Additional Information: A MESSAGE FROM ANDREA BACCARELLI; Dear Columbia Mailman School community, I am pleased to announce that, under the direction of Columbia Mailman’s Precision Prevention Initiative, the SHARP Training Program (Skills for Health and Research Professionals) is now expanding to offer 13 boot camps in Summer 2019. SHARP provides intensive research training for investigators at all career levels working in laboratory, hospital, or academic settings. Through skills-based learning and networking, these two and three-day workshops aim to galvanize collaborative efforts and new interdisciplinary proposals on emerging research topics including epigenetics, the exposome, functional genetics, GIS, machine learning, causal mediation analysis, and single cell RNA seq analysis (full list below). Led by field experts from Columbia and other institutions, including Harvard, Mount Sinai, U.C. Berkeley, U. Penn, and the New York Genome Center, these boot camps draw participants from across the U.S. and even internationally. Registration is now open for this summer’s SHARP bootcamps. Full-time Columbia employees can receive a 10% discount and scholarships are available for early-career researchers and investigators from any organization, particularly post-doctoral fellows and researchers and junior faculty. More information, including the scholarship application, can be found here. The SHARP Training Program leverages the unparalleled expertise we have here at Columbia Mailman, and has rapidly become a high-profile platform that showcases our scientific leadership. The SHARP program started in Summer 2017 with two workshops. Since then, positive feedback and growing demand for short, intensive trainings led to this year's 13 sessions. When I joined Columbia Mailman I heard about our School's inspiring environment, where it's possible to make great things happen. This has proven true, and I am proud that — among the many efforts that promote science and public health at Columbia Mailman School – we have also now made this contribution to global education. We look forward to working and learning with colleagues this summer to advance interdisciplinary health research. I would greatly appreciate your help in spreading the word about our boot camps! Sincerely, [brought to our attention by] Andrea Baccarelli, MD, PhD; Chair and Leon Hess Professor, Environmental Health Sciences; Director, Columbia Center for Environmental Health in Northern Manhattan; Director, Precision Prevention; Columbia University Mailman School of Public Health

[NTW] [RESEARCH SUPPORT SERVICES]

Update on Research Support Services, Spring 2018; we are pleased to expand the Research Support Services to also include resubmissions of otherwise eligible R01, P, K, Center and T32 grants (if the services have not yet been utilized).

Sponsor: Mailman School

Deadline(s):
- Relative to upcoming NIH Grant Submission Deadlines: 5 weeks prior to submission deadline (Inform R2 of intent to utilize services); 4 weeks prior to submission deadline (science draft for external review); 2 weeks prior to submission deadline (submission for editing services)

Additional Information:

Dear Mailman School faculty,

I want to give you an update on Research Support Services—the School’s new program for pre-submission external review and final editing. As Dean Fried wrote in October, the program is geared “to support faculty in preparing grant applications with the highest chance of success.”

I’m happy to report that those using the services this fall have found them valuable. Katherine Keyes in Epidemiology spoke enthusiastically at the recent Assembly: “It was a great experience. I got to focus on the science without having to deal with any of the administrative aspects. I got really good feedback. I will be using these services again.”

In my estimation, all the grants were greatly improved by these services. Of course, the ultimate test is how they are scored and funded. As soon I have that information, I will share it with you.

I encourage everyone to take advantage of Research Support Services to give your grants a competitive advantage. Please keep in mind the following deadlines:

- 5 weeks prior to submission deadline—Inform Research Resources (via Craig Kandell at ckk7@cumc.columbia.edu) if you plan on using Research Support Services with information about the type of grant at least five weeks prior to the grant due date. If you seek external review, please provide the name and contacts of at least three potential reviewers so we can reach out to them in your order of preference.

- 4 weeks prior to submission deadline—Send us your science draft for external review three to four weeks prior to submission. We will forward it to the external reviewer. Generally, they provide feedback within a week.

- 2 weeks prior to submission deadline—For editorial services, send us your manuscript at least 10 days ahead of the deadline. We will make arrangements with the editor. Comments will be returned to Craig and the PI for finalization and submission within a few days.
Please keep in mind that it may take you a day or two to incorporate comments and edits. For best results, get in touch with us prior to these deadlines.

Research Support Services cover first-time submissions, and we are pleased to expand the service to encompass resubmissions (if the support services have not been utilized for the grant) of R01, P, K, Center, T32, or other complex NIH proposals by full-time faculty with primary appointments in the School. I am available to provide feedback for grants that utilize this service and also for other grant types (such as R21s) that are ineligible for the services.

If you have any questions about your eligibility or the above process, please visit Research Resources online or contact me at prf1@columbia.edu.

Best wishes,
Pam Factor-Litvak

Additional Information: [SPA News] NIH Early Career Reviewer Program; I wanted to draw your attention to the NIH Center for Scientific Review’s Early Career Reviewer (ECR) Program. If eligible, it is an opportunity to improve your grant proposal writing skills by experiencing first-hand how grant applications are evaluated. You will also network with accomplished researchers, and learn how applications are reviewed and scored.; To qualify for the ECR program, you must: Have at least 2 years’ experience as a full-time faculty member or researcher in a similar role. Post-doctoral fellows are not eligible.; Show evidence of an active, independent research program. Examples include publications, presentations, institutional research support, patents, acting as supervisor of student projects.; Have at least 2 recent senior-authored research publications in peer-reviewed journals in the last 2 years. In press publications are considered and author position can be as single author, corresponding author, or first or last author.; Have not served on a CSR study section in a role other than mail reviewer. (Mail reviews do not include participation in the meeting.) Review service at other agencies or at other NIH institutes/centers are not disqualifiers.; Current funding is not required. (Anyone who has received an R01 award is over-qualified and could be considered as a temporary reviewer.); For more information: https://public.csr.nih.gov/ForReviewers/BecomeAReviewer/ECR; [brought to our attention by] Stephanie F. In this solicitation, the NSF ADVANCE program seeks to build on prior NSF ADVANCE work and other research and literature concerning gender, racial, and ethnic equity. The NSF ADVANCE program goal is to broaden the implementation of systemic strategies that promote equity for STEM faculty in academic workplaces and the academic profession. The NSF ADVANCE program provides grants to enhance the systemic factors that support equity and inclusion and to mitigate the systemic factors that create inequities in the academic profession and workplaces. Systemic (or organizational) inequities may exist in areas such as policy and practice as well as in organizational culture and climate. For example, practices in academic departments that result in the inequitable allocation of service or teaching assignments may impede research productivity, delay advancement, and create a culture of differential treatment and rewards. Similarly, policies and procedures that do not mitigate implicit bias in hiring, tenure, and promotion decisions could lead to women and racial and ethnic minorities being evaluated less favorably, perpetuating historical under-participation in STEM academic careers and contributing to an academic climate that is not inclusive; All NSF ADVANCE proposals are expected to use intersectional approaches in the design of systemic change strategies for STEM faculty in recognition that gender, race and ethnicity do not exist in isolation from each other and from other categories of social identity. The solicitation includes four funding tracks Institutional Transformation (IT), Adaptation, Partnership, and Catalyst, in support of the NSF ADVANCE program goal to broaden the implementation of systemic strategies that promote equity for STEM faculty. ; Please note that NSF ADVANCE does not provide fellowships, research, or travel grants to individual students, postdoctoral researchers, or faculty to pursue STEM degrees or research.; [1] Building the Future Investing in Innovation and Discovery: NSF Strategic Plan 2018-2022. https://www.nsf.gov/publications/pub_summ.jsp?ods_key=nsf18045.; [2] All the STEM fields supported by NSF are supported by the ADVANCE program including the learning, social, behavioral, and economic sciences. ADVANCE does not support the clinical science fields.

Each Major User must be a PD/PI on a distinct active NIH research award in an area of biomedical research using animals or animal tissue.; [3] Instrumentation – Provide brief description of the instrumentation to be requested including make and model.; Questions should be sent to limitedsubmissions@columbia.edu.; For a list of current limited submission programs please visit: https://research.columbia.edu/content/limitedsubmissions#text-6028; RFA: https://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/pa-files/par-19-178.html;

Funding Opportunity Purpose: The Shared Instrumentation for Animal Research (SIFAR) Grant Program encourages applications from groups of NIH-funded investigators to purchase or upgrade scientific instruments necessary to carry out animal experiments in all areas of biomedical research supported by the NIH. Applicants may request clusters of commercially available instruments configured as specialized integrated systems or as series of instruments to support a thematic well-defined area of research using animals or related materials. Priority will be given to uniquely configured systems to support innovative and potentially transformative investigations.; This FOA supports requests for state-of-the-art commercially available technologies needed for NIH-funded research using any vertebrate and invertebrate animal species.; This funding opportunity announcement (FOA) does not support requests for single instruments. At least one item of the requested instrumentation must cost at least $50,000, after all applicable discounts. No instrument in a cluster can cost less than $20,000, after all applicable discounts. There is no maximum price requirement; however, the maximum award is $750,000 of direct costs. [*]

Additional Information: This funding will support agencies and organizations that coordinate and manage Maternal Mortality Review Committees to identify and characterize maternal deaths for identifying prevention opportunities. Recipients will identify pregnancy-associated deaths within one year of death; abstract and enter clinical and non-clinical data into a standard data system [Maternal Mortality Review Information Application (MMRIA)], conduct multidisciplinary reviews, and enter committee decisions in MMRIA within 2 years of death. Quality assurance processes, in partnership with CDC, will be used for improving data quality, completeness, and timeliness. Recipients and CDC will analyze data and share findings with stakeholders to inform policy and prevention strategies to reduce maternal deaths.

The grant is for $100,000 per year for two years including 10% indirect costs ($200,000 total). Eight new awards are expected as follows: [1] Four awards focused on the interplay of aging and cancer; [2] Four awards focused on aspects of aberrant gene expression, differentiation, or epigenetic therapies that relate to cancer; The HICCC may nominate ONE applicant. To be considered, please forward an NIH Biosketch and Summary, no more than one page, outlining the proposed research and Specific Aims to Dr. Emer Smyth; es3551@cumc.columbia.edu by Wednesday March 13th, 2019. Given the tight timeline from the SWCFR we may will not be able to consider late applications.; Potential themes related to aging and cancer include: Aging-associated changes in stem cell function related to cancer; Mechanisms of age-associated clonal evolution in somatic tissues; Chromatin/epigenetic mechanisms in aging and cancer; Mutation and/or de-repression of non-coding genome in aging and cancer; Aging-associated DNA damage response pathways and genomic instability in cancer; Aging-associated changes in metabolism related to cancer; Decline in tissue maintenance in old age as a potential link to cancer incidence; Contributions of the microenvironment in aging-associated tumor formation; Inter-organ system communication in aging and cancer; Human premature aging disorders as model systems of aging-associated cancer; Novel mouse models to study the role of aging in cancer; Based on its long-standing interest in differentiation therapy for cancer, the SWCRF will continue to solicit applications related to: Transcription-based approaches to cancer; Novel therapies/pathways to overcome defective differentiation of cancer cells; Targeting aberrant signaling pathways characteristic of the malignant phenotype; Selective apoptotic agents and pathways in cancer; The selected applicant will be expected to submit a structured Letter of Intent (SWCRF template is included in the RFA) by April 1, 2018.; KEY DATES: Wednesday, March 13, 2019: Internal application for nomination...
(NIH biosketch and research proposal summary) due to Dr. Emer Smyth es3551@cumc.columbia.edu; Wednesday, March 20, 2019: HICCC nominee selected and informed (because of the tight turn-around time, we encourage applicants to start preparing their LOI ahead of time in anticipation of being selected); Monday, April 1, 2019: Deadline for submission of structured LOI (SWCRF template is included in the attached RFA) to Ms. Lyris Skinner lyris.skinner@mssm.edu and Mr. Jesse Dean jdean@waxmancancer.org by April 1, 2018; Please let us know if you have any questions or concerns.; To browse open funding opportunities, please visit our the HICCC Funding Opportunities webpage Emer; [brought to our attention by] Emer M. Additional Information: NIH eSubmission Items of Interest - July 31, 2018; NIH sent the newsletter below the other day, which contains a lot of tips on the new PHS Human Subjects and Clinical Trial Information Form. In addition, they address Fellowship applications, and some things to keep in mind if the fellow is seeking clinical research experience. Since the fellowship deadline is next week (August 8th), I wanted to bring this to your attention. I highlighted what I thought were the key points below. [brought to our attention by] Stephanie Scott; NIH eSubmission Items of Interest - July 31, 2018; Happy National Mutt Day! Yes, it’s a real thing. And, why shouldn’t it be? I vividly remember bringing my mutt home from a pet adoption event years ago and introducing her to her new “daddy.” “She’s two dogs long and one dog tall and looks like she’s made from spare parts,” Jeff said. All true. An emaciated basset-beagle-ish dog with ears longer than her bowed little legs isn’t going to win any beauty contests. But, our Dixie is the most lovable hound on the planet and we wouldn’t trade her for the world. Mutts are amazing, but what do they have to do with grant application submission? Not much actually, but if you love your mutt as much as I love mine, then I’ve at least got your attention. Besides, who passes up the opportunity to celebrate? More wag, less bark!; Hopefully you’ll find this edition to have an interesting mix ... not unlike your favorite mutt.; Where Do I Put the Information I Know You’d Want, But Didn’t Ask For?; You want to give staff and reviewers ALL the information you think they need to provide a thorough review of your proposal. There is certainly nothing wrong with that - right? Well, actually it depends.
The application guide and funding opportunity announcement provide very specific guidance on what to include in your application and, in some cases, there are page limits you must stay within to convey the requested information. If you have information that doesn’t fit in page-limited attachments like your Specific Aims and Research Strategy, rework those attachments until you tell the best story possible within the confines of the page limits. Do not try to stuff extra information into other non-limited fields of the application forms. Similarly, if you have information that doesn’t have a “natural home” based on our instructions, don’t include it. There are several form fields with tempting names like “Appendix,” “Other Attachments,” “Other Requested Information,” and “Other Clinical Trial-related Attachments.” Do NOT use those fields unless requested to do so in the application guide or announcement; Why not? Even if you have the best of intentions, you need to resist the temptation to force fit information into your application where it doesn’t belong. The page limits and guidance are there for fairness and you may find your application pulled from consideration if you try to get around them. NOT-OD-11-088; The Duplication Balancing Act: The application guide statement “do not duplicate information between the Research Strategy attachment and the PHS Human Subjects and Clinical Trials Information form” appears to be causing some angst in the community. In fact, our new human subjects form invites a certain amount of overlap between the sections. It would be difficult, for example, to provide a “Brief Summary” of a protocol without talking about information captured elsewhere in the application.; The point we were actually trying to make is that we don’t want you to copy and paste blocks of text into multiple places in your application. Your Specific Aims and Research Strategy should include enough human subjects and clinical trial information to tell a cohesive and complete story. The human subjects form is meant to provide structured, supporting details for the study (sorry, it isn’t just extra space to expound on the research strategy). The Brief Summary in the Protocol Synopsis section of the human subjects form aligns with what the public would see in ClinicalTrials.gov without the benefit of the full application. It should hit the key points at a very high level in as close to plain language as possible.; The bottom line is there will be some overlap of information within your application, but reviewers should not be reading blocks of text copied verbatim into multiple sections of the application.; Space-Fill Compulsion: My mother, an interior designer, never saw a horizontal surface she didn’t want to decorate. For years I encouraged her to declutter and often she’d begrudgingly remove a knock-knock from a table of shelf. But the next time I’d visit a new knock-knock was sitting right it its place. My dad calls it space-fill compulsion.; Our new human subjects form has several text fields with large character limits (e.g., Eligibility Criteria - 15,000 characters; Brief Summary - 5,000 characters; Narrative Study Description - 32,000 characters). These character limits match those in ClinicalTrials.gov and were set artificially high so the system could accommodate more characters than are actually needed.; Here is a fun little tidbit we’ve learned ... folks who are already funded and entering information into ClinicalTrials.gov tend to be more pithy than folks applying for funding. Could it be that while composing your response you see the character count is well below the available space and assume NIH wants more? Space-fill compulsion, perhaps? If you’ve covered what you need to say in a few paragraphs, then stop. You don’t need to fill the entire allotted space. Eligibility criteria is typically quite succinct. A Brief Summary typically runs 2,000 characters or less and the Project Narrative typically 5,000 characters or less. It would be unusual to come even close to the character limits for those fields. It’s, OK. Cover the topics using only the space you need.; Remember, this is the supporting detail for your story, not the story itself. Less is more. Don’t bury your main point under unnecessary information.; Do Fellowship Awards Allow Clinical Trials?: We encourage fellows to receive training in clinical research, including clinical trials. NIH-supported fellows just can’t independently lead them. The career stage of a fellow may not yet align with the responsibilities of navigating all the components, complexities and reporting requirements associated with a clinical trial. In addition, fellowship grants do not include sufficient research funds to support the majority of clinical trials. Consequently, all Fellowship opportunities are posted as independent Clinical Trials Not Allowed.; The sponsor is the responsible individual of record for oversight of the trial. He or she is ultimately responsible for tasks like interacting with relevant Institutional Review Board (IRB) staff, reviewing all informed consent documents, reporting potential serious adverse events, and maintaining responsibility for patient safety. But there are no restrictions on the responsibilities the fellow can assume with the sponsor’s oversight.; If you plan on submitting a fellowship application, clearly delineate the roles both the sponsor and the fellow are undertaking. This can be done in the Sponsor and Co-Sponsor attachment for the sponsor and the Research Strategy for the fellow. It needs to be clear that the fellow is not the responsible individual. Overselling their role to the point where it looks like they are leading the trial can hurt more than it helps. It’s fine to show the fellow working side-by-side with his or her sponsor through every aspect of the trial. It’s not OK for them to be off on their own shoulderling all the responsibility themselves.; Dog Days of Summer: “Be the person your dog thinks you are.”; ~George Eliot aka Mary Ann Evans; Stay cool and if you’re lucky enough to have one, give your mutt an extra hug.; Take care, Sheri; [brought to our attention] by Sheri Cummins; Communications & Outreach; NIH Office of Extramural Research; cumminss@mail.nih.gov

NIH, in response to report language in the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2018, has released this notice NOT-OD-18-212 which delays enforcement of registration and reporting policies for prospective basic science studies involving human participants under NOT-OD-16-149. Per the notice, “through September 24, 2019, NIH will continue to expect registration and reporting for prospective basic science studies involving human participants, with additional flexibility to allow reporting on existing basic science portals, with the expectation that data will eventually be transported to ClinicalTrials.gov.” NIH will issue a Request for Information (RFI) to seek additional input “on registration and results reporting standards best suited for prospective basic science studies involving human participants.” The notice also provides a period of “leniency for applications submitted to the incorrect FOA based on the study type designation” during which time NIH will not “administratively reject any application for submission to an incorrect FOA based on study-type designation.” The notice also indicates that the agency “plans to issue FOAs specifically for prospective basic science studies involving human participants.” Please see the notice for details.; Lisa Nichols, Ph.D.; Council on Governmental Relations; 1200 New York Avenue, N.W., Suite 460; Washington, D.C. 20005; lnichols@cogr.edu; 202-289-6655

Additional Information: NIH Guide Notice on Delayed Enforcement for Some Requirements Affecting Prospective Basic Science Studies Involving Human Participants; As I previously announced a few weeks ago, NIH will be delaying enforcement for some requirements affecting prospective basic science studies that also meet NIH’s definition of a clinical trial. NIH just released the official notice stating this, along with their future plans: https://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-18-212.html; Please read the notice in its entirety. The Council on Governmental Relations (COGR) provided a summary below. Here are some highlights: () Registration and Reporting: NIH still expects the registration and reporting of these prospective basic science studies, but is giving flexibility to allow reporting on existing basic science portals, and expects the data to eventually be transported to ClinicalTrials.gov. Flexibility given through September 24, 2019. They are issuing a Request for Information (RFI) to collect stakeholder feedback on this topic; () Funding Opportunity

Announcements (FOAs): NIH will not administratively reject any proposal application for submission to an incorrect FOA based on study-type designation, and they plan to issue an FOA specifically for prospectively basic science studies in November for due dates starting on January 25th, 2019.; () The PHS Human Subjects and Clinical Trial Information Form (new in FORMS-E) – they still expect that form for all applications involving prospective basic science studies.; () Good Clinical Practice (GCP) training is still being enforced for all personnel involved in the conduct, oversight, or management of prospective basic science studies involving human participants. As a reminder, Columbia offers GCP training in Rascal through Course TC3450. NIH Salary Cap: Guidance on Salary Limitation for Grants and Cooperative Agreements FY 2018

National Institutes of Health (NIH)
03/07/2018 (Release Date)

Contact: Questions about specific awards may be directed to the Grants Management Specialist identified on the Notice of Award.

Additional Information: NIH Salary Cap: Guidance on Salary Limitation for Grants and Cooperative Agreements FY 2018; NIH issued guidance on the use of a new NIH salary cap, to increase from $187,000 to $189,600. See https://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-18-137.html. The effective date of this increase is January 7th, 2018; NIH has not received the final Fiscal Year (FY) 2018 appropriation and is operating under a continuing resolution through March 23rd, 2018 (see NOT-OD-18-136 also a very important notice). However, NIH issued this guidance until a budget is passed; In summary, this is how the $189,600 salary cap can be applied: (*) NIH proposal budgets may be submitted using the new cap; () Active NIH awards may rebudget to the new cap if restricted to Executive Level II, and adequate funds are available, and the salary cap increase is consistent with the institutional base salary. The new cap should be prorated for the applicable months: () Cap is $187,000 through 1/6/18; () Cap is $189,600 from 1/7/18 – present; If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to your SPA Project Officer. We will keep you posted on any developments. Please note I am currently out of the office, returning on Monday.

Additional Information:

Dear Mailman School faculty,

I want to give you an update on Research Support Services—the School’s new program for pre-submission external review and final editing. As Dean Fried wrote in October, the program is geared “to support faculty in preparing grant applications with the highest chance of success.”

I’m happy to report that those using the services this fall have found them valuable. Katherine Keyes in Epidemiology spoke enthusiastically at the recent Assembly: “It was a great experience. I got to focus on the science without having to deal with any of the administrative aspects. I got really good feedback. I will be using these services again.”

In my estimation, all the grants were greatly improved by these services. Of course, the ultimate test is how they are scored and funded. As soon I have that information, I will share it with you.

I encourage everyone to take advantage of Research Support Services to give your grants a competitive advantage. Please keep in mind the following deadlines:

NIH single IRB (sIRB) policy
NIH
(for NIH application submissions on or after) 01/25/2018

Contact: If you are preparing an NIH application due on or soon after January 25th, 2018, you should contact the Human Research Protection Office (HRPO) immediately at irboffice@columbia.edu if your application proposes to: () Conduct non-exempt human subjects research; AND; () The same research protocol will be conducted at multiple domestic sites

Additional Information: The NIH single IRB (sIRB) policy applies to the domestic sites of new and competing renewal applications/proposals with due dates of January 25, 2018 and beyond for NIH-funded multi-site studies where each site will conduct the same protocol involving non-exempt human subjects research, whether supported through grants, cooperative agreements, contracts, or the NIH Intramural Research Program.; If you are preparing an NIH application due on or soon after January 25th, 2018, you should contact the Human Research Protection Office (HRPO) immediately at irboffice@columbia.edu if your application proposes to: () Conduct non-exempt human subjects research; AND; () The same research protocol will be conducted at multiple domestic sites; If Columbia University is being proposed as one of the participating sites in an application to be submitted this month or soon after by another applicant organization, you must also contact the HRPO immediately. Moving forward, it is recommended that you contact the HRPO as soon as a decision is made to participate in a multi-site study to which the NIH sIRB Policy applies.; An official process that details the requirements for addressing the NIH sIRB Policy is being finalized, to be released shortly. In the meantime, PIs and/or departments can reach out to irboffice@columbia.edu to inform the HRPO about these applications. Upon receipt of your email, HRPO will send you an online form to be completed, and you will be provided with next steps; In addition, we are offering several options to learn more about the sIRB process. Note: Protocols that address the same research questions, involve the same methodologies, and evaluate the same outcomes are considered to be the "same research protocol." Additionally, sites that are accruing research participants for studies that are identical except for variations due to local context consideration would be considered to be conducting the "same research protocol." If you have any questions, please contact irboffice@columbia.edu; Our website contains resources to help you while you get accustomed to all of the policy changes impacting proposal preparation. We have an Excel checklist to help you complete the new PHS NIH Human Subjects and Clinical Trials Information Form. We also have a one-page reference guide (thank you Katherine Rochmat of School of Social Work for the initial template)!; https://research.columbia.edu/content/nih-proposal-information; As always, feel free to contact your SPA Project Officer should you have any questions about NIH proposal preparation.; [brought to our attention by Stephanie F. IRB Policy

The NIH Single IRB (sIRB) Policy is applicable to new and competing renewal applications/proposals for NIH funding that are due on or after January 25, 2018, and contract solicitations issued on or after January 25, 2018. It is applicable to NIH-funded multi-site domestic studies involving non-exempt human subjects research, whether supported through grants, cooperative agreements, contracts, or the NIH Intramural Research Program.

If you are preparing an NIH application that is due on or before March 5, 2018, it is important that you contact the HRPO immediately at irboffice@columbia.edu if your application proposes to: () Conduct non-exempt human subjects research; AND () The same research protocol will be conducted at multiple domestic sites; The HRPO and SPA have developed tools to facilitate implementation of this policy. These tools, including an overview of our process and template language that can be used in your grant applications, can be accessed here. The HRPO’s web page will continue to be updated with additional resources as more information becomes available to facilitate compliance with this policy.

Additional Information: I wanted to pass along this email we received from NICHD. Regardless of whether you receive funding from NICHD, I thought it was a great summary of the recent NIH policies concerning human subjects research and the definition of a clinical trial. It also highlights contacting the NIH Program Officials when you are uncertain if your study meets the NIH clinical trial definition.; I promise you will see more communications from me as we prepare you for these proposal application changes in effect for proposals due January 25th, 2018 or later.; Stephanie Scott Changes to NIH policies and procedures related to human subjects research; Dear NICHD Investigator, NIH has broadened its definition of clinical trial, and it may impact your future applications (new, resubmission, or revision) and awards.; NIH’s definition of clinical trial now includes some research approaches not traditionally considered clinical trials. For example, many behavioral or biobehavioral studies that focus on underlying mechanisms of development may now be considered clinical trials. Also, conducting experiments that involve human subjects may be considered a clinical trial. If you are conducting studies involving human subjects, it is very important that you understand this definition and determine whether it applies to your research.; How do I know if my study is a clinical trial?; NIH has four questions that researchers need to answer to determine whether their study is a clinical trial. These questions may use terminology that has a different meaning than the typical meanings understood by certain research communities. It’s important to review the FAQs and case studies provided by the NIH Office of Extramural Research. If you answer “yes” to each of these four questions, your research will be considered a clinical trial by NIH: (1) Does the study involve human participants?; (2) Are the participants prospectively assigned to an intervention?; (3) Is the study designed to evaluate the effect of the intervention on the participants?; (4) Is the effect being evaluated a health-related biomedical or behavioral outcome?; Here is a link that can help you determine if your research is a clinical trial: https://grants.nih.gov/ct-decision/index.htm;
Why is this important? What are the implications if my study is considered a clinical trial?; Beginning with applications submitted on or after January 25, 2018, if your application involves a clinical trial, you must: () Submit the application through a Funding Opportunity Announcement (FOA) that accepts clinical trials.; () Provide additional information in the application, which will be subject to different and distinct review criteria for clinical trials.; If selected for funding, you will need to designate individual(s) to serve as the responsible party for the trial and to register and post results in the ClinicalTrials.gov system.; NIH has also issued other policy updates involving Good Clinical Practice training requirements and the use of Single Institutional Review Board (sIRB) approaches for domestic, multisite human subjects research. Details about all updates/changes are available at https://grants.nih.gov/policy/clinical-trials.htm
Note: These policy updates/changes also apply to individuals conducting research through contracts.; Why is NIH making these changes?; As stewards of public funding, NIH is implementing these changes in support of our scientific and ethical obligation to ensure that the burden and risk that volunteers assume as research participants ultimately contributes to scientific knowledge. In addition, these changes facilitate transparency in how NIH conducts and supports human subjects and clinical trials research and increases dissemination of data and conclusions derived from NIH-conducted or -supported clinical trials. More discussion of the reasons for the policy changes is at: https://grants.nih.gov/policy/clinical-trials/why-changes.htm
We know this is a lot to process, but we are here to answer your questions. Please contact your Program Officer with any questions. If you’re uncertain who your Program Officer is, this information is available in your Commons account.; Kind regards, Stephanie Scott; Eunice Kennedy Shriver National Institute of Child Health and Human Development; National Institutes of Health / DHHS; Bethesda, MD 20892; NICHDTrials@nih.gov; Details about all updates/changes are available at https://grants.nih.gov/policy/clinical-trials.htm

Additional Information: Be Careful to Pick the Right Funding Opportunity Announcement (FOA); In follow-up to the announcement I sent last night, Update: NIH FOAs with FORMS-E, Dr. Mike Lauer of NIH just wrote a blog on the importance of selecting the correct Funding Opportunity Announcement (FOA). See full blog post; Key takeaways: () If any part of your study (the specific aims, components, studies, etc) meets NIH's definition of a clinical trial, then you must select an FOA that allows for clinical trials; () If none of the aims or studies within your project meet the definition, select an FOA that says “Clinical trials not allowed” or “Clinical trials optional”; () The participating organizations may vary between the “clinical trial not allowed” parent FOA and the “clinical trial required” parent FOA for the same activity code. Read the details of each FOA carefully; () “Note that some institutes that participate on a “Clinical Trial Required” parent may limit their participation to mechanistic studies;” If you are unsure whether your study meets the definition of a clinical trial, I highly encourage you to reach out to the Program Official named on the FOA to help you make the appropriate determination, and to clarify the appropriate FOA to be selected. Include in your application cover letter the name of the Program Official who assisted you, and confirmed, the selection of the FOA; [brought to our attention by] Stephanie Scott, sfs2110@columbia.edu

Announcing New Research Support Services
Mailman School
relative to the upcoming 10/05/2017 NIH Grant Submission Deadline:
Initial Request form (5 weeks prior to the Grant Due Date): 09/01/2017
Science Draft Submission (for those seeking external review): Three (3) to Four (4) weeks prior to submission 09/14/2017 (3 weeks) or 09/07/2017 (4 weeks)
(Final) Scientific Editing (an outside company that has already been used by several departments will be engaged as needed): 10 to 14 days prior to submission (09/21/2017 – 09/25/2017)

Contact: If you have any questions about your eligibility or the above process, please contact Pam Factor-Litvak, Associate Dean Research Resources prl1@columbia.edu
Please submit the submission form and documents to Craig Kandell at ckk7@columbia.edu

Additional Information: [adapted from] A MESSAGE FROM DEAN FRIED [previously distributed] to Faculty; Dear Mailman School faculty,; In acknowledgement of the increasingly competitive federal funding environment, the School’s administrative and academic leadership teams have been working to develop new resources to support faculty in preparing grant applications with the highest chance of success. In the fall, we will announce and begin rolling out a suite of such supports.; Given the initial fall NIH submission deadline of October 5, I write today to inform you about the first of these resources. The School is providing support for pre-submission external review and for scientific final editing of R01, P, K, Center or other complex NIH proposals for NIH’s October 5 submission deadline, for all full-time faculty with primary appointments in the School. These services will only apply to first submissions (not to resubmissions). Note that, at this time, other grant types such as R03 and R21 are not eligible for this service.; For the external review of applications, the PI will be requested to identify an external expert who they think would be willing to review the grant. Please remember that an individual who serves as a reviewer in this way would then become ineligible to review the proposal for NIH. The School will arrange for the review and provide reviewers a $750 honorarium for R01 review and $1,000 for review of P or other more complex proposals. This external review is independent of any departmental review of aims or entire proposals, is independent of review by R2, and is entirely optional.; For the final scientific editing, an outside company that has already been used by several departments will be engaged as needed. The editing review will polish writing, help with organization and logical progression, and assist with the production of figures.; Below is the timeline and process for requesting and utilizing these supports: () To ensure that you will be requesting these services. This request must include: the title of the grant, type of grant, due date, and name of the suggested external reviewer with contact information.; () Research Resources will contact the external reviewer to ensure his/her willingness to review within one week. That office will also send the appropriate paperwork for paying the honorarium. Three to four weeks prior;

NIH to Limit Total Grant Support to PIs

NIH

NA

Contact: National Institutes of Health; Office of Extramural Research; ExtramuralNexus@mail.nih.gov

Additional Information: NIH to Limit Total Grant Support to PIs; NIH announced on Tuesday that it will implement a limitation on the total grant support it will provide to principal investigators (PIs) who have multiple awards. The agency will use a “Grant Support Index” that assigns point values to various types of grants. PIs who exceed a set point, linked to having three or more awards with a single PI, will be forced to adjust their portfolio with reduced resources. NIH said that the proposed formula will be discussed by institute and center councils during their spring meetings before a final formula is shared with the community. NIH says that it believes 6 percent of PIs will be affected and that resources will be freed up to fund about 1,600 additional awards. NIH insists that no existing awards will be rescinded.; An article posted by Nature reports that some researchers believe the new policy will disincentivize research collaborations.; Tentative plans are to make the process effective for applications submitted starting in September 2017. NIH also said that non-NIH funding sources will not enter the formula, nor would promised effort. Dr. Francis Collins released a statement on the announcement and Dr. Michael Lauer, NIH Deputy Director for Extramural Research, posted additional information about the proposal on his blog site. Both Drs. Collins and Lauer report that 10 percent of NIH awardees receive 40 percent of NIH extramural funding.

Additional Information: Please also note the highlighted final research report requirement below; Several updates to ASSIST happened [01.19.17], you can read about those updates below.; In addition, you may recall that NIH now requires the use of a Final Research Performance Progress Report (FRPPR). See NOT-OD-17-
022. Section D.1 in the Participants section will now be included, per the email below regarding eRA Commons updates; I’ll need to provide more information on the FRPPR separately. It appears NIH just posted some FAQs on the FRPRR and Interim RRPR. See https://grants.nih.gov/grants/rrpr/faq.html#5038. I’ll provide a separate email with this information.; Should you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to your SPA Project Officer. [brought to our attention by] Stephanie Scott; eRA Enhancements: eRA Commons Upcoming Release and Scheduled Downtime for Wednesday, January 18; eRA Enhancements: eRA Commons Upcoming Release and Scheduled Downtime for Wednesday, January 18; Friday, January 13, 2017; Scheduled Downtime for the January Release: eRA Commons and ASSIST will be unavailable beginning at 9 p.m. ET Wednesday, January 18 and will return to service by 7 a.m. ET Thursday, January 19, 2017. When the system is available again, you will see new features and functionality have been added to the system.; Highlights of ASSIST’s January Software Release; () New Access Maintainer Role; () A new role called “ASSIST-ACCESS_MAINTAINER_ROLE” with Access Maintainer Privileges has been added to the Account Management System (AMS).; () Only the Signing Official (SO) has the authority to provide this role to whomever they want to manage access to applications in ASSIST on behalf of the organization.; () By providing this role, the SO is delegating the authority to manage access to all applications at the organization level, rather than application by application level.; () Access Management within ASSIST for individual applications has not changed.; () Multi-Employment Functionality; () Senior Key Persons who are affiliated with multiple organizations will be able to select from their current employments so they can choose the most appropriate organization as it relates to their application.; () When the user provides their eRA Commons User ID and multiple active employments are associated with the account, the system displays the organization, the state, the city of each employment organization. The user can select the appropriate appointment and click the “Select” button.; () New Link for SOs from ASSIST to Commons Status Screen; () When SOs access the Application Information page, they will find a new link titled “To view Commons post submission actions” in the Agency section of the page.; () The link will take them to the Commons Status search page. From here they can search for the application under the Recent/Pending Submissions option so they can quickly reject the application if so desired/needed.; () This link is only available to Signing Officials.; () A Warning if Appendix Material is Submitted in Applications; () Per the policy outlined in NOT-OD-16-129, the submission of most appendix materials has been eliminated from NIH applications.; () If the system detects the submission of appendix materials, a new warning will advise the applicant to closely review the Funding Opportunity Announcement to confirm that these materials are requested as part of the application.; () Form Lock Message Includes User Name; () When a user opens a form screen in ASSIST to edit or add information, the system locks that form so others cannot simultaneously edit the same form.; () ASSIST displays a message indicating the form you are trying to access is locked by another user and now includes the name of the user who holds the lock.; Highlights of eRA Commons January Software Release; () Final RRPR Section D.1 Added; () As part of the transition to the use of the Final Research Performance Progress Report (FRPPR), Section D.1 of Participants is now included.; () S Section D.1 asks “What individuals have worked on the project?” This information will be the list of people who have worked on the project since the previous progress report. It does not include all the individuals during the lifetime of the award.; () New Design of the Status Information Screen for PIs and SOs; The Status Information screen will have a new look and feel. The screen is an important source of information for Principal Investigators (PIs) and Signing Officials (SOs) for such things as scores, summary statements, NIH contacts, reference letter status, etc.; [a] provided picture has been linked at: https://r2eport.files.wordpress.com/2014/04/nihannouncementtipinpdfformat.pdf; New Status Information screen with some sections expanded, other collapsed.; () The new design is similar to other updated screens, such as the Personal Profile and the Institution Profile; () Categories of information are organized into collapsible/expandable sections; ($) Expand All (default view) and Collapse All buttons show and hide the information on the screen; () New Text Filter; ($) A new field will allow you to enter text and display the results on those sections with matches; ($) Matching text will be highlighted, allowing you to quickly locate the information; () Important information is displayed along the left side: ($) Warnings; ($) Contact information; () Scientific Review Officer (SRO); () Grants Management Specialist (GMS); () Program Official (PO); ($) Latest Updates; ($) eRA Service Desk contact information; (*) New Print Capabilities; ($) New formatting capabilities allow you to print all the information with the click of a single button; ($) Organized by category; ($) Includes warnings; ($) Includes NIH contacts; NOTE: The ability to submit help tickets online will not be available during the downtime listed above.; Joe Schumaker; eRA Communications; Division of Communications and Outreach; NIH Office of Extramural Research; Questions? The Fringe Rate Applicable to Government Grants and Contracts will Increase from 27.1% to 28.9%, effective July 1, 2016

Contact: Any questions about the government fringe rate should be directed to Carl Sparano at email cs16@columbia.edu or voice 212-854-1049.

Link(s): http://spa.columbia.edu/proposals/institutional-information

Additional Information: To: Principal Investigators, Sponsored Projects Administrators; From: Anne Sullivan, Executive Vice President for Finance; Rudi Odah-Ramadan, Associate Vice President for Research Administration; We are writing to inform you that, based on the approval obtained from the Federal government, the fringe rate applicable to government grants and contracts will increase from 27.1% to 28.9%, effective July 1, 2016. For all funding sources other than government grants and contracts, the fringe benefit rate will be 29.5%. The increase in the rate is primarily driven by the significant increase in medical costs the University has experienced over the past year; Please note that you may wish to take this opportunity to review the impact the change in the fringe benefits recovery rate may have on the allocation of personnel related costs for the remainder of the grant life cycle.; With respect to students, the fringe benefit rate applicable to salaries funded by government projects will not change and will remain at 8.15%. For all funding sources other than government projects, the fringe benefit rate will be 8.15%; For grants administrators: FY16 Cost Transfers involving sponsored projects will continue to be processed with the FY16 fringe rates through the July 15 deadline. The new FY17 fringe rates will be introduced with FY17 payroll runs.; The rate agreement is available on the SPA website on the Institutional Information page. It will be posted on the Finance website shortly.; Any questions about the government fringe rate should be directed to Carl Sparano at email cs16@columbia.edu or voice 212-854-1049.

Additional Information: Please pass this on to anyone you know whom may be preparing an NIH individual fellowship application (pre- or postdoc.); Anyone who started a grant application for any of these fellowship opportunities prior to June 8, 2016 must return to the funding opportunity announcement and begin again.; There were problems in the fellowship forms packages attached to the funding announcements. NIH has since corrected the problem. See below for details, and https://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-16-106.html. Impacts the Parent fellowship funding announcements as well as PA-16-130 from NIGMS and PAR-16-210 from NIDCD. an issue with the Grants.gov form interface. It does not impact how the attachments are sent to NIH or how we assemble your application image in eRA Commons; We are working with Grants.gov to address the issue. In the meantime, do not rely on the “View Attachment” feature for the Resource Sharing Plan. Instead, carefully check your attachments prior to uploading them and again when viewing your application image in eRA Commons; This issue only impacts the PDF version of the form. Change is Coming: Updates to NIH Application Forms and Instructions; Summary from the NIH "Open Mike" Blog Regarding the Many Changes Taking Place with NIH Application Forms and New Policy Requirements; NIH; Extramural Nexus Blog;

01/25/2016; effective for applications submitted on or after January 25, 2016;

Contact: Please see appropriate links;

Additional Information: Below is a nice summary from the NIH "Open Mike" blog [provided by Stephanie] Scott regarding the many changes taking place with NIH application forms and new policy requirements. I reviewed these changes this week with departmental/grants managers during the Research Administration Forums. I will certainly continue to provide updates and summaries of these changes for faculty and the rest of the research community. Stay tuned for more.; Step; We periodically need to update our application forms and instructions to accommodate changing policy, new business needs, and sometimes (not often enough) to reduce the amount of information we ask of you. Given our constraints, we have been working to provide systems support to make the mechanics of these transitions easier for you. This particular set of changes implements a number of policy changes impacting applications submitted in 2016, which we announced in a series of recent NIH Guide notices. We would like to give you a quick overview of what is happening; We will be rolling out the changes in two phases, as summarized in our notice published in the NIH Guide, since our new application forms will not be ready until the spring; You may want to pay particular attention to the following changes, effective for applications submitted on or after January 25, 2016: () There will be new application requirements and review language regarding enhanced rigor and reproducibility (We'll be elaborating on these requirements in a separate upcoming post); () We will ask for less information in the vertebrate animal section of the application, to remove redundancy with information already included in IACUC reviews. (Some of this information will be shifted to the research strategy section.); (*)

Reminder: NIH & AHRQ Grant Application Changes for Due Dates On or After January 25, 2016

NIH; AHRQ;
We are updating the NIH policy on inclusion of children to lower the age designation for children to include those under 18 years old. (The current age designation for children includes all research subjects under 21 years old.) (*) For training grants, information requirements will change and lower applicant burden; For due dates of May 25, 2016 and beyond, we will require use of new application forms (FORMS-D). We will remind you again this spring, but please understand that it is imperative that you submit your application on the right form package to ensure successful submission.; We will reissue fellowship, career development, training and all parent funding opportunity announcements this spring, to ensure the announcements include instructions that match the form requirements. We’ll also make a variety of resources available this spring to help ensure you submit using the right forms.; If you have been using the Grants.gov downloadable forms and haven’t tried ASSIST yet, members of my staff (the electronic Research Administration or eRA) are working on enhancing the copy application feature to make it even easier to move your application (including attachments) from one form version to another. During the last round of grant applications, over 25% of the applicants switched from using downloadable forms to ASSIST. They successfully submitted their applications on the first try over 90% of the time compared with only 60% of the time for those still using the standard downloadable forms.; So be on the lookout for new application instructions we will release at the end of November, and for more communications from us as we get closer to the time we move to FORMS-D.;

Simplification of the Vertebrate Animals Section of NIH Grant Applications and Contract Proposals; National Institutes of Health; NA Release Date: 10/13/2015; Contact: For questions or further information, contact: Office of Laboratory Animal Welfare (OLAW); Telephone: 301-496-7163; Email: olaw@od.nih.gov; Link(s): http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-16-006.html; Additional Information: This Notice is to inform potential applicants and offerors that the requirements of the Vertebrate Animals Section (VAS) of grant applications, cooperative agreements and contract proposals has changed. The changes have been made to remove redundancy with Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee review while meeting the requirements of the Public Health Service Policy on Humane Care and Use of Laboratory Animals.; Updated VAS Requirements: If live vertebrate animals are to be used, federal policy requires applicants to address the following criteria: () Description of Procedures. Provide a concise description of the proposed procedures to be used that involve vertebrate animals in the work outlined in the application or proposal. Identify the species, strains, ages, sex and total number of animals by species to be used in the proposed work. If dogs or cats are proposed, provide the source of the animals.; () Justifications. Provide justification that the species are appropriate for the proposed research. Explain why the research goals cannot be accomplished using an alternative model (e.g., computational, human, invertebrate, in vitro); () Minimization of Pain and Distress. Describe the interventions including analgesia, anesthesia, sedation, palliative care and humane endpoints to minimize discomfort, distress, pain and injury.; () Euthanasia. State whether the method of euthanasia is consistent with the recommendations of the American Veterinary Medical Association (AVMA) Guidelines for the Euthanasia of Animals. If not, describe the method and provide a scientific justification.;

NIH & AHRQ Announce Transition to New Research Training Table Formats for 2016 and Upcoming Release of the xTRACT System; National Institutes of Health; Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality; NA Release Date: 10/13/2015; Contact: Please direct all inquiries to: NIHTrain@mail.nih.gov; Link(s): http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-16-007.html; Additional Information: This Notice serves to announce the availability of new research training data tables for use with FY 2016 institutional training grant applications and research performance progress reports (RPPRs). Table formats, instructions, and a completed set of tables with sample data may be found on the NIH website at: http://grants.nih.gov/grants/funding/424/datatables.htm; Where specified in the Funding Opportunity Announcement for a program, these tables may also be used in institutional career development and research education applications and RPPRs; Background and Related Information: In keeping with the recommendations of NIH’s Advisory Committee to the Director’s Working Group on the Biomedical Research Workforce, we plan to introduce an electronic system, xTRACT, for creating research training data tables and storing the information reported in those tables. xTRACT is expected to be available for users to access via the eRA Commons beginning October 16, 2015.; In conjunction with the development of xTRACT, and to implement related recommendations from the Working Group, we have revised existing research training data tables to: () Reduce the number of tables from 12 to 8; () Minimize the reporting of individual-level information; (*) Extend the tracking of trainee outcomes from 10 to 15 years; Where possible, existing data will be used to pre-populate the xTRACT system, including trainee names and selected characteristics, institutions, grant numbers, and subsequent NIH, AHRQ and other HHS awards.;

NIH & AHRQ Announce New Form for PHS Awarding Component and Peer Review Requests; National Institutes of Health; Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality; NA Release Date: 10/13/2015;
Additional Information: Applicants who want to communicate requests pertinent to the assignment and initial peer review of applications must use a new PHS Assignment Request Form beginning with applications for due dates on or after May 25, 2016. Use of this form will ensure applicant requests are effectively communicated to agency staff and may be used to expedite the processing and assignment of applications. Fields included in the new form: () PHS Awarding Component (including NIH Institute/Center (IC) Requests), both positive (“assign to”) and negative (“do not assign to”); () Study Section or Special Emphasis Panel Requests, both positive and negative; () List of potential reviewers in conflict, and why; () List of scientific expertise needed to review the application; The form is optional, and use of the form does not require completion of all fields in the form. For example, an applicant may wish only to request a specific awarding component or study section assignment and leave the other fields on the form blank.; The PHS Assignment Request Form complements the Cover Letter Attachment on the SF 424 (R&R) form. Although NIH will no longer check the Cover Letter Attachment for requests pertinent to the assignment and review of applications, the Cover Letter Attachment still may be used to communicate a variety of other issues, as specified in application guides (e.g., reason for late submission);

nih ahrq change font guidelines for applications to due dates on or after may 25, 2016

National Institutes of Health; Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality;

Release Date: 10/13/2015; For Applications to Due Dates On or After May 25, 2016; 05/25/2016;

Contact: Please direct all inquiries to: NIH Grants Information; Email: grantsinfo@od.nih.gov (preferred method of contact); Telephone: 301-435-0714;

Additional Information: This notice informs the biomedical and health services research communities of additional flexibility regarding the fonts used in PDF attachments included in grant applications.; For applications submitted for due dates on or after May 25, 2016, the following new guidelines apply: Text in PDF attachments must follow these minimum requirements: () Font size: must be 11 points or larger (smaller text in figures, graphs, diagrams and charts is acceptable as long as it is legible when the page is viewed at 100%); () Type density: must be no more than 15 characters per linear inch (including characters and spaces); () Line spacing: must be no more than six lines per vertical inch; () Text Color: must be black (color text in figures, graphs, diagrams, charts, tables, footnotes and headings is acceptable as long as it is legible); Since some PDF converters may reduce font size, it is important to confirm that the final PDF document complies with the font requirements.; The following fonts are recommended, although other fonts [both serif and non-serif] are acceptable if they meet the above requirements: () Arial; () Garamond; () Georgia; () Helvetica; () Palatino Linotype; () Times New Roman; (*) Verdana; Legibility is of paramount importance. Applications that include PDF attachments that do not conform to the minimum requirements listed above may be withdrawn from consideration.;

Inclusion of Children in Clinical Research: Change in NIH Definition;

National Institutes of Health;

NA Release Date: 10/13/2015;

Contact: Please direct all inquiries to: NIH Inclusion Policy Officer; Office of Extramural Research (OER); Telephone: 301-435-7124; Email: inclusion@od.nih.gov;

Additional Information: The purpose of this notice is to notify NIH applicants/offerors and grantees/contractors about a change related to the NIH policy on the inclusion of children in clinical research. NIH’s long-standing policy has been that children must be included in all human subjects’ research, conducted or supported by the NIH unless there are scientific and ethical reasons not to include them. The policy was developed because medical treatments applied to children are often based upon testing done only in adults, and scientifically evaluated treatments are less available to children due to barriers to their inclusion in research studies. Therefore, applicants / offerors conducting human subjects’ research must include a description of plans for including children. If children (or a subset of children) will be excluded from the research, the application or proposal must present an acceptable justification.;

What’s Changing: Starting with applications/proposals submitted for due dates on or after January 25, 2016, for the purposes of inclusion policy, the age of a child will be defined as individuals under 18 years old instead of under 21 years old, the current NIH definition of a child for inclusion policy considerations. Applicants / offerors for NIH funding will still be expected to justify the age range of the proposed participants in their clinical research, with particular attention paid to addressing the inclusion (or exclusion) of children (or subsets of children). However, now that threshold applies to individuals under the age of 18 rather than under the age of 21.;

Reason for Change: Consideration of children as a vulnerable population for research risk and the NIH child inclusion policy are often conflated. While these are distinct policies, many think of children as under 18 years of age, typically the age of consent. This has sometimes led to confusion on the part of Additional Information: This notice informs the biomedical research community of updates to application instructions and review language intended to enhance the reproducibility of research findings through increased scientific rigor and transparency. These updates will take effect for most research grant applications (including small business and complex research grant applications) submitted for due dates on or after January 25, 2016. For research contracts, this policy will be effective for proposals received on/after January 25, 2016 and expected to result in contract awards in Fiscal Year 2017 and beyond.; Updates include: () Revisions to application guide instructions for preparing your research strategy attachment; () Use of a new "Authentication of Key Biological and/or Chemical Resources" attachment; () Additional rigor and transparency questions reviewers will be asked to consider when reviewing applications; These updates focus on four areas deemed important for enhancing rigor and transparency: (1) the scientific premise forming the basis of the proposed research; (2) rigorous experimental design for robust and unbiased results; (3) consideration of relevant biological variables, and (4) authentication of key biological and/or chemical resources.; The basic principles of rigor and transparency and the four areas of focus apply to the full spectrum of research, from basic to clinical. Investigators will need to consider how all four areas apply to their proposed research. Likewise, reviewers will assess whether these areas have been appropriately addressed by the applicant through revised language defining the peer review criteria. ()

Notes & Exceptions: () Research grant activity codes excluded from this policy include C06, G08, G11, G12, G13, G20, R13, S06, S10, S21, SB1, U13, U55, UB1, UC6, UC7, UG4, UH4, X02, and 333; () Research Resource and Related grants or components (P30, P40, P41, P2C, R24, R28, U24, U41, U42, and U2C) may have slightly revised review language; please refer to the Funding Opportunity Announcement; () Refer to NOT-OD-16-012 for updates to Career Development Award application instructions and review language.; () Fellowship and Training grant applications submitted for the May 25, 2016 due date and beyond will include new instructions and review criteria to address this policy. Details on these changes will be available by December 2015.;

FY16;
Contact: Please feel free to contact your assigned Project Officer, or SPA-eBiz@columbia.edu; if you have specific questions concerning InfoEd;
Link(s): http://spa.columbia.edu/proposals/institutional-information; Additional Information: Dear All, The federal fringe rate changed from 28.2% to 27.1% for FY16. Please see below for details. The new DHHS Rate Agreement, dated 9/21/2015, has been posted to the Sponsored Projects Administration (SPA) website, and can be found at http://spa.columbia.edu/proposals/institutional-information; If you are currently working with your Project Officer on an upcoming proposal submission, (s)he can advise on the budget preparation for the submission. If you are currently working on a proposal in Proposal Development (PD) in InfoEd, the new fringe rate will be reflected in the system next Monday. Budgets will automatically adjust in InfoEd to reflect the new rate for proposals submitted Monday and thereafter.; As always, please feel free to contact your assigned Project Officer, or SPA-eBiz@columbia.edu; if you have specific questions concerning InfoEd; Thanks: Rosa Rivera; Director, Sponsored Projects Administration; To all Budget Tool users. FY16 Fringe Rates: () For salaries charged to government grants and contracts, the FY16 fringe rate is 27.1%; () For salaries charged to all other funding sources, the FY16 fringe rate is 30.5%; (*) For student employees (less than half-time or matriculated enrolled in a degree-granting program), the FY16 fringe rate is 8.15%; [emphasis added]; The Budget Tool has been updated with the new government fringe rates and the new fringe benefit assessments have been calculated in the Payroll module. Although the overall fringe assessment on non-government grant accounts is not changing the split between accounts 59010 and 59020 will shift; The lower fringe rate for government grants and contracts will require users to review their grant projections and make necessary adjustments. [emphasis added]; Users will need to apply these changes to update their FY16 current estimate and future year budgets.; Next Steps: When you open the Budget Tool, a message that says "You have unapplied payroll changes" will appear. You must apply and confirm these amounts from the Payroll module and then have them approved before the transaction will post to ARC; If you have any questions, please contact the Finance Service Center. You can log an incident or request a service by using a self-service web form, or you can contact the Service Center by phone at (212) 854-2122 Monday, Tuesday and Thursday, 9:00 am – 5:00 pm; Wednesday 9:30 am – 5:00 pm; Friday 9:00 am – 4:00 pm; Thank you.; The Budget Tool Team;

Additional Information: Dear fellow members of the Columbia community, Now in its 12th year, the University’s Faculty Diversity Initiative continues to support our core values of inclusion and excellence. The Provost’s Grants Program for Junior Faculty Who Contribute to the Diversity Goals of the University is a key component of Columbia’s ongoing commitment to maintaining a diverse and thriving faculty body. I am pleased to write today to announce the Fall 2016 awardees of the Junior Faculty Diversity Grants program. Grantees were selected through a competitive process, with all applications reviewed by a committee of faculty from both the Morningside and Medical Center campuses; This most recent round of funding follows seven prior rounds of support from this program. Since the Junior Faculty Diversity Grant was launched in 2013, it has supported eighty-two projects across the university. Information on the program and the previous rounds of funded projects can be found here; Please join Vice Provost for Faculty Diversity and Inclusion Dennis A. Mitchell and me in congratulating the recipients of these grants.; John H. EBOLA and ZOONOTIC DISEASE

Message from President Bollinger relative to Ebola; Columbia University;
NA
Contact: if you or anyone has any concerns, please visit the University’s Ebola Preparedness site or the New York City Department of Health Ebola update page. You may also contact Student Health Services at 212-854-2284 or Workforce Health and Safety for Faculty/Staff with Hospital Responsibilities at 212-305-7590;
Link(s): if you or anyone has any concerns, please visit the University’s Ebola Preparedness site or the New York City Department of Health Ebola update page.;
Additional Information: Dear fellow members of the Columbia community: As you may have seen in the media, Dr. Craig Spencer is being treated for Ebola at Bellevue Hospital in Manhattan. Dr. Spencer, an emergency department physician at NewYork-Presbyterian/Columbia University Medical Center, recently returned from a humanitarian mission with Doctors Without Borders to one of the outbreak areas in Western Africa. We admire and appreciate all of those willing to do this vital and selfless public health work around the globe; It’s critical to bear in mind what our public health and infectious disease experts have emphasized – that the risk to people in New York City and at Columbia remains extremely low. If you or anyone has any concerns, please visit the University’s Ebola Preparedness site or the New York City Department of Health Ebola update page. You may also contact Student Health Services at 212-854-2284 or Workforce Health and Safety for Faculty/Staff with Hospital Responsibilities at 212-305-7590; We must keep Dr. Spencer in our thoughts and wish him a full and speedy recovery, as we do the vulnerable populations he serves. We will also continue to keep the Columbia community informed as we learn more from City, State, and Federal health officials.; Sincerely, Lee C. Bollinger;

Note from Dean Fried; Dean’s Office

Additional Information: Dear Colleagues, By now, many of you have learned that a New York Presbyterian physician, Dr. Craig Spencer, who recently returned from treating patients in Guinea, has tested positive for Ebola. I ask you all to keep Dr. Spencer, who is a 2013 Mailman School graduate, in your thoughts, and to acknowledge that the extraordinary efforts of our alumni, current students, and faculty continue to play a critical role in the containment, treatment, and understanding of this outbreak.; At a moment of global distress, public health knowledge is vital. It is important to recognize that this crisis will continue, and that all available scientific information suggests the risk of transmission here is extremely low.; Dr. Spencer’s commitment is among many noteworthy examples of our colleagues passing seamlessly from science to service. As we move through this global crisis, we must all take pride in that commitment.; Sincerely, Linda; Linda P. Fried, MD, MPH; Dean and DeLamar Professor of Public Health; Mailman School of Public Health; Senior Vice President; Columbia University Medical Center; Professor of Epidemiology and Medicine;

CLARIFICATION - RE: 3rd Reminder-eRA Commons IDs and Complete Profiles Required for Students and Postdocs; The requirement for NIH eRA Commons IDs, as per notice NOT-OD-13-097; NIH; Starting in October 2014;
Contact: Stephanie F. Scott, M.S., CRA; Communications and Outreach Director; Sponsored Projects Administration (SPA); Columbia University; Morningside Campus Ph: 212-854-0606; Medical Center (CUMC) Ph: 212-305-1641; Email: sfs2110@columbia.edu; Website: http://spa.columbia.edu;
Additional Information: This is to clarify the requirement for NIH eRA Commons IDs, as per notice NOT-OD-13-097. The Commons IDs, and complete Personal Profiles, are required for postdocs, graduate and undergraduate students when: () They have participated at least one person month on an NIH award, regardless if they were paid from the grant; and () Their participation is required to be included in Participations Section (D.1) in the Research Performance Progress Report (RPRR) – () note some select NIH grant mechanisms may be exempt from reporting in this section. () The RPRR Instruction Guide contains Supplemental Instructions for Specific Grant Types (such as training awards and multi-project awards), which can be found at: http://grants.nih.gov/grants/rprr/rprr_instruction_guide.pdf; TIP – when preparing your RPRR, click “Check for Errors” prior to routing the report to your SPA Project Officer. You will be alerted of missing eRA Commons IDs and incomplete profiles. This is the best time to contact SPA-eBiz to request IDs, or to alert individuals to complete their Commons profiles; If you are requesting an eRA Commons ID from SPA-eBiz@columbia.edu, please include the following information with your request: () Full Name; () UNI; () Email address; (*) Campus (Morningside or CUMC); SPA-eBiz will work with you to determine the appropriate eRA Commons role.; Please feel free to ask me, or your assigned SPA Project Officer, any questions. Thank you for your patience!; Stephanie F. Additional Information: NIH: The View From 10,000 Feet: Posted on July 24, 2014 by Sally Rockey; Here on the blog we discuss many different aspects of NIH’s research program – policies, funding trends, workforce issues. A few weeks ago, while I was preparing to give the opening talk at the NIH Regional Seminar on Program Funding and Grants Administration, I realized some Rock Talk readers might be interested in learning more about how these topics fit into the big picture of NIH. So, I asked my colleagues to tape this talk, “NIH: The View from 10,000 Feet”, so I could share it with you on the blog

Additional Information: Formula for Innovation: People + Ideas + Time: Posted on July 17, 2014 by Sally Rockey and Francis Collins; In these times of tight budgets and rapidly evolving science, we must consider new ways to invest biomedical research dollars to achieve maximum impact—to turn scientific discoveries into better health as swiftly as possible. We do this by thinking strategically about the areas of research that we support, as well as the process by which we fund that research. … We often hear from investigators at all career stages that they spend a significant portion of their careers writing grant applications, consuming precious time that could otherwise be spent conducting research. … Continue reading →

New Program for NIH-funded Grad Students and Postdocs; NIH;

Open Ended;
Contact: Please contact Rory Flinn (rf2531@columbia.edu); Director of the Office of Postdoctoral Affairs, with any questions about the program;
Additional Information: Dear Colleagues: The Office of the Executive Vice President of Research (EVPR), including the Office of Postdoctoral Affairs, and the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences (GSAS) are pleased to announce the introduction of an individual development plan (IDP) program for National Institutes of Health (NIH)-funded graduate students and postdoctoral researchers (postdocs). An IDP consists of a self-assessment of skills, interests and values that guides the development of short and long term plans to achieve career goals. In 2012, the NIH published a task force report on the current state of the biomedical workforce which found, among other things, that universities need to better prepare biomedical graduate students and postdocs for a broad range of career opportunities beyond academia. As one of a number of initiatives designed to address the recommendations of the task force, the NIH issued a policy, released on July 23, 2013 and revised on August 4, 2014 (http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-14-113.html), that does not require, but strongly encourages recipients of NIH awards to develop and use IDPs for graduate students and postdocs supported by the NIH. In addition, the revised policy provides that, beginning on October 1, 2014, annual progress reports relating to NIH awards must include a description of whether or not the institution uses IDPs and how they are employed to help manage the training and career development of graduate students and postdocs associated with such awards. The University’s IDP program will begin later this month and will include seminars on topics relating to the development of an IDP. Optional workshops will assist participants in completing an IDP. Career panels and networking events will be held to offer opportunities for participants to learn more about potential career options and the skills and experiences needed to gain employment in a wide array of fields. Complete IDP program details, including registration information, can be found at https://www2.gasas.columbia.edu/idp. Faculty members should strongly encourage their NIH-funded graduate student and postdocs to register and participate in the IDP program. A description of the Columbia IDP program to be utilized in progress reports can be found at https://www2.gasas.columbia.edu/idp/node/3#summary. Please contact Rory Flinn (rf2531@columbia.edu), Director of the Office of Postdoctoral Affairs, with any questions about the program; Sincerely, G. Michael Purdy; Executive Vice President; Carlos J. Alonso; Dean, Graduate School of Arts and Sciences; Arthur G. Palmer III; Associate Dean for Graduate Affairs; College of Physicians & Surgeons;

The Columbia University Medical Center IRB Office has a standing "IRB Consultation Hour". This service provides an opportunity for researchers to stop in at the IRB office and meet with an IRB professional to discuss regulatory, policy, and procedural questions. The sessions are scheduled for every Tuesday from 10 am to 11 am. No appointment is necessary. The IRB office is located at 154 Haven Avenue, 1st Floor. Attendees should sign in at the IRB receptionist desk, and will meet with IRB staff in the order of arrival. If situations warrant, individual consultations may be limited to 15 minutes. Important Note: If you have questions about a protocol that has already been submitted to the IRB, please contact the staff members who administer the IRB to which the protocol is assigned rather than bringing those questions to a Consultation Hours session. Staff contact information may be obtained on the IRB website: http://www.cumc.columbia.edu/dept/irb/ Researchers may also call in during these times, to the IRB main number, for consultation: 212.305.5883. Opening End;
Contact: Please contact Rory Flinn (rf2531@columbia.edu); Director of the Office of Postdoctoral Affairs, with any questions about the program;
Additional Information: Dear Colleagues: The Office of the Executive Vice President of Research (EVPR), including the Office of Postdoctoral Affairs, and the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences (GSAS) are pleased to announce the introduction of an individual development plan (IDP) program for National Institutes of Health (NIH)-funded graduate students and postdoctoral researchers (postdocs). An IDP consists of a self-assessment of skills, interests and values that guides the development of short and long term plans to achieve career goals. In 2012, the NIH published a task force report on the current state of the biomedical workforce which found, among other things, that universities need to better prepare biomedical graduate students and postdocs for a broad range of career opportunities beyond academia. As one of a number of initiatives designed to address the recommendations of the task force, the NIH issued a policy, released on July 23, 2013 and revised on August 4, 2014 (http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-14-113.html), that does not require, but strongly encourages recipients of NIH awards to develop and use IDPs for graduate students and postdocs supported by the NIH. In addition, the revised policy provides that, beginning on October 1, 2014, annual progress reports relating to NIH awards must include a description of whether or not the institution uses IDPs and how they are employed to help manage the training and career development of graduate students and postdocs associated with such awards. The University’s IDP program will begin later this month and will include seminars on topics relating to the development of an IDP. Optional workshops will assist participants in completing an IDP. Career panels and networking events will be held to offer opportunities for participants to learn more about potential career options and the skills and experiences needed to gain employment in a wide array of fields. Complete IDP program details, including registration information, can be found at https://www2.gasas.columbia.edu/idp. Faculty members should strongly encourage their NIH-funded graduate student and postdocs to register and participate in the IDP program. A description of the Columbia IDP program to be utilized in progress reports can be found at https://www2.gasas.columbia.edu/idp/node/3#summary. Please contact Rory Flinn (rf2531@columbia.edu), Director of the Office of Postdoctoral Affairs, with any questions about the program; Sincerely, G. Michael Purdy; Executive Vice President; Carlos J. Alonso; Dean, Graduate School of Arts and Sciences; Arthur G. Palmer III; Associate Dean for Graduate Affairs; College of Physicians & Surgeons;

The Columbia University Medical Center IRB Office has a standing “IRB Consultation Hour”. This service provides an opportunity for researchers to stop in at the IRB office and meet with an IRB professional to discuss regulatory, policy, and procedural questions. The sessions are scheduled for every Tuesday from 10 am to 11 am. No appointment is necessary. The IRB office is located at 154 Haven Avenue, 1st Floor. Attendees should sign in at the IRB receptionist desk, and will meet with IRB staff in the order of arrival. If situations warrant, individual consultations may be limited to 15 minutes. Important Note: If you have questions about a protocol that has already been submitted to the IRB, please contact the staff members who administer the IRB to which the protocol is assigned rather than bringing those questions to a Consultation Hours session. Staff contact information may be obtained on the IRB website: http://www.cumc.columbia.edu/dept/irb/ Researchers may also call in during these times, to the IRB main number, for consultation: 212.305.5883. Email: irboffice@columbia.edu;

NEW ITEMS FROM THE NIH

NIH-Investigators Reminder for NIH-Investigators: eRA Commons IDs and Complete Profiles;
NIH eRA Commons IDs and Complete Profiles;
Starting in October 2014;
Contact: Stephanie F. Scott, M.S., CRA; Communications and Outreach Director; Sponsored Projects Administration (SPA); Columbia University; Morningside Ph: 212-854-0606; CUMC Ph: 212-305-1641; Email: sfs2110@columbia.edu; Website: http://spa.columbia.edu/;

Additional Information: Complete Profiles Required for Students and Postdocs; As we get closer to October 2014, I wanted to remind investigators and administrators of the new NIH progress reporting requirement regarding eRA Commons IDs. Postdocs, graduate and undergraduate students supported on NIH awards must have eRA Commons IDs, with complete eRA Commons Personal Profiles. Beginning with NIH progress reports due October 2014, NIH will not accept progress reports that have missing eRA Commons IDs and incomplete profiles. As you are aware, if NIH rejects a progress report, that could delay issuance of the next year’s funding; Complete eRA Commons profiles are just as important as the ID itself. NIH can reject the progress report if the following fields are not complete in the profiles: date of birth, gender, race, ethnicity, disabilities, US citizenship status and country of citizenship. Some fields have “I Do Not Wish to Provide” as one of the acceptable responses. For those who have completed undergraduate or graduate degrees (graduate students and postdoctoral researchers), the highest educational degree, the degree date, and the institution where it was earned also should be completed. Tutorials on the eRA Commons Personal Profile can be found at eRA Commons Manage Personal Profile; If you have graduate and undergraduate students supported on NIH grants who do not have eRA Commons IDs, please have them request an eRA Commons account from SPA at SPA-eBiz@columbia.edu.;

The Research Performance Progress Report (RPPR);

Additional Information: The Research Performance Progress Report (RPPR) format will be required for all Type 5 non-SNAP progress reports beginning October 17th, 2014 (the paper PHS 2590 forms are being phased out). See NOT-OD-14-092. If you are not yet familiar with the RPPR format, resources are available at http://grants.nih.gov/grants/rppr/; Please share this information with your students and postdocs who are supported on NIH grants. If you have any questions, you may contact me, or your assigned SPA Project Officer.; Steph; Stephanie F. RPPRs that are not accepted could delay issuance of Notice of Grant Awards. See full NIH notice at NOT-OD-13-097; Currently, warnings appear in the eRA Commons screens to alert individuals identified as undergraduate students, graduate students, and postdoctoral researchers that the following fields should be completed in their eRA Commons profiles: date of birth, gender, race, ethnicity, disabilities, US citizenship status and country of citizenship. Some fields have “I Do Not Wish to Provide” as one of the acceptable responses. For those who have completed undergraduate or graduate degrees (graduate students and postdoctoral researchers), the highest educational degree, the degree date, and the institution where it was earned also should be completed. Beginning on October 1, 2014, those fields in the eRA Commons screens will be required for individuals identified in any of those three roles.; If you have graduate and undergraduate students supported on NIH grants who do not have eRA Commons IDs, please have them request an eRA Commons account from SPA at SPA-eBiz@columbia.edu. In addition, graduate and undergraduate students, and postdoctoral researchers should complete their Personal Profiles in the eRA Commons, ensuring all fields listed above are complete. Tutorials
So, here’s a quick reminder...

- Watch out for form fields required by NIH that are not marked required on federal-wide forms (e.g. Credential for PD/PIs and Organization for all entries on R&R Sr/Key Person Profile form; primary site DUNS on Project/Performance Sites form).
- Use PDF format for all attachments. Follow PDF Guidelines.
- Submit early – days, not minutes – to allow time to correct unforeseen errors.
- Track your submission in eRA Commons. Email can be unreliable.
- Check your entire assembled application image in eRA Commons. If you can’t view it, we can’t review it!
- If federal system issues threaten your on-time submission you need to notify the help desk and follow the Guidelines for Applicants Experiencing System Issues.

Impact of Biosketch Pilot on Non-pilot Applications: Did you see in the NIH Guide (NOT-OD-14-091) or in Rock Talk (Changes to the Biosketch) that NIH is piloting a new biosketch format? The pilot directly impacts applicants applying to a few Funding Opportunity Announcements (FOAs) (e.g., RFA-NR-15-001), but there is an indirect immediate impact for all applicants as well. In order to accommodate the pilot applications, eRA has changed the way we systematically validate the biosketch page limit for all applications. Specifically, a warning will fire if you submit a 5 page biosketch and an error will fire if your biosketch is over 5 pages. Applicants to pilot FOAs can ignore the 5-page warning, but everyone else should take action or risk post-submission rejection of their applications. After your application moves forward to NIH staff, we will do a manual check of the biosketches in applications to FOAs not participating in the pilot. If your non-pilot FOA requires 4 pages, but you included 5 and ignored the warning, then your application may not be reviewed. Applicants must read and follow all FOA and application guide instructions – even those that aren’t enforced by electronic systems.

Non-standard Characters in Form Fields: Although NIH systems now support a broader character set including Greek and other non-standard characters, Grants.gov systems currently do not. When completing application form fields type content directly from your keyboard. Avoid cutting and pasting from Word and other word processors - they often convert your plain text to rich text (e.g Word converts quotes to ‘smart quotes’ that curve towards the text between them and combines two dashes into one long em-dash.) Also, keep your text as simple as possible. The following characters are typically ‘safe’: letters, numbers, spaces, underscores, periods, dashes (not em-dashes), quotes (not smart quotes), parentheses, brackets, ampersands, tildes, exclamation points, commas, colons, semicolons, at signs, number signs, dollar signs, percent signs, plus signs, equal signs, and asterisks. Limit your use of fancier characters to the body of your PDF attachments.

Submitting Applications with more than 5 Budget Periods: Although NIH typically allows only 5 budget periods to be submitted with grant applications, from time to time you will come across a FOA that allows more than 5 budget periods. Most NIH FOAs include the R&R Budget form which only accommodates data collection for 5 budget periods leaving applicants wondering what to do with the rest of the data. Applicants have been forced to use a rather clunky ‘workaround’ that includes adding the additional budget period information in the budget justification. eRA has just added system support for Grants.gov’s R&R Budget 10YR form that will allow for the collection of up to 10 budget periods of data. Going forward, this form will be included with the few, special FOAs that allow more than 5 budget periods. The bulk of NIH FOAs will continue to use the standard R&R Budget form.

Transition to FORMS-C To Complete in August: If it seems like I’ve been talking about transitioning to FORMS-C for a year – I have. On May 30, 2013, we announced our first transition to updated application forms (FORMS-C) for application due dates on/after September 25, 2013 (NOT-OD-13-074). The Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) and Small Business Technology Transfer (STTR) programs are our last remaining programs to use the older forms. These programs are scheduled to transition to FORMS-C for due dates on/after August 5, 2014 (NOT-OD-14-089) marking the end of a rather lengthy transition. Believe it or not, this summer my friends in policy will start pulling together requirements for the next OMB clearance of the PHS (agency-specific) forms used in our applications (they expire in August 2015). Before you know it we’ll be talking about ‘FORMS-D’ forms. For now, let’s celebrate getting through this one. Woo-hoo!

CYA: Cover Your Application - that’s what you thought I was talking about – right? NIH form packages no longer use a separate, agency-specific PHS Cover Letter form. The version of the SF424 (R&R) cover form included in FORMS-C packages has a new Cover Letter Attachment (item #21 at the very bottom of the form). If you plan to include a cover letter with your application – use this Cover Letter Attachment only! The eRA systems know to keep this attachment separate from your assembled application image and to limit access to it. If youattach it somewhere else (e.g., Pre-application attachment on the SF424 (R&R) cover form, Other Attachments on the R&R Other Project Information form) it will become part of your assembled application image and will be visible to everyone with access to your application including reviewers.

RPPR Required for Non-SNAP Progress Reports Beginning October 17, 2014

NIH currently requires use of the fed-wide progress reporting format — known as the RPPR (Research Performance Progress Report) — to submit progress reports for Streamlined Non-competing Award Process (SNAP), fellowship, and multi-year funded awards. In April we opened the RPPR for use for all Type 5 Non-SNAP progress reports in anticipation of an October 2014 requirement for RPPR use. Now, it’s official — all Type 5 non-SNAP progress reports submitted on or after October 17, 2014 need to be submitted through the RPPR module of eRA Commons. .... Continue reading →

Promoting Research Integrity: Building the Foundation of Trust

Exemplifying and promoting the highest level of scientific integrity, public accountability, and social responsibility in the conduct of science are among NIH’s main goals as an agency. You Ask, We Answer:

- Can I Resubmit My Grant Application While It Is Under Appeal of the Initial Peer Review Results?
- What is the Deadline for Resubmitting my Unfunded Application?

NIH REVISED SUBMISSION RULES

NIH & AHRQ just released more clarifications on the new resubmission policy. In this announcement are clarifications on due dates, applicability, time limits, and the various options PIs have. See NOT-OD-14-082: http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-14-082.html; I know this revised policy is important to you and has many implications. Please feel free to me or your assigned Project Officer questions. I am following up with additional information on the important announcement I sent last week regarding NIH and AHRQ’s new resubmission policy (see below). NIH just posted extensive FAQs describing various scenarios when you may submit applications as ‘new’ that were previously submitted, resubmitted and not funded (including competing renewal applications that were not funded). Refer to the following resources and articles: FAQs: http://grants.nih.gov/grants/policy/resubmission_q&a.htm; The policy announcement: NOT-OD-14-074: A Change in Our Resubmission Policy – Rock Talk article explaining the reasons for the change; NIH Policy on Resubmission Applications; Science Magazine article: NIH to Relax ‘Two Strikes’ Grant Submission Policy. Deciding whether to submit an application as a resubmission or as a new submission can sometimes be complex. You may need to speak with an NIH Program Official or Program Director regarding your specific situation. Please feel free to ask me, or your SPA Project Officer, questions as they arise. Please read full announcement, NOT-OD-14-074 at http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-14-074.html Effective immediately, for NIH and AHRQ applications due after April 16, 2014, following an unsuccessful resubmission (A1) application, applicants may submit the same idea as a new (A0) application for the next appropriate due date. The NIH and AHRQ will not assess the similarity of the science in the new (A0) application to any previously reviewed submission when accepting an application for review. Although a new (A0) application does not allow an introduction or responses to the previous reviews, the NIH and AHRQ encourage applicants to refine and strengthen all application submissions. Please read the full announcement for more details on the background of this policy change and the policy details. The NIH time limit for accepting resubmission (A1) applications remains in effect, as does the policy for New Investigator R01 resubmission deadlines. Stephanie F. Scott, M.S., CRA

Additional Information for the two above mentioned announcements: This Notice alerts grantees to a change in the implementation timeline, previously announced in NOT-OD-13-120 and NOT-OD-14-093, for the NIH transition to new U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) payment policies for domestic, non-competing continuation awards and use of Payment Management System (PMS) subaccounts. It also announces a change in how competitive revisions/administrative supplements (Type-3s) awards will be processed. This Notice only applies to domestic non-competing continuation awards that have not yet transitioned to PMS subaccounts. In response to critical feedback from the grantee community, NIH requested an amendment to its subaccount implementation plan to delay the transition of domestic, non-competing continuation awards to PMS subaccounts for an additional year; e.g., now beginning October 1, 2015. NIH’s Office of the Assistant Secretary for Financial Resources recently approved the request. This additional time is provided to allow grantees to prepare their systems to accommodate the changes. Grantees with inadequate systems in place to appropriately manage this transition by October 1, 2015, may be unable to appropriately access PMS accounts and risk losing their ability to draw down funding. Grantees are advised that there will be no additional implementation delays considered and no exceptions granted to the deadline. As of October 1, 2015, NIH will utilize only subaccounts for awarding grant funds. Every grant that is awarded funding in FY 2016 (whether it be in the first, second, third or fourth quarter of FY 2016) will be in a subaccount. NIH will continue transitioning payment of grant awards with new document numbers to domestic institutions to PMS subaccounts in FY 2015 as announced in Notice NOT-OD-13-120. The administrative changes announced in NOT-OD-14-093 will now apply to the transition that will occur between October 1, 2015 and September 30, 2016. This Notice reiterates those administrative changes for non-competing continuation awards and highlights the revised implementation timelines and T-3 award process for all domestic awards. - See more at: http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-14-103.html#shash.0l3doSVZ.dpuf; http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-14-103.html#shash.q3dTkMY2.dpuf;

FEDERAL FUNDING TRAVEL POLICY

NIH-Investigators New Policy on Fly America Act; Sponsored Projects Administration (SPA) and the Accounts Payable (AP) department is happy to announce the release of an updated version of the Fly America Act policy, effective immediately. SPA and AP have partnered together on this effort, resulting in a clearer, more comprehensive policy to ensure compliance with the Fly America Act. You can find the full policy in the Administrative Policy Library at: http://policylibrary.columbia.edu/fly-america-act. This link contains: * Full policy text, including links to resources; * FAQs; * A Decision Tree Diagram; * A new form, the Fly America Exception Checklist Form; These resources can also be found on the SPA website at: http://spa.columbia.edu/policies/us-flag-carrier-policy.

The Fly America Act is a Federal regulation that states that any foreign air travel that is financed by Federal funds must be booked on U.S. Flag Air Carriers, regardless of cost or convenience. Only Federally funded sponsored projects are subject to this policy. The Fly America Act is not a new policy. Rather, our offices updated our existing policies, which now live in a central location in the Policy Library. There are specific exceptions to the Fly America Act that allow travelers to use Federal funds on foreign carriers, but only under certain circumstances. These exceptions can be quite complex to interpret. Therefore, our offices created a Fly America Exception Checklist and Decision Tree Diagram to assist travelers when booking flights internationally as part of the work to be done on a Federally sponsored project. In cases of exceptions, the Fly America Exception Checklist Form will need to accompany the Columbia Travel & Business Expense Report (TBER) to be submitted to AP. Appropriate back-up documentation should accompany the Checklist. The full policy and FAQs outline this process.

Anyone planning to travel internationally as part of work to be done on a Federally sponsored project is responsible for knowing and adhering to this policy. Please share this information with all faculty, administrators, postdocs and students who may be traveling internationally.

When questions arise that are related to the Fly America Act (for example, what is allowable vs. unallowable, Open Skies Agreement exceptions, etc.) you may contact your SPA Project Officer or myself. However, if you have specific questions about reimbursement of travel expenses or regarding your supporting travel documentation, you should contact AP through the Finance Service Center or call 212-854-2122. Thank you.

Thank you, Stephanie F. Scott, M.S., CRA; Communications and Outreach Director; Sponsored Projects; Administration (SPA); CUMC

Additional Information: Defense Health Program; Department of Defense Peer Reviewed Cancer Research Program; Funding Opportunities for Fiscal Year 2016 (FY16); The FY16 Defense Appropriations Act provides $50 million (M) to the Department of Defense Peer Reviewed Cancer Research Program (PRCRP) to support innovative, high-impact cancer research. As directed by the Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Health Affairs, the Defense Health Agency, Research, Development, and Acquisition (DHA RDA) Directorate manages the Defense Health Program (DHP) Research, Development, Test, and Evaluation (RDT&E) appropriation. The managing agent for the anticipated Program Announcements/ Funding Opportunities is the Congressionally Directed Medical Research Programs (CDMRP); FY16 PRCRP Program Announcements and General Application Instructions for the following award mechanism is posted on the Grants.gov website; Congressionally Directed Topic Areas: To be considered for funding, applications for the FY16 PRCRP must address at least one of the Topic Areas as directed by Congress. Research applications in the areas of breast, prostate, lung (excluding mesothelioma), or ovarian cancer will not be accepted.; The FY16 PRCRP Topic Areas are: Bladder cancer (New for FY16); Liver cancer; Pancreatic cancer; Colorectal cancer; Lymphoma (New for FY16); Pediatric Brain Tumors(New for FY16); Immunotherapy* (New for FY16); Melanoma and other skin cancers; Stomach cancer; Kidney cancer; Mesothelioma; Listeria vaccine for cancer; Neuroblastoma; As derived from the National Cancer Institute Dictionary of Cancer terms 1: Immunotherapy is a type of biological therapy that uses substances to stimulate or suppress the immune system to help the body fight cancer. Cancers studied under this topic area should be within the scope of the Congressional language and the intent of the Program Announcement(s); The FY16 PRCRP Military Relevance Focus Areas are: To address the cancer health needs of both deployed and non-deployed personnel, their dependents, retirees, and Veterans, the FY16 PRCRP seeks to support studies that are responsive to the Military Relevance Focus Areas listed below: () Militarily relevant risk factors associated with cancer (e.g., ionizing radiation, chemicals, infectious agents, and environmental cardinogens); (*) Gaps in cancer prevention, screening, early detection, diagnosis, treatment, and/or survivorship that may affect the general population but have a particularly profound impact on the health and well-being of military members, Veterans, and their beneficiaries; Applications that address exposures, conditions, or circumstances that are unique to the military, or disproportionately represented in a military beneficiary population, are the highest priority, though any applications that address the above focus areas will be considered.; http://cdmrp.army.mil/funding/prcrp.shtml;

Additional Information: JUST RELEASED! FY16 DOD BMFRP Program Announcement; This is to notify the research community of the recently released Fiscal Year 2016 (FY16) funding opportunities managed by the office of Congressionally Directed Medical Research Programs (CDMRP).; Detailed descriptions of the funding opportunity, evaluation criteria, and submission requirements can be found in the Program Announcements. The Program Announcements are available electronically for downloading from the Grants.gov website http://www.grants.gov; CDMRP website (http://cdmrp.army.mil/funding/prgdefault.shtml) and the electronic Biomedical Research Application Portal (eBRAP) https://eBRAP.org. All CDMRP funding opportunities, both recently and previously released, are available on the CDMRP website http://cdmrp.army.mil. Subsequent notifications will be sent when additional funding opportunities are released. A listing of all open CDMRP funding opportunities can be obtained on the Grants.gov website by performing a basic search using CFDA Number 12.420.; Submission is a two-step process requiring both (1) pre-application submission through the electronic Biomedical Research Application Portal (eBRAP) (https://eBRAP.org) and (2) application submission through Grants.gov (http://www.grants.gov). Refer to the General Application Instructions, Section II.A for registration and submission requirements for eBRAP and Grants.gov.; eBRAP is a multifunctional web-based system that allows PIs to submit their pre-applications electronically through a secure connection, to view and edit the content of their pre-applications and full applications, to receive communications from the CDMRP, and to submit documentation during award negotiations and period of performance. A key feature of eBRAP is the ability of an organization’s representatives and PIs to view and modify the Grants.gov application submissions associated with them. eBRAP will validate Grants.gov application files against the specific Program Announcement/Funding Opportunity requirements and discrepancies will be noted in an email to the PI and in the Full Application Files tab in eBRAP. It is the applicant’s responsibility to review all application components for accuracy as well as ensure proper ordering as specified in this Program Announcement/Funding Opportunity.; To be added or removed from this email list please use the "Subscribe/unsubscribe to program specific news and updates at https://ebrap.org;

Dear Colleague,

We are writing to announce the release of the revised Sponsored Project Subawards Policy, which can be found in the Administrative Policy Library here. This Policy was recently revised to reflect the provisions of the Uniform Guidance; Principal Investigators (PIs) are required to properly monitor the progress and spending of subrecipients as specified under the rules in the Uniform Guidance. To ensure compliance with these provisions, key changes in the revised Policy include new forms to be submitted to Sponsored Projects Administration (SPA) during proposal review, and a new process to determine a subrecipient’s risk of noncompliance with federal statutes, regulations, and the terms and conditions of the subaward. The following sections summarize the key changes to the Policy; however, those who are governed by the Policy should read it in its entirety.

Forms to be submitted to the SPA Project Officer, accompanied with the grant proposal, if subrecipients are included: () Sub recipient/Contractor Classification Form – NEW FORM; () Subaward Face Page - REVISED FORM; () Pre-award Assessment of the Proposed Subawards, if applicable - REVISED FORM; () International Research Questionnaire (IRQ), if applicable; (*) Subawardee Financial Conflict of Interest Policy Form –
