director; Sponsored Projects; Administration (SPA); CUMC

The Fly America Act is a Federal regulation that states that any foreign air travel that is financed by Federal funds must be booked on U.S. Flag Air Carriers, regardless of cost or convenience. Only Federally funded sponsored projects are subject to this policy. The Fly America Act is not a new policy. Rather, our offices updated our existing policies, which now live in a central location in the Policy Library.

Additional Information: The Fiscal Year 2014 (FY14) Defense Appropriations Act provides $20 million (M) to the Department of Defense Gulf War Illness Research Program (GWIRP) to support innovative, high-impact research to improve the health and lives of veterans who have Gulf War Illness (GWI). The GWIRP is administered by the US Army Medical Research and Materiel Command (USAMRMC) through the Office of Congressionally Directed Medical Research Programs (CDMRP). The GWIRP is providing the information in this pre-announcement to allow investigators time to plan and develop applications. FY14 GWIRP Program Announcement and General Application Instructions for the following award mechanism are anticipated to be posted on Grants.gov in early September 2014. Pre-application and application deadlines will be available when the Program Announcements are released. This pre-announcement should not be construed as an obligation by the government.; Innovative Treatment Evaluation Award 2; () Independent investigators at all academic levels (or equivalent).; () Supports small-scale, early clinical trial evaluations of innovative treatments not previously studied in GWI.; () Pilot Phase II or Phase I/II clinical trial combinations are allowed. () Provides opportunity to obtain proof of principle data to support future clinical trials.; () Preliminary data are not required, and if provided, do not necessarily have to come from the GWI research field. () Studies with clear potential to move forward to Phase II/III clinical trials are encouraged.; () Collaboration with industry and/or academic partners is encouraged.; () Maximum funding of $450,000 for direct costs.; () Period of performance not to exceed 3 years.; () Indirect costs may be proposed in accordance with the institution's rate agreement.; (*) All applications must conform to the final Program Announcements and General Application Instructions that will be available for electronic downloading from the Grants.gov website. The application package containing the required forms for each award mechanism will also be found on Grants.gov. A listing of all USAMRMC funding opportunities can be obtained on the Grants.gov website by performing a basic search using CFDA Number 12.420. Applications must be submitted through the federal government's single-entry portal, Grants.gov. Submission deadlines are not available until the Program Announcements are released. Requests for email notification of the Program Announcements release may be sent to help@eBRAP.org. The PCRP Collaborative Undergraduate HBCU Student Summer Training Program, Exploration Hypothesis Development, Physician Research Training, and Postdoctoral Training Award funding opportunities will be released in early June 2014.

All funding opportunities, both recently and previously released, are available on the CDMRP website (http://cdmrp.army.mil). Subsequent notifications will be sent when additional funding opportunities are released. A listing of all CDMRP funding opportunities can be obtained on the Grants.gov website by performing a basic search using CFDA Number 12.420. New for 2014 - CDMRP’s New Application Receipt System (eBRAP). For FY14, CDMRP has replaced eReceipt with the electronic Biomedical Research Application Portal (eBRAP). As in the past, application submission is a two-step process requiring both (1) pre-application submission through the eBRAP (https://eBRAP.org/) and (2) application submission through Grants.gov (http://www.grants.gov/), with application status available on eBRAP. A key feature of eBRAP is that organizational representatives and Principal Investigators (PIs) will be able to view and modify their Grants.gov application submissions. Submission of either the pre-application to eBRAP or the application to Grants.gov does not require registering an organization and affiliating its Business Officials and PIs in eBRAP. However, you will only be able to view and modify your full application submission in the eBRAP system if you are accepted in eBRAP by the organization that is listed in blocks 5 & 19 of the S424 form in the Grants.gov application package. You will receive an email from the eBRAP system once this organization has accepted you. Please do not respond directly to this message. Department of Defense Ovarian Cancer Research Program; Funding Opportunities for Fiscal Year 2014 (FY14)

The FY14 Defense Appropriations Act provides $20 million (M) to the Department of Defense Ovarian Cancer Research Program (OCRP) to support innovative, high-impact ovarian cancer research. This program is administered by the US Army Medical Research and Materiel Command (USAMRMC) through the Office of Congressionally Directed Medical Research Programs (CDMRP).

FY14 OCRP Program Announcements and General Application Instructions for the following award mechanisms are available on the Grants.gov website.

New for 2014 - CDMRP’s New Application Receipt System (eBRAP)

For FY14, CDMRP has replaced eReceipt with the electronic Biomedical Research Application Portal (eBRAP). As in the past, application submission is a two-step process requiring both (1) pre-application submission through the eBRAP (https://eBRAP.org/) and (2) application submission through Grants.gov (http://www.grants.gov/), with application status available on eBRAP. A key feature of eBRAP is that organizational representatives and Principal Investigators (PIs) will be able to view and modify their Grants.gov application submissions, but only if their organization, Business Officials and PIs are registered and affiliated in eBRAP to the organization listed in blocks 5 & 19 of the Grants.gov SF424. Submission of either the pre-application to eBRAP or the application to Grants.gov does not require registering an organization and affiliating its Business Officials and PIs in eBRAP; however, the ability to view and modify the Grants.gov application in eBRAP is contingent upon this registration and affiliation process. Please do not respond directly to this message. To be added or removed from this email list please use the “Subscribe/unsubscribe to program specific news and updates at https://ebrap.org.
