[NTW] WEEKLY HIGHLIGHT/NEUROSCIENCE/PRESIDENTIAL SCHOLARS/COLUMBIA/INTERDISCIPLINARY] Title: [PresidentialScholars] DEADLINE EXTENDED:
Faculty Seed Grants for Presidential Scholars in Society and Neuroscience Program
Sponsor: COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY;
Deadline(s): REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS – DEADLINE EXTENDED UNTIL FEBRUARY 20, 2015;
Contact: For more information, please contact Dr. Melinda Miller, Associate Director, PSSN, at melinda.miller@columbia.edu or x47211.;

Additional Information: Presidential Scholars in Society and Neuroscience Program Faculty Seed Grants for Interdisciplinary Projects in Society and Neuroscience; The Presidential Scholars in Society and Neuroscience Program (PSSN) invites all full-time faculty at Columbia University and Barnard College to submit proposals for interdisciplinary projects that lie at the intersection of neuroscience, the humanities, and the social sciences. Faculty Seed Grant Competition: The PSSN Program will offer annual seed/pilot grants to enable collaboration between Columbia and Barnard faculty in the humanities and/or social sciences, and faculty in the natural sciences whose primary focus is the empirical study of mind, brain, and behavior. This request for proposals is open to all full-time faculty at Columbia University and Barnard College that contribute to these interdisciplinary goals. Proposals should outline interdisciplinary research that involves either direct collaboration between neuroscientists and researchers from other disciplines, or traverses traditional disciplinary boundaries in order to investigate issues relevant to society and neuroscience. Awards will be made of up to a total of $30,000 for projects 1 – 2 years in duration.; Proposals should describe clearly the research problem and its significance for society and neuroscience. Generally, proposals that involve research already in progress, or stand-alone curriculum development, will not be funded. Only proposals with detailed budgets and budget justifications will be accepted, and priority will be given to proposals with concrete plans for developing and expanding the research by obtaining additional external funding.; All seed grant applications must be received in full by 5:00 p.m. EST on Friday, February 20, 2015. Eligible proposals will be evaluated based on the following criteria: () The intellectual merit and originality of the proposed project; () The extent to which the proposed research is interdisciplinary and collaborative; () The project’s feasibility, and the appropriate and judicious use of funds; () The investigators’ plan for seeking subsequent extramural funding beyond this pilot/seed grant; () The background and experience of the investigator(s) for the proposed research; () Approximately 3 – 5 grants of up to $30,000 each will be awarded.; Submitting Proposals: To apply, please submit the following as a single PDF document by 5:00 p.m. EST on Friday, February 20, 2015 to Dr. Melinda Miller, Associate Director, PSSN, (melinda.miller@columbia.edu) with “Seed Grants for Interdisciplinary Projects in Society and Neuroscience” in the subject line of the email: () Cover page, including title of proposal, principal investigator(s) and departmental affiliations, an executive summary of the project, and the total funding amount sought; () Proposal narrative with timeline of research (no more than 10 pages double-spaced in 12-point font); () Itemized projected budget; () Budget narrative; () CVs for each investigator; () Figures or tables, if applicable; () Bibliography and references cited; () Plan for securing external funding; (*) Letter(s) of support for the project from principal investigator(s)’ department, center, and/or institute chairs; Conditions of Receipt: Grant recipients must provide annual reports on project activities, including updates on external funding proposals (successful or unsuccessful), and any papers, publications, and/or reports resulting from seed grant activities. When applicable, research projects involving human subjects and/or animals must obtain (and keep current) approval from the appropriate University regulatory offices.; Background: The PSSN Program will foster innovative research that crosses traditional disciplinary boundaries between the natural and social sciences and the humanities. This Program will (1) provide seed funding for crosscutting research initiatives undertaken by Columbia and Barnard full-time faculty members, and (2) train and foster a new generation of scholars in interdisciplinary research and orientation. These new scholars—the Presidential Scholars in Society and Neuroscience—will be recent doctoral graduates from across the humanities and/or social sciences, who have critical understandings of the cultural and social dimensions of mind, brain, and behavior. The Presidential Scholars will be joined by a large group of mentors and affiliated faculty from the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences. The Call for Applications for Presidential Scholars was publicized in Fall 2014, with three Scholars to be appointed in July 2015.; For more information, please contact Dr. Melinda Miller, Associate Director, PSSN, at melinda.miller@columbia.edu or x47211.;

[NTW] [CANCER/COLUMBIA] Title: CARE (formerly RRMO) Pilot Solicitation; SOLICITATION FOR CANCER COMMUNITY AND AMBULATORY RESEARCH AND EDUCATION PILOT GRANTS;
Sponsor: Herbert Irving Comprehensive Cancer Center;
Deadline(s): 3/23/2015;
Contact: ; Any questions about the application should be directed to Manuela Orjuela (mao5@cumc.columbia.edu) or Karen Schmitt (Schmitt@nyp.org);
Link(s): http://hiccc.columbia.edu/; CARE Pilot Solicitation;
Additional Information: The Community and Ambulatory Research and Education Shared Resource (CARE) of the Herbert Irving Comprehensive Cancer Center is soliciting pilot applications for one year pilot projects. The purpose of this initiative is to provide in-kind services to support initial stages of translational or community based cancer research that has the potential to develop into a long term collaborative project that attracts national funding such as an NCI-sponsored R01. The value of these services will be up to $25,000 for the period of the pilot project.; Services may include assistance with development of population appropriate consent and survey instruments, Bilingual recruitment services, survey and questionnaire based instrument administration and data collection, biospecimen collection, Spanish translation of research materials, data review for completeness and accuracy, data entry. Regulatory services include assistance with all IRB submissions, internal monitoring and collaboration with investigators to maximize accrual and timeliness of progress. Data and specimen collection can be conducted both at CUMC, and in neighborhood or home settings. All HICCC members are eligible to apply. The application should be no more than 3 pages and should include: () One page of aims; () One page of research protocol with study design and analysis plans; () One page of feasibility documentation (i.e. clinical/community based volume) and project team members; The application should also include a departmental letter of support. (Not included in page limit.); Application Deadline: March 23, 2015; () Submit applications to the HICCC Grants Office at hicccgrants@icg.cpmc.columbia.edu; (*) Funding available April 23, 2015; CARE provides a centralized, multidisciplinary, culturally sensitive, efficient and cost-effective resource for recruiting human subjects to participate in clinical and translational research spanning the continuum of cancer prevention and control. From carcinogenesis, risk, and screening to supportive care and survivorship, CARE offers expertise in recruiting participants in cancer studies from the community, screening centers and the HICCC patient population. Services offered include targeted outreach, recruitment, and study retention services. CARE expertise includes a specific focus on inclusion and participation of the diverse populations residing in our catchment area, and in obtaining usable quality data via interviews and collection of biological samples. In order to insure adequate study enrollment, which because of age, gender and ethnic diversity have varying risks and needs, CARE interfaces closely with existing funded screening programs. In addition, CARE has strong relationships with community-based organizations, has been highly successful in promoting community participation in research, and partners with NYP and community-based organizations to train Community Health Workers in order to encourage participation of diverse and disadvantaged communities in cancer research. Any questions about the application should be directed to Manuela Orjuela (mao5@cumc.columbia.edu) or Karen Schmitt (Schmitt@nyp.org).;

Deadline(s): 04/25/2015; 05/25/2015;
Contact: E-mail: zren@mail.nih.gov;
Additional Information: SYNOPSIS: National Institute of Child Health and Human Development (NICHD) invites grant applications from institutions/organizations that propose creative and innovative institutional research training programs in the mission area(s) of the NICHD. The purpose of the training program is to help ensure that a diverse pool of highly trained scientists is available in appropriate scientific disciplines to address the nation’s biomedical, behavioral, and clinical research needs. The goals of this training program are: (1) to encourage and support training in pediatric and/or obstetric pharmacoepidemiology; and (2) to produce a well-qualified cadre of academic investigators who are capable of conducting pharmacoepidemiologic research in children and/or pregnant women. This FOA will utilize the NIH T32 Institutional National Research Service Award (NRSA); DEADLINE NOTE: The deadline for receipt of optional letters of intent is April 25 annually. The deadline for receipt of full applications is May 25 annually. This FOA will expire on May 26, 2015.;

[NTW] [NEUROLOGICAL/PARKINSONS DISEASE/FOUNDATION FUNDING/COLUMBIA] Title: 2014-2015 Request for Planning and Pilot Grants in Parkinson’s Disease and Related Disorders Deadline April 1, 2015
Sponsor: The Parkinson’s Disease Foundation (PDF) Research Center at Columbia University;
Deadline(s): April 1, 2015;
Contact: Email to: movdis@columbia.edu;
Link(s): http://www.pdf.org/en/center_grants;
Additional Information: The Parkinson’s Disease Foundation (PDF) Research Center at Columbia University is soliciting pilot grant proposals from Columbia community faculty and trainees that provide new directions for PD research. Priority will be given to projects involving collaboration between PIs who are new to the field of PD and PIs who are experienced in PD, and to interdisciplinary projects that involve collaborations between basic science PIs and clinical research PIs, or PIs outside CUMC and PD experts at CUMC. Those interested in exploring collaborations with PIs experienced in PD are encouraged to make preliminary inquiries (movdis@columbia.edu) for assistance to pair up with PD PIs. Other criteria for selection include: () Innovation; () Establishing newly-configured, sustainable, multidisciplinary investigative teams; () Training and mentoring a new generation of investigators; () Expanding and optimizing the utilization of new and existing resources at CUMC; (*) Producing pilot data that are likely to lead to a major grant funded by the NIH or other public or private agency; Deadline: April 1, 2015; Application: cover page with budget (template attached), proposal (1 – 2 pages for Planning, 3 – 5 pages for Pilot Grants), NIH biosketches of significant personnel; Eligibility: Assistant Professors, Associate Professors, and Professors (except fellowship awards); Email to: movdis@columbia.edu (acknowledgement of receipt will be sent within 3 days); Three mechanisms are available; Planning Grant: Duration: 4 Months from date that grant is awarded.; Award Amount: up to $10,000; Guidelines for Application The proposed planning activities should bring together faculty with expertise from diverse disciplines and may include outside consultants with unique experience or expertise in innovative approaches not currently available on CUMC. A specific and well laid out plan to lead to a pilot grant involving interdisciplinary team must be provided. In order to track the evolution of these multidisciplinary collaborations, planning activities must be documented as part of a progress report within the Phase II Pilot Grant application, which will be due 15 days after the termination of the planning grant.; Pilot Grant: Duration: 1 year from date that grant is awarded.; Award
Amount; up to $50,000; Guidelines for Application: One-year, $50,000 awards to support pilot work with the clear goal of submitting an NIH proposal. Applicants who received a planning grant will have priority. A final report is due at the end of the grant period. An additional fund up to $25,000 may be awarded as bridge funding when an external grant application that resulted from the pilot grant has been reviewed favorably for funding (expenses until funding start date) or revision (support to get to resubmission). The study section critique and scores will be reviewed by ISAB for a bridge funding decision.; Fellowship Grant: Duration: 1 year from date that grant is awarded.; Award Amount: up to $40,000 (toward the cost of tuition and fringe); Guidelines for Application: One-year award to support outstanding candidates for a postdoctoral fellowship or to support graduate studies in a Columbia PhD program. Based upon satisfactory review of the annual progress report and available funding, the award may be renewed for a second year. This award may be particularly beneficial for those not eligible for training grants or NRSA. The review criteria will include strong interest in Parkinson’s disease as a career topic and a promise for an outstanding academic career, as well as scientific and training merits of the project. A joint mentorship of PD experts and those in other areas are encouraged. The candidates will be interviewed by the selection committee. Awardees will be required to attend PDF center seminar series and be given opportunities to shadow clinicians to learn about PD.; Parkinson’s Disease Foundation; Research Center at Columbia University; Planning [ ]; Pilot Grant [ ]; Fellowship [ ]; Application 2015; (Please mark the type of grant applied for.); Title of the project: ; PI:; Co-PI: (mentors for a fellowship application); Other significant personnel including trainees; (Please attach NIH style biosketch including research statement); BUDGET:; Personnel; Experimental Supplies; Other Expenses: TOTAL: ;

[NTW] [FOUNDATION FUNDING/LIMITED SUBMISSION/INTERNAL VETTING] Title: Limited Submission; 2015 Feldstein Medical Foundation Grants; Sponsor: Feldstein Medical Foundation; Deadline(s): Internal proposal deadline – 9:00 a.m. on Friday, February 13, 2015.; Contact: Please combine the five parts of the internal proposal into one pdf file and email to: gcc19@columbia.edu and nb3952@columbia.edu by no later than 9:00 a.m. on Friday, February 13, 2015. The subject heading of the email should be “2015 FMF Grants”.; Please direct questions to gcc19@columbia.edu.; Greg Culler; Associate Director | Research Initiatives; Columbia | Research; Office of the Executive Vice President for Research; Columbia University in the City of New York 408A Low Memorial Library, MC 4312; 535 West 116th Street; New York, New York 10027; Phone: (212) 854-6285; Email: gregory.culler@columbia.edu; Link(s): http://www.feldsteinmedicalfoundation.org/; http://www.feldsteinmedicalfoundation.org/Grants.html; Additional Information: WHAT: The Feldstein Medical Foundation (FMF) is a private foundation, created to promote and advance previously neglected areas of medical research. FMF is based in the New York/New Jersey metropolitan area, thus the Foundation will prioritize funding in this geographic area. Proposals cannot be for already funded projects or bridging support for projects for which funding has lapsed. Matching monetary or non-monetary resources are encouraged. A letter of support is required for all matching resources. FMF will fund projects with a total annual cost of up to $60,000 (a maximum of 10% indirect costs may be included). Applicants may seek grants for a period of up to one year.; PROGRAM EMPHASIS: FMF is particularly focused on funding: · Research in previously underfunded areas; · Promising junior investigators (assistant professor level) with a history of some prior funding; · New or innovative research; · Research where FMF grants will have the maximum beneficial impact; FMF’s grants will be made in varied areas of medical research, including: · Translation / implementation studies; · Medical education research; · Basic science; · Early clinical research; INSTITUTIONAL LIMIT: 2 proposals; WHO: The following eligibility terms apply.; · The Feldstein
Foundation prioritizes funding junior investigators at the assistant professor level who have secured some prior independent funding. Due to the focus on independence projects that are an extension of senior faculty work are not appropriate. Publications independent of former mentors, and some level of independent funding, as PI, are both significant signs of independence and will factor in the internal review.

WHEN: Internal Proposal due – 9:00 a.m. on Friday, February 13, 2015; Sponsor Proposal due – Monday, March 2, 2015.

HOW: The internal proposal must include the following: (1) Cover Sheet with PI’s name, title, department and contact information. Also include a project title.; (2) Project Narrative (Limited to 6 pages, single-spaced using Arial 11-point font with one-inch margins all around. The 6-page limit does not include references), The narrative should be structured in the following sections: (a) Specific Aims, including clear measurable objectives; (b) Background and Significance; (c) Preliminary Studies (if warranted); (d) Research Design and Methods; (e) Timeline (completion of project is expected to occur within 12 months from start date); (3) Letter of Support from Department Chair.; (4) Biosketch in NIH format; (5) Other Funding – please provide a list of current and pending grants; Please combine the five parts of the internal proposal into one pdf file and email to: gcc19@columbia.edu and mb3952@columbia.edu by no later than 9:00 a.m. on Friday, February 13, 2015. Additional Information: SYNOPSIS: National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA) invites applications for Phased Innovation (R21/R33) projects to determine whether reductions in illicit drug use are associated with positive changes in health-related and other functional outcomes in individuals with substance use disorders (SUDs). Functional outcomes include, for example, reductions in morbidity, mortality, criminal justice involvement, overall healthcare expenditures. This FOA provides support for up to two years (R21 phase) for research planning activities and feasibility studies, followed by possible transition to expanded research support (R33 phase). The transition to the R33 phase will be determined by NIH program evaluation of successful achievement of the milestones set for the R21 phase. The ultimate goal of this FOA is to provide evidence that will enable regulatory authorities to accept reductions in illicit drug use as a valid outcome measure in clinical trials of pharmacotherapies for the treatment of SUDs. This program will use the NIH R21/R33 Phased Innovation Award mechanism.; DEADLINE NOTE: Applications may be submitted to Grants.gov in response to this announcement on or after May 16, 2015. The deadlines for receipt of standard applications under this announcement are: February 16, June 16, and October 16 annually. The deadlines for receipt of AIDS-related applications are: January 7, May 7, and September 7 annually. This program will expire on September 8, 2017.;

Additional Information: SYNOPSIS: National Human Genome Research Institute (NHGRI) and National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH) invite applications for the Centers of Excellence in Genomic Sciences (CEGS) program. The program establishes academic Centers for advanced genome research. Each CEGS grant supports a multi-investigator, interdisciplinary team to develop innovative genomic approaches to address a particular biomedical problem. A CEGS project will address a critical issue in genomic science or genomic medicine, proposing a solution that would be a very substantial advance. Thus, the research conducted at these Centers will entail substantial risk, balanced by outstanding scientific and management plans and very high potential payoff. A CEGS will focus on the development of novel technological or computational methods for the production or analysis of comprehensive data sets, or on a particular genome-scale biomedical problem, or on other ways to develop and use genomic approaches for understanding biological systems and/or significantly furthering the application of genomic knowledge, data and methods towards clinical applications; Exploiting its outstanding scientific plan and team, each CEGS will nurture genomic science at its institution by facilitating the interaction of investigators from different disciplines, and, by providing training to new and experienced investigators, it will expand the pool of highly-qualified professional genomics scientists and engineers. This FOA will utilize the Specialized P50 Center grant mechanism.; DEADLINE NOTE: Applications may be submitted to Grants.gov in response to this announcement on or after June 2, 2014. The deadline for receipt of optional letters of intent is thirty days prior to the application deadline(s). The deadlines for receipt of full applications are: July 2, 2014; May 20, 2015; May 20, 2016, by 5:00 PM local time of applicant organization. This program will expire on May 21, 2016.;

[NTW] [POPULATION] Title: RFA-HD-15-009--Population Dynamics Centers Research Infrastructure FY 2015 (P2C);
Sponsor: National Institute of Child Health and Human Development/NIH/DHHS;
Deadline(s): 02/27/2015; 03/27/2015;
Contact: E-mail: rclark@mail.nih.gov;
Link to full program description: http://www.infoed.org/new_spin/spin_prog.asp?45473;
Additional Information: SYNOPSIS: National Institute of Child Health and Human Development (NICHD) invites applications to advance the field of population dynamics research by increasing research productivity, develop junior scientists, and maximize the efficiency of research support. This FOA will utilize the NIH P2C Resource-Related Research Multi-Component Projects and Centers award mechanism. DEADLINE NOTE: Applications must be submitted to Grants.gov through NIH's new Application Submission System & Interface for Submission Tracking (ASSIST). Applications may be submitted to Grants.gov in response to this announcement on or after February 27, 2015. The deadline for receipt of optional letters of intent is February 27, 2015. The deadline for receipt of full applications is March 27, 2015, by 5:00 PM local time of applicant organization.;

[NTW] [REHABILITATION] Title: RFA-HD-15-010--Medical Rehabilitation Research Resource (P2C);
Sponsor: National Institute of Child Health and Human Development/NIH/DHHS;
Deadline(s): 02/25/2015; 03/25/2015;
Contact: E-mail: m2le@nih.gov;
Link to full program description: http://www.infoed.org/new_spin/spin_prog.asp?45476;
Additional Information: SYNOPSIS: National Institutes of Health (NIH) and its participating Institutes and Centers invite applications that propose to build research infrastructure to promote external collaboration with the medical rehabilitation community. The aim of this FOA is to create a national network of research cores that provide access to collateral expertise in biomedical, behavioral, engineering, and/or psychosocial fields that is particularly relevant to medical rehabilitation research. The sponsoring ICs are particularly interested in supporting infrastructure programs in clinical trial design, engineering and the environment, individualized medical rehabilitation and dynamic reassessment, and applied behavioral supports for rehabilitation research and healthy outcomes. However, other areas of expertise may be proposed provided they offer unique research opportunities and have potential for promoting medical rehabilitation research and improving outcomes for people with disabilities. In response to this FOA, applicants should propose a program of research resources and collaborative opportunities in a specific research domain. This may be accomplished through a workshops, written material, and websites, consultations, collaborations, and pilot funding. In addition, the research core may support activities within the grantee institution related to technique development, adaptation, and validation. To accomplish the aims of the FOA, applicants may propose collaborations to other institutional sites, provided that they cover the appropriate administrative and logistical issues. This FOA will use the NIH P2C Resource-Related Research Multi-Component Projects and Centers award mechanism.; DEADLINE NOTE: Applications must be submitted to Grants.gov through NIH's new Application Submission System & Interface for Submission Tracking (ASSIST). Applications may be submitted to Grants.gov in response to this announcement on or after February 25, 2015. The deadline for receipt of optional letters of intent is February 25, 2015. The deadline for receipt of full applications is March 25, 2015, by 5:00 PM local time of applicant organization.;

[NTW] [MATERNAL AND CHILD HEALTH (MCH)] Title: National Fetal, Infant and Child Death Review Center Program; Grant; Sponsor: Maternal and Child Health Bureau/HRSA/DHHS; Department of Health and Human Services; Health Resources and Services Administration; Deadline(s): 03/20/2015; Contact: Department of Health and Human Services, Health Resources and Services Administration, HRSA Grants Application Center, 910 Clopper Road, Suite 155 South, Gaithersburg, MD, 20878; DPikey@hrsa.gov; Contact Diane Pilkey, RN MPH at (301)-44-3-89 Ext. 27 or email DPikey@hrsa.gov; E-mail: dpilkey@hrsa.gov; Link(s): Web Site: http://www.grants.gov/view-opportunity.html?oppId=271612; Link to full program description: http://www.infoed.org/new_spin/spin_prog.asp?45486; Program URL: https://grants.hrsa.gov/webExternal/SFO.asp?ID=5e405f5a-fc38-4c44-af3a-2403cb257604; Additional Information: SYNOPSIS: Maternal and Child Health Bureau (MCHB) is accepting applications for fiscal year (FY) 2015 for a National Fetal, Infant, and Child Death Review Center (FICDRC). The purpose of the funding opportunity is to provide support for one awardee to improve and strengthen state and local capacity to perform complete and accurate fetal, infant and child death reviews. Approximately $1.0 million per year is available.;

[NTW] [MATERNAL AND CHILD HEALTH (MCH)/OBESITY] Title: Maternal Nutrition and Pre-pregnancy Obesity: Effects on Mothers, Infants and Children (R01); Sponsor: National Institute of Nursing Research/NIH/DHHS; Deadline(s): 06/05/2015; 09/07/2015; 10/05/2015; 01/07/2016; 02/05/2016; 05/07/2016; 06/05/2016; 09/07/2016; 10/05/2016; 01/07/2017; 02/05/2017; 05/07/2017; 06/05/2017; 09/07/2017; 10/05/2017; 01/07/2018; 02/05/2018; 05/07/2018; Contact: E-mail: hardylr@mail.nih.gov; FBOWebmaster@OD.NIH.GOV; Link(s): Program URL: http://grants1.nih.gov/grants/guide/pa-files/PA-15-100.html; Link to full program description: http://www.infoed.org/new_spin/spin_prog.asp?45514; Link(s): http://www.grants.gov/web/grants/view-opportunity.html?oppId=272088; Additional Information: SYNOPSIS: National Institute of Nursing Research (NINR) and Office of Dietary Supplements (ODS) invite applications to improve health outcomes for women, infants and children, by stimulating interdisciplinary research focused on maternal nutrition and pre-pregnancy obesity. Maternal health significantly impacts not only the mother but also the intrauterine environment, and subsequently fetal development and the health of the newborn. This FOA will use the NIH Research Project (R01) award mechanism.; DEADLINE NOTE: Applications may be submitted to Grants.gov in response to this announcement on or after May 5, 2015. The deadlines for receipt of standard R01 applications under this announcement are: February 5, June 5, and October 5 annually. The deadlines for receipt of AIDS-related applications are: January 7, May 7, and September 7 annually. This program will expire on May 8, 2018.; [NTW] [MATERNAL AND CHILD HEALTH (MCH)] Title: Maternal and Child Health Public Health Catalyst Program Grant; Sponsor: HHS; Department of Health and Human Services; Health Resources and Services Administration; Maternal and Child Health Bureau/HRSA; Deadline(s): March 13, 2015; Contact: Department of Health and Human Services, Health Resources and Services Administration, HRSA Grants Application Center, 910 Clopper Road, Suite 155 South, Gaithersburg, MD, 20878 MTissue@hrsa.gov; Contact Michelle Menser Tissue, MPH at (301) 443- Ext. 6853 or email MTissue@hrsa.gov; Link(s): Link to full program description: http://www.infoed.org/new_spin/spin_prog.asp?45540; Web Site: http://www.grants.gov/view-opportunity.html?oppId=272131; Program URL: https://grants.hrsa.gov/webExternal/SFO.asp?ID=882552b2-a92d-4f1e-91d6-40ac61668ead; Additional Information: SYNOPSIS: Maternal and Child Health Bureau (MCHB) is accepting applications from accredited schools of public health for fiscal year (FY) 2015 Maternal and Child Health (MCH) Public Health Catalyst Program (Catalyst Program). The purpose of this grant program is to: 1) provide an increased focus on fundamental MCH content and competencies within schools of public health where no concentration currently exists, and 2) provide MCH content exposure to an increased number of public health students, introducing students to careers in the maternal and child health field. The successful applicants will seek to provide MCH exposure to graduate students, including individuals from underrepresented backgrounds (including racial and ethnic minorities), who are also underrepresented in the maternal and child health field. A total of approximately $350,000 per year is available.;

[NTW] [MATERNAL AND CHILD HEALTH (MCH)] Title: Centers of Excellence in Maternal and Child Health in Education, Science and Practice Grant; Sponsor: HHS; Department of Health and Human Services; Health Resources and Services Administration; Maternal and Child Health Bureau/HRSA; Deadline(s): March 18, 2015; Contact: Department of Health and Human Services, Health Resources and Services Administration, HRSA Grants Application Center, 910 Clopper Road, Suite 155 South, Gaithersburg, MD, 20878 dsofka@hrsa.gov; Contact Denise Sofka, MPH, RD at (301)443-0344 or email dsofka@hrsa.gov; Link(s): Link to full program description: http://www.infoed.org/new_spin/spin_prog.asp?45539; Web Site: http://www.grants.gov/view-opportunity.html?oppId=272134; Program URL: https://grants.hrsa.gov/webExternal/SFO.asp?ID=882552b2-a92d-4f1e-91d6-40ac61668ead; Additional Information: SYNOPSIS: Maternal and Child Health Bureau (MCHB) in the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), is accepting applications for fiscal year (FY) 2015 Centers of Excellence in Maternal and Child Health (MCH) Education, Science and Practice (Centers of Excellence in MCH). The purpose of this grant program is to prepare future MCH public health professionals to achieve optimal MCH outcomes and to advance MCH science, research, practice and policy. Applicants may apply for the Centers of Excellence in MCH with no enhancement or the Centers of Excellence in MCH with an enhancement, entitled MCH Academic Postdoctoral Enhancement. A total of approximately $5,090,000 per year is available.; DEADLINE NOTE: The deadline for receipt of optional letters of intent is February 6, 2015. The deadline for receipt of full applications is March 18, 2015.;

[NTW] [CLINICAL TRIALS/MENTAL HEALTH] Title: RFA-MH-15-310--Exploratory Clinical Trials of Novel Interventions for Mental Disorders (R33);
Sponsor: National Institute of Mental Health/NIH/DHHS;
Deadline(s): 02/19/2015;
Contact: E-mail: awagner@mail.nih.gov;
Link to full program description: http://www.infoed.org/new_spin/spin_prog.asp?38617;
Additional Information: SYNOPSIS: National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH) invites applications for the efficient pilot testing of novel interventions for mental disorders in adults and children through an experimental therapeutics approach. Under this FOA, trials must be designed so that results, whether positive or negative, will provide information of high scientific utility and will support “go/no-go” decisions about further development or testing of the intervention. Studies of novel interventions include, but are not limited to behavioral, pharmacological, biologics-based, cognitive, device-based, interpersonal, physiological, or combined approaches. Support will be provided for testing and validating the intervention’s mechanism of action and for studies relating the mechanism to functional or clinical effects. Ultimately, this funding mechanism is intended to speed the translation of emerging basic science findings of mechanisms and processes underlying mental disorders into novel interventions that can be efficiently tested for their promise in restoring function and reducing symptoms for those living with mental disorders. This FOA will use the NIH R33 Exploratory/Developmental Grants Phase II award mechanism.; DEADLINE NOTE: The deadline for receipt of full applications is February 19, 2015, by 5:00 PM local time of applicant organization.;

Studies of novel interventions include, but are not limited to behavioral, pharmacological, biologics-based, cognitive, device-based, interpersonal, physiological, or combined approaches. Support will be provided for up to two years (R21 phase) for preliminary milestone-driven testing and validating of the intervention’s mechanism of action, possibly followed by up to 3 years of support (R33 phase) for studies relating the mechanism to functional or clinical effects. Ultimately, this R21/R33 funding mechanism is intended to speed the translation of emerging basic science findings of mechanisms and processes underlying mental disorders into novel interventions that can be efficiently tested for their promise in restoring function and reducing symptoms for those living with mental disorders. This FOA will use the NIH R21/R33 Phased Innovation Award mechanism.; DEADLINE NOTE: The deadline for receipt of full applications is February 19, 2015, by 5:00 PM local time of applicant organization.

[NTW] [CLINICAL TRIALS/MENTAL HEALTH] Title: RFA-MH-15-340--Confirmatory Efficacy Clinical Trials of Non-Pharmacological Interventions for Mental Disorders (R01);
Sponsor: National Institute of Mental Health/NIH/DHHS;
Deadline(s): 02/19/2015;
Contact: E-mail: awagner@mail.nih.gov;
Link to full program description: http://www.infoed.org/new_spin/spin_prog.asp?40513;
Additional Information: SYNOPSIS: National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH) invites applications for confirmatory efficacy testing of non-pharmacological therapeutic and preventive interventions for mental disorders in adults and children through an experimental therapeutics approach. Under this FOA, trials must be designed so that results, whether positive or negative, will provide information of high scientific utility and will support “go/no-go” decisions about further development or effectiveness testing of a targeted, scaled-up intervention. Intervention studies include, but are not limited to behavioral, cognitive, and interpersonal approaches, or a combination thereof. Interventions appropriate for efficacy testing must be based on a compelling scientific rationale, previous demonstration that the intervention engages and alters the hypothesized mechanism of action, a preliminary efficacy signal, and must address an unmet therapeutic need. Support will be provided for a trial of the intervention’s efficacy that includes measurement of the hypothesized mechanism of action and the relationship between change in the mechanism and change in functional or clinical effects. Ultimately, this FOA is intended to support a sufficiently-powered efficacy trial to determine the intervention’s potential for significant clinical benefit. This FOA will use the NIH Research Project (R01) award mechanism.; DEADLINE NOTE: The deadline for receipt of full applications February 19, 2015, by 5:00 PM local time of applicant organization.;

[NTW] [CLINICAL TRIALS] Title: RFA-MH-15-320--Clinical Trials to Test the Effectiveness of Treatment, Preventive, and Services Interventions; (R01);
Sponsor: National Institute of Mental Health/NIH/DHHS;
Deadline(s): 02/19/2015;
Contact: E-mail: jsherrill@mail.nih.gov;
Link to full program description: http://www.infoed.org/new_spin/spin_prog.asp?38622;
Additional Information: SYNOPSIS: National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH) invites applications for investigator-initiated clinical trials to establish the effectiveness of interventions and to test hypotheses regarding moderators, mediators, and mechanisms of action of these interventions. This FOA supports clinical trials designed to test the therapeutic value of treatment and preventive interventions for which there is already evidence of efficacy, for use in community and practice settings. Applications might include research to evaluate the effectiveness or increase the clinical impact of pharmacologic, somatic, psychosocial (psychotherapeutic, behavioral), rehabilitative and combination interventions to prevent or treat mental illness. This FOA also supports clinical trials to test patient-, provider-, organizational-, or systems-level services interventions to improve service access, engagement, quality, coordination, or delivery, with the goal of improved outcomes at the individual and population level. The intervention research covered under this announcement is explicitly focused on practice-relevant questions. Applications must justify the potential impact of the proposed intervention/services models on practice and public health in terms of the magnitude of likely improvements in key outcomes (e.g., effect size, safety/tolerability profile, value and efficiency, and dissemination potential), as compared to existing approaches. This FOA will use the NIH R01 Research Project Grant award mechanism. ; DEADLINE NOTE: The deadline for receipt of full applications is February 19, 2015, by 5:00 PM local time of applicant organization.;

This FOA should be used when two or more sites are needed to complete the study. Accordingly, the collaborating studies share a specific protocol across the sites and are organized as such in order to increase sample size, accelerate recruitment, or increase sample diversity and representation. Each site has its own Program Director/Principal Investigator and the program provides a mechanism for cross-site coordination, quality control, database management, statistical analysis, and reporting. This FOA will use the NIH R01 Research Project Grant award mechanism. ; DEADLINE NOTE: The deadline for receipt of full applications is February 19, 2015, by 5:00 PM local time of applicant organization.;

[NTW] [MENTAL HEALTH/TRANSLATIONAL] Title: Silvio O. Conte Centers for Basic or Translational Mental Health Research (P50); Sponsor: National Institute of Mental Health/NIH/DHHS; Deadline(s): 04/25/2015; 05/25/2015; 04/25/2016; 05/25/2016; Contact: E-mail: casanuma@mail.nih.gov; Link(s): Program URL: http://grants1.nih.gov/grants/guide/pa-files/PAR-14-120.html; Link to full program description: http://www.infoed.org/new_spin/spin_prog.asp?38735; Additional Information: SYNOPSIS: National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH) invites applications for Silvio O. Conte Centers for Basic or Translational Mental Health Research. The institute seeks teams of researchers working at different levels of analysis and employing integrative, novel, and creative experimental approaches to address high-risk, high-impact questions with the primary objective of: (a) advancing the state of the science in brain and behavior research that will ultimately provide the foundation for understanding mental disorders; (b) supporting the integration and translation of basic and clinical neuroscience research on severe mental illnesses; and/or (c) advancing our understanding of the neurobehavioral developmental mechanisms and trajectories of psychopathology that begin in childhood and adolescence. The Conte Centers program is intended to support interdisciplinary basic and/or translational research demonstrating an extraordinary level of synergy, integration, and potential for advancing the state of the field. This program is intended only for projects that could not be achieved using other, more standard grant mechanisms. The Conte Centers program also provides an opportunity to establish interdisciplinary basic and/or translational research experiences for individuals in training. This FOA will utilize the NIH Specialized Centers (P50) award mechanism.; DEADLINE NOTE: Applications must be submitted to Grants.gov through NIH's new Application Submission System & Interface for Submission Tracking (ASSIST). The deadlines for receipt of optional letters of intent are: April 25, 2015; and April 25, 2016. The deadlines for receipt of full applications are: May 25, 2015; and May 25, 2016, by 5:00 PM local time of applicant organization. This program will expire on May 26, 2016.;

[NTW] [ASSAY DEVELOPMENT/CHEMISTRY] Title: RFA-ES-15-006--Novel Assays for Screening the Effects of Chemical Toxicants on Cell Differentiation; (R43/R44);
Sponsor: National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences/NIH/DHHS;
Deadline(s): 02/19/2015;
Contact: E-mail: shaughn1@niehs.nih.gov;
Link to full program description: http://www.infoed.org/new_spin/spin_prog.asp?44708;
Additional Information: SYNOPSIS: National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences (NIEHS) invites applications for Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) from small business concerns (SBCs) to develop medium- to high-throughput assays to develop medium- to high-throughput assays to evaluate the effects of toxicants on pluripotent or induced pluripotent cells with respect to cell differentiation and the resulting differentiated cell populations. The ability to incorporate genetic diversity in these assays would be useful. These assays will provide information on mechanisms of chemically-induced biological activity, help to prioritize chemicals for more extensive toxicological evaluation, support more predictive models of in vivo biological response, and potentially inform on the role of genetic diversity in toxicological effects. This FOA will utilize the R43/R44 Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) Grant - Phase I, Phase II, and Fast-Track applications.; DEADLINE NOTE: The deadline for receipt of full applications is February 19, 2015, by 5:00 PM local time of applicant organization.;

Additional Information: SYNOPSIS: The National Institute of Dental and Craniofacial Research (NIDCR) invites applications from eligible, domestic institutions to enhance predoctoral and postdoctoral research training to ensure that a diverse and highly qualified workforce is available to address the Nation’s basic and clinical biomedical and behavioral or social sciences research agenda. Research training programs will incorporate didactic, research, and career development components to prepare individuals for careers as independent scientists that will have a significant impact on the dental, oral, and craniofacial health-related research needs of the Nation. This Funding Opportunity Announcement (FOA) will utilize the NIH T32 Institutional National Research Service Award (NRSA) mechanism. ; DEADLINE NOTE: Applications may be submitted to Grants.gov in response to this announcement on or after August 25, 2015. The deadline for receipt of optional letters of intent is August 25 annually. The deadline for receipt of standard full applications is September 25 annually. This FOA will expire on September 26, 2017.;

[NTW] [INTERVENTIONS] Title: RFA-MH-15-330--Pilot Effectiveness Studies and Services Research Grants (R34); Sponsor: National Institute of Mental Health/NIH/DHHS; Deadline(s): 02/19/2015; Contact: E-mail: jsherril@mail.nih.gov; Link(s): Program URL: http://grants1.nih.gov/grants/guide/rfa-files/RFA-MH-15-330.html; Link to full program description: http://www.infoed.org/new_spin/spin_prog.asp?38625; Additional Information: SYNOPSIS: National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH) invites applications for pilot research consistent with NIMH’s priorities for: 1) effectiveness research on interventions with previously demonstrated efficacy, for use with broader target populations or for use in community practice settings, and 2) innovative services research directions that require preliminary testing or development. Applications should provide resources for evaluating the feasibility, tolerability, acceptability and safety of approaches to improve mental health and modify risk factors, and for obtaining the preliminary data needed as a pre-requisite to a larger-scale intervention trial (e.g., comparative effectiveness study, practical trial) or large-scale services study. In this pilot phase of intervention and services research, NIMH places highest priority on approaches that can be justified in terms of their potential to substantially impact practice and public health and approaches that are empirically grounded.; Specifically: 1) Applications should justify the potential impact of the proposed intervention/services models on practice and public health in terms of the magnitude of likely improvements in effect size, safety/tolerability profile, value and efficiency, or dissemination potential, as compared to existing approaches; 2) Adaptations or augmentations of efficacious interventions should only be undertaken if there is an empirical rationale for the adaptation target and for the corresponding mechanism by which the adapted intervention or augmentation is expected to substantially enhance outcomes; and 3) For pilot tests of intervention effectiveness or service delivery approaches, the study should be designed to explicitly address whether the intervention engages the mechanism that is presumed to underlie the intervention effects. This FOA will use the NIH R34 Planning Grant award mechanism.; DEADLINE NOTE: The deadline for receipt of full applications is February 19, 2015, by 5:00 PM local time of applicant organization.;

Title: Ebola Projects/ MTA’s;
Sponsor: CUMC Sponsored Projects and Office of Research Administration; Deadline(s): NA;
Contact: NA;
Link(s): NA;
Additional Information: From Rudina Odeh-Ramadan, via Rosa Rivera; RE: Ebola Projects/ MTA’s; Dear All, The University continues to closely monitor information and recommendations regarding travel to West Africa countries experiencing the Ebola virus outbreak. Please note that any proposals with proposed travel to Guinea, Sierra Leone, or Liberia or the receipt of specimens from any of the three countries require approval from the Provost. The Provost’s approval must be obtained prior to submission of the proposal. The email below provides more specific information on the policy/procedure regarding this matter.; Thanks, Rosa; Rosa Rivera; Director for MSPH Operations, Sponsored Projects Administration; Associate Dean for Grants & Contracts, Mailman School of Public Health; Columbia University; Telephone: 212-305-0350; Fax: 212-305-6450; Email: nr21@cumc.columbia.edu; Dear All: Additional clarification regarding the policy regarding research (proposals or MTA’s) with proposed travel to Guinea, Sierra Leone, or Liberia or the receipt of specimens from any of the three countries: Please direct the PI of any project that involves travel to Guinea, Sierra Leone, or Liberia to submit the project to his or her dean for approval. If the dean approves the project, he or she should forward it to the Provost for his approval. One prerequisite for the Provost’s approval will be a written evacuation plan; if you could let the PI know that now, so he or she can have it ready for the Provost. Ensure you have a notice of approval from the Provost office prior to submission. Also, please ensure you maintain full documentation with the proposal record. We are also working to implement an indicator flag in InfoEd, so that can properly flag all proposals that meet this requirement.

Link(s): If you or anyone has any concerns, please visit the University’s Ebola Preparedness site or the New York City Department of Health Ebola update page.;

Additional Information: Dear fellow members of the Columbia community: As you may have seen in the media, Dr. Craig Spencer is being treated for Ebola at Bellevue Hospital in Manhattan. Dr. Spencer, an emergency department physician at New York-Presbyterian/Columbia University Medical Center, recently returned from a humanitarian mission with Doctors Without Borders to one of the outbreak areas in Western Africa. We admire and appreciate all of those willing to do this vital and selfless public health work around the globe.; It’s critical to bear in mind what our public health and infectious disease experts have emphasized – that the risk to people in New York City and at Columbia remains extremely low. If you or anyone has any concerns, please visit the University’s Ebola Preparedness site or the New York City Department of Health Ebola update page. You may also contact Student Health Services at 212-854-2284 or Workforce Health and Safety for Faculty/Staff with Hospital Responsibilities at 212-305-7590.; We must keep Dr. Spencer in our thoughts and wish him a full and speedy recovery, as we do the vulnerable populations he serves. We will also continue to keep the Columbia community informed as we learn more from City, State, and Federal health officials.; Sincerely, Lee C. Bollinger;

Additional Information: Dear Colleagues, By now, many of you have learned that a New York Presbyterian physician, Dr. Craig Spencer, who recently returned from treating patients in Guinea, has tested positive for Ebola. I ask you all to keep Dr. Spencer, who is a 2013 Mailman School graduate, in your thoughts, and to acknowledge that the extraordinary efforts of our alumni, current students, and faculty continue to play a critical role in the containment, treatment, and understanding of this outbreak.; At a moment of global distress, public health knowledge is vital. It is important to recognize that this crisis will continue, and that all available scientific information suggests the risk of transmission here is extremely low.; Dr. Spencer’s commitment is among many noteworthy examples of our colleagues passing seamlessly from science to service. As we move through this global crisis, we must all take pride in that commitment. ; Sincerely, Linda;  Linda P. Fried, MD, MPH ; Dean and DeLamar Professor of Public Health; Mailman School of Public Health; Senior Vice President; Columbia University Medical Center; Professor of Epidemiology and Medicine;

Title: CLARIFICATION - RE: 3rd Reminder-eRA Commons IDs and Complete Profiles Required for Students and Postdocs; The requirement for NIH eRA Commons IDs, as per notice NOT-OD-13-097;
Sponsor: NIH;
Deadline(s): Starting in October 2014;
Contact: Stephanie F. Scott, M.S., CRA; Communications and Outreach Director; Sponsored Projects Administration (SPA); Columbia University; Morningside Campus Ph: 212-854-0606; Medical Center (CUMC) Ph: 212-305-1641; Email: sfs2110@columbia.edu; Website: http://spa.columbia.edu/; Link(s): NOT-OD-13-097;
http://spa.columbia.edu/;
Additional Information: This is to clarify the requirement for NIH eRA Commons IDs, as per notice NOT-OD-13-097. The Commons IDs, and complete Personal Profiles, are required for postdocs, graduate and undergraduate students when: () They have participated at least one person month on an NIH award, regardless if they were paid from the grant; and () Their participation is required to be included in Participants Section (D.1) in the Research Performance Progress Report (RPPR) – () note some select NIH grant mechanisms may be exempt from reporting in this section. () The RPPR Instruction Guide contains Supplemental Instructions for Specific Grant Types (such as training awards and multi-project awards), which can be found at:

Tip – when preparing your RPPR, click “Check for Errors” prior to routing the report to your SPA Project Officer. You will be alerted of missing eRA Commons IDs and incomplete profiles. This is the best time to contact SPA-eBiz to request IDs, or to alert individuals to complete their Commons profiles.; If you are requesting an eRA Commons ID from SPA-eBiz please include the following information with your request: () Full Name; () UNI; () Email address; () Campus (Morningside or CUMC); SPA-eBiz will work with you to determine the appropriate eRA Commons role.; Please feel free to ask me, or your assigned SPA Project Officer, any questions. Thank you for your patience!; Stephanie F. Scott, M.S., CRA; Communications and Outreach Director; Sponsored Projects Administration (SPA); Columbia University; Morningside Campus Ph: 212-854-0606; Medical Center (CUMC) Ph: 212-305-1641; Email: sfs2110@columbia.edu; Website: http://spa.columbia.edu/

Additional Information: As we get closer to October 2014, I wanted to remind investigators and administrators of the new NIH progress reporting requirement regarding eRA Commons IDs. Postdocs, graduate and undergraduate students supported on NIH awards must have eRA Commons IDs, with complete eRA Commons Personal Profiles. Beginning with NIH progress reports due October 2014, NIH will not accept progress reports that have missing eRA Commons IDs and incomplete profiles. As you are aware, if NIH rejects a progress report, that could delay issuance of the next year’s funding.; Complete eRA Commons profiles are just as important as the ID itself. NIH can reject the progress report if the following fields are not complete in the profiles: date of birth, gender, race, ethnicity, disabilities, US citizenship status and country of citizenship. Some fields have “I Do Not Wish to Provide” as one of the acceptable responses. For those who have completed undergraduate or graduate degrees (graduate students and postdoctoral researchers), the highest educational degree, the degree date, and the institution where it was earned also should be completed. Tutorials on the eRA Commons Personal Profile can be found at eRA Commons Manage Personal Profile.; If you have graduated and undergraduate students supported on NIH grants who do not have eRA Commons IDs, please have them request an eRA Commons account from SPA at SPA-eBiz@columbia.edu. ; Finally, the Research Performance Progress Report (RPPR) format will be required for all Type 5 non-SNAP progress reports beginning October 17th, 2014 (the paper PHS 2590 forms are being phased out). See NOT-OD-14-092. If you are not yet familiar with the RPPR format, resources are available at http://grants.nih.gov/grants/rppr/; Please share this information with your students and postdocs who are supported on NIH grants. If you have any questions, you may contact me, or your assigned SPA Project Officer.; Steph; Stephanie F. Link(s): NOT-OD-13-097; NOT-OD-14-092; http://grants.nih.gov/grants/rppr/
Additional Information: This is a reminder that beginning October 2014, Research Performance Progress Reports (RPPRs) lacking an eRA Commons ID for graduate and undergraduate students will receive an error and the RPPR will not be accepted by the NIH without this information. RPPRs that are not accepted could delay issuance of Notice of Grant Awards. See full NIH notice at NOT-OD-13-097. Currently, warnings appear in the eRA Commons screens to alert individuals identified as undergraduate students, graduate students, and postdoctoral researchers that the following fields should be completed in their eRA Commons profiles: date of birth, gender, race, ethnicity, disabilities, US citizenship status and country of citizenship. Some fields have “I Do Not Wish to Provide” as one of the acceptable responses. For those who have completed undergraduate or graduate degrees (graduate students and postdoctoral researchers), the highest educational degree, the degree date, and the institution where it was earned also should be completed. Beginning on October 1, 2014, those fields in the eRA Commons screens will be required for individuals identified in any of those three roles. If you have graduate and undergraduate students supported on NIH grants who do not have eRA Commons IDs, please have them request an eRA Commons account from SPA at SPA-eBiz@columbia.edu. In addition, graduate and undergraduate students, and postdoctoral researchers should complete their Personal Profiles in the eRA Commons, ensuring all fields listed above are complete. Tutorials on the Personal Profile can be found at eRA Commons Manage Personal Profile.;

RPPRs will be required for all Type 5 non-SNAP progress reports beginning October 17th, 2014 (the paper PHS 2590 forms are being phased out). See NOT-OD-14-092. If you are not yet familiar with the RPPR format, resources are available at http://grants.nih.gov/grants/rppr/. Therefore, if you have students supported on non-SNAP awards, now is the time to ensure they have eRA Commons profiles completed.; Please share this information with your students and postdocs who are supported on NIH grants. People + Ideas + Time: Posted on July 17, 2014 by Sally Rockey and Francis Collins; In these times of tight budgets and rapidly evolving science, we must consider new ways to invest biomedical research dollars to achieve maximum impact—to turn scientific discoveries into better health as swiftly as possible. We do this by thinking strategically about the areas of research that we support, as well as the process by which we fund that research. …. We often hear from investigators at all career stages that they spend a significant portion of their careers writing grant applications, consuming precious time that could otherwise be spent conducting research. …. Dear PIs and Administrators, If you are planning to prepare and submit an NIH multi-project application over the next several months, please let me know. Examples of multi-project grant mechanisms include, but are not limited to, P01, P30, P50, and U19. All multi-project Funding Opportunity Announcements (FOAs) now require proposals to be submitted electronically using ASSIST (Application Submission System and Interface for Submission Tracking). For a listing of all multi-project FOAs, go to http://grants.nih.gov/searchGuide/ComplexOnly.cfm. If you plan to submit a multi-project application in the coming months, please contact me and your SPA Project Officer and we will schedule a time to meet to provide you with training and guidance. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions. Our website contains many ASSIST resources: http://spa.columbia.edu/electronic-systems/assist. Thank you. Stephanie F. The Columbia University Medical Center IRB Office has a standing “IRB Consultation Hour”. This service provides an opportunity for researchers to stop in at the IRB office and meet with an IRB professional to discuss regulatory, policy, and procedural questions. The sessions are scheduled for every Tuesday from 10 am to 11 am. No appointment is necessary. The IRB office is located at 154 Haven Avenue, 1st Floor. Attendees should sign in at the IRB receptionist desk, and will meet with IRB staff in the order of arrival. If situations warrant, individual consultations may be limited to 15 minutes. Important Note: If you have questions about a protocol that has already been submitted to the IRB, please contact the staff members who administer the IRB to which the protocol is assigned rather than bringing those questions to a Consultation Hours session. Staff contact information may be obtained on the IRB website: http://www.cumc.columbia.edu/dept/irb/ Researchers may also call in during these times, to the IRB main number, for consultation: 212.305.5883. FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES RELATIVE TO TRAINING GRANTS, T32S, ETC.

Title: New Program for NIH-funded Grad Students and Postdocs; Sponsor: NIH; Deadline(s): Open Ended; Contact: Please contact Rory Flinn (rf2531@columbia.edu); Director of the Office of Postdoctoral Affairs, with any questions about the program; Link(s): http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-14-113.html; https://www2.gsas.columbia.edu/idp; https://www2.gsas.columbia.edu/idp/node/3#summary; Additional Information: Dear Colleagues: The Office of the Executive Vice President of Research (EVPR), including the Office of Postdoctoral Affairs, and the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences (GSAS) are pleased to announce the introduction of an individual development plan (IDP) program for National Institutes of Health (NIH)-funded graduate students and postdoctoral researchers (postdocs). An IDP consists of a self-assessment of skills, interests and values that guides the development of short and long term plans to achieve career goals. In 2012, the NIH published a task force report on the current state of the biomedical workforce which found, among other things, that universities need to better prepare biomedical graduate students and postdocs for a broad range of career opportunities beyond academia. As one of a number of initiatives designed to address the recommendations of the task force, the NIH issued a policy, released on July 23, 2013 and revised on August 4, 2014 (http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-14-113.html), that does not require, but strongly encourages recipients of NIH awards to develop and use IDPs for graduate students and postdocs supported by the NIH. In addition, the revised policy provides that, beginning on October 1, 2014, annual progress reports relating to NIH awards must include a description of whether or not the institution uses IDPs and how they are employed to help manage the training and career development of graduate students and The University’s IDP program will begin later this month and will include seminars on topics relating to the development of an IDP. Optional workshops will assist participants in completing an IDP. Career panels and networking events will be held to offer opportunities for participants to learn more about potential career options and the skills and experiences needed to gain employment in a wide array of fields. Complete IDP program details, including registration information, can be found at https://www2.gsas.columbia.edu/idp. Faculty members should strongly encourage their NIH-funded graduate student and postdocs to register and participate in the IDP program. A description of the Columbia IDP program to be utilized in progress reports can be found at https://www2.gsas.columbia.edu/idp/node/3#summary. Please contact Rory Flinn (rf2531@columbia.edu), Director of the Office of Postdoctoral Affairs, with any questions about the program.

Title: [NIH-Investigators] Reminder for NIH-Investigators: eRA Commons IDs and Complete Profiles;

Sponsor: NIH eRA Commons IDs and Complete Profiles

Deadline(s): Starting in October 2014;

Additional Information: Complete Profiles Required for Students and Postdocs; As we get closer to October 2014, I wanted to remind investigators and administrators of the new NIH progress reporting requirement regarding eRA Commons IDs. Postdocs, graduate and undergraduate students supported on NIH awards must have eRA Commons IDs, with complete eRA Commons Personal Profiles. Beginning with NIH progress reports due October 2014, NIH will not accept progress reports that have missing eRA Commons IDs and incomplete profiles. As you are aware, if NIH rejects a progress report, that could delay issuance of the next year's funding. Complete eRA Commons profiles are just as important as the ID itself. NIH can reject the progress report if the following fields are not complete in the profiles: date of birth, gender, race, ethnicity, disabilities, US citizenship status and country of citizenship. Some fields have “I Do Not Wish to Provide” as one of the acceptable responses. For those who have completed undergraduate or graduate degrees (graduate students and postdoctoral researchers), the highest educational degree, the degree date, and the institution where it was earned also should be completed. Tutorials on the eRA Commons Personal Profile can be found at eRA Commons Manage Personal Profile.; If you have graduate and undergraduate students supported on NIH grants who do not have eRA Commons IDs, please have them request an eRA Commons account from SPA at SPA-eBiz@columbia.edu.

From Stephanie F. Scott, M.S., CRA; Communications and Outreach Director; Sponsored Projects Administration (SPA); “NIH eSubmission Items of Interest” (June 4, 2014) (see below). In particular, it addresses the new Biosketch Pilot program, tips on using non-standard characters in form fields, and the cover letter attachment.

Don’t Forget the eSubmission Basics: I had the privilege of spending some time last week with the eRA Commons Help Desk and posed the question - “If you could tell the applicant community one thing about application submission what would it be?” I was a bit surprised to hear the same key messages that we have been pushing for years. On the other hand, that’s why we consider them ‘the eSubmission basics’.

So, here’s a quick reminder…

- Watch out for form fields required by NIH that are not marked required on federal-wide forms (e.g. Credential for PD/PIs and Organization for all entries on R&R Sr/Key Person Profile form; primary site DUNS on Project/Performance Sites form).
- Use PDF format for all attachments. Follow PDF Guidelines.
- Submit early – days, not minutes – to allow time to correct unforeseen errors.
- Track your submission in eRA Commons. Email can be unreliable.
- Check your entire assembled application image in eRA Commons. If you can’t view it, we can’t review it!
- If federal system issues threaten your on-time submission you need to notify the help desk and follow the Guidelines for Applicants Experiencing System Issues.

Impact of Biosketch Pilot on Non-pilot Applications: Did you see in the NIH Guide (NOT-OD-14-091) or in Rock Talk (Changes to the Biosketch) that NIH is piloting a new biosketch format? The pilot directly impacts applicants applying to a few Funding Opportunity Announcements (FOAs) (e.g., RFA-NR-15-001), but there is an immediate indirect impact to all applicants as well. In order to accommodate the pilot applications, eRA has changed the way we systematically validate the biosketch page limit for all applications. Specifically, a warning will fire if you submit a 5 page biosketch and an error will fire if your biosketch is over 5 pages. Applicants to pilot FOAs can ignore the 5-page warning, but everyone else should take action or risk post-submission rejection of their applications. After your application moves forward to NIH staff, we will do a manual check of the biosketches in applications to FOAs not participating in the pilot. If your non-pilot FOA requires 4 pages, but you included 5 and ignored the warning, then your application may not be reviewed. Applicants must read and follow all FOA and application guide instructions – even those that aren’t enforced by electronic systems.

Non-standard Characters in Form Fields: Although NIH systems now support a broader character set including Greek and other non-standard characters, Grants.gov systems currently do not. When completing application form fields type content directly from your keyboard. Avoid cutting and pasting from Word and other word processors- they often convert your plain text to rich text (e.g. Word converts quotes to ‘smart quotes’ that curve towards the text between them and combines two dashes into one long em-dash.) Also, keep your text as simple as possible. The following characters are typically ‘safe’: letters, numbers, spaces, underscores, periods, dashes (not em-dashes), quotes (not smart quotes), parentheses, brackets, ampersands, tilde, exclamation points, commas, colons, semicolons, at signs, number signs, dollar signs, percent signs, plus signs, equal signs, and asterisks. Limit your use of fancier characters to the body of your PDF attachments.

Submitting Applications with more than 5 Budget Periods: Although NIH typically allows only 5 budget periods to be submitted with grant applications, from time to time you will come across a FOA that allows more than 5 budget periods. Most NIH FOAs include the R&R Budget form which only accommodates data collection for 5 budget periods leaving applicants wondering what to do with the rest of the data. Applicants have been forced to use a rather clumsy ‘workaround’ that includes adding the additional budget period information in the budget justification. eRA has just added system support for Grants.gov’s R&R Budget 10YR form that will allow for the collection of up to 10 budget periods of data. Going forward, this form will be included with the few, special FOAs that allow more than 5 budget periods. The bulk of NIH FOAs will continue to use the standard R&R Budget form.

Transition to FORMS-C To Complete in August: If it seems like I’ve been talking about transitioning to FORMS-C for a year – I have. On May 30, 2013, we announced our first transition to updated application forms (FORMS-C) for application due dates on/after September 25, 2013 (NOT-OD-13-074). The Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) and Small Business Technology Transfer (STTR) programs are our last remaining programs to use the older forms. These programs are scheduled to transition to FORMS-C for due dates on/after August 5, 2014 (NOT-OD-14-089) marking the end of a rather lengthy transition. Believe it or not, this summer my friends in policy will start pulling together requirements for the next OMB clearance of the PHS (agency-specific) forms used in our applications (they expire in August 2015). Before you know it we’ll be talking about ‘FORMS-D’ forms. For now, let’s celebrate getting through this one. Woo-hoo!

CYA: Cover Your Application - that’s what you thought I was talking about - right? NIH form packages no longer use a separate, agency-specific PHS Cover Letter form. The version of the SF424 (R&R) cover form included in FORMS-C packages has a new Cover Letter Attachment (item #21 at the very bottom of the form). If you plan to include a cover letter with your application – use this Cover Letter Attachment only! The eRA systems know to keep this attachment separate from your assembled application image and to limit access to it. If you attach it someplace else (e.g., Pre-application attachment on the SF424 (R&R) cover form, Other Attachments on the R&R Other Project Information form) it will become part of your assembled application image and will be visible to everyone with access to your application including reviewers.
[NIH-Investigators] Reminder-eRA Commons IDs and Complete Profiles Required for Students and Postdocs

This is a reminder that beginning October 2014, Research Performance Progress Reports (RPPRs) lacking an eRA Commons ID for graduate and undergraduate students will receive an error and the RPPR will not be accepted by the NIH without this information. RPPRs that are not accepted could delay issuance of Notice of Grant Awards. See full NIH notice at NOT-OD-13-097.

Currently, warnings appear in the eRA Commons screens to alert individuals identified as undergraduate students, graduate students, and postdoctoral researchers that the following fields should be completed in their eRA Commons profiles: date of birth, gender, race, ethnicity, disabilities, US citizenship status and country of citizenship. Some fields have “I Do Not Wish to Provide” as one of the acceptable responses. For those who have completed undergraduate or graduate degrees (graduate students and postdoctoral researchers), the highest educational degree, the degree date, and the institution where it was earned also should be completed. Beginning on October 1, 2014, those fields in the eRA Commons screens will be required for individuals identified in any of those three roles.

If you have graduate and undergraduate students supported on NIH grants who do not have eRA Commons IDs, please have them request an eRA Commons account from SPA at SPA-eBiz@columbia.edu. In addition, graduate and undergraduate students, and postdoctoral researchers should complete their Personal Profiles in the eRA Commons, ensuring all fields listed above are complete. Tutorials on the Personal Profile can be found at eRA Commons Manage Personal Profile.

RPPRs will be required for all Type 5 non-SNAP progress reports beginning October 17th, 2014 (the paper PHS 2590 forms are being phased out). See NOT-OD-14-092. If you are not yet familiar with the RPPR format, resources are available at http://grants.nih.gov/grants/rrpr/. Therefore, if you have students supported on non-SNAP awards, now is the time to ensure they have eRA Commons profiles completed.

Please share this information with your students and postdocs who are supported on NIH grants. If you have any questions, you may contact me, or your assigned SPA Project Officer.

RPPR Required for Non-SNAP Progress Reports Beginning October 17, 2014

NIH currently requires use of the fed-wide progress reporting format — known as the RPPR (Research Performance Progress Report) — to submit progress reports for Streamlined Non-competing Award Process (SNAP), fellowship, and multi-year funded awards. In April we opened the RPPR for use for all Type 5 Non-SNAP progress reports in anticipation of an October 2014 requirement for RPPR use. Now, it’s official — all type 5 non-SNAP progress reports submitted on or after October 17, 2014 need to be submitted through the RPPR module of eRA Commons. … Continue reading →

Promoting Research Integrity: Building the Foundation of Trust

Exemplifying and promoting the highest level of scientific integrity, public accountability, and social responsibility in the conduct of science are among NIH’s main goals as an agency. Research integrity is not about being flawless. It is about conducting science using honest and verifiable methods, complying with rules and regulations and adhering to professional standards. Ultimately, it is also about trust, the foundation upon which the scientific research enterprise is built. We’ve recently updated our website on research integrity, … Continue reading →

You Ask, We Answer:

☐ Can I Resubmit My Grant Application While It Is Under Appeal of the Initial Peer Review Results?

☐ What is the Deadline for Resubmitting my Unfunded Application?
NIH REVISED SUBMISSION RULES

NIH & AHRQ just released more clarifications on the new resubmission policy. In this announcement are clarifications on due dates, applicability, time limits, and the various options PIs have. See NOT-OD-14-082: http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-14-082.html; I know this revised policy is important to you and has many implications. Please feel free to me or your assigned Project Officer questions. I am following up with additional information on the important announcement I sent last week regarding NIH and AHRQ’s new resubmission policy (see below). NIH just posted extensive FAQs describing various scenarios when you may submit applications as ‘new’ that were previously submitted, resubmitted and not funded (including competing renewal applications that were not funded). Refer to the following resources and articles: FAQs: http://grants.nih.gov/grants/policy/resubmission_q&a.htm; The policy announcement: NOT-OD-14-074: A Change in Our Resubmission Policy – Rock Talk article explaining the reasons for the change: NIH Policy on Resubmission Applications; Science Magazine article: NIH to Relax ‘Two Strikes’ Grant Submission Policy; Deciding whether to submit an application as a resubmission or as a new submission can sometimes be complex. You may need to speak with an NIH Program Official or Program Director regarding your specific situation. Please feel free to ask me, or your SPA Project Officer, questions as they arise. Please read full announcement, NOT-OD-14-074 at http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-14-074.html; Effective immediately, for NIH and AHRQ applications due after April 16, 2014, following an unsuccessful resubmission (A1) application, applicants may submit the same idea as a new (A0) application for the next appropriate due date. The NIH and AHRQ will not assess the similarity of the science in the new (A0) application to any previously reviewed submission when accepting an application for review. Although a new (A0) application does not allow an introduction or responses to the previous reviews, the NIH and AHRQ encourage applicants to refine and strengthen all application submissions. Please read the full announcement for more details on the background of this policy change and the policy details. The NIH time limit for accepting resubmission (A1) applications remains in effect, as does the policy for New Investigator R01 resubmission deadlines. Stephanie F. Scott, M.S., CRA

Additional Information for the two above mentioned announcements: This Notice alerts grantees to a change in the implementation timeline, previously announced in NOT-OD-13-120 and NOT-OD-14-093, for the NIH transition to new U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) payment policies for domestic, non-competing continuation awards and use of Payment Management System (PMS) subaccounts. It also announces a change in how competitive revisions/administrative supplements (Type-3s) awards will be processed. This Notice only applies to domestic non-competing continuation awards that have not yet transitioned to PMS subaccounts. In response to critical feedback from the grantee community, NIH requested an amendment to its subaccount implementation plan to delay the transition of domestic, non-competing continuation awards to PMS subaccounts for an additional year; e.g., now beginning October 1, 2015. HHS’s Office of the Assistant Secretary for Financial Resources recently approved the request. This additional time is provided to allow grantees to prepare their systems to accommodate the changes. Grantee with inadequate systems in place to appropriately manage this transition by October 1, 2015, may be unable to appropriately access PMS accounts and risk losing their ability to draw down funding. Grantees are advised that there will be no additional implementation delays considered and no exceptions granted to the deadline. As of October 1, 2015, NIH will utilize only subaccounts for awarding grant funds. Every grant that is awarded funding in FY 2016 (whether it be in the first, second, third or fourth quarter of FY 2016) will be in a subaccount. NIH will continue transitioning payment of grant awards with new document numbers to domestic institutions to PMS subaccounts in FY 2015 as announced in Notice NOT-OD-13-120. The administrative changes announced in NOT-OD-14-093 will now apply to the transition that will occur between October 1, 2015 and September 30, 2016. This Notice reiterates those administrative changes for non-competing, continuation awards and highlights the revised implementation timelines and T-3 award process for all domestic awards. - See more at: http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-14-103.html#sthash.0I3doSVZ.dpuf; http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-14-103.html#sthash.q3dTkMY2.dpuf;

FEDERAL FUNDING TRAVEL POLICY

[NIH-Investigators] New Policy on Fly America Act; Sponsored Projects Administration (SPA) and the Accounts Payable (AP) department is happy to announce the release of an updated version of the Fly America Act policy, effective immediately. SPA and AP have partnered together on this effort, resulting in a clearer, more comprehensive policy to ensure compliance with the Fly America Act. You can find the full policy in the Administrative Policy Library at:
http://policylibrary.columbia.edu/fly-america-act. This link contains: * Full policy text, including links to resources; *
FAQs; * A Decision Tree Diagram; * A new form, the Fly America Exception Checklist.; These resources can also be found on the SPA website at:
http://spa.columbia.edu/policies/us-flag-carrier-policy.;

The Fly America Act is a Federal regulation that states that any foreign air travel that is financed by Federal funds must be booked on U.S. Flag Air Carriers, regardless of cost or convenience. Only Federally funded sponsored projects are subject to this policy. The Fly America Act is not a new policy. Rather, our offices updated our existing policies, which now live in a central location in the Policy Library.

There are specific exceptions to the Fly America Act that allow travelers to use Federal funds on foreign carriers, but only under certain circumstances. These exceptions can be quite complex to interpret. Therefore, our offices created a Fly America Exception Checklist and Decision Tree Diagram to assist travelers when booking flights internationally as part of the work to be done on a Federal sponsored project. In cases of exceptions, the Fly America Exception Checklist Form will need to accompany the Columbia Travel & Business Expense Report (TBER) to be submitted to AP. Appropriate back-up documentation should accompany the Checklist. The full policy and FAQs outline this process.

Anyone planning to travel internationally as part of work to be done on a Federally sponsored project is responsible for knowing and adhering to this policy. Please share this information with all faculty, administrators, postdocs and students who may be traveling internationally.

When questions arise that are related to the Fly America Act (for example, what is allowable vs. unallowable, Open Skies Agreement exceptions, etc.) you may contact your SPA Project Officer or myself. However, if you have specific questions about reimbursement of travel expenses or regarding your supporting travel documentation, you should contact AP through the Finance Service Center or call 212-854-2122. Thank you.

FOAs FROM AGENCIES REQUIRING INTERNAL COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY VETTING

Title: Presidential Scholars in Society and Neuroscience Program; Seed Grants for Interdisciplinary Projects in Society and Neuroscience;
Sponsor: Columbia University, Presidential Scholars;
Deadline(s): DEADLINE EXTENDED UNTIL FEBRUARY 20, 2015;
Contact: For more information, please contact researchinitiatives@columbia.edu;
Link(s): NA;
Additional Information: REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS; Presidential Scholars in Society and Neuroscience Program; Seed Grants for Interdisciplinary Projects in Society and Neuroscience; The Presidential Scholars in Society and Neuroscience Program invites all full-time faculty at Columbia University and Barnard College to submit proposals for interdisciplinary projects that lie at the intersection of neuroscience and society and involve collaborative research among the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences.;
Background: Over the last decade, Columbia University has assembled a distinguished group of neuroscientific researchers in the Zuckerman Mind Brain Behavior Institute which, with the infusion of new funds and a new building, stands poised to become one of the most important loci of neuroscience research in the world. Columbia University now seeks to supplement the groundbreaking experimental inquiry of the neuroscience faculty with systematic investigation into the conceptual underpinnings and the social foundations and consequences of such newly obtained knowledge. ; To address this need, President Bollinger has announced the Presidential Scholars in Society and Neuroscience Program to foster innovative research that crosses traditional disciplinary boundaries between the natural and social sciences and the humanities. This Program will (1) provide seed funding for crosscutting research initiatives undertaken by Columbia and Barnard full-time faculty members, and (2) train and foster a new generation of scholars in interdisciplinary research and orientation. These new scholars—the Presidential Scholars in Society and Neuroscience—will be recent doctoral graduates from across the humanities and/or social sciences, who have critical understandings of the cultural and social dimensions of mind, brain, and behavior. They will bring the perspective of disciplines in the humanities and social sciences to intensify and broaden the neuroscientific research base and to bring about transformative interdisciplinary research throughout the University. The Presidential Scholars will be joined by a large group of mentors and affiliated faculty from the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences. The Call for Applications for Presidential Scholars will be publicized in Fall 2014, with three Scholars to be appointed in July 2015.;
Seed Grant Competition: In order to further University-wide interdisciplinary research by Columbia and Barnard full-time faculty in these important subjects, the Presidential Scholars in Society and Neuroscience Program funds annual seed grants. These pilot grants are provided to enable collaboration among faculty in the humanities and/or social sciences, and those in the natural sciences whose primary focus is the empirical...
outline interdisciplinary research that involves either direct study of mind, brain, and behavior. We request proposals from full-time faculty at Columbia University and Barnard College that contribute to these interdisciplinary goals. These proposals should collaboration between neuroscientists and researchers from other disciplines, or traverses traditional disciplinary boundaries in order to investigate issues relevant to society and neuroscience. Proposals should include itemized budget projections. The Presidential Scholars Steering Committee (with input from appropriate scholars) will review submitted proposals. Awards will be made of up to a total of $30,000 for projects of one to two year’s duration.; Proposals should describe clearly the research problem and its significance for society and neuroscience. Generally, proposals that involve research already in progress, or stand-alone curriculum development (although this could be an outcome of the proposed research), will not be funded. Only proposals with detailed budgets and budget justifications will be accepted, and priority will be given to proposals with concrete plans for developing and expanding the research by obtaining additional external funding. All seed grant applications must be received in full by 5:00 p.m. EST on Monday, January 26, 2015. Eligible proposals will then be evaluated based on the following criteria: () The intellectual merit and originality of the proposed project; () The extent to which the proposed research is interdisciplinary and collaborative; () The project’s feasibility, and the appropriate and judicious use of funds; () The plausibility of the investigators’ plan for seeking subsequent extramural funding beyond this pilot grant; () Background and experience of the investigator(s) for the proposed research; For this inaugural year of seed grant-making, approximately 3-5 grants of up to $30,000 each will be awarded.; Conditions of Receipt: Grant recipients must provide annual reports on project activities, including updates on external funding proposals (successful or unsuccessful), and any papers, publications, and/or reports resulting from seed grant activities. When applicable, research projects involving human subjects must obtain (and keep current) approval from Columbia University’s Institutional Review Board (IRB).; Submitting Proposals; For more information, please contact researchinitiatives@columbia.edu. To apply, please submit the following as a single PDF document by 5:00 p.m. EST on Monday, January 26, 2015 to researchinitiatives@columbia.edu: mentioning “Seed Grants for Interdisciplinary Projects in Society and Neuroscience” in the subject line of the email: () Cover page, including title of proposal, principal investigators and their departments, an executive summary of the project, and the total funding amount sought; () Proposal narrative with timeline of research (no more than 10 pages double-spaced in 12-point font); () Itemized projected budget; () Budget narrative; () CVs for each investigator; () Figures or tables; () Bibliography and references cited; () Plan for securing external funding; () Letter of support for the project from principal investigators’ department, center staff. Additional Information: The Fiscal Year 2014 (FY14) Defense Appropriations Act provides $20 million (M) to the Department of Defense Gulf War Illness Research Program (GWIRP) to support innovative, high-impact research to improve the health and lives of veterans who have Gulf War Illness (GWI). The GWIRP is administered by the US Army Medical Research and Materiel Command (USAMRMC) through the Office of Congressionally Directed Medical Research Programs (CDMRP). The GWIRP is providing the information in this pre-announcement to allow investigators time to plan and develop applications. FY14 GWIRP Program Announcement and General Application Instructions for the following award mechanism are anticipated to be posted on Grants.gov in early September 2014. Pre-application and application deadlines will be available when the Program Announcements are released. This pre-announcement should not be construed as an obligation by the government.; Innovative Treatment Evaluation Award 2; () Independent investigators at all academic levels (or equivalent); () Supports small-scale, early clinical trial evaluations of innovative treatments not previously studied in GWI; () Pilot Phase II or Phase I/II clinical trial combinations are allowed. () Provides opportunity to obtain proof of principle data to support future clinical trials; () Preliminary data are not required, and if provided, do not necessarily have to come from the GWI research field. () Studies with clear potential to move forward to Phase II/III clinical trials are encouraged.; () Collaboration with industry and/or academic partners is encouraged.; () Maximum funding of $450,000 for direct costs.; () Period of performance not to exceed 3 years.; () Indirect costs may be proposed in accordance with the institution's rate agreement.; (*) All applications must conform to the final Program Announcements and General Application Instructions that will be available for electronic downloading from the Grants.gov website. The application package containing the required forms for each award mechanism will also be found on Grants.gov. A listing of all USAMRMC funding opportunities can be obtained on the Grants.gov website by performing a basic search using CFDA Number 12.420. Applications must be submitted through the federal government’s single-entry portal, Grants.gov. Submission deadlines are not available until the Program Announcements are released. Requests for email notification of the Program Announcements release may be sent to help@eBRAP.org. Subject: Peer Reviewed Cancer Research Program Funds New Topic Areas Good afternoon, New areas of interest for the Congressionally Directed Medical Research Programs Peer Reviewed Cancer Research Program: 1. Cancers related to radiation exposure: Investigations into cancers related to radiation exposure should include research directed to improve the understanding of elevated cancer risk among military service members exposed to increased levels of ionizing radiation including: * Modulation by host factors; * Occupational and environmental exposure; * Assessment of risk among active duty and Veterans; * Routes of exposure; * Dose and risk estimates; 2. Myeloproliferative disorders: Studies within the scope of myeloproliferative disorders as defined by the National Cancer Institute (http://www.cancer.gov/cancertopics/types/myeloproliferative) will be accepted. CDMRP has allocated $25M in funds to this program. Information on the submission process and details on the applications can be found at: http://cdmrp.army.mil/funding/prcrp.shtml; Preapplications are due by June 10, 2014. Be sure to submit on time. Feel free to share this information with those in your organization that might be interested. From our 5/9/14 Newsletter: DOD just sent a summary of the funding announcements currently available. Includes the research areas of Autism, Gulf War Illness, the Peer Reviewed Cancer Research Program, the Peer Reviewed Medical Research Program, the Peer Reviewed Orthopedic Research Program (PRORP), and Prostate Cancer. See below for details. Stephanie F. Scott, M.S., CRA, Communications and Outreach Director, Sponsoring Projects, Administration (SPA), Columbia University, Morningside Ph: 212-854-0606, CUMC Ph: 212-305-1641; Email: sfs2110@columbia.edu; Website: http://spa.columbia.edu/.

JUST RELEASED! FY14 DOD CDMRP Program Announcements: The Fiscal Year 2014 (FY14) Defense Appropriations Act provides research funding for the peer reviewed programs managed by the Department of Defense (DOD) office of Congressionally Directed Medical Research Programs (CDMRP). This e-mail is to notify the research community of the recently released funding opportunities from the following programs: Autism Research Program (ARP), Gulf War Illness Research Program (GWIRP), Peer Reviewed Cancer Research Program (PRCRP), Peer Reviewed Medical Research Program (PRMRF), Peer Reviewed Orthopaedic Research Program (PRORP), and Prostate Cancer Research Program (PCRP). Detailed descriptions of each of the funding opportunities, evaluation criteria, and submission requirements can be found in the respective Program Announcements. Each Program Announcement is available electronically for downloading from the Grants.gov website (http://www.grants.gov), the CDMRP website (http://cdmrp.army.mil/funding/prgdefault.shtml) and the electronic Biomedical Research Application Portal (eBRAP) (https://eBRAP.org).
Autism Research Program (ARP); Clinical Trial Award; Idea Development Award; Gulf War Illness Research Program (GWIRP); Clinical Trial Award; Innovative Treatment Evaluation Award; Investigator-Initiated Research Award; New Investigator Award; Peer Reviewed Cancer Research Program (PRCRP); Career Development Award; Idea Award with Special Focus; Peer Reviewed Medical Research Program (PRMRP); Clinical Trial Award; Discovery Award; Focused Program Award; Investigator-Initiated Research Award; Technology/Therapeutic Development Award; Peer Reviewed Orthopaedic Research Program (PRORP); Clinical Trial Award; Clinical Trial Development Award; Idea Development Award; Outcomes Research Award; Translational Research Award; Prostate Cancer Research Program (PCRP); Biomarker Development Award; Idea Development Award; Synergistic Idea Development Award

*Note: The PCRP Clinical Exploration, Health Disparity Research, Laboratory-Clinical Transition, Population Science Impact, and Prostate Cancer Pathology Biospecimen Resource Site Award funding opportunities will be released in late May 2014. The PCRP Collaborative Undergraduate HBCU Student Summer Training Program, Exploration Hypothesis Development, Physician Research Training, and Postdoctoral Training Award funding opportunities will be released in early June 2014.

All funding opportunities, both recently and previously released, are available on the CDMRP website (http://cdmrp.army.mil). Subsequent notifications will be sent when additional funding opportunities are released. A listing of all CDMRP funding opportunities can be obtained on the Grants.gov website by performing a basic search using CFDA Number 12.420. New for 2014 - CDMRP’s New Application Receipt System (eBRAP).

For FY14, CDMRP has replaced eReceipt with the electronic Biomedical Research Application Portal (eBRAP). As in the past, application submission is a two-step process requiring both (1) pre-application submission through the eBRAP (https://eBRAP.org/) and (2) application submission through Grants.gov (http://www.grants.gov/), with application status available on eBRAP. A key feature of eBRAP is that organizational representatives and Principal Investigators (PIs) will be able to view and modify their Grants.gov application submissions. Submission of either the pre-application to eBRAP or the application to Grants.gov does not require registering an organization and affiliating its Business Officials and PIs in eBRAP. However, you will only be able to view and modify your full application submission in the eBRAP system if you are accepted in eBRAP by the organization that is listed in blocks 5 & 19 of the S424 form in the Grants.gov application package. You will receive an email from the eBRAP system once this organization has accepted you. Please do not respond directly to this message. Department of Defense Ovarian Cancer Research Program; Funding Opportunities for Fiscal Year 2014 (FY14)

The FY14 Defense Appropriations Act provides $20 million (M) to the Department of Defense Ovarian Cancer Research Program (OCRP) to support innovative, high-impact ovarian cancer research. This program is administered by the US Army Medical Research and Materiel Command (USAMRMC) through the Office of Congressionally Directed Medical Research Programs (CDMRP).

FY14 OCRP Program Announcements and General Application Instructions for the following award mechanisms are available on the Grants.gov website.

New for 2014 - CDMRP’s New Application Receipt System (eBRAP)

For FY14, CDMRP has replaced eReceipt with the electronic Biomedical Research Application Portal (eBRAP). As in the past, application submission is a two-step process requiring both (1) pre-application submission through the eBRAP (https://eBRAP.org/) and (2) application submission through Grants.gov (http://www.grants.gov/), with application status available on eBRAP. A key feature of eBRAP is that organizational representatives and Principal Investigators (PIs) will be able to view and modify their Grants.gov application submissions, but only if their organization, Business Officials and PIs are registered and affiliated in eBRAP to the organization listed in blocks 5 & 19 of the Grants.gov SF424. Submission of either the pre-application to eBRAP or the application to Grants.gov does not require registering an organization and affiliating its Business Officials and PIs in eBRAP; however, the ability to view and modify the Grants.gov application in eBRAP is contingent upon this registration and affiliation process. Please do not respond directly to this message. To be added or removed from this email list please use the “Subscribe/unsubscribe to program specific news and updates at https://ebrap.org. FY14 DOD CDMRP Program Announcement(s)

The Fiscal Year 2014 (FY14) Defense Appropriations Act provides research funding for the peer reviewed programs managed by the Department of Defense (DOD) office of Congressionally Directed Medical Research Programs (CDMRP).

This e-mail is to notify the research community of the recently released funding opportunities from the following programs: ALSRP, BMFRP, and BCRP. Detailed descriptions of each of the funding opportunities, evaluation criteria, and submission requirements can be found in the respective Program Announcements. Each Program Announcement is available electronically for downloading from the Grants.gov website (http://www.grants.gov), the CDMRP website (http://cdmrp.army.mil/funding/prgdefault.shtml) and the electronic Biomedical Research Application Portal (eBRAP) (https://eBRAP.org).

Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis Research Program (ALSRP)

Therapeutic Development Award
Therapeutic Idea Award

Bone Marrow Failure Research Program (BMFRP)

Idea Development Award

Breast Cancer Research Program (BCRP)

Era of Hope Scholar Award
Innovator Award
Breakthrough Award Levels 1 and 2
Breakthrough Award Levels 3 and 4

All funding opportunities, both recently and previously released, are available on the CDMRP website (http://cdmrp.army.mil). Subsequent notifications will be sent when additional funding opportunities are released. A listing of all CDMRP funding opportunities can be obtained on the Grants.gov website by performing a basic search using CFDA Number 12.420.

The Department of Defense (DoD) Peer Reviewed Medical Research Program (PRMRP) just released a pre-announcement to allow investigators time to plan and develop applications. The FY14 PRMRP will solicit research applications for 25 topic areas, listed below. The official funding announcements and application instructions will be released in April. See below for details.

Defense Health Program

Department of Defense Peer Reviewed Medical Research Program

Funding Opportunities for Fiscal Year 2014

The Fiscal Year 2014 (FY14) Defense Appropriations Act provides $200 million to the Department of Defense Peer Reviewed Medical Research Program (PRMRP).

PRMRP pre-announcement

Congressionally Directed Topic Areas. The FY14 PRMRP will solicit research applications for the following 25 topics areas: Acupuncture; Arthritis; Chronic Migraine and Post-Traumatic Headaches; Congenital Heart Disease; DNA Vaccine Technology for Postexposure Prophylaxis; Dystonia; Epilepsy; Food Allergies; Fragile X Syndrome; Hereditary Angioedema; Illnesses Related to Radiation Exposure; Inflammatory Bowel Disease; Interstitial Cystitis; Lupus; Malaria; Metabolic Disease; Neuroprosthetics; Pancreatitis; Polycystic Kidney Disease; Post-Traumatic Osteoarthritis; Psychotropic Medications; Respiratory Health; Rheumatoid Arthritis; Segmental Bone Defects; Tinnitus

Military Relevance: Relevance to the healthcare needs of the military service members, veterans, and beneficiaries is a key feature of each FY14 PRMRP award mechanism.
