[the contents of which are enclosed below]: 10/28/14; USING THE NYS GRANTS GATEWAY; All future Requests for Application (RFAs), questions, answers and modifications will be posted online and can be accessed through the New York State Department of Health's public website at: http://www.health.ny.gov/funding/ and the NYS Grants Gateway website at: https://www.grantsgateway.ny.gov/IntelliGrants_NYSGG/module/nysgg/goportal.aspx.; Letters of intent and applications must be submitted through the NYS Grants Gateway portal listed above. At this time, we strongly urge potential applicants to begin review the reference materials and training videos available for Grantees applying to funding opportunities on the NYS
Grants Gateway. Please visit the Grants Reform website at the following web address: http://grantsreform.ny.gov/Grantees and select the “Grantee Quick Start Guide” from the menu. There is also a more detailed “Grantee User Guide” available on this page. In order to access an online application and other documents required for submission, you must be registered and logged into the NYS Grants Gateway system in the user role of either a “Grantee” or a “Grantee Contract Signatory”. It is anticipated that your organization’s Grants Office may want to coordinate the registration process for individual researchers and others who may need access to the Grants Gateway and the Vendor Prequalification process. The following table provides a snapshot of which roles are allowed to Initiate, Complete, and Submit the Grant Application(s) in the Grants Gateway.

Additional tutorials are available at the following web address (and upon user log in): https://www.grantsgateway.ny.gov/IntelliGrants_NYSGG/module/nysgg/goportal.aspx. To apply for funding through an RFA, log into the Grants Gateway system and click on the View Opportunities button under View Available Opportunities. To get started, in the Search Criteria, enter the Grant Opportunity name and select Department of Health as the Funding Agency, then click on the Search button. Click on the name of the Grant Opportunity from the search results grid, then click on the APPLY FOR GRANT OPPORTUNITY button located on the bottom left of the main page of the Grant Opportunity. After an RFA is posted, we will provide you with a schedule of webinars that will provide instructions about how to access the RFA through the Gateway portal. Vendor Prequalification for Not-for-Profits: All not-for-profit vendors subject to prequalification are required to prequalify prior to grant application and execution of contracts. It is likely that your organization’s Grants Office or other administrative officials will be responsible for completing this process. Pursuant to the New York State Division of Budget Bulletin H-1032, dated June 7, 2013, New York State has instituted key reform initiatives to the grant contract process which requires not-for-profits to register in the Grants Gateway and complete the Vendor Prequalification process in order for applications to be evaluated. Information on these initiatives can be found on the Grants Reform Website. Applications received from not-for-profit applicants that have not Registered and are not Prequalified in the Grants Gateway on the application due date listed on the RFA cannot be evaluated. Such applications will be disqualified from further consideration. Below is a summary of the steps that must be completed to meet registration and prequalification requirements. The Vendor Prequalification Manual on the Grants Reform Website details the requirements and an online tutorial are available to walk users through the process.; 1) Register for the Grants Gateway: (*) On the Grants Reform Website, download a copy of the Registration Form for Administrator.
signed, notarized original form must be sent to the Division of Budget at the address provided in the instructions. You will be provided with a Username and Password allowing you to access the Grants Gateway. () If you have previously registered and do not know your Username, please email grantsreform@budget.ny.gov. If you do not know your Password, please click the Forgot Password () link from the main log in page and follow the prompts.; 2) Complete your Prequalification Application: () Log in to the Grants Gateway (). If this is your first time logging in, you will be prompted to change your password at the bottom of your Profile page. Enter a new password and click SAVE. () Click the Organization(s) link at the top of the page and complete the required fields including selecting the State agency you have the most grants with. This page should be completed in its entirety before you save. A Document Vault link will become available near the top of the page. Click this link to access the main Document Vault page. () Answer the questions in the Required Forms and upload Required Documents. This constitutes your Prequalification Application. Optional Documents are not required unless specified in this Request for Application. () Specific questions about the prequalification process should be referred to your agency representative or to the Grants Reform Team at grantsreform@budget.ny.gov.; 3) Submit Your Prequalification Application: () After completing your Prequalification Application, click the Submit Document Vault Link located below the Required Documents section to submit your Prequalification Application for State agency review. Once submitted the status of the Document Vault will change to In Review.; () If your Prequalification reviewer has questions or requests changes you will receive email notification from the Gateway system.; () Once your Prequalification Application has been approved, you will receive a Gateway notification that you are now prequalified to do business with New York State.;

[NTW] [INTERNAL (COLUMBIA) VETTING FOAS] Title: A New Public Health Promotion Innovation Pilot Research Project:
Sponsor: Lerner Center For Public Health Promotion;
Deadline(s): Proposals are due by 5:00 p.m. on Monday, December 15, 2014.;
Contact: Please email the application and all supporting documentation in one pdf document to gl2430@columbia.edu;
Additional Information: A Message from Dean Lind P. Fried; Dear Faculty, I am writing to inform you about a new Public Health Promotion Innovation Pilot Research Project (see RFA attached) being offered by the recently funded Lerner Center for Public Health Promotion at the Mailman School, within the Department of Sociomedical Sciences. The program will seek to award two, one-year grants at a maximum amount of $20,000 per award.; Each application must be proposed by faculty members: one faculty member from the Mailman School of Public Health and the other from another School at Columbia University. Funds may be used for faculty time, research assistance, administrative assistance, and other supporting materials required for the completion of the proposed project. Funds may be spent on any health promotion research that furthers the development of interdisciplinary collaboration and communication, as well as research related to utilizing cross-disciplinary approaches and health promotion/health communication techniques.; Proposals are due by 5:00 p.m. on Monday, December 15, 2014. Notice of Award is expected to be announced by Monday, January 19, 2015.; Sincerely, Lisa R. Metsch, PhD; Stephen Smith Professor and Chair of Sociomedical Sciences; Department of Sociomedical Sciences; Acting Director, Lerner Center for Public Health Promotion; Columbia University Mailman School of Public Health; and Linda P. Fried, MD, MPH; Dean and DeLamar Professor of Public Health; Columbia University Mailman School of Public Health; Senior Vice President, Columbia University; Medical Center ; Professor of Epidemiology and Medicine; Columbia University's Mailman School of Public Health; Lerner Center For Public Health Promotion; Public Health Promotion Innovation Pilot Research Project; GRANT APPLICATION PACKET; Health promotion and health communication play important roles in facilitating health, preventing disease, improving quality of life, and promoting health equity. The recently funded Lerner Center for Public Health Promotion (the Center) at Columbia University Mailman School of Public Health (MSPH) within the Department of Sociomedical Sciences seeks to link diverse expertise and promote interdisciplinary collaboration with the aim of fostering new solutions to critical and complex public health challenges affecting New Yorkers and the nation. The Center recognizes the large and well-documented gap between research and practice in public health. Interdisciplinary, translational health promotion is needed to put evidence-based messages, strategies, and policies into practice and widespread use, particularly where health disparities exist. To address this, the Center has established the Public Health Promotion Innovation Pilot Research Project grant program with the objectives to (1) foster cross-disciplinary initiatives to promote health and (2) enhance the capacity to conduct such initiatives by providing a one-year pilot project support.; The Public Health Promotion Innovation Pilot Project Scheme: During its first year, the Center will award two, one-year grants in the amount of up to $20,000. Applicants are welcome to combine the award with other sources of available funding. Funds may be spent on any health promotion research that furthers the development of interdisciplinary collaboration and communication, as well as research related to utilizing cross-disciplinary approaches and health promotion/health communication techniques. Grant awards may support activities such as health promotion or health communication initiatives, pilot testing, evaluations, research assistance costs, etc.; Public Health, Health Promotion, and Health Communication: Public health refers to the science of preventing disease, promoting health and prolonging life among the population as a whole, aiming to provide conditions in “Health promotion” is broadly defined as combinations of educational, political, regulatory, and organizational supports for behavior and environmental changes that are conducive to the health of individuals, groups or communities. Health promotion initiatives are directed at changing social, political, environmental, and economic conditions to support individual and population health. Within health promotion, “health communication” is the art and technique of informing, influencing and motivating individual, institutional and public audiences about important health issues. As a subfield of health promotion, health communication works to influence policy, regulation, practices, and programs that support desired behavior changes. Health communication can take many forms, ranging from the use of modern multi-media communications to traditional and culture-specific forms of communication.

With the increasing complexity of health information and healthcare settings, many people need additional information, skills, and supportive relationships to meet their health needs. Hence, one of the goals of Healthy People 2020 is to use health communication strategies and health information technology to improve population health outcomes and healthcare quality, and to achieve health equity.

[NTW][NEUROSCIENCES/SOCIETY/INTERDISCIPLINARY/INTERNAL (COLUMBIA) VETTING FOAS]
Title: Presidential Scholars in Society and Neuroscience Program; Seed Grants for Interdisciplinary Projects in Society and Neuroscience;
Sponsor: Columbia University, Presidential Scholars;
Deadline(s): All seed grant applications must be received in full by 5:00 p.m. EST on Monday, January 26, 2015;
Contact: For more information, please contact researchinitiatives@columbia.edu;
Link(s): NA;
Additional Information: REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS; Presidential Scholars in Society and Neuroscience Program; Seed Grants for Interdisciplinary Projects in Society and Neuroscience; The Presidential Scholars in Society and Neuroscience Program invites all full-time faculty at Columbia University and Barnard College to submit proposals for interdisciplinary projects that lie at the intersection of neuroscience and society and involve collaborative research among the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences.; Background: Over the last decade, Columbia University has assembled a distinguished group of neuroscientific researchers in the Zuckerman Mind Brain Behavior Institute which, with the infusion of new funds and a new building, stands poised to become one of the most important loci of neuroscience research in the world. Columbia University now seeks to supplement the groundbreaking experimental inquiry of the neuroscience faculty with systematic investigation into the conceptual underpinnings and the social foundations and consequences of such newly obtained knowledge. To address this need, President Bollinger has announced the Presidential Scholars in Society and Neuroscience Program to foster innovative research that crosses traditional disciplinary boundaries between the natural and social sciences and the humanities. This Program will (1) provide seed funding for crosscutting research initiatives undertaken by Columbia and Barnard full-time faculty members, and (2) train and foster a new generation of scholars in interdisciplinary research and orientation. These new scholars—the Presidential Scholars in Society and Neuroscience—will be recent doctoral graduates from across the humanities and/or social sciences, who have critical understandings of the cultural and social dimensions of mind, brain, and behavior. They will bring the perspective of disciplines in the humanities and social sciences to intensify and broaden the neuroscientific research base and to bring about transformative interdisciplinary research throughout the University. The Presidential Scholars will be joined by a large group of mentors and affiliated faculty from the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences. The Call for Applications for Presidential Scholars will be publicized in Fall 2014, with three Scholars to be appointed in July 2015.; Seed Grant Competition: In order to further University-wide interdisciplinary research by Columbia and Barnard full-time faculty in these important subjects, the Presidential Scholars in Society and Neuroscience Program funds annual seed grants. These pilot grants are provided to enable collaboration among faculty in the humanities and/or social sciences, and those in the natural sciences whose primary focus is the empirical study of mind, brain, and behavior. We request proposals from full-time faculty at Columbia University and Barnard College that contribute to these interdisciplinary goals. These proposals should outline interdisciplinary research that involves either direct collaboration between neuroscientists and researchers from other disciplines, or traverses traditional disciplinary boundaries in order to investigate issues relevant to society and neuroscience. Proposals should include itemized budget projections. The Presidential Scholars Steering Committee (with input from appropriate scholars) will review submitted proposals. Awards will be made of up to a total of $30,000 for projects of one to two year’s duration.; Proposals should describe clearly the research problem and its significance for society and neuroscience. Generally, proposals that involve research already in progress, or stand-alone curriculum development (although this could be an outcome of the proposed research), will not be funded. Only proposals with detailed budgets and budget justifications will be accepted, and priority will be given to proposals with concrete plans for developing and expanding the research by obtaining additional external funding. ; All seed grant applications must be received in full by 5:00 p.m. EST on Monday, January 26, 2015. Eligible proposals will then be evaluated based on the following criteria: () The intellectual merit and originality of the proposed project; () The extent to which the proposed research is interdisciplinary and collaborative; () The project’s feasibility, and the appropriate and judicious use of funds; () The plausibility of the investigators’ plan for seeking subsequent extramural funding beyond this pilot grant; () Background and experience of the investigator(s) for the proposed research; For this inaugural year of seed grant-making, approximately 3-5 grants of up to $30,000 each will be awarded.; Conditions of Receipt: Grant recipients must provide annual reports on project activities, including updates on external funding proposals (successful or unsuccessful), and any papers, publications, and/or reports resulting from seed grant activities. When applicable, research projects involving human subjects must obtain (and keep current) approval from Columbia University’s Institutional Review Board (IRB); Submitting Proposals: For more information, please contact researchinitiatives@columbia.edu. To apply, please submit the following as a single PDF document by 5:00 p.m. EST on Monday, January 26, 2015 to researchinitiatives@columbia.edu; mentioning “Seed Grants for Interdisciplinary Projects in Society and Neuroscience” in the subject line of the email: () Cover page, including title of proposal, principal investigators and their departments, an executive summary of the project, and the total funding amount sought; () Proposal narrative with timeline of research (no more than 10 pages double-spaced in 12-point font); () Itemized projected budget; () Budget narrative; () CVs for each investigator; () Figures or tables; () Bibliography and references cited; () Plan for securing external funding; () Letter of support for the project from principal investigators’ department, center, and/or institute chairs;

The deadline for receipt of full applications is April 9, 2015, by 5:00 PM local time of applicant organization.; Award Type(s): Requests For Applications (NIH); Research Grants/R & D; Citizenship/Country of Applying Institution: Any/No Restrictions; Locations Tenable: U.S.A. Institution (including U.S. Territories); Appl Type(s): Colleges/Universities; Faculty Member; For-Profit; HBCU; Hospital; Indian Tribes/Governing Orgs.; Laboratory; Minority Institution/Organization; Non-Profit; Organizations--Community/Soc. Serv.; Researcher/Investigator; Research Institutions/ Organizations; Small Business; Tax-exempt; Target Group(s): NONE; Funding Limit: $500,000 YEAR; Duration: 5 YEAR(s); Indirect Costs: Unspecified; Cost Sharing: No; Sponsor Type: NONE; Geo. Restricted: NO RESTRICTIONS; CFDA#: 93.847; OBJECTIVES: This FOA supports mechanistic research as well as clinical studies examining HIV infection, including relevant host conditions, ART, or other HIV-related therapies on metabolic/endocrine function and metabolic/endocrine-related outcomes, as well as the effects of other therapies proposed to mitigate HIV and/or ART-related adverse metabolic/endocrine perturbations in the HIV population. Given the advances in ART and the transition of HIV-associated morbidity from one of primarily acute opportunistic infections and immune dysfunction to one having chronic metabolic and/or endocrine complications, it will be important for health care providers caring for HIV-infected individuals to use the appropriate ART to adequately achieve viral suppression while simultaneously limiting medication-related metabolic/endocrine dysfunction. It is hoped that studies adequately addressing these issues will greatly improve our knowledge of HIV- and ART-associated metabolic and endocrine perturbations and will yield new approaches for the prevention, management, and treatment of HIV- and ART-associated adipose tissue/lipodystrophic changes, as well as disorders of glucose and lipid metabolism and other HIV-associated metabolic and endocrine perturbations. Proposed projects must also be related to the mission of the Division of Diabetes, Endocrinology, and Metabolic Diseases within NIDDK (http://www.niddk.nih.gov/about-niddk/offices-divisions/division-diabetes-endocrinology-metabolic-diseases/Pages/default.aspx).

Potential topics include, but are not limited to: --Studies to elucidate the mechanisms underlying the effects of HIV and/or ART on metabolism (including glucose, lipid, and skeletal metabolism), body composition, and general endocrine function through research; --Studies that elucidate novel approaches to prevent or manage diabetes and/or other endocrine disorders in HIV-infected individuals. However, such studies should target pathways unique to the development of these disorders in the context of HIV infection and/or its treatment rather than simply testing treatments accepted in non-HIV-infected individuals; --Studies that elucidate the interactions between HIV, ART, and/or HIV-associated inflammation and diabetes-related medications to provide a basis for individualized therapy; --Studies that determine the extent to which HIV and its therapy increase the risk of diabetes and/or other endocrine or metabolic dysfunction and identify factors which augment or ameliorate the risk; --Studies that discover and validate biomarkers for metabolic and/or endocrine disease progression as a result of HIV infection or its treatment; --Studies that employ non-invasive or minimally invasive means to assess tissue-specific or whole body metabolic changes in vivo due to HIV infection or therapy.

ELIGIBILITY: Eligible applicants are: for-profit or non-profit organizations; public/State-controlled institutions of higher education; private institutions of higher education; units of State and local governments; units of State and local Tribal government; Hispanic-serving institutions; Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs); Alaska Native and Native Hawaiian Serving Institutions; Tribally Controlled Colleges and Universities (TCCUs); Small Business; eligible agencies of the Federal government; domestic or foreign institutions/organizations; and faith-based or community-based organizations. More than one PD/PI, or multiple PDs/PIs, may be designated on the application for projects that require a “team science” approach that clearly does not fit the single-PD/PI model.

FUNDING: This program will use the NIH Research Project (R01) award mechanism. Applications submitted in response to this announcement must be submitted electronically through Grants.gov, using the SF424 Research and Related (R&R) forms and SF424 (R&R) Application Guide. NIDDK intends to commit up to $2,500,000 in FY 2015 to fund 3-6 awards. Application budgets are limited to $500,000 direct costs in any year and need to reflect the actual needs of the proposed project. The scope of the proposed project should determine the project period. The maximum project period is 5 years. Because the nature and scope of the proposed research will vary from application to application, it is anticipated that the size and duration of each award will also vary. F&A costs requested by consortium participants are not included in the direct cost limitation.

Additional Information: National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences (NIEHS), Eunice Kennedy Shriver National Institute of Child Health and Human Development (NICHD) and National Institute of Diabetes and Digestive and Kidney Diseases (NIDDK) invite applications to understand the role of environmental chemical exposures in the development of obesity, type 2 diabetes and/or metabolic syndrome. Applications must link an environmental exposure to the increased incidence of weight gain, glucose tolerance/insulin sensitivity and aspects of metabolic syndrome in animal models or human studies. While any exposure window is acceptable it is anticipated that the most sensitive time for exposures to affect the disease outcomes will be during development e.g. in utero and/or neonatal or early childhood. For human studies developmental exposures (in utero and early childhood) should be linked to early biomarkers of disease onset. Animal studies should focus on identifying environmental chemicals that alter endpoints indicative of affecting disease development and the site and mechanism(s) of the effects that lead to the increased disease incidence. This program will use the NIH Exploratory/Developmental (R21) grant mechanism. ; DEADLINE NOTE: The deadlines for receipt of standard applications under this announcement are: February 5, June 5, and October 5 annually. This program will expire on September 8, 2015.; Link to full program description: http://www.infoed.org/new_spin/spin_prog.asp?28664;

[NTW] [OBESITY/DIABETES/NUTRITION] Title: Food Specific Molecular Profiles and Biomarkers of Food and Nutrient Intake, and Dietary Exposure; (R01);
Sponsor: National Institute of Diabetes and Digestive and Kidney Diseases/NIH/DHHS;

Additional Information: SYNOPSIS: National Institutes of Health (NIH) and its participating Institutes and Centers, and National Institute of Food and Agriculture (NIFA), invite applications for research on food specific molecular signatures and biomarkers of dietary consumption and to promote collaborative interactions among NIH and USDA supported nutrition researchers. This FOA will use the NIH Research Project (R01) award mechanism.; DEADLINE NOTE: Applications may be submitted to Grants.gov in response to this announcement on or after December 2, 2014. The deadline for receipt of optional letters of intent is 30 days prior to the application due date. The deadlines for receipt of full applications are: January 2, 2015; May 27, 2015; September 28, 2015; May 27, 2016; September 27, 2016; May 27, 2017, by 5:00 PM local time of applicant organization.;

[NTW] [SUDS] Title: Health Services and Economic Research on the Prevention and Treatment of Drug, Alcohol, and Tobacco Abuse; (R01);
Sponsor: National Institute on Drug Abuse/NIH/DHHS;

Additional Information: SYNOPSIS: National Institute of Child Health and Human Development (NICHD) invites applications to continue to support a national program of mentored institutional career development programs for junior faculty who have recently completed postgraduate clinical training in obstetrics and gynecology, and are committed to an independent research career in women's reproductive health. The supervised research training will assist junior faculty in their transition into productive, physician scientists in areas related to obstetrics and gynecology and its subspecialties. This FOA will use the NIH K12 Physician Scientist Award (Program) (PSA) mechanism. DEADLINE NOTE: Applications may be submitted to Grants.gov in response to this announcement on or after: The deadline for receipt of optional letters of intent is December 2, 2014. The deadline for receipt of full applications is January 2, 2015, by 5:00 PM local time of applicant organization.

[NTW] [CHRONIC FATIGUE SYNDROME] Title: Myalgic Encephalomyelitis/Chronic Fatigue Syndrome: Etiology, Diagnosis, Pathophysiology, and Treatment (R01);
Sponsor: Office of Research on Women's Health/NIH/DHHS;
Deadline(s): 01/24/2015; 02/24/2015;
Contact: Charles Wells, Ph.D.; Address: 6707 Democracy Blvd. Suite 400; Bethesda, MD 20892; U.S.A.; Tel: 301-402-1770; E-mail: wells1@mail.nih.gov;

Link to full program description: http://www.infoed.org/new_spin/spin_prog.asp?25833;
Additional Information: SYNOPSIS: The sponsors invite applications that propose to examine the etiology, diagnosis, pathophysiology, and treatment of chronic fatigue syndrome (CFS), sometimes referred to as myalgic encephalomyelitis (ME), in diverse groups and across the lifespan. Applications that address gaps in the understanding of the environmental and biological risk factors, the determinants of heterogeneity among patient populations, the common mechanisms influencing the multiple body systems that are affected in ME/CFS are encouraged. The NIH is particularly interested in funding interdisciplinary research that will enhance our knowledge of the disease process and provide evidence based solutions to improve the diagnosis, treatment, and quality of life of all persons with ME/CFS. This interdisciplinary research may include the building of scientific teams to study and develop biomarkers, innovative treatment modalities, and/or the modifiable and protective processes specifically targeted by preventive and/or treatment interventions. This program will use the NIH Research Project (R01) award mechanism.; DEADLINE NOTE: The (extended) deadline for receipt of optional letters of intent is January 24, 2015. The (extended) deadline for receipt of full applications under this announcement is February 25, 2015, by 5:00 PM local time of applicant organization. This program will expire on February 25, 2015;

Additional Information: This is a reminder about the NIH Loan Repayment Program (LRP). The LRP repays the student loans of doctoral level, biomedical or behavioral scientists conducting research funded by nonprofit institutions. Eligible applicants may be eligible to receive up to $70,000 of qualified educational debt repayment with a 2 year contract. The NIH began accepting applications on September 1, 2014. Applications are limited to one per year. The deadline for applications is November 17th, 2014, 8pm EST. All applications must be completed and submitted online at: http://www.lrp.nih.gov/index.aspx
Please note that while completing the online application, the Institutional Approver for Columbia University is William Berger at wb2174@columbia.edu of Sponsored Projects Administration. The five following program areas are included as part of the LRP: () Clinical Research (NOT-OD-14-105); () Pediatric Research (NOT-OD-14-107); () Health Disparities Research (NOT-OD-14-109); () Contraception and Infertility Research (NOT-OD-14-108); (*) Clinical Research for Individuals from Disadvantaged Backgrounds (NOT-OD-14-106); Pay special attention to the eligibility requirements and commitment obligations, as each announcement has its own criteria. EBOLA RELATED ANNOUNCEMENTS

Title: Ebola Projects/ MTA's;
Sponsor: CUMC Sponsored Projects and Office of Research Administration;
Deadline(s): NA;
Contact: NA;
Link(s): NA;
Additional Information: From Rudina Odeh-Ramadan, via Rosa Rivera; RE: Ebola Projects/ MTA's; Dear All, The University continues to closely monitor information and recommendations regarding travel to West Africa countries experiencing the Ebola virus outbreak. Please note that any proposals with proposed travel to Guinea, Sierra Leone, or Liberia or the receipt of specimens from any of the three countries require approval from the Provost. The Provost’s approval must be obtained prior to submission of the proposal. The email below provides more specific information on the policy/procedure regarding this matter.; Thanks, Rosa; Rosa Rivera; Director for MSPH Operations, Sponsored Projects Administration; Associate Dean for Grants & Contracts, Mailman School of Public Health; Columbia University; Telephone: 212-305-0350; Fax: 212-305-6450; Email: rr21@cumc.columbia.edu; Dear All: Additional clarification regarding the policy regarding research (proposals or MTA's) with proposed travel to Guinea, Sierra Leone, or Liberia or the receipt of specimens from any of the three countries: Please direct the PI of any project that involves travel to Guinea, Sierra Leone, or Liberia to submit the project to his or her dean for approval. If the dean approves the project, he or she should forward it to the Provost for his approval. One prerequisite for the Provost’s approval will be a written evacuation plan; if you could let the PI know that now, so he or she can have it ready for the Provost. Ensure you have a notice of approval from the Provost office prior to submission. Also, please ensure you maintain full documentation with the proposal record. We are also working to implement an indicator flag in InfoEd, so that can properly flag all proposals that meet this requirement.; Odeh-Ramadan, Rudina;

Link(s): If you or anyone has any concerns, please visit the University’s Ebola Preparedness site or the New York City Department of Health Ebola update page.;
Additional Information: Dear fellow members of the Columbia community: As you may have seen in the media, Dr. Craig Spencer is being treated for Ebola at Bellevue Hospital in Manhattan. Dr. Spencer, an emergency department physician at New York-Presbyterian/Columbia University Medical Center, recently returned from a humanitarian mission with Doctors Without Borders to one of the outbreak areas in Western Africa. We admire and appreciate all of those willing to do this vital and selfless public health work around the globe.; It’s critical to bear in mind what our public health and infectious disease experts have emphasized — that the risk to people in New York City and at Columbia remains extremely low. If you or anyone has any concerns, please visit the University’s Ebola Preparedness site or the New York City Department of Health Ebola update page. You may also contact Student Health Services at 212-854-2284 or Workforce Health and Safety for Faculty/Staff with Hospital Responsibilities at 212-305-7590.; We must keep Dr. Spencer in our thoughts and wish him a full and speedy recovery, as we do the vulnerable populations he serves. We will also continue to keep the Columbia community informed as we learn more from City, State, and Federal health officials.; Sincerely, Lee C. Bollinger;

Link(s): NA;
Additional Information: Dear Colleagues, By now, many of you have learned that a New York Presbyterian physician, Dr. Craig Spencer, who recently returned from treating patients in Guinea, has tested positive for Ebola. I ask you all to keep Dr. Spencer, who is a 2013 Mailman School graduate, in your thoughts, and to acknowledge that the extraordinary efforts of our alumni, current students, and faculty continue to play a critical role in the containment, treatment, and understanding of this outbreak. At a moment of global distress, public health knowledge is vital. It is important to recognize that this crisis will continue, and that all available scientific information suggests the risk of transmission here is extremely low; Dr. Spencer’s commitment is among many noteworthy examples of our colleagues passing seamlessly from science to service. As we move through this global crisis, we must all take pride in that commitment.

The Commons IDs, and complete Personal Profiles, are required for postdocs, graduate and undergraduate students when: () They have participated at least one person month on an NIH award, regardless if they were paid from the grant; and () Their participation is required to be included in Participants Section (D.1) in the Research Performance Progress Report (RPPR) – () note some select NIH grant mechanisms may be exempt from reporting in this section. () The RPPR Instruction Guide contains Supplemental Instructions for Specific Grant Types (such as training awards and multi-project awards), which can be found at: http://grants.nih.gov/grants/rppr/rppr_instruction_guide.pdf; TIP – when preparing your RPPR, click “Check for Errors” prior to routing the report to your SPA Project Officer. You will be alerted of missing eRA Commons IDs and incomplete profiles. This is the best time to contact SPA-eBiz to request IDs, or to alert individuals to complete their Commons profiles.; If you are requesting an eRA Commons ID from SPA-eBiz@columbia.edu, please include the following information with your request: () Full Name; () UNI; () Email address; ()
As we get closer to October 2014, I wanted to remind investigators and administrators of the new NIH progress reporting requirement regarding eRA Commons IDs, please have them request an eRA Commons account from SPA at \(\text{SPA-eBiz@columbia.edu}\).; Finally, the Research Performance Progress Report (RPPR) format will be required for all Type 5 non-SNAP progress reports beginning \textbf{October 17th, 2014} (the paper PHS 2590 forms are being phased out). Additional Information: As we get closer to October 2014, I wanted to remind investigators and administrators of the new NIH progress reporting requirement regarding eRA Commons IDs. Postdocs, graduate and undergraduate students supported on NIH awards \textbf{must} have eRA Commons IDs, with complete eRA Commons Personal Profiles. Beginning with NIH progress reports due October 2014, NIH will not accept progress reports that have missing eRA Commons IDs and incomplete profiles. As you are aware, if NIH rejects a progress report, that could delay issuance of the next year’s funding. \textbf{Complete eRA Commons profiles are just as important as the ID itself.} NIH can reject the progress report if the following fields are not complete in the profiles: date of birth, gender, race, ethnicity, disabilities, US citizenship status and country of citizenship. Some fields have “I Do Not Wish to Provide” as one of the acceptable responses. For those who have completed undergraduate or graduate degrees (graduate students and postdoctoral researchers), the highest educational degree, the degree date, and the institution where it was earned also should be completed. Dear PIs and Administrators, If you are planning to prepare and submit an NIH multi-project application over the next several months, please let me know. Examples of multi-project grant mechanisms include, but are not limited to, P01, P30, P50, and U19. All multi-project Funding Opportunity Announcements (FOAs) now require proposals to be submitted electronically using ASSIST (Application Submission System and Interface for Submission Tracking). For a listing of all multi-project FOAs, go to http://grants.nih.gov/searchGuide/ComplexOnly.cfm. If you plan to submit a multi-project application in the coming months, please contact me and your SPA Project Officer and we will schedule a time to meet to provide you with training and guidance. The Columbia University Medical Center IRB Office has a standing “IRB Consultation Hour”. This service provides an opportunity for researchers to stop in at the IRB office and meet with an IRB professional to discuss regulatory, policy, and procedural questions. The sessions are scheduled for every Tuesday from 10 am to 11 am. No appointment is necessary. The IRB office is located at 154 Haven Avenue, 1st Floor. Attendees should sign in at the IRB receptionist desk, and will meet with IRB staff in the order of arrival. If situations warrant, individual consultations may be limited to 15 minutes. Important Note: If you have questions about a protocol that has already been submitted to the IRB, please contact the staff members who administer the IRB to which the protocol is assigned rather than bringing those questions to a Consultation Hours session. Staff contact information may be obtained on the IRB website: http://www.cumc.columbia.edu/dept/irb/ Researchers may also call in during these times, to the IRB main number, for consultation: 212.305.5883. Additional Information: Dear Colleagues: The Office of the Executive Vice President of Research (EVPR), including the Office of Postdoctoral Affairs, and the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences (GSAS) are pleased to announce the introduction of an individual development plan (IDP) program for National Institutes of Health (NIH)-funded graduate students and postdoctoral researchers (postdocs). An IDP consists of a self-assessment of skills, interests and values that guides the development of short and long term plans to achieve career goals. In 2012, the NIH published a task force report on the current state of the biomedical workforce which found, among other things, that universities need to better prepare biomedical graduate students and postdocs for a broad range of career opportunities beyond academia. As one of a number of initiatives designed to address the recommendations of the task force, the NIH issued a policy, released on July 23, 2013 and revised on August 4, 2014 (http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-14-113.html), that does not require, but strongly encourages recipients of NIH awards to develop and use IDPs for graduate students and postdocs supported by the NIH. In addition, the revised policy provides that, beginning on October 1, 2014, annual progress reports relating to NIH awards must include a description of whether or not the institution uses IDPs and how they are employed to help manage the training and career development of graduate students and postdocs associated with such awards. The University’s IDP program will begin later this month and will include seminars on topics relating to the development of an IDP. Optional workshops will assist participants in completing an IDP. Career panels and networking events will be held to offer opportunities for participants to learn more about potential career options and the skills and experiences needed to gain employment in a wide array of fields. Complete IDP program details, including registration information, can be found at https://www2.gsas.columbia.edu/idp. Faculty members should strongly encourage their NIH-funded graduate student and postdocs to register and participate in the IDP program. A description of the Columbia IDP program to be utilized in progress reports can be found at https://www2.gsas.columbia.edu/idp/node/3#summary. NEW ITEMS FROM THE NIH

Title: [NIH-Investigators] Reminder for NIH-Investigators: eRA Commons IDs and Complete Profiles;

Sponsor: NIH eRA Commons IDs and Complete Profiles

Deadline(s): October 2014;

Contact: Stephanie F. Scott, M.S., CRA; Communications and Outreach Director; Sponsored Projects Administration (SPA); Columbia University; Morningside Ph: 212-854-0606; CUMC Ph: 212-305-1641; Email: sfs2110@columbia.edu;

Link(s): eRA Commons Manage Personal Profile: http://era.nih.gov/reg_accounts/manage_personal_profile.cfm;

Additional Information: Complete Profiles Required for Students and Postdocs: As we get closer to October 2014, I wanted to remind investigators and administrators of the new NIH progress reporting requirement regarding eRA Commons IDs. Postdocs, graduate and undergraduate students supported on NIH awards must have eRA Commons IDs, with complete eRA Commons Personal Profiles. Beginning with NIH progress reports due October 2014, NIH will not accept progress reports that have missing eRA Commons IDs and incomplete profiles. As you are aware, if NIH rejects a progress report, that could delay issuance of the next year’s funding. Complete eRA Commons profiles are just as important as the ID itself. NIH can reject the progress report if the following fields are not complete in the profiles: date of birth, gender, race, ethnicity, disabilities, US citizenship status and country of citizenship. Some fields have “I Do Not Wish to Provide” as one of the acceptable responses. For those who have completed undergraduate or graduate degrees (graduate students and postdoctoral researchers), the highest educational degree, the degree date, and the institution where it was earned also should be completed. Tutorials on the eRA Commons Personal Profile can be found at eRA Commons Manage Personal Profile. If you have graduate and undergraduate students supported on NIH grants who do not have eRA Commons IDs, please have them request an eRA Commons account from SPA at SPA-eBiz@columbia.edu.

The National Institutes of Health (NIH) released five separate program announcements for the 2015 application cycle of the NIH Loan Repayment Program (LRP). The LRP may repay up to $35,000 of qualified student loan debt per year to outstanding health professionals who commit at least two years to conduct biomedical, behavioral, social, or clinical research. This includes most undergraduate, graduate, and medical school loans. Loan repayment benefits are in addition to the institutional salary received for research. The NIH will begin accepting applications on September 1, 2014. Applications are limited to one per year. The deadline for applications is November 15th, 2014, 8pm EST. All applications must be completed and submitted online at: http://www.lrp.nih.gov/index.aspx. Please note that while completing the online application, the Institutional Approver for Columbia University is William Berger at wb2174@columbia.edu of Sponsored Projects Administration.

The five following program areas are included as part of the LRP: () Clinical Research (NOT-OD-14-105); () Pediatric Research (NOT-OD-14-107); () Health Disparities Research (NOT-OD-14-109); () Contraception and Infertility Research (NOT-OD-14-108); (*) Clinical Research for Individuals from Disadvantaged Backgrounds (NOT-OD-14-106);
() Contraception and Infertility Research (NOT-OD-14-108); () Clinical Research for Individuals from Disadvantaged Backgrounds (NOT-OD-14-106): Pay special attention to the eligibility requirements and commitment obligations, as each announcement has its own criteria. Please share this announcement with those who may be interested. Stephanie F. NIH eSUBMISSION ITEMS OF INTEREST

From Stephanie F. Scott, M.S., CRA; Communications and Outreach Director; Sponsored Projects Administration (SPA); “NIH eSubmission Items of Interest” (June 4, 2014) (see below). In particular, it addresses the new Biosketch Pilot program, tips on using non-standard characters in form fields, and the cover letter attachment.

Don’t Forget the eSubmission Basics: I had the privilege of spending some time last week with the eRA Commons Help Desk and posed the question - “If you could tell the applicant community one thing about application submission what would it be?” I was a bit surprised to hear the same key messages that we have been pushing for years. On the other hand, that’s why we consider them ‘the eSubmission basics’.

So, here’s a quick reminder…

- Watch out for form fields required by NIH that are not marked required on federal-wide forms (e.g. Credential for PD/PIs and Organization for all entries on R&R Sr/Key Person Profile form; primary site DUNS on Project/Performance Sites form).
- Use PDF format for all attachments. Follow PDF Guidelines.
- Submit early – days, not minutes – to allow time to correct unforeseen errors.
- Track your submission in eRA Commons. Email can be unreliable.
- Check your entire assembled application image in eRA Commons. If you can’t view it, we can’t review it!
- If federal system issues threaten your on-time submission you need to notify the help desk and follow the Guidelines for Applicants Experiencing System Issues.

Impact of Biosketch Pilot on Non-pilot Applications: Did you see in the NIH Guide (NOT-OD-14-091) or in Rock Talk (Changes to the Biosketch) that NIH is piloting a new biosketch format? The pilot directly impacts applicants applying to a few Funding Opportunity Announcements (FOAs) (e.g., RFA-NR-15-001), but there is an immediate indirect impact to all applicants as well. In order to accommodate the pilot applications, eRA has changed the way we systematically validate the biosketch page limit for all applications. Specifically, a warning will fire if you submit a 5 page biosketch and an error will fire if your biosketch is over 5 pages. Applicants to pilot FOAs can ignore the 5-page warning, but everyone else should take action or risk post-submission rejection of their applications. After your application moves forward to NIH staff, we will do a manual check of the biosketches in applications to FOAs not participating in the pilot. If your non-pilot FOA requires 4 pages, but you included 5 and ignored the warning, then your application may not be reviewed. Applicants must read and follow all FOA and application guide instructions – even those that aren’t enforced by electronic systems.

Non-standard Characters in Form Fields: Although NIH systems now support a broader character set including Greek and other non-standard characters, Grants.gov systems currently do not. When completing application form fields type content directly from your keyboard. Avoid cutting and pasting from Word and other word processors- they often convert your plain text to rich text (e.g. Word converts quotes to ‘smart quotes’ that curve towards the text between them and combines two dashes into one long em-dash.) Also, keep your text as simple as possible. The following characters are typically ‘safe’: letters, numbers, spaces, underscores, periods, dashes (not em-dashes), quotes (not smart quotes), parentheses, brackets, ampersands, tilde, exclamation points, commas, colons, semicolons, at signs, number signs, dollar signs, percent signs, plus signs, equal signs, and asterisks. Limit your use of fancier characters to the body of your PDF attachments.

Submitting Applications with more than 5 Budget Periods: Although NIH typically allows only 5 budget periods to be submitted with grant applications, from time to time you will come across a FOA that allows more than 5 budget periods. Most NIH FOAs include the R&R Budget form which only accommodates data collection for 5 budget periods leaving applicants wondering what to do with the rest of the data. Applicants have been forced to use a rather clunky ‘workaround’ that includes adding the additional budget period information in the budget justification. eRA has just added system support for Grants.gov’s R&R Budget 10YR form that will allow for the collection of up to 10 budget periods of data. Going forward, this form will be included with the few, special FOAs that allow more than 5 budget periods. The bulk of NIH FOAs will continue to use the standard R&R Budget form.

Transition to FORMS-C To Complete in August: If it seems like I’ve been talking about transitioning to FORMS-C for a year – I have. On May 30, 2013, we announced our first transition to updated application forms (FORMS-C) for application due dates on/after September 25, 2013 (NOT-OD-13-074). The Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) and Small Business Technology Transfer (STTR) programs are our last remaining programs to use the older forms. These programs are scheduled to transition to FORMS-C for due dates on/after August 5, 2014 (NOT-OD-14-089) marking the end of a rather lengthy transition. Believe it or not, this summer my friends in policy will start pulling together requirements for the next OMB clearance of the PHS (agency-specific) forms used in our applications (they expire in August 2015). Before you know it we’ll be talking about ‘FORMS-D’ forms. For now, let’s celebrate getting through this one. Woo-hoo!

CYA: Cover Your Application - that’s what you thought I was talking about – right? NIH form packages no longer use a separate, agency-specific PHS Cover Letter form. The version of the SF424 (R&R) cover form included in FORMS-C packages has a new Cover Letter Attachment (item #21 at the very bottom of the form). If you plan to include a cover letter with your application – use this Cover Letter Attachment only! The eRA systems know to keep this attachment separate from your assembled application image and to limit access to it. If you attach it someplace else (e.g., Pre-application attachment on the SF424 (R&R) cover form, Other Attachments on the R&R Other Project Information form) it will become part of your assembled application image and will be visible to everyone with access to your application including reviewers.

[NIH-Investigators] Reminder-eRA Commons IDs and Complete Profiles Required for Students and Postdocs

This is a reminder that beginning October 2014, Research Performance Progress Reports (RPPRs) lacking an eRA Commons ID for graduate and undergraduate students will receive an error and the RPPR will not be accepted by the NIH without this information. RPPRs that are not accepted could delay issuance of Notice of Grant Awards. See full NIH notice at NOT-OD-13-097.

Currently, warnings appear in the eRA Commons screens to alert individuals identified as undergraduate students, graduate students, and postdoctoral researchers that the following fields should be completed in their eRA Commons profiles: date of birth, gender, race, ethnicity, disabilities, US citizenship status and country of citizenship. Some fields have “I Do Not Wish to Provide” as one of the acceptable responses. For those who have completed undergraduate or graduate degrees (graduate students and postdoctoral researchers), the highest educational degree, the degree date, and the institution where it was earned also should be completed. Beginning on October 1, 2014, those fields in the eRA Commons screens will be required for individuals identified in any of those three roles.

If you have graduate and undergraduate students supported on NIH grants who do not have eRA Commons IDs, please have them request an eRA Commons account from SPA at SPA-eBiz@columbia.edu. In addition, graduate and undergraduate students, and postdoctoral researchers should complete their Personal Profiles in the eRA Commons, ensuring all fields listed above are complete. Tutorials on the Personal Profile can be found at eRA Commons Manage Personal Profile.

RPPRs will be required for all Type 5 non-SNAP progress reports beginning October 17th, 2014 (the paper PHS 2590 forms are being phased out). See NOT-OD-14-092. If you are not yet familiar with the RPPR format, resources are available at http://grants.nih.gov/grants/rrpr/. Therefore, if you have students supported on non-SNAP awards, now is the time to ensure they have eRA Commons profiles completed.

Please share this information with your students and postdocs who are supported on NIH grants. If you have any questions, you may contact me, or your assigned SPA Project Officer.

RPPR Required for Non-SNAP Progress Reports Beginning October 17, 2014

NIH currently requires use of the fed-wide progress reporting format — known as the RPPR (Research Performance Progress Report) — to submit progress reports for Streamlined Non-competing Award Process (SNAP), fellowship, and multi-year funded awards. In April we opened the RPPR for use for all Type 5 Non-SNAP progress reports in anticipation of an October 2014 requirement for RPPR use. Now, it’s official — all type 5 non-SNAP progress reports submitted on or after October 17, 2014 need to be submitted through the RPPR module of eRA Commons. … Continue reading →

Promoting Research Integrity: Building the Foundation of Trust

Exemplifying and promoting the highest level of scientific integrity, public accountability, and social responsibility in the conduct of science are among NIH’s main goals as an agency. Research integrity is not about being flawless. It is about conducting science using honest and verifiable methods, complying with rules and regulations and adhering to professional standards. Ultimately, it is also about trust, the foundation upon which the scientific research enterprise is built. We’ve recently updated our website on research integrity, … Continue reading →

NIH REVISED SUBMISSION RULES

NIH & AHRQ just released more clarifications on the new resubmission policy. In this announcement are clarifications on due dates, applicability, time limits, and the various options PIs have. See NOT-OD-14-082: http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-14-082.html: I know this revised policy is important to you and has many implications. Please feel free to me or your assigned Project Officer questions. I am following up with additional information on the important announcement I sent last week regarding NIH and AHRQ’s new resubmission policy (see below). NIH just posted extensive FAQs describing various scenarios when you may submit applications as ‘new’ that were previously submitted, resubmitted and not funded (including competing renewal applications that were not funded). Refer to the following resources and articles: FAQs: http://grants.nih.gov/grants/policy/resubmission_q&a.htm; The policy announcement: NOT-OD-14-074; A Change in Our Resubmission Policy – Rock Talk article explaining the reasons for the change; NIH Policy on Resubmission Applications; Science Magazine article: NIH to Relax ‘Two Strikes’ Grant Submission Policy; Deciding whether to submit an application as a resubmission or as a new submission can sometimes be complex. You may need to speak with an NIH Program Official or Program Director regarding your specific situation. Please feel free to ask me, or your SPA Project Officer, questions as they arise. Please read full announcement, NOT-OD-14-074 at http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-14-074.html Effective immediately, for NIH and AHRQ applications due after April 16, 2014, following an unsuccessful resubmission (A1) application, applicants may submit the same idea as a new (A0) application for the next appropriate due date. The NIH and AHRQ will not assess the similarity of the science in the new (A0) application to any previously reviewed submission when accepting an application for review. Although a new (A0) application does not allow an introduction or responses to the previous reviews, the NIH and AHRQ encourage applicants to refine and strengthen all application submissions. Please read the full announcement for more details on the background of this policy change and the policy details. The NIH time limit for accepting resubmission (A1) applications remains in effect, as does the policy for New Investigator R01 resubmission deadlines. Stephanie F. Scott, M.S., CRA

Additional Information for the two above mentioned announcements: This Notice alerts grantees to a change in the implementation timeline, previously announced in NOT-OD-13-120 and NOT-OD-14-093, for the NIH transition to new U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) payment policies for domestic, non-competing continuation awards and use of Payment Management System (PMS) subaccounts. It also announces a change in how competitive revisions/administrative supplements (Type-3s) awards will be processed. This Notice only applies to domestic non-competing continuation awards that have not yet transitioned to PMS subaccounts. In response to critical feedback from the grantee community, NIH requested an amendment to its subaccount implementation plan to delay the transition of domestic, non-competing continuation awards to PMS subaccounts for an additional year; e.g., now beginning October 1, 2015. HHS’s Office of the Assistant Secretary for Financial Resources recently approved the request. This additional time is provided to allow grantees to prepare their systems to accommodate the changes. Grantee with inadequate systems in place to appropriately manage this transition by October 1, 2015, may be unable to appropriately access PMS accounts and risk losing their ability to draw down funding. Grantees are advised that there will be no additional implementation delays considered and no exceptions granted to the deadline. As of October 1, 2015, NIH will utilize only subaccounts for awarding grant funds. Every grant that is awarded funding in FY 2016 (whether it be in the first, second, third or fourth quarter of FY 2016) will be in a subaccount. NIH will continue transitioning payment of grant awards with new document numbers to domestic institutions to PMS subaccounts in FY 2015 as announced in Notice NOT-OD-13-120. The administrative changes announced in NOT-OD-14-093 will now apply to the transition that will occur between October 1, 2015 and September 30, 2016. This Notice reiterates those administrative changes for non-competing, continuation awards and highlights the revised implementation timelines and T-3 award process for all domestic awards. - See more at: http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-14-103.html#sthash.0l3doSVZ.dpuf; http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-14-103.html#sthash.q3dTkMY2.dpuf;
FEDERAL FUNDING TRAVEL POLICY

[NIH-Investigators] New Policy on Fly America Act:
Sponsored Projects Administration (SPA) and the Accounts Payable (AP) department is happy to announce the release of an updated version of the Fly America Act policy, effective immediately. SPA and AP have partnered together on this effort, resulting in a clearer, more comprehensive policy to ensure compliance with the Fly America Act. You can find the full policy in the Administrative Policy Library at:
http://policylibrary.columbia.edu/fly-america-act. This link contains: * Full policy text, including links to resources; * FAQs; * A Decision Tree Diagram; * A new form, the Fly America Exception Checklist.; These resources can also be found on the SPA website at:
http://spa.columbia.edu/policies/us-flag-carrier-policy.;

The Fly America Act is a Federal regulation that states that any foreign air travel that is financed by Federal funds must be booked on U.S. Flag Air Carriers, regardless of cost or convenience. Only Federally funded sponsored projects are subject to this policy. The Fly America Act is not a new policy. Rather, our offices updated our existing policies, which now live in a central location in the Policy Library.

There are specific exceptions to the Fly America Act that allow travelers to use Federal funds on foreign carriers, but only under certain circumstances. These exceptions can be quite complex to interpret. Therefore, our offices created a Fly America Exception Checklist and Decision Tree Diagram to assist travelers when booking flights internationally as part of the work to be done on a Federal sponsored project. In cases of exceptions, the Fly America Exception Checklist Form will need to accompany the Columbia Travel & Business Expense Report (TBER) to be submitted to AP. Appropriate back-up documentation should accompany the Checklist. The full policy and FAQs outline this process.

Anyone planning to travel internationally as part of work to be done on a Federally sponsored project is responsible for knowing and adhering to this policy. Please share this information with all faculty, administrators, postdocs and students who may be traveling internationally.

When questions arise that are related to the Fly America Act (for example, what is allowable vs. unallowable, Open Skies Agreement exceptions, etc.) you may contact your SPA Project Officer or myself. However, if you have specific questions about reimbursement of travel expenses or regarding your supporting travel documentation, you should contact AP through the Finance Service Center or call 212-854-2122. Thank you.

Thank you, Stephanie F. Scott, M.S., CRA: Communications and Outreach Director; Sponsored Projects; Administration (SPA); CUMC

DOD FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

Title: DoD Gulf War Illness Research Preannouncement; Funding Opportunities for Fiscal Year 2014 (FY14);
Sponsor: Defense Health Program; Department of Defense Gulf War Illness Research Program
Deadline(s): Applications to be posted ~ early September 2014;
Contact: help@eBRAP.org; usarmy.detrick.medcom-cdmrp.mbx.cdmrp-public-affairs@mail.mil;
Link(s): Grants.gov; http://cdmrp.army.mil; https://twitter.com/CDMRP; http://www.youtube.com/user/CDMRP;

Additional Information: The Fiscal Year 2014 (FY14) Defense Appropriations Act provides $20 million (M) to the Department of Defense Gulf War Illness Research Program (GWIRP) to support innovative, high-impact research to improve the health and lives of veterans who have Gulf War Illness (GWI). The GWIRP is administered by the US Army Medical Research and Materiel Command (USAMRMC) through the Office of Congressionally Directed Medical Research Programs (CDMRP). The GWIRP is providing the information in this pre-announcement to allow investigators time to plan and develop applications. FY14 GWIRP Program Announcement and General Application Instructions for the following award mechanism are anticipated to be posted on Grants.gov in early September 2014. Pre-application and application deadlines will be available when the Program Announcements are released. This pre-announcement should not be construed as an obligation by the government.; Innovative Treatment Evaluation Award 2; () Independent investigators at all academic levels (or equivalent).; () Supports small-scale, early clinical trial evaluations of innovative treatments not previously studied in GWI.; () Pilot Phase II or Phase I/II clinical trial combinations are allowed. () Provides opportunity to obtain proof of principle data to support future clinical trials.; () Preliminary data are not required, and if provided, do not necessarily have to come from the GWI research field. () Studies with clear potential to move forward to Phase II/III clinical trials are encouraged.; (*)

Collaboration with industry and/or academic partners is encouraged.; () Maximum funding of $450,000 for direct costs.; () Period of performance not to exceed 3 years.; () Indirect costs may be proposed in accordance with the institution's rate agreement.; () All applications must conform to the final Program Announcements and General Application Instructions that will be available for electronic downloading from the Grants.gov website. The application package containing the required forms for each award mechanism will also be found on Grants.gov. A listing of all USAMRMC funding opportunities can be obtained on the Grants.gov website by performing a basic search using CFDA Number 12.420. Applications must be submitted through the federal government's single-entry portal, Grants.gov. Submission deadlines are not available until the Program Announcements are released. Requests for email notification of the Program Announcements release may be sent to help@eBRAP.org. JUST RELEASED! FY14 DOD CDMRP Program Announcements: The Fiscal Year 2014 (FY14) Defense Appropriations Act provides research funding for the peer reviewed programs managed by the Department of Defense (DOD) office of Congressionally Directed Medical Research Programs (CDMRP). This e-mail is to notify the research community of the recently released funding opportunities from the following programs: Autism Research Program (ARP), Gulf War Illness Research Program (GWIRP), Peer Reviewed Cancer Research Program (PRCRP), Peer Reviewed Medical Research Program (PRMRP), Peer Reviewed Orthopaedic Research Program (PORP), and Prostate Cancer Research Program (PCR). Detailed descriptions of each of the funding opportunities, evaluation criteria, and submission requirements can be found in the respective Program Announcements. Each Program Announcement is available electronically for downloading from the Grants.gov website (http://www.grants.gov), the CDMRP website (http://cdmrp.army.mil/funding/prgdefault.shtml) and the electronic Biomedical Research Application Portal (eBRAP) (https://eBRAP.org).
Autism Research Program (ARP); Clinical Trial Award; Idea Development Award; Gulf War Illness Research Program (GWIRP); Clinical Trial Award; Innovative Treatment Evaluation Award; Investigator-Initiated Research Award; New Investigator Award; Peer Reviewed Cancer Research Program (PRCRP); Career Development Award; Idea Award with Special Focus; Peer Reviewed Medical Research Program (PRMRP); Clinical Trial Award; Discovery Award; Focused Program Award; Investigator-Initiated Research Award; Technology/Therapeutic Development Award; Peer Reviewed Orthopaedic Research Program (PRORP); Clinical Trial Award; Clinical Trial Development Award; Idea Development Award; Outcomes Research Award; Translational Research Award; Prostate Cancer Research Program (PCRP); Biomarker Development Award; Idea Development Award; Synergistic Idea Development Award

*Note: The PCRP Clinical Exploration, Health Disparity Research, Laboratory-Clinical Transition, Population Science Impact, and Prostate Cancer Pathology Biospecimen Resource Site Award funding opportunities will be released in late May 2014. The PCRP Collaborative Undergraduate HBCU Student Summer Training Program, Exploration Hypothesis Development, Physician Research Training, and Postdoctoral Training Award funding opportunities will be released in early June 2014.

All funding opportunities, both recently and previously released, are available on the CDMRP website (http://cdmrp.army.mil). Subsequent notifications will be sent when additional funding opportunities are released. A listing of all CDMRP funding opportunities can be obtained on the Grants.gov website by performing a basic search using CFDA Number 12.420. New for 2014 - CDMRP’s New Application Receipt System (eBRAP). For FY14, CDMRP has replaced eReceipt with the electronic Biomedical Research Application Portal (eBRAP). As in the past, application submission is a two-step process requiring both (1) pre-application submission through the eBRAP (https://eBRAP.org/) and (2) application submission through Grants.gov (http://www.grants.gov/), with application status available on eBRAP. A key feature of eBRAP is that organizational representatives and Principal Investigators (PIs) will be able to view and modify their Grants.gov application submissions. Submission of either the pre-application to eBRAP or the application to Grants.gov does not require registering an organization and affiliating its Business Officials and PIs in eBRAP. However, you will only be able to view and modify your full application submission in the eBRAP system if you are accepted in eBRAP by the organization that is listed in blocks 5 & 19 of the S424 form in the Grants.gov application package. You will receive an email from the eBRAP system once this organization has accepted you. Please do not respond directly to this message. Clinical Trial Award – Preproposal due June 25, 2014
Assistant Professor level or above (or equivalent); Supports the rapid implementation of clinical trials of novel interventions with the potential to have a significant impact on patient care in the topic area of interest; Investigational New Drug or Investigational Device Exemption applications, if needed, should be submitted to the Food and Drug Administration before the PRMRP Grants.gov application submission deadline; A clinical trial is expected to be initiated within 12 months of the award date

Preproposal submission is required; application submission is by invitation only; Funding limit not defined; requested funding must be appropriate for the scope of work proposed Maximum period of performance is 5 years

Discovery Award – Letter of Intent due July 16, 2014
All Investigators; Supports the exploration of a highly innovative new concept or untested theory; Not intended to support the logical progression of an already established line of questioning; Clinical trials will not be funded; Maximum of $200,000 for direct costs (plus indirect costs); Maximum period of performance is 18 months

Focused Program Award - Preproposal due June 25, 2014;
Full Professor level or above (or equivalent)
New mechanism for FY14!
Restricted to the topic areas of Acupuncture, Congenital Heart Disease, Illnesses Related to Radiation Exposure, Metabolic Disease, Neuroprosthetics, Psychotropic Medications, Respiratory Health, and Segmental Bone Defects: Supports a synergistic, multidisciplinary research program of multiple distinct but complementary projects addressing an overarching goal in one of the topic areas listed directly above; Projects should work together to answer critical questions, resolve differing hypotheses, and translate laboratory findings to clinical applications. Projects may range from exploratory/hypothesis-developing through small-scale clinical trials that together will address the overarching goal/question; Research team of highly qualified, multidisciplinary project leaders should be led by a Principal Investigator with demonstrated success in directing large, focused projects; individual projects submitted as part of a Focused Program Award application may be submitted to one other FY14 PRMRP Program Announcement/Funding Opportunity to increase chances of funding; however, accepting multiple grants to support the same project will not be allowed.

Preproposal submission is required; application submission is by invitation only: Maximum of $10 million for total costs (includes direct and indirect costs); Maximum period of performance is 5 years.

Investigator-Initiated Research Award - Preproposal due June 20, 2014; Assistant Professor level or above (or equivalent); Supports research that will make an original and important contribution to the field of research or patient care in the topic area of interest; Partnering Principal Investigator (PI) Option available; Clinical trials will not be funded.

Preproposal submission is required; application submission is by invitation only: Maximum of $1.2 million for direct costs (plus indirect costs); Maximum of $1.5 million for direct costs (plus indirect costs) for applications including a Partnering PI Option; Maximum period of performance is 3 years.

Technology/ Therapeutic Development Award - Preproposal due June 25, 2014; Assistant Professor level or above (or equivalent); Supports the development of diagnostics or therapies that have the potential to make a strong impact on patient care in the topic area of interest; Product-oriented: device, drug, clinical guidelines; Clinical trials will not be funded.

Preproposal submission is required; application submission is by invitation only: Maximum of $1.5 million for direct costs (plus indirect costs); Maximum period of performance is 3 years.

All applications must conform to the final Program Announcement and General Application Instructions that are available for electronic downloading from the Grants.gov website. The application package containing the required forms for the award mechanisms are also found on Grants.gov. A listing of all USAMRMC funding opportunities can be obtained on the Grants.gov website by performing a basic search using CFDA Number 12.420.
A pre-application is required and must be submitted through the CDMRP electronic Biomedical Research Application Portal (eBRAP) (https://eBRAP.org) prior to the pre-application deadline. Applications must be submitted through the federal government's single-entry portal, Grants.gov. Requests for email notification of the Program Announcement release may be sent to help@eBRAP.org. Email notifications of funding opportunities are sent as a courtesy and should not be used as a sole source of notification; applicants should monitor Grants.gov for official postings of funding opportunities. ### Department of Defense Ovarian Cancer Research Program; Funding Opportunities for Fiscal Year 2014 (FY14)

The FY14 Defense Appropriations Act provides $20 million (M) to the Department of Defense Ovarian Cancer Research Program (OCRP) to support innovative, high-impact ovarian cancer research. This program is administered by the US Army Medical Research and Materiel Command (USAMRMC) through the Office of Congressionally Directed Medical Research Programs (CDMRP). FY14 OCRP Program Announcements and General Application Instructions for the following award mechanisms are available on the Grants.gov website.

Clinical Translational Leverage Award – Pre-announcement is due June 3, 2014, full application (if invited) is due August 27, 2014

Must be an independent investigator at or above the level of Assistant Professor (or equivalent)
New for 2014 - CDMRP’s New Application Receipt System (eBRAP)
For FY14, CDMRP has replaced eReceipt with the electronic Biomedical Research Application Portal (eBRAP). As in the past, application submission is a two-step process requiring both (1) pre-application submission through the eBRAP (https://eBRAP.org) and (2) application submission through Grants.gov (http://www.grants.gov), with application status available on eBRAP. A key feature of eBRAP is that organizational representatives and Principal Investigators (PIs) will be able to view and modify their Grants.gov application submissions, but only if their organization, Business Officials and PIs are registered and affiliated in eBRAP to the organization listed in blocks 5 & 19 of the Grants.gov SF424. Submission of either the pre-application to eBRAP or the application to Grants.gov does not require registering an organization and affiliating its Business Officials and PIs in eBRAP; however, the ability to view and modify the Grants.gov application in eBRAP is contingent upon this registration and affiliation process.
