<td>a quick clarification regarding the costs associated with Dryad, a generalist digital data repository that is an option to meet the data sharing requirements under the NIH Data Management and Sharing (DMS) Policy. For Dryad, data deposit fees are waived for Columbia researchers, except for large datasets that exceed 50 GB. Costs for large datasets over 50 GB will vary depending on size of the data deposit. For more information, see Dryad’s terms. As reminder, it is best to follow NIH’s guidelines on selecting a repository, and take into consideration the following before selection: Does the NIH funding opportunity announcement (FOA), or NIH Institute, mandate a particular repository for data sharing? If no; Is there an NIH-supported data repository that is appropriate for your data type? If no; Consider a generalist repository, such as Dryad; or Columbia’s data storage options, some of which can act as repositories for data sharing; For questions, please reach out to data-management@columbia.edu; [brought to our attention by] Stephanie F. Contact: For questions about DMPTool, or the contents of the DMS Plans, please contact data-management@columbia.edu. You can also contact your SPA Project Officer for questions concerning the preparation of your NIH applications.

Additional Information: SPA provided two important clarifications for PIs regarding: (1) the use of DMPTool and NIH’s formatting requirements, and (2) when the Resource Sharing Plans are required in addition to the Data Management and Sharing Plan.

DMPTool: When using DMPTool to create the DMS Plan, the Plan must comply with all of NIH’s formatting requirements. Otherwise, the application is at risk of getting withdrawn. This includes font size, margins, and no URLs or hyperlinks are allowed. You should download the Plan created in DMPTool as a Word document to make sure you can meet all formatting requirements. See this one-page DMPTool Formatting Guide for NIH Proposals.

Resource Sharing Plan(s): When the new DMS Policy took effect on January 25, 2023, it eliminated the requirement to include a Data Sharing Plan (under the 2003 policy), or a Genomic Data Sharing Plan, in the

Additional Information: we have our key note speakers confirmed for this year’s conference! Dr. Luisa Borrell will be our morning speaker and Dr. Oni Blackstock will speak in the afternoon; Save the Date! The Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai will host the Annual Conference NYCEF 2023 on Monday June 5, 2023. The annual NYCEF conference provides a forum for epidemiologists working in the New York City area to present their work and discuss opportunities for collaborations. The conference includes oral presentations, posters and discussion sessions. The conference is expected to lead to new collaborative activities, such as networks with shared resources, joint educational programs, etc. NYCEF provides a forum for regular contact and exchanges between epidemiologists working in academic and other institutions in the New York City Metropolitan Area, with a special focus on junior researchers, including junior faculty, post-docs, fellows, and doctoral students. NYCEF fosters increased awareness about research conducted in other institutions in New York City and surrounding areas, and provide opportunities for researchers to present their work, with the overall goals of promoting bilateral or multisite collaborative projects and enhancing career opportunities for junior investigators.

Participating Institutions: Albert Einstein College of Medicine, CUNY Graduate School of Public Health and Health Policy, CUNY School of Medicine, Hofstra Northwell School of Medicine, Icahn Medical School at Mount Sinai, Mailman School of Public Health at Columbia University, Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center, New Jersey Department of Health, New York Academy of Medicine, NYC Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, NYU College of Global Public Health, New York Medical College, New York University School of Medicine, Rutgers Cancer Institute of New Jersey, Rutgers University School of Public Health, SUNY Downstate Medical Center, SUNY at Stony Brook, and Weill Cornell Medical College.

Call for abstracts forthcoming: The New York City Epidemiology Forum (NYCEF) invites the submission of abstracts for consideration for oral or poster presentation at the 2023 annual conference to be held at the Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai on Monday June 5 2023. The goals of the conference are to exchange knowledge regarding epidemiologic studies performed in and around the New York City area, to stimulate discussion and to encourage collaboration among institutions. Although both senior and junior investigators are encouraged to submit abstracts, we particularly encourage submissions from junior investigators, postdoctoral fellows and graduate degree students.

Additional Information: Research Funding Available Exploring Post-Dobbs Impact; Temple University Beasley School of Law Center for Public Health Law Research; Research Funding Opportunity: Documenting the impact of Dobbs; Our researchers at the Center for Public Health Law Research, in collaboration with the Society of Family Planning (SFP), have created a longitudinal dataset tracking state-level policy changes after the US Supreme Court overturned Roe v. Wade in Dobbs v. Jackson Women’s Health Organization. The dataset provides researchers with a resource to evaluate the impact of the Dobbs decision and is a companion project to SFP’s #WeCount project, a national abortion reporting effort. SFP recently announced a new grant for researchers to conduct secondary analysis of the #WeCount abortion data using the CPHLR post-Dobbs dataset and the Abortion Access Dashboard, which describes the impact that abortion policy has on access by describing appointment availability and travel distance to the nearest clinic. The purpose of this funding opportunity is to encourage the use of these datasets to expand our understanding of the impact of the Dobbs ruling.; The CPHLR legal dataset was created using a rapid scientific legal mapping technique called sentinel surveillance. It provides a high-level overview of state abortion restrictions and protections enacted post-Dobbs, tracking key legal developments from June 1, 2022, through January 1, 2023. The dataset will continue to be updated to track legal developments through one year after the decision.; The data capture policy variables relevant to the shifting abortion service delivery environment under the Dobbs decision. Policy variables were coded based on state statutes, regulations, ballot measures, court opinions, and executive orders. Many of these variables also include sub-categories that provide further nuance and detail on the law. The high-level variables address: Does the state restrict the legal status of abortion?; Did a trigger law come into effect?; Does the state explicitly restrict access to medication abortion?; Does the state explicitly restrict telehealth for abortion care?; What actions related to abortion may be penalized?; Does state law explicitly create fetal personhood rights?; Does the state protect access to abortion?; Did the state propose a ballot measure related to abortion?; These longitudinal data may help researchers answer questions about the way shifts in the legal landscape have affected the availability and provision of abortion services since the Dobbs decision. In addition to changes in state abortion laws, the data capture court rulings limiting enforcement of restrictions to provide a more precise picture of the rapid fluctuations in abortion regulation over a one-year period.; The dataset can be used in conjunction with outcome data and other data sources to evaluate the impact of abortion restrictions and protections post-Dobbs. The dataset presents policy variables in an interactive question-and-answer format and features maps, state profiles, codebook and downloadable CSV files. All legal data collection and coding procedures and quality control measures are detailed in a research protocol for transparency and reliability.; Learn more about the SFP funding opportunity (open through June 14, 2023); Explore the CPHLR post-Dobbs legal data

Data Visualization of Structural Racism and Place

Sponsor: https://www.rwjf.org

Deadline(s): 06/02/2023

Contact: Katie Corbit, program associate; kcorbit@rwjf.org

Additional Information: Data has been instrumental in increasing understanding of the concept of place and its impact on health inequities—how the distance of a few miles can mean a 10-year drop in life expectancy is a tangible reference point used by many today.; Based on the difference data visualizations have made in showing the connections between place and health, RWJF is seeking new efforts by interdisciplinary teams to create data visualizations of the impacts of structural racism on communities, so they may be used to communicate data clearly in advocacy for health and racial equity. A combined total of up to $2 million is available to up to 8 teams that each consist of: Researchers/data producers, Data scientists, Communications... experts, Designers, and National social change networks/alliances or National-level social change organizations. Collaboration across sectors is essential for success, since many perspectives are needed to effectively communicate the nuanced and varied impact structural racism has across a community—from physical aspects such as water infrastructure and parks to more social aspects such as a feeling of belonging.

Additional Information: This is a reminder that NIH will be releasing the new redesigned xTrain module 03/30/2023. With this new release, trainees will be required to sign Reappointments and Amendments, just as they do for Initial Appointments. In cases where this is not possible due to a trainee’s unavailability, the program director/principal investigator (PD/PI) will add a comment to explain why the trainee could not sign.; For more detailed information, see NIH's notice below, along with their videos, screen shots and user guide.; eRA Reminder: Redesigned xTrain Module To Be Released Tomorrow, March 30; The new xTrain module is scheduled to be released tomorrow, Thursday, March 30 in eRA Commons. eRA collaborated with a group of xTrain users to revamp xTrain with new screens and improved process flows. The release also includes a process change for deletion of forms, as well as clarifications on signatures for trainees and organizational responsibilities for users.; Look for the new xTrain screens to appear in eRA Commons tomorrow. There will be no downtime or impact on users. Below, see resources for more information and a related message that details new features and screens.; Resources: NIH Guide Notice NOT-OD-23-094; xTrain Overview video tutorial; xTrain — Appointments video tutorial; xTrain online help (available following tomorrow's release); (Original message below sent Thursday, March 16 at 11:05 a.m.); As mentioned a couple of weeks ago, NIH is going to launch a newly redesigned xTrain on March 30th, xTrain is used to manage appointments, reappointments and terminations for institutional training grants (Ts), individual fellowships (Fs), institutional career development awards (K12), and some research education awards (such as the R25); NIH released additional information below (which can also be read here), containing screen shots. In addition, they created a high-level, six-minute video walking through the new xTrain. Their detailed, online user guide won’t be available until after the release.; We will keep you posted on xTrain as more information becomes available.; eRA Enhancements: Redesigned xTrain Module in eRA Commons Coming on March 30; eRA Collaborating for a Transformative Tomorrow; eRA Enhancements: Redesigned xTrain Module in eRA Commons Coming on March 30; A newly redesigned xTrain module in eRA Commons is scheduled to be rolled out on Thursday, March 30, following a collaboration with an external user group. The new xTrain, with revamped screens and streamlined processes, is designed to be more user-friendly and task oriented. In addition, xTrain will adopt the new visual appearance being adopted by other eRA modules, as part of a required technology upgrade.; As a reminder, xTrain is used by program directors/principal investigators (PD/PIs), university administrators, and trainees to electronically prepare and submit PHS 2271 Statement of Appointment Forms and PHS 416-7 Termination Notices associated with institutional research training grants, institutional career development awards, individual fellowships, and research education awards.; The release will accommodate a clarification on signatures for trainees (see section towards the end of the message below). Read details about this change and a clarification of organizational responsibilities for external users in NIH Guide Notice NOT-OD-23-094.; Although the entire module will be updated, only a sampling of new screens is shown below. For complete screenshots and steps, see the xTrain online help following the release.; Awarded Grants Screen; The Awarded Grants screen is the first screen PIs, sponsors, and their delegates see upon login. Note that business officials, signing officials, and trainees see slightly different screens tailored for their task flows. The Awarded Grants screen lists grants awarded to the current user as well as grants for which the current user is a sponsor. Users can use the Quick Filters section, a set of toggles that narrow down the grants shown. Actions that were formerly under the Action column, such as the option to go to the training roster, appear under the three-dot ellipsis menu; see Figure 1; A set of new tools at the top of tables in xTrain lets you type text to quickly filter results, print or download results, choose results shown per page, and navigate through pages of results; see Figure 1. For information on using new table tools, see Standard Tools for Tables.

!Screen Shot

Figure 1: Awarded Grants screen showing Quick Filters to narrow down grants shown, the three-dot ellipsis menu displaying actions for a grant, and new table tools; Trainee Roster Screen – Overview Section: The top of the Trainee Roster screen shows grant information and trainee roster information by grant year and includes graphs of awarded and accepted months for pre-doc, post-doc, and short term. For a particular grant year, users can click an Appointments - Start New button to search for a trainee and start a new appointment form. All actions available for a grant reside under the three-dot ellipsis menu next to the grant number; the See Slots link for each year will show slots awarded and accepted for each of the three categories of appointments (pre-doc, post-doc, and short term); see Figure 2. More complete slot data is available from the Appointment Form screen; see Figure 5.

Figure 2: Top part of the Trainee Roster screen, which graphically displays current trainee months, as well as a three-dot ellipsis for performing actions, number of Appointments and Terminations, a Start New appointment link, and a See Slots link for each grant; Trainee Roster Screen – List of Trainees Section: At the bottom of the Trainee Roster screen, which users can quickly access using the Jump to Roster Table button, users see the list of trainees. Users can click the three-dot ellipsis menu for a trainee to see available actions such as view the appointment form, view routing history, initiate or view a termination notice (not shown), amend an appointment, or create a service desk ticket that is automatically populated with the relevant information. Underlined and linked trainee names represent forms that are a work in progress by the trainee, but accessible to be recalled by the PI; see Figure 3.
Figure 3: Bottom of the Trainee Roster screen, which lists trainees as well as the three-dot ellipsis menu displaying action items; Appointment Form Screen: On the Appointment Form screen, accessible when creating or amending in-progress appointments, users can specify the details of a trainee as well as the trainee’s appointment, save the form as a draft, and eventually submit the form to the agency; see Figure 4.; Not shown is a similar screen for terminations, titled Termination Notice, which can be accessed for trainees who are eligible to have their appointments terminated.

Figure 5: Slots and months for one grant year broken down into accepted, awarded, and remaining for pre-doc, post-doc, and short term; A Process Change for Deletion of Forms; Deletion of Forms; With this release, the process for deletion of forms will change. Agency staff will return the form to the organization to delete, instead of deleting the records on their own.; Clarifications on Signatures for Trainees and of Organizational Responsibilities for External Users; Trainee Signature to be Required on Reappointments and Amendments; Trainees will be required to sign Reappointments and Amendments, just as they do for Initial Appointments. In cases where this is not possible due to a trainee’s unavailability, the program director/principal investigator (PD/PI) will add a comment to explain why the trainee could not sign.; Clarification of Organizational Responsibilities for Type 6 and Type 7 Actions; NIH has issued a clarification of an organization’s responsibilities for Change of Recipient Organizations (Type 7) and Successor-in-Interest/Name Change (Type 6) actions (details in guide notice below); Resources: Please see the xTrain Overview video tutorial (for external users). Contact: Please direct all NIH inquiries to: NIH Office of Policy for Extramural Research Administration (OPERA); Systems Policy Branch; Email: OPERAsystemspolicy@nih.gov; Please direct all AHRQ inquiries to: Shelley Benjamin; Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality (AHRQ); Telephone: 301-427-1528; Email: shelley.benjamin@ahrq.hhs.gov; Please direct all CDC inquiries to: CDC Office of Grant Services (OGS); Policy, Risk, Information and Systems Management (PRISM) Branch Email: PRISM@cdc.gov; Please direct all technical inquiries to: eRA Service Desk; Submit a web ticket (preferred method): https://era.nih.gov/need-help; Toll-free: 1-866-504-9552; Phone: 301-402-7469
Additional Information: After extensive collaboration with both internal and external stakeholder groups the xTrain module in eRA Commons has been redesigned. The xTrain module is used to process research training appointments, reappointments and more that extend to institutional training, career development, fellowships, and research education awards. The xTrain module was redesigned to streamline workflows and present a more user-friendly interface. The module is adopting the new visual appearance of other eRA modules with enhanced security and stability. This update is anticipated to be released on March 30, 2023.
NOT-OD-23-110: Request for Information (RFI) on Recommendations for Improving NRSA Fellowship Review

Sponsor: National Institutes of Health

Deadline(s): 06/23/2023 (Response Date)

Contact: NRSAreview@mail.nih.gov

Additional Information: The purpose of this Request for Information (RFI) is to solicit public input on proposed changes to the review of Ruth L. Kirschstein National Research Service Award (NRSA) fellowship applications that would restructure the review criteria and modify some sections of the NRSA application form (PHS Fellowship Supplemental Form). The goal of this effort is to facilitate the mission of NRSA fellowship peer review – to identify the most promising trainees and the excellent, individualized training programs that will help them become the outstanding scientists of the next generation. The proposed changes will 1) allow peer reviewers to better evaluate the applicant's potential and the quality of the scientific training plan without undue influence of the sponsor’s or institution’s reputation; and 2) ensure that the information provided in the application is aligned with the restructured criteria and targeted to the fellowship candidate’s specific training needs.

NOT-OD-23-109: Updates to Funding Opportunity Terminology

Sponsor: National Institutes of Health

Deadline(s): 04/21/2023 (Release Date)

Contact: NIH Office of Policy for Extramural Research Administration; grantspolicy@nih.gov

Additional Information: The purpose of this notice is to notify the extramural community that NIH is transitioning to updated terminology regarding funding opportunities to better align with the Uniform Administrative Requirements as outlined in 2 CFR Part 200. Effective immediately, NIH will use the term notice of funding opportunity (NOFO) to refer to formal announcements of the availability of Federal funding through a financial assistance program. Previously, such announcements were referred to as funding opportunity announcements (FOAs). See the NIH Grants & Funding Glossary for the full definition. NIH is currently updating websites, documents, and other resources to reflect the new terminology.

NOT-OD-23-106: Revising the NIH/AHRQ/NIOSH Post-Submission Material Policy

NOT-OD-23-066: Extending the Special Exception to the NIH/AHRQ/NIOSH Post-Submission Material Policy During the COVID-19 Pandemic: August/October 2023 Councils

NOT-OD-19-083: Update to the NIH/AHRQ/NIOSH Policy on Post-Submission Materials

Sponsor: NIH

Deadline(s): The deadline for submitting all post-submission materials, including preliminary data, will be 30 days before the study section meeting, unless specified otherwise in the NOFO. For applications submitted for the May 25, 2023 receipt date and beyond, that special exception is ended and is replaced by the following policy: For applications submitted for the May 25, 2023 receipt date and beyond, NIH, AHRQ, and NIOSH will accept a one-page update with preliminary data as post-submission material for Type 1 R01, R21, or R03 applications, including resubmissions, if the NOFO used for submission... allows preliminary data in the application. Because applications for emergency competitive revisions and urgent competitive revisions undergo expedited review, post-submission materials will not be accepted for those applications.; The deadline for submitting all post-submission materials, including preliminary data, will be 30 days before the study section meeting, unless specified otherwise in the NOFO.

Additional Information: The following announcement was issued from NIH today, NOT-OD-23-106. Announcement copied below, but please see the full announcement for additional information: In response to the COVID-19 Public Health Emergency, NIH implemented a special exception for post-submission material, allowing a one-page update of preliminary data as post-submission material to specified notices of funding opportunity (NOFOs) (see latest in series of exception notices NOT-OD-23-066). The Public Health Emergency is due to end on May 11, 2023 (see NOT-OD-23-095). For applications submitted for the May 25, 2023 receipt date and beyond, NIH, AHRQ, and NIOSH will accept a one-page update with preliminary data as post-submission material for Type 1 R01, R21, or R03 applications, including resubmissions, if the NOFO used for submission allows preliminary data in the application. Because applications for emergency competitive revisions and urgent competitive revisions undergo expedited review, post-submission materials will not be accepted for those applications.; The deadline for submitting all post-submission materials, including preliminary data, will be 30 days before the study section meeting, unless specified otherwise in the NOFO.; All other materials listed in NOT-OD-19-083 as acceptable post-submission materials will continue to be accepted if submitted 30 days before the study section meeting. Instructions for submission are included in NOT-OD-19-083. [brought to our attention by] Stephanie F. The purpose of the NOFOs are to invite applications on chronic conditions understudied among women and/or that disproportionately affect populations of women who are understudied, underrepresented, and underreported in biomedical Research. The NOFOs align with Goal 1 of the 2019-2023 Trans-NIH Strategic Plan for Women's Health Research "Advancing Science for the Health of Women."; The NOFOs will support research on chronic conditions that affect all women and individuals assigned female at birth that remain understudied building upon opportunities identified at the ORWH-led Advancing NIH Research on Women's Health: A 2021 Conference. The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services defines chronic conditions as "conditions that last a year or more and require ongoing medical attention and/or limit activities of daily living." Sex and gender influence prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of chronic conditions and multimorbidity among women. Women have higher prevalence of chronic conditions; often present with different symptoms (e.g., dizziness rather than chest pain with cardiac disease); are affected by different chronic conditions (e.g., female-specific conditions, autoimmune disease); and accumulate multi-morbidity at different life course timepoints (e.g., after menopause) compared to men. Additionally, the burden of chronic conditions is not evenly distributed among communities of women, with higher prevalence among populations of women historically understudied and underrepresented in biomedical research.; ORWH is interested in research on approaches to understanding chronic conditions and multimorbidity in women that include Understanding the underlying mechanisms of disease (including sex and gender differences); Identifying environmental factors (including psychosocial, socioeconomic, and sociocultural determinants of health) that influence risk; Improving prevention, diagnosis and treatment interventions; and Improving quality of life following diagnosis.; Research on chronic conditions with differential prevalence, morbidity and/or mortality in populations of women historically understudied and underrepresented in biomedical research is of particular interest. See call for collaborations below. FY 2024 ORAU-Directed Research and Development (ODRD) Program Call for Collaborations – New; https://www.orau.org/university-partnerships/member-grant-programs/odrd.html; On March 6th during the Annual Council Meeting, the Research and University Partnerships Office announced the formal Call for Proposals (CFP) for the FY24 ORAU-Directed Research and Development (ODRD) Program to ORAU subject matter experts. The FY24 research areas are Climate and Environment, Health Equity, and Future of the STEM Workforce. Proposals are due in June 2023, and must be submitted by ORAU staff; ODRD projects are joint collaborations between ORAU and university researchers, designed as seed projects to attract ongoing research funding. ORAU researchers lead the effort as Principal Investigators and are responsible for initiating and proposing the project. Funding for awarded projects is shared between both parties, and projects must be completed in one year. The period of performance is October 1, 2023 – September 30, 2024.; Member university personnel with active relationships with ORAU staff are encouraged to reach out directly to discuss the potential for an ODRD project.; To facilitate new partnerships between ORAU and university researchers, we invite university faculty to submit a collaboration request at the following link: https://orausurvey.orau.org/n/fy24odrd.aspx. Requests must outline the proposed research topic, the role of the ORAU researcher, and the role of the university researcher. Requests will be accepted until 11:00pm EST on April 2, 2023, and will be shared with the ORAU research community. If complementary interests align, ORAU will contact you to discuss the potential partnership the week of April 24, 2023. Submission of request is not required, and does not guarantee collaboration or funding opportunities. Late requests will not be accepted.; ORAU; Research and University Partnerships Office; (865) 576-6513; University.partnerships@orau.org; www.orau.org; ORAU, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation, provides science, health and workforce solutions that address national priorities and serve the public interest. Through our specialized teams of experts and access to a consortium of more than 150 major Ph.D.-granting institutions, ORAU works with federal, state, local and commercial customers to provide innovative scientific and technical solutions and help advance their missions. Additional Information: Upcoming Significant Changes to Rascal Proposal Tracking; Sponsored Projects Administration (SPA), in collaboration with Columbia University Information Technology (CUIT), is excited to announce Rascal Proposal Tracking 3.0, anticipated to be released the end of March 2023.; What is Rascal Proposal Tracking?; Rascal Proposal Tracking is currently required to register any new or competing renewal grant or contract proposals with SPA. It captures critical proposal and compliance details used by your SPA Project Officer for proposal review and submission to a sponsor. Rascal Proposal Tracking is also used to register proposal resubmissions, transfer applications, non-competing continuations, supplemental requests, and cost extensions.; What’s changed?; Rascal Proposal Tracking 3.0 has been modernized with new functionality to make it easier to identify, sort, and filter projects. Several data entry fields have been removed to reduce burden, while others have been enhanced to improve data collection and reporting. New validations have been created to highlight missing or potentially inaccurate information. It is easier to identify changes that have been made in Rascal Proposal Tracking throughout the registration and finalization process in close collaborations with the SPA Project Officer.; Will there be training?; Yes! We have scheduled two webinars to provide the research community with an overview of Rascal Proposal Tracking 3.0. The sessions will be recorded. You can register for one of the following dates: Wednesday, March 22, 2:00 pm – 3:30 pm Eastern Time; Wednesday, March 29, 2:00 pm – 3:30 pm Eastern Time. In addition, we will be holding weekly office hours in April 2023 to assist you and answer your specific questions. To register for office hours: Tuesdays, April 4 – April 25; 9:30 am – 10:30 am Eastern Time; We will provide more detailed information and resources as we get closer to the release of Rascal Proposal Tracking 3.0. NIH just released new guidance on budgeting and costs in their NIH Data Management and Sharing (DMS) Policy FAQs. A significant change SPA wishes to highlight: Personnel Effort: Per NIH’s Budget/Costs FAQ 6, “All costs for data management and sharing activities, including personnel costs, must be included in the single line item on the R&R Budget Form in section F. Other Direct Costs. This includes the salary and fringe benefits corresponding to the time it takes personnel to undertake data activities (e.g., formatting, curating, developing supporting documentation). Do not include personnel costs related to data management and sharing activities in section A. Senior/Key Person or section B. other Personnel. Supporting details, including a breakdown of any personnel effort, must be included in the budget justification.”; This is a change from our previous guidance.

We have revised our FAQ (under topic: Budget Issues) to align with NIH. You should discontinue using previously suggested template language in the budget justification; If you submitted a proposal to NIH on or after January 25, 2023 and have concerns about this change, note that NIH has stated regarding their assessment of the budget that “peer reviewers may provide comments on the reasonableness of the budget, but these comments will not impact the score. Peer reviewers will only use the information found in the budget justification to determine whether the requested DMS costs are reasonable and will not be provided with the separate DMS Plan attachment (see NOT-OD-22-189).” Therefore, the Just-In-Time (JIT) period will be used to correct or modify budgets and budget justifications. Additional Information: Given the number of NIH proposals planned for submission for NIH’s deadline on Monday, February 6th, we wanted to send a quick clarification regarding the costs associated with Dryad, a generalist digital data repository that is an option to meet the data sharing requirements under the NIH Data Management and Sharing (DMS) Policy: For Dryad, data deposit fees are waived for Columbia researchers, except for large datasets that exceed 50 GB. Costs for large datasets over 50 GB will vary depending on size of the data deposit. For more information, see Dryad’s terms; As reminder, it is best to follow NIH’s guidelines on selecting a repository, and take into consideration the following before selection: Does the NIH funding opportunity announcement (FOA), or NIH Institute, mandate a particular repository for data sharing? If no; Is there an NIH-supported data repository that is appropriate for your data type? If no; Consider a generalist repository, such as Dryad; or Columbia’s data storage options, some of which can act as repositories for data sharing; For questions, please reach out to data-management@columbia.edu; [brought to our attention by] Stephanie F. Additional Information: SPA provided two important clarifications for PIs regarding: (1) the use of DMPTool and NIH's formatting requirements, and (2) when the Resource Sharing Plans are required in addition to the Data Management and Sharing Plan.

DMPTool - When using DMPTool to create the DMS Plan, the Plan must comply with all of NIH’s formatting requirements. Otherwise, the application is at risk of getting withdrawn. This includes font size, margins, and no URLs or hyperlinks are allowed. You should download the Plan created in DMPTool as a Word document to make sure you can meet all formatting requirements. See this one-page DMPTool Formatting Guide for NIH Proposals; Resource Sharing Plan(s) - When the new DMS Policy took effect on January 25, 2023, it eliminated the requirement to include a Data Sharing Plan (under the 2003 policy), or a Genomic Data Sharing Plan in the Resource Sharing Plan(s) section of the application. Instead, only one DMS Plan is needed (even if subject to the Genomic Data Sharing Policy), which is included in the Other Plan(s) section of the application. See Writing a DMS Plan, which contains additional instructions for applications subject to the Genomic Data Sharing Policy. A Resource Sharing Plan(s) is required only when the PI plans to create the following two items: Model Organisms – unique model organisms, including unique mammalian and non-mammalian models; and/or Research Tools – unique research resources that can be useful for many others and many projects.;

See NIH Instructions on Resource Sharing Plans for FORMS-H; For questions about DMPTool, or the contents of the DMS Plans, please contact data-management@columbia.edu. Additional Information: Hello, all. I just wanted to share these training resources and videos from NIH dedicated to human subjects research. These were presented during their two-part webinar series in December. See below for the details. [brought to our attention by Stephanie Scott; NIH Extramural Nexus; Your Questions on Human Subjects Research, Answered; If you're conducting research with human subjects, you might have questions about HHS regulations and NIH policies and how you can prepare proposals and inclusion plans. HHS and NIH experts address many of these questions, along with resources, guidance, and case studies in a 2-part webinar series focused on Human Subjects Research Policies, Clinical Trials, and Inclusion (Day 1 and Day 2). Feel free to break out the popcorn and binge the whole video or check out these sections for the information you need: How Do I Know If A Research Study Is Human Subjects Research?; What to Know About FWAs and IRBs to Get Your Grant Money?; An Overview of NIH Policies on Human Subjects: What are the Essentials of sIRB Requirements? An Overview of NIH Policies on Clinical Trials: Including Diverse Populations in NIH Clinical Research. Using the eRA Human Subjects System (HSS). For presentation slides and other resources, see the event page. If you haven’t already, register for the 2023 Virtual NIH Grants Conference, February 1-2, for even more NIH policy guidance and resources. While in the grants conference center, be sure to visit the virtual Exhibit Hall and the booth, Human Subjects, Clinical Trials, and Inclusion for downloadable resources, links, and the opportunity to chat with experts during the event.

Additional Information: Two Important Federal Legal Requirements; Dear Members of the Research Community, We write to remind you of two important federal legal requirements related to sponsored projects: Certification of current and pending/other support (per Section 233 of the William M. (Mac) Thornberry National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2021); Federal law requires principal investigators and senior/key persons to: disclose the amount, type, and source of all current and pending research support received by, or expected to be received by, the individual as of the time of the disclosure; certify that the disclosure is current, accurate, and complete; and update such disclosure at the request of the agency prior to the award of support and at any subsequent time the agency determines appropriate during the term of the award.; Currently, funding agencies vary in their implementation of the certification requirement. Information related to specific funding agency requirements is available on the Funding Applications and Progress Reports Disclosure page of the University's Science and Security website. If you are uncertain whether to make a disclosure, we recommend that you err on the side of transparency. Please contact your Sponsored Projects Administration project officer with questions.; Prohibition against use of certain telecom or video surveillance equipment (per Section 889 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2019); The U.S. Government prohibits Columbia from using certain telecommunications or video surveillance equipment, produced by certain companies, as a substantial or essential component or as critical technology for any system. These rules, which apply to all recipients of federal funding, also prohibit the use of federal funds to procure or obtain covered telecommunications equipment or services. These restrictions apply to all purchases completed through a University Purchase Order, P-Card, AP Voucher or reimbursement of a personal charge through Concur.; “Covered telecommunications equipment or services” are: Telecommunications equipment or services produced by Huawei Technologies Company, ZTE Corporation, or any subsidiary or affiliate of these entities; and Video surveillance technology and equipment or services used for certain public safety, physical surveillance, or national security purposes and produced by Hytera Communications Corporation, Hangzhou Hikvision Digital Technology Company, Dahua Technology Company, or any subsidiary or affiliate of these entities.; For more information about this prohibition and to access lists of the prohibited companies and their subsidiaries and affiliates, please visit Research Compliance and Training’s Economic Sanctions and Restricted Parties webpage.; For Procurement-related questions, please contact Hugh Horowitz, Procurement Services, at hugh.horowitz@columbia.edu. Additional Information: [brought to our attention by Stephanie Scott]; Sending this announcement, campus-wide, on behalf of Dr. Utpal Pajvani, Director, Scholarly Projects Program, and Dr. Anil K. Lalwani, VP&S Associate Dean of Student Research. Please see solicitation below. For more information about the Scholarly Projects Program (SPP), click here. You may also email psspp@cumc.columbia.edu; Dear Faculty, We write to solicit Columbia faculty mentors for medical students involved in research through the Scholarly Projects Program (SPP). The SPP, now in its 10th year, links 4th year Columbia medical students with faculty mentors to explore an area of medical practice or research with the aim of creating new knowledge. The SPP aims to develop students' abilities in the following School-Wide Learning Objectives: (i) generate hypotheses, exhibit curiosity and develop a pattern of life-long learning and (ii) participate in the process through which new knowledge is generated, and assess the importance of novel ideas. After students identify a faculty mentor, they co-develop project ideas and eventually spend 4-6 months working on their project with protected time in their 4th year of medical school.; In order to facilitate matching students with mentors in their area of interest we are soliciting mentors and projects for the 2022-2023 academic year. If you are interested in serving as a mentor for the SPP, please click this link to provide a short description of your work: https://cumc.co1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_eDvehU9mhmyGhg ; Students may apply for funding for their project, and mentors receive a $1000 stipend for their time and effort. Beyond these considerations, both students and mentors find the SPP experience highly rewarding.; Thank you for your time and consideration. We will share your information with our students and advise them to reach out to you or your contact person as indicated on the form. If you have any questions, please email psspp@cumc.columbia.edu.; Best, Utpal Pajvani, MD, PhD; Director, Scholarly Projects Program; Anil K. Lalwani, MD; VP&S Associate Dean of Student Research.

Additional Information: Newly Funded New York City Center Aims to Reduce Health Disparities in Multiple Chronic Diseases;

A multi-institutional group in New York City has united to address health disparities in multiple chronic diseases through the Center to Improve Chronic Disease Outcomes through Multi-level and Multi-generational Approaches Unifying Novel Interventions and Training for Health Equity (COMMUNITY Center). The vision of the center is rooted in public health tenets, recognizing that medical advances alone can only partially reduce the inequitable burden of disease in people of color. Reducing health disparities in chronic diseases requires multi-faceted approaches that intervene on structural, community, family and individual level determinants of health and well-being; Please note the Community Center's website where students, faculty and doctors may be interested in reviewing. It has links in which information for the IDC (Investigator Development Core) can be found. We will be starting a next cycle phase in a few months, which will also be announced. The research funded application is found within this link and we welcome applications from early-stage investigators from CUIMC, WE-CORN, Hunter or PAGNY that are post-doctoral fellows, junior faculty conducting research, or non-research track clinicians. Thank you for helping me disseminate this information! We will be in touch. [brought to our attention by Marisol Castellano mc4542@cumc.columbia.edu]

Additional Information: New NIH Structural Racism and Discrimination Funding Opportunity; Dear PEPH colleagues, NIEHS is thrilled to announce our participation in PAR-23-112, Addressing the Impact of Structural Racism and Discrimination on Minority Health and Health Disparities. This initiative will support intervention research that addresses structural racism and discrimination (SRD) in order to improve minority health or reduce health disparities.; Please share with your networks!; Please direct inquire to Lindsey Martin lindsey.martin@nih.gov. Application Due Dates: March 24, 2023; October 10, 2023; October 9, 2024; October 9, 2025; NIEHS is interested in applications that are within scope of our 2018-2023 Strategic Plan, that meet the criteria established in this FOA, and focus on intervention research that mitigates or prevents the impacts of environmental exposures on communities due to structural racism and discrimination (SRD). Examples of environmental exposures which are considered of primary interest for NIEHS include but are not limited to: industrial chemicals or manufacturing byproducts, metals, pesticides, herbicides, air pollutants and other inhaled toxicants, particulates, or fibers, fungal, and bacterial or biologically derived toxins. Applicants are strongly encouraged to utilize community engaged research approaches that ensure equity, such as including community partners as part of the research team along with letters of support from community partners. Applications that demonstrate collaborative (i.e., community-academic partnerships) intervention approaches to address the negative health effects of SRD across multiple populations with environmental health disparities will be prioritized. NIEHS is particularly interested in intervention research on a subtype of SRD - environmental racism. For the purposes of this FOA, environmental racism includes the use of racist and discriminatory practices in determining which communities receive health-protective (i.e., green space) or health-harming infrastructure (i.e., industrial complexes). Areas of specific interest to NIEHS include, but are not limited to: Interventions that prevent or mitigate single or combined environmental exposures disproportionately affecting the health of one or more communities impacted by environmental racism; Interventions that address the disproportionate health impacts of exposures due to climate change, extreme weather and natural or human caused...
disasters on communities affected by environmental racism; Interventions that prevent or mitigate disproportionate exposures in the built environment (e.g., mold or lead in housing, lack of greenspace) attributed to systemic neighborhood disinvestment; Interventions that address the role of environmental racism in occupational exposures; Interventions that promote the resiliency of communities experiencing environmental racism. Want to learn more about implementation science and environmental health? Lindsey Ann Martin, PhD; Program Officer; National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences (NIEHS); Division of Extramural Research & Training; Population Health Branch; Phone: (984) 287-4036; Email: Lindsey.Martin@nih.gov; PAR-23-112: Addressing the Impact of Structural Racism and Discrimination on Minority Health and Health Disparities (R01 - Clinical Trial Optional) (nih.gov); New NIH Funding Opportunity; Addressing the Impact of Structural Racism and Discrimination on Minority Health and Health Disparities; The National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences (NIEHS) is announcing their participation in Addressing the Impact of Structural Racism and Discrimination on Minority Health and Health Disparities. This initiative will support intervention research that addresses structural racism and discrimination (SRD) in order to improve minority health or reduce health disparities. Find more information and apply here.; Upcoming application due date: March 24, 2023 by 5:00 PM local time of applicant organization.; There is increasing recognition that racism and discrimination contribute to poorer health outcomes for racial/ethnic minorities and other populations that experience health disparities. Health research on racism and discrimination to date has largely focused on interpersonal interactions, and to a lesser extent, one specific form of SRD, residential segregation. Typically, such research focuses on the adverse health consequences of SRD exposures. Less research has explored the resilience among populations exposed to SRD or community strategies to resist or mitigate historic or contemporary SRD exposures. Additionally, intervention research has rarely emphasized reduction of SRD as a strategy to improve health and reduce disparities. Research on mitigation of SRD is needed to inform health care and social policies at all levels. NIEHS is interested in applications that are within scope of their 2018-2023 Strategic Plan, that meet the criteria established in this funding opportunity announcement and focus on intervention research that mitigates or prevents the impacts of environmental exposures on communities due to SRD. Applicants are strongly encouraged to utilize community engaged research approaches that ensure equity, such as including community partners as part of the research team along with letters of support from community partners. Areas of specific interest to NIEHS include, but are not limited to: Interventions that prevent or mitigate single or combined environmental exposures disproportionately affecting the health of one or more communities impacted by environmental racism; Interventions that address the disproportionate health impacts of exposures due to climate change, extreme weather and natural or human caused disasters on communities affected by environmental racism; Interventions that prevent or mitigate disproportionate exposures in the built environment (e.g., mold or lead in housing, lack of greenspace) attributed to systemic neighborhood disinvestment; Interventions that address the role of environmental racism in occupational exposures; Interventions that promote the resiliency of communities experiencing environmental racism; Please direct inquiries to Lindsey Martin lindsey.martin@nih.gov

Additional Information: NIH is going to host a series of webinars on various topics on a monthly basis (what they're calling ‘pre-conference’ events), as well as host the 2022-2023 Virtual NIH Grants Conference. You can register for these today! Go to their new NIH Grants Conference and PreCon Events webpage to register.; Below is their official announcement and schedule. It kicks off this month with a session on the NIH Loan Repayment Program (LRP) on Thursday, August 25th, from 2 – 3:30pm EDT.; These are open to anyone with all levels of experience: Research Administrators, Researchers, Grant Writers, PostDocs, Trainees, and others in the research community. See below for additional details. [brought to our attention by] Stephanie Scott; Mike Lauer; Subject: 2022-2023 Virtual NIH Grants Conference and PreCon Events: New Name! New Approach! Deeper Dive! Reimagine: to reinterpret (an event, work of art, etc.) imaginatively; rethink: If you have followed my blogs through the years, you know I am a huge fan of an NIH event focused on bringing the extramural research community together with NIH experts to share knowledge, perspectives, guidance, and resources on the NIH grants process and policies. The event has evolved through the years in format, reach, and trans-NIH involvement. Each year, I thought its success would be hard to top...yet somehow it happened. For decades it was known as the “NIH Regional Seminar on Program Funding and Grants Administration.” We capped events at 900 attendees. In 2020, it was hosted online and became the “NIH Virtual Seminar.” Last year, over 15,000 attendees participated, representing every state, and over 100 countries. Yet here we are again...reimagining what it could be...reimagining what it should be.; For the past two years, our virtual seminar has spanned four days and included 50 sessions. That is a lot of information for attendees to digest in a short period of time! This year, we thought participants would appreciate the opportunity to get the content over a longer period, allowing time for the information to digest. In addition, by pulling select topics out of the larger conference and sharing them in monthly preconference events, there is the opportunity to dive deeper into issues and build time for additional Q&A, case studies, and conversation.; To this end, I’d like to introduce you to our new, NIH Grants Conference and PreCon Events... all hosted within our virtual conference center. Visit the Conference Calendar of Events to view the times and descriptions for each: August 25: NIH Loan Repayment Programs: Supporting the Next Generation of Researchers; September 15: Navigating Early Career Funding Opportunities; October 14: Research Misconduct & Integrity; November 9: Foreign Collaborations: Policies, Processes, & Partnerships; December 6 & 7: Human Subjects: Policies, Clinical Trials, & Inclusion; January 12, 2023 Making the Most of the 2023 NIH Grants Conference; February 1 & 2, 2023: 2023 Virtual NIH Grants Conference: Funding, Policies, & Processes; I am excited about the new opportunities this conference approach will provide everyone involved. Here are additional details about some of this year’s conference features.; All-Access Conference Pass: There are no fees for signing up. Once you register, your log-in and password provide you access to all of the PreCon Events, 2-Day Conference, On-Demand Library, Exhibit Hall, and additional opportunities to engage with NIH and your peers.; Virtual Conference Center: The conference and designated preconference events will take place on a single, online platform called vFairs, the same one used for the past two NIH Virtual Seminars. The Exhibit Hall will be available throughout the year for perusing NIH Institute and program booths and collecting valuable information; booths will be staffed for the 2-day conference.; Build Your Personalized Agenda. Once you register to access our conference center, you can add any of the on-demand videos, PreCon Events, or NIH Grants Conference sessions to your agenda, guaranteeing that you won’t miss out!; First Event: Thursday, August 25, from 2:00 – 3:30 PM ET – We are pleased to kick off the PreCon Events with experts from the NIH Loan Repayment Program (LRP). This informative and interactive virtual event will provide participants a valuable opportunity to gain program information on how NIH can help pay off a researcher’s student debt, as well as guidance on the LRP application process.; We hope you are as excited as we are about the opportunities the virtual conference center and the planned events offer participants. Register today to get your All-Access Conference Pass. Within a couple of weeks, the conference center will open and be ready for you to explore and plan your NIH Grants Conference experience! ; 2022-2023 Virtual NIH Grants Conference and PreCon Events #NIHgrantsconf; View article and pending (other) support formats. Research.gov and Grants.gov will generate a compliance error message if a proposer or grantee attempts to upload a prior version of either document. The revised biographical sketch and current and pending (other) support formats are in SciENcv, and the fillable PDFs are available on the NSF biographical sketch and current and pending (other) support websites. Proposers currently may use either SciENcv or the fillable PDFs. Beginning October 23, 2023, use of SciENcv will become mandatory.

The Research.gov Project Reporting System will enforce the use of the revised current and pending (other) support format when uploaded in annual and final project reports. View the NSF Biographical Sketch and Current and Pending (Other) Support: SciENcv and NSF Formats webinar, NSF presentation, and NIH presentation;

- Concept Outlines and ProSPCT: Emails generated by the Program Suitability and Proposal Concept Tool (ProSPCT) for the concept outline submission type can be uploaded in the Research.gov Proposal Submission System. This applies to Rapid Response Research (RAPID), Early-concept Grants for Exploratory Research (EAGER), Research Advanced by Interdisciplinary Science and Engineering (RAISE), and Planning proposals. For additional guidance, refer to PAPPG Chapter I.D.1. and view the Concept Outlines at NSF webinar.

- Additional Updates: A new checkbox has been added to the proposal Cover Sheet for Safe and Inclusive Working Environments for Off-Campus or Off-Site Research. Refer to the PAPPG Chapter I.E.9. Functionality has been added in the Research.gov Proposal Submission System for proposers to provide updated current and pending (other) support information requested by NSF program officers prior to making funding recommendations. Refer to PAPPG Chapter II.D.2.h.(ii); A new Post Award Disclosure of Current Support and In-Kind Contributions notification has been added. Access this new request using the Notification & Requests link under Awards & Reporting on the Research.gov My Desktop page. Refer to PAPPG Chapter 9.C.; FastLane Decommissioning: Limited FastLane proposal capabilities such as proposal file updates and budget revisions will remain available for FastLane-submitted proposals until September 29, 2023. This includes proposals submitted to NSF via Grants.gov on or before November 18, 2022. Refer to the FastLane Decommissioning page for additional information. This page will be updated on an ongoing basis.

To assist with the creation of NSF’s new Biographical Sketches and Current & Pending (C&P) Support formats, we provide you with the following: Resources: Have I Included...? - a questionnaire to assist you with ensuring all projects and in-kind contributions are included in the C&P form; The Rascal Other Support Tool - a starting point to assist researchers in identifying current and pending sponsored projects required to be disclosed in Other Support/Current and Pending Support forms for federal agencies. Researchers can download an Excel report to send to administrators assisting with C&P Support. The Other Support Tool contains only proposals from and awards to Columbia. It does not include other information required in C&P Support, such as in-kind contributions. The researcher is responsible for including all required information; NSF’s video and slide decks from their recent webinar on the revised Biographical Sketches and C&P formats, with a SciENcv demonstration; View our last town hall slide decks and the latest information at NSF Researcher Disclosure Requirements; Reminders: The Biographical Sketch and Current & Pending (Other) Support formats contain a new certification requirement, in accordance with Section 223(a)(1) of the William M. (Mac) Thornberry National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2021 (42 USC 6605(a)(1)). Senior personnel are required to certify that the information provided in their Biographical Sketch and Current and Pending Support documents are accurate, current, and complete; The signature requirement cannot be delegated and must be completed by the person submitting the biographical sketch or current and pending support; You can use either NSF’s PDF-fillable Biographical Sketches and Current & Pending (C&P) Support formats, containing the revision date “rev. 01/19/2023”; or you can use SciENcv to create these forms. Earlier versions of these formats will not be accepted in Research.gov, and will cause compliance errors if a proposer attempts to upload a prior version of either document; If using the PDF-fillable forms, you should not use DocuSign, or any other e-signature software. The certification requires a typed name and date only. Using an e-signature will generate errors upon proposal submission; If you choose to use SciENcv, we strongly encourage you to view NSF’s webinar first to learn the latest information on how to use SciENcv to include the newly required certifications.; SciENcv will be required beginning October 23, 2023. At that time, the PDF-fillable versions will no longer be available or accepted.; Please feel free to contact your SPA Project Officer with questions.; Stephanie F. Additional Information: Dear NSF-funded Researchers and Applicants, As we have previously communicated, as of today (January 30, 2023) all NSF proposals that include off-campus or off-site research must have a plan to ensure a safe and inclusive work environment for that specific project, and must share the plan with all participants. NSF defines "off-campus or off-site research" as "data/information/samples being collected off-campus or off-site, such as fieldwork on research vessels and aircraft."; To support principal investigators in meeting this new requirement, we have created two templates that principal investigators can download, customize for their specific project(s), and then disseminate to their team members: Template Plan for Ensuring a Safe and Inclusive Work Environment for Off-Campus or Off-site Research Activity. This template plan ("Plan") includes a project-specific information sheet for the Principal Investigator to complete, plus a description of Columbia-wide policies, resources and information relevant to safe and inclusive research environments, and a place to add any school or departmental resources.; Template Email to Disseminate Plan. NSF requires the Plan to be disseminated to all members of the team before they depart for field or off-site research activity. Principal investigators should use this template email to do so. It is important for principal investigators and/or their administrators to keep a copy of the email after it is sent, to document that this NSF requirement was fulfilled; In addition, as of today, a new certification has been added to the Rascal Proposal Tracking Data Sheet, to confirm compliance with this requirement. The certification says: "I/we certify that a plan has been developed for this proposal in accordance with NSF requirements on ensuring a Safe and Inclusive Working Environments for Off-Campus or Off-Site Research."; Please note: In general, NSF does not require the plan to be submitted to NSF. However, several solicitations from the NSF Directorates for Biological Sciences (BIO) and Geosciences (GEO) will soon require the submission of a Safe and Inclusive Work Environments Plan that will be considered as part of the Broader Impacts criteria during the review process. Program Directors from BIO and GEO will hold a Virtual Office Hour on Tuesday, February 7, 2023; 3:30 - 4:30 PM Eastern on this new pilot effort regarding Safe and Inclusive Work Environments Plans. Register here for this webinar.; If you have questions about this new requirement, please contact your SPA Project Officer.; Thank you.; William Berger; AVP for Sponsored Projects Administration; Naomi Schrag; Vice President for Research Compliance, Training and Policy

Additional Information: Yesterday, NSF provided key updates regarding its new Biographical Sketch and Current & Pending (Other) Support formats. This is important information for those of you who may have started working on the new forms for upcoming submissions or are about to do so, as follows: Late yesterday, NSF replaced the PDF-fillable US NSF – About Biographical Sketches and US NSF – About Current and Pending (Other) Support formats on their webpages to correct the formatting in order to be compliant (see notice below). These formats now have a revision date, “rev. 01/19/2023” indicated on the bottom right footer.; You must use these latest versions of the PDF-fillable forms in order to be compliant. If you downloaded the forms within the last week, you must make sure to use this latest format with the rev. 01/19/2023 in the bottom right corner.; The use of these new forms, or SciENcv, is required for proposals submitted on, or due on or after January 30, 2023. You cannot upload these new forms prior to January 30th, there will be system errors. You can, however, start using the forms now, and upload to Research.gov on or after that date.; These clarifications were made during a webinar NSF conducted yesterday to review the new PDF-fillable Biographical Sketches and Current & Pending (Other) Support formats, as well as SciENcv. A video recording and slides will be available soon on their website at the Resource Center – NSF Policy Office Outreach (nsfpolicyoutreach.com). I will notify you when the materials become available.; [brought to our attention by Stephanie Scott]; Enhancements to the NSF biographical sketch and current and pending (other) support fillable PDF formats; Dear colleagues, NSF has recently made enhancements to the biographical sketch and current and pending (other) support fillable PDF formats. The updated formats are consistent with the Proposal and Award Policies and Procedures Guide (PAPPG) Proposal & Award Policies & Procedures Guide (PAPPG) (NSF 23-1) | NSF - National Science Foundation and are available on the NSF US NSF – About Biographical Sketches and US NSF – About Current and Pending (Other) Support websites. NSF made the following changes in response to feedback received from the research community: Current and Pending (Other) Support; Corrected the Status of Support radio button; Corrected fonts and margins for compliance with NSF policy; Included the revision date (rev. 01/19/2023) at the bottom of each page; Biographical Sketch; Corrected margins for compliance with NSF policy; Included the revision date (rev. 01/19/2023) at the bottom of each page; Staff from NSF and NIH conducted a webinar to discuss the revised forms and demonstrate the SciENcv system. A recording of the webinar will be made available in the coming days at: https://nsfpolicyoutreach.com/; NSF appreciates the feedback from the research community. Additional feedback and questions may be submitted to: policy@nsf.gov; Regards, Jean Feldman; Head, Policy Office; Division of Institution and Award Support; National Science Foundation; FAQs related to NSFS Proposal and Award Policy, PAPPG (NSF 22-1)

Additional Information: NSF will be hosting a webinar next week on Concept Outlines, a new submission type! As part of the draft Proposal and Award Policies and Procedures Guide (PAPPG) (23-1), NSF is introducing the Concept Outline as a new submission type. The primary purpose of the concept outline is to ensure that the concept being proposed by the prospective Principal Investigator (PI) is appropriate for the proposal type or funding opportunity, and to help reduce the administrative burden associated with the submission of a full proposal; Attendees also will learn about Program Suitability and Proposal Concept (ProSPCT) tool which will be used for submitting and tracking Concept Outlines; Registration is available at: https://nsfpolicyoutreach.com/22-webinar-series/, to be held Tuesday, September 27 from 2:00 – 3:00pm EST.; This webinar will be recorded for future, on-demand access.; I highly encourage faculty and administrators to learn more about this new submission type being offered by NSF.; [brought to our attention by] Stephanie F. Scott, MS, CRA; Director of Policy and Research Development; Columbia | Research Sponsored Projects Administration; Email: stephanie.scott@columbia.edu; Website: https://spa.columbia.edu/; The National Science Foundation (NSF) is pleased to announce the next webinar in the 2022 NSF Policy Office Webinar Series, covering Concept Outlines at NSF, will take place Tuesday, September 27 from 2:00 – 3:00pm EST. There is no cost to participate.; Registration is open! To register for this event, visit our website: https://nsfpolicyoutreach.com/; We are encouraging attendees to submit questions ahead of time so that our speakers may tailor their remarks to answer the audience’s most pressing questions. Please submit your questions when you register or email them here: grants_conference@nsf.gov; Feel free to check https://nsfpolicyoutreach.com/ for the most up-to-date webinar information. You can view recordings from previous webinars and conferences on our Resource Center or YouTube page.; For those who cannot attend the live webinar, all recorded sessions will be available on-demand shortly after the event and posted on our Resource Center and our YouTube page.; If you require any accommodations, such as closed captioning, or if you have any logistical questions about the webinar, please contact us at: grants_conference@nsf.gov; We look forward to seeing you!; Sincerely, Policy Office, Division of Institution & Award Support; Subscribe to our YouTube channel!; Policy Outreach Website | Resource Center | Update Notifications; Event Questions | Policy Office Questions

Notice of Special Interest (NOSI): Advancing Research on Early Pregnancy Loss

Sponsor: Eunice Kennedy Shriver National Institute of Child Health and Human Development; Office of Research on Women's Health

Deadline(s): 07/05/2022 (Release Date)
Contact: Please direct all inquiries to: Clara Cheng, PhD; Fertility and Infertility Branch; Eunice Kennedy Shriver National Institute of Child Health and Human Development; Telephone: 301-435-6992; Email: clara.cheng@nih.gov

Additional Information: Early Pregnancy loss (EPL), defined as a pregnancy loss occurring up to 20 weeks gestation, is a very common pregnancy complication, occurring in 12-15% of clinically recognized pregnancies, with increased prevalence associated with increasing maternal age. The use of highly sensitive hCG assays allows the detection of pregnancy earlier in gestation than the time of clinical recognition, and gives an even higher estimated loss of 50-70% of conceptions prior to the second trimester. To achieve a successful pregnancy, a series of strict embryonic and maternal conditions must be met, that include high quality embryos, favorable conditions for embryo implantation, receptive maternal endometrium and optimal uterine environment to sustain the conceptus to term. In addition, maternal immune tolerance and hormonal factors play a critical role. While approximately half of all cases of EPL appear to be due to embryonic aneuploidy, very little is known about the physiologic and pathophysiologic processes that underlie non-aneuploid EPL. As a result, there is also a lack of understanding for the underlying causes of recurrent pregnancy loss (RPL). This NOSI seeks to address these critical knowledge gaps by encouraging basic, translational and clinical studies on biological processes that may uncover potential etiologies of EPL and RPL. This includes research to understand implantation mechanistically and identify a range of key factors, involved in implantation and placentation that are important for early pregnancy establishment, including abnormalities that contribute to sporadic EPL and recurrent pregnancy loss.

Additional Information: The Healthcare Practitioner Breast Cancer Education Research Projects (Round 5); The Healthcare Practitioner Breast Cancer Education Research Projects (Round 5) Request for Applications (RFA) has been released. The NYS Health Research Science Board wishes to facilitate the delivery of superior breast healthcare in New York State through an investment in the planning, development, implementation, rigorous evaluation and revision of innovative breast cancer education and communication training programs for healthcare practitioners and students of these professions. Projects will focus on developing programs to enhance the ability of healthcare practitioners and students to become partners with their breast cancer patients, patients at-risk for developing breast cancer, and/or patients at risk of breast cancer recurrence and to communicate accurately and effectively with patients, survivors, and patients’ families.; Projects will be supported by the state’s Breast Cancer Research and Education Fund. Approximately $270,000 will be available through this RFA to support approximately one (1) award. Annual direct costs are capped at $75,000. The contract term will be up to three years; To download a copy of the RFA and instructions, visit the New York State Grants Gateway at this link: IntelliGrants - Grant Opportunity Portal (ny.gov); Letters of Intent are strongly encouraged and due by 6/20/2023. Applications are due by 4:00 PM EST on 9/16/2023 in the New York State Grants Gateway.; If you are unfamiliar with the New York State Grants Gateway, we strongly encourage you to participate in the “Grant Application” webinar hosted by the New York State Grants Gateway Team. The training schedule can be found here: Live Webinars | Grants Management (ny.gov); The purpose of the Healthcare Practitioner Breast Cancer Education Research Projects RFA (Round 5) is to facilitate the delivery of superior breast healthcare in New York State through an investment in the planning, development, implementation, rigorous evaluation and revision of innovative breast cancer education and communication training programs for healthcare practitioners and students of these professions. These research projects will focus on developing programs to enhance the ability of healthcare practitioners and students to become partners with their breast cancer patients, patients at-risk for developing breast cancer, and/or patients at risk of breast cancer recurrence and to communicate accurately and effectively with patients, survivors, and patients’ families.

NOT-OD-23-113: Reminder: NIH Natural Disaster Policy Mississippi Severe Storms, Straight-line Winds, and Tornadoes

Sponsor: National Institutes of Health

Deadline(s): 04/18/2023 (Release Date)

Contact: Division of Grants Policy; Office of Policy for Extramural Research Administration (OPERA); GrantsPolicy@OD.NIH.gov

Additional Information: On March 26, 2023, President Biden declared that a major disaster exists in the State of Mississippi and ordered Federal aid to supplement State, tribal, and local recovery efforts in the counties of Carroll, Humphreys, Monroe, and Sharkey affected by severe storms, straight-line winds, and tornados from March 24, 2023 to March 25, 2023. NIH is deeply concerned for the health and safety of people and animals, and about the biomedical enterprise in the areas in Mississippi affected by these natural disasters. Due to the exceptional impact of these storms, NIH wants to assure our recipient community that we will be doing our part to help the extramural community continue its research. Our website on Extramural Response to Natural Disasters has a list of available resources, including guidance on animal welfare issues; NIH has identified the following actions to relieve short-term administrative, financial management, and audit requirements under the Uniform Guidance at 2 CFR Part 200 – “Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards” – which are implemented in HHS regulation at 45 CFR 75 – without compromise to accountability requirements. This guidance will be updated as appropriate once further guidance is received from HHS and the Office of Management and Budget (OMB). Specific policy exceptions are detailed below.

Additional Information: Below is a reminder of the new look and feel coming on June 23rd of the RPPRs in the eRA Commons module, along with screen shots. Please see below additional action items you may need to take. [brought to our attention by Stephanie Scott]; eRA Enhancements: Reminder that a New Visual Appearance is Coming June 23 to Research Performance Progress Report (RPPR) Module in eRA Commons; eRA Collaborating for a Transformative Tomorrow; eRA Enhancements: Reminder that a New Visual Appearance is Coming June 23 to Research Performance Progress Report (RPPR) Module in eRA Commons; We would like to remind you that the Research Performance Progress Report (RPPR) Module in eRA Commons is moving to the new visual appearance being adopted by other eRA modules, as a result of a required technology upgrade. The functionality and content will remain the same, except for new unique entity identifier (UEI) fields where applicable and other FORMS-G changes (e.g., updated budget forms); see Actions Required below.; Along with the screen refresh, a revised, updated RPPR Instruction Guide will be issued that builds on the instruction guide issued on May 13 and will reflect new screenshots as well as updated policy guidance on FORMS-G and UEI changes see NOT-OD-22-130 for details.; All screens are being transitioned to the new look. The refreshed screens will be rolled out on Thursday, June 23, 2022. The release will take place with no downtime. The updates to the RPPR screens are designed to enhance the user experience. The new look is accompanied by changes that enhance the security and stability of the module.; Actions Required: See the prior messages appended at the bottom of this message for details on both actions below.; Submit in-progress budget forms by June 22. Budget forms for non-SNAP awards that are started, but not submitted, by June 23 will have to be re-filled out.; Obtain UEI numbers for performance sites listed in Section G.8 Project/Performance Sites, as the DUNS field will be removed and replaced with a UEI field effective June 23.; Highlights of New Changes; The screens will adopt the new standard features being incorporated in eRA modules, such as: Apps menu icon — The apps menu, located in the upper left of the new blue header, shows a dropdown menu of other eRA modules available to the user.

Buttons — If multiple buttons exist in a row, the primary button will be prominent and the secondary ones will either be outlined or have no border, to help highlight the options that are more likely to be used.

Header and Footer — An elegant header and footer take up less space, leaving more real estate for the functionality of the module.; Action items — A three dot ellipsis icon, when clicked, displays a dropdown menu of action items. This icon replaces the action column. See Figure 3.; Enhanced Table Tools — A set of tools enhances the ability to work with table data. See Figure 2.; For an explanation of all the new look and feel features, please see Navigating and Using the UI in eRA Modules in the eRA Commons online help.; New UEI Fields Added; For grant applications due on or after January 25, 2022, applicants must have a unique entity identifier (UEI) at the time of application submission, because the federal government has transitioned away from DUNS numbers. DUNS and UEI fields will co-exist on some grant forms during the transition.; New UEI fields appear anywhere that DUNS numbers previously appeared, and in some cases the DUNS was removed; see Figure 1, Figure 3, and Figure 4; Also see these two articles for more information on UEI numbers:

Unique Entity Identifier Update; Goodbye DUNS, Hello UEI

New Table Tools on Lists of Information: On lists of information, you can use new table tools to filter, download/print data, set the number of rows per page, navigate through pages of list data, and sort by columns. All user interface (UI) elements below are explained in Navigating and Using the UI in eRA Modules in the eRA Commons online help.

New Three-Dot Ellipsis Icon for Performing Actions on a Record: When actions are available on data, look for the new three-dot ellipsis icon, which shows available actions; see Figure 3. The three-dot ellipsis menu is dynamic and shows only those actions that are currently available.
Each of the RPPR sites reports should include a "Project/Performance Sites" dataset. This dataset is designed to capture the performance and progress of a project. The dataset is structured to include the following fields:

- Organization Name: The name of the organization responsible for the project.
- UEI: The unique entity identifier (UEI) associated with the organization.
- Congressional District: The congressional district where the project is located.
- Address: The address of the project location.

To edit or delete a project, the user can click on the corresponding icon next to the project name. To add a new project, the user can click on the "Add Project/Performance Sites" button.

Separate Popup Windows for Entering/Editing Details: To reduce screen clutter, data entry fields have been moved to separate popup windows, available by clicking a button or the Edit option on a three-dot ellipsis menu; see Figure 4.

Figure 4: A new popup window for entering or editing data, showing the new UEI option for identifier.

(Message below sent Monday, May 26, at 10:06 a.m.); eRA Alert: Performance Sites of Research Performance Progress Report (RPPR) Require UEI Effective June 23: As of April 4, 2022, the unique entity identifier (UEI) replaced the Dun & Bradstreet (DUNS) number as the official identifier required for an organization/institution to apply for and receive federal funds.
funding from NIH and other federal agencies. See NIH Guide Notice NOT-OD-21-170. The UEI, a 12-character alpha numeric identifier, is issued as part of the System for Award Management (SAM) registration process. As communicated in NOT-OD-22-130, the Research Performance Progress Report (RPPR) Module in eRA Commons is moving to the new visual appearance being adopted by other eRA modules, as a result of a required technology upgrade. The refreshed screens will be rolled out on Thursday, June 23, 2022. All screens are being transitioned to the new look. The release includes the addition of the new UEI fields where applicable and required FORMS-G changes, including updated budget forms (see appended message). We would like to inform you that RPPR Section G.8 Project/Performance Sites will no longer have a DUNS number field and will require a UEI instead of a DUNS number. This change will be effective on June 23. If your organization is currently working on an RPPR with performance sites, please obtain the UEIs of the performance sites. Performance sites that do not have a UEI can obtain one through SAM.gov. Resources: DUNS to Unique Entity ID (SAM) Transition; Reminder: Unique Entity ID (UEI) Required Starting January 2022

Additional Information: The Research Performance Progress Report (RPPR) Module in eRA Commons is moving to the new visual appearance being adopted by other eRA modules, because of a required technology upgrade that enhances the security and stability of the module. The upgrade includes adding the new unique entity identifier (UEI) fields where applicable and required FORMS-G changes, including updated budget forms. These upgrades are expected to be released on June 23, 2022.; NIH & AHRQ issued announcement NOT-OD-22-130, as well as the announcement below containing details about upcoming changes to RPPRs. The modules in the eRA Commons are currently being modernized with a new visual appearance and enhances to security.; The Research Performance Progress Report (RPPR) Module in eRA Commons is expected to be upgraded by Thursday, June 23, 2022. Please note the following as some of you may need to take action prior to the release date of the upgrade: Non-
SNAP awards only: Budget forms will be updated to a new format. Users with in-progress RPPR forms will be required to re-enter budget form data if the in-progress RPPR is not submitted by June 22, a day before the release. NIH recommends that in-progress RPPRs be submitted by Wednesday, June 22 to avoid having to redo budget forms after the cutover. If that is not possible, they recommend you delay completing the budget forms until after Thursday, June 23 to avoid re-work.; NIH published an interim RPPR instruction guide that incorporates critical changes to align with recently issued guide notices and policy changes. They include: Modified instruction language to align with the updated Other Support and Biosketch format pages and associated instructions.; Modified Question G.4. Human Subjects to incorporate Human Subjects System and Clinical Trials reporting language in line with NOT-OD-20-125.; For institutional research training, career development and research education awards: Question B.4 text modified to incorporate the electronic submission requirement for the Trainee Diversity Report.; Added instructional language for Ruth L. Kirschstein National Research Service Award (NRSA) childcare costs reporting and requests in the RPPR, as per NOT-OD-21-074 and NOT-OD-21-177. AHRQ NRSA recipients should refer to NOT-HS-22-013 (Individual Fellows) and NOT-HS-22-014 (Institutional Research Training Awards.); A final RPPR Instruction Guide will be published on June 23, 2022, to reflect the revised screenshots accompanying the new look and feel of the RPPR module.; Due dates for submission of the RPPR remain unchanged.; For questions, please contact your SPA Project Officer. Additional Information: NIH Institutional Excellence in Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Accessibility (DEIA) Prize Competition; NIH is launching the Institutional Excellence in Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Accessibility (DEIA) Prize Competition. This competition is the result of input received from the public in response to a Request for Information (RFI). The Chief Officer for Scientific Workforce Diversity (COSWD) is administering the prize competition in collaboration with the NIH UNITE initiative and 24 institutes and centers across the agency; The prize competition goals are as follows: To recognize and reward institutions whose biomedical, social, and behavioral science schools, departments, centers, or divisions have identified gaps with respect to diversity, equity, inclusion, and accessibility (DEIA) and have designed, implemented, and evaluated interventions to address these gaps to achieve sustained improvement in DEIA within their faculty, postdoctoral scholars, and student bodies; To identify effective practices for enhancing DEIA within faculty, postdoctoral scholars, and student bodies that are feasible and can be disseminated for adoption by other institutions; Eligible institutions will have until September 26, 2023 to submit an entry. There will also be a webinar on May 17, 2023, to address questions about the Prize Competition; More information is available on the Prize Competition website; Key Dates Prize competition launch: April 4, 2023; Q&A Webinar: May 17, 2023; Deadline to submit an entry: September 26, 2023; Winners announced: December 2023; [brought to our attention by] Lindsey Ann Martin, PhD, Health Scientist Administrator, Program Contact for Implementation Science, National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences (NIEHS), Division of Extramural Research & Training (DERT), Population Health Branch (PHB), Email: Lindsey.Martin@nih.gov

Additional Information: All of Us Research Program Now the Largest, Most Diverse Genomic Dataset of its Kind; Dataset includes nearly a quarter million whole genome sequences; The Researcher Workbench dataset is now the world’s largest, most diverse genomic dataset available for wide use; The National Institutes of Health’s All of Us Research Program has significantly expanded its data to now include nearly a quarter million whole genome sequences for broad research use. About 45% of the data was donated by people who self-identify with a racial or ethnic group that has been historically underrepresented in medical research. The data expansion provides registered researchers access to the world’s largest and most diverse dataset of its kind paving the way to help advance health equity and uncover health care approaches better tailored to people’s genes, lifestyles, and environments.; In total, the expanded dataset provides researchers information from more than 413,450 participants. In addition to the whole genome sequences, this resource also includes data from surveys, electronic health records, physical measurements and Fitbit devices. Fitbit device data will now include information on sleep, in addition to activity, step count and heart rate. Sleep data, when used alongside participants’ electronic health record data, could be useful for studying how sleep patterns affect overall health and disease progression, including for conditions such as heart disease, high blood pressure, diabetes, depression and dementia. [added week of 05/05/2023]: All of Us Research Program Makes Nearly 250,000 Whole Genome Sequences Available to Advance Precision Medicine; All of Us genomic dataset is world’s largest and most diverse dataset of its kind, paving the way to advance precision medicine.; Genomic dataset is the world’s largest, most diverse of its kind, integrated with other robust data; The National Institutes of Health’s All of Us Research Program has significantly expanded its data to now include nearly a quarter million whole genome sequences for broad research use. About 45% of the data was donated by people who self-identify with a racial or ethnic group that has been historically underrepresented in medical research. The data expansion provides registered researchers access to the world’s largest and most diverse dataset of its kind paving the way to help advance health equity and uncover health care approaches better tailored to people’s genes, lifestyles, and environments.; When All of Us began national enrollment five years ago, we were excited about the promise of how we could advance health research,” said Josh Denny, M.D., M.S., chief executive officer of the All of Us Research Program. “Now, through a partnership with participants, researchers, and diverse communities across the country, we are seeing incredible progress towards powering scientific discoveries that can lead to a healthier future for all of us.”; In total, the expanded dataset provides researchers information from more than 413,450 participants. In addition to the whole genome sequences, this resource also includes data from surveys, electronic health records, physical measurements and Fitbit devices. Fitbit device data will now include information on sleep, in addition to activity, step count and heart rate. Sleep data, when used alongside participants’ electronic health record data, could be useful for studying how sleep patterns affect overall health and disease progression, including for conditions such as heart disease, high blood pressure, diabetes, depression and dementia. ; The program has also released more than 1,000 detailed long-read sequenced genomes. Long-read sequences are a novel data type that have the potential to provide a more complete picture of the genome. Through the program’s secure, cloud-based platform for data analysis, the Researcher Workbench, registered researchers can use these data to study genetic variation and potentially identify genetic variants tied to certain conditions. Access to the Researcher Workbench is available to researchers from eligible organizations after they complete training and other requirements.; “For years, the lack of diversity in genomic datasets has limited our understanding of human health,” said Andrea Ramirez, M.D., M.S., chief data officer of the All of Us Research Program. “By engaging participants from diverse backgrounds and sharing a more complete picture of their lives – through genomic, lifestyle, clinical and social environmental data – All of Us enables researchers to begin to better pinpoint the drivers of disease.”; The program’s expansive dataset also allows researchers to better define important genetic risks for diseases. The whole genome sequence dataset alone includes variation at more than 1 billion locations, which is nearly one-third of the entire human genome. These small genetic variations could offer important clues to develop predictive markers for... disease risk or explain differences in the effectiveness of certain drugs for different people.; The genomic data are also used to develop What Participants Receive | Join All Of Us for participants. So far, more than 25,000 participants have requested to receive one or more of these reports detailing whether they have an increased risk for specific health conditions or how their body might process certain medications. These health-related DNA results are part of the program’s commitment to share information and return value to participants, while also making their data broadly available for research use.; More than 5,000 researchers have registered to use the All of Us Researcher Workbench. Registered researchers have access to an expanded set of tools to use in working with available data types. Additionally, Featured Workspaces - Table of Contents – User Support (researchallofus.org) are available to provide researchers examples of ways to segment and analyze the data, which can be used to kickstart or enhance their work.; All of Us aims to ultimately make data available from at least 1 million research participants across the U.S. and to engage more researchers over time. All of Us Seeks Proposals to Support Future Participant Experience

New Research Opportunity Announcement Details Research and Technology Needs for New Award to Support the Program’s Future Participant Experience; New Research Opportunity Announcement Details Research and Technology Needs for New Award to Support the Program’s Future Participant Experience; The National Institutes of Health’s All of Us Research Program has released a new funding opportunity seeking technology and research services partners to help develop the program’s future participant experience. This effort will require strong expertise in designing engaging and accessible digital platforms, implementing research protocols that are carried out through different channels, and supporting a range of other activities to facilitate participants’ involvement in research.; The scope of work includes two core components. A research technology systems core will focus on developing a secure platform that is capable of facilitating nationwide participant involvement, including in their use of digital health technologies, connection of election health records, and access to returned personal health information. The platform will also be used to deploy surveys, and manage robust communications, marketing, and analytics support for program staff and partners.; A program management and delivery core will develop refined consent and data collection methods and tools, and multi-language services to support participants in at least three or more languages to go beyond English and Spanish. Additionally, this core will evaluate potential options to provide at-home and mobile technology to ensure more participants can fully participate in the program.; The selected offerors will also be expected to transition the program’s current participant and staff services – supported by multiple awards, including the Participant Technology Systems Center | All of Us Research Program | NIH and Participant Center | All of Us Research Program | NIH – to this scope of work during the base period.; Proposals should also demonstrate capabilities and expertise to support cloud systems security and privacy implementation and compliance with National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) standards to a minimum Federal Information Security Management Act (FISMA) Moderate requirement. All partners in the All of Us Research Program are required to adhere to the policies and procedures to maintain compliance with the Precision Medicine Initiative: Data Security Policy Principles and Framework Overview | All of Us Research Program | NIH; Initial white papers are due March 20, 2023 at 3 p.m. ET. Anyone interested in learning more about this opportunity are encouraged to join a pre-submission Webinar (Registration - Zoom zoomgov.com) on February 2, 2023 at 2 p.m. ET. Additional Information: As a reminder, effective January 25, 2022, PIs and other senior/key personnel must electronically sign the NIH Other Support form to certify the accuracy of the information provided, and adhere to Columbia University’s Electronic Signature Policy. A typed name is not an electronic signature and is not acceptable. Certification cannot be delegated to administrators or other staff. NIH will not accept wet signatures, or pictures of wet signatures. The University recommends using DocuSign to electronically sign the Other Support forms. DocuSign is cloud-based and automatically retains the originally signed documents. Both faculty and administrators can use DocuSign.

CUIT is in the process of creating DocuSign accounts for PIs who have current active or pending NIH grants. Administrators who support faculty in creating and organizing Other Support forms and wish to have access to DocuSign will need to request an account. Please complete this Qualtrics form as soon as possible in order for CUIT to create an account. We only need the person’s name and UNI, and one person can complete forms for multiple individuals; DocuSign training will be offered next week by CUIT and SPA, and will be recorded if you are unable to attend. A quick desktop reference guide and instructional video resources will also be forthcoming. Administrators who assist researchers with NIH Other Support forms can use DocuSign to obtain electronic signatures from researchers. All PIs and other senior/key personnel must electronically sign their NIH Other Support forms, prior to their submission to NIH, certifying that the information is accurate and complete. You are encouraged to use DocuSign to meet these requirements. In addition, administrators who assist researchers with NIH Other Support forms can use DocuSign to obtain electronic signatures from researchers. As a reminder, a typed name is not an electronic signature and is not acceptable. Certification cannot be delegated to administrators or other staff. NIH will not accept wet signatures, or pictures of wet signatures. Access to DocuSign has already been given to the following individuals: PIs with active NIH grants; Administrators who requested access, using our DocuSign Request Form; Researchers, who are not NIH-funded PIs (i.e., other senior/key personnel), who requested access using our DocuSign Request Form; If you are an administrator or other senior/key personnel who has not yet requested DocuSign and needs it for the purposes of NIH Other Support only, please use the DocuSign Request Form. Newly awarded PIs without prior NIH funding, and PIs transferring to Columbia from another institution will need to request access using the request form. In order to use DocuSign you will need to follow the login steps outlined in the user guides below: DocuSign User Guide for Researchers; DocuSign User Guide for Administrators; Other training materials: Slide deck; DocuSign Training Video (1/19/2022); DocuSign Training Video (repeat session, 1/21/2022); If you have any technical difficulties accessing DocuSign, please email DocuSign-Support@columbia.edu. Please see the Columbia FAQs: NIH Other Support & Biosketches, specifically the section on Subawards. Subawards FAQ#4 includes suggested language you can use when requesting Other Support forms from subrecipients and external collaborators.; In general, both domestic and foreign subrecipients are subject to the same NIH Other Support disclosure requirements as we are. Subrecipients must electronically sign their Other Support forms, prior to their inclusion in the flattened PDF, certifying that the information is accurate and complete, and they must also include supporting documentation, as applicable. However, SPA will accept any form of electronic signature method that is in alignment the subrecipient’s institutional practices to meet the NIH requirements. They do not have to use DocuSign, but they must use an electronic signature. Wet signatures, typed signatures, and pictures of signatures will not be accepted.; Please read the FAQs for more details. Additional Information: Opportunity related to NIH Other Support; I am writing to inform you that NIH recently developed a way for you to create your Other Support forms using SciENcv. It is not yet available to the research community. However, they are looking for volunteers to work directly with them to test it out. They want faculty and research administrators, but they especially want faculty from different scientific disciplines and career stages; This is a great opportunity for you to directly provide them with feedback. I do not yet know what kind of functionality they built in, but I do know the purpose of SciENcv is to streamline the creation of these forms and reduce burden. I also know that researchers will have the ability to electronically sign their Other Support forms in SciENcv (rather than use DocuSign); Here are the details; When: Between April 4-15 (projected), approximately 45 minute sessions; Who: Faculty and Research Administrators, with priority to Faculty from different disciplines, career stages; What: Test the new SciENcv interface and NIH Other Support forms, and provide feedback directly to the developers and NIH staff; Email your interest to me, and I will share your contact information with the person coordinating these efforts who is in direct contact with the SciENcv team. They will reach out directly to you to schedule a testing session.; If you are interested but not able to participate during the testing window, your name will be added to the list for future opportunities. This is not the first and only time we will be able to test SciENcv as they make improvements to the system and further develop it.; I learned of this opportunity through the Federal Demonstration Partnership (FDP), whose mission is to identify ways to reduce administrative burden for researchers receiving federal funding. Columbia is a member and very active in the FDP, and I am on the FDP Executive Committee; Thank you.; [brought to our attention by]; Stephanie F. Additional Information: NIH recently released new clarifications for the Other Support format pages and Biographical Sketches. Key clarifications include:
Signatures are not required on the Other Support format pages until January 25, 2022, regardless of whether you use the old or new formats.
Completed support from the last three years is no longer required in Other Support. Only include active and pending projects. Awardees must report significant changes in Other Support in RPPRs, such as a change in status of previously reported current or pending projects, or access to a new resource/in-kind contribution.
Only unique, high-value materials and data received within the past three years, that are still in use, must be included as in-kind contributions in Other Support.
Only current positions and scientific appointments are required in the Biosketch. Applicants may choose to include past appointments that they wish to highlight.
Consulting agreements must be included in Other Support only when the PD/PI or other senior/key personnel will be conducting research as part of the consulting activities. Non-research consulting activities are not Other Support. Include estimates for the amount paid, rather than time and effort reflected in calendar months, for consulting that is disclosed in Other Support.
Rather than simply updating a previously submitted Other Support form, we strongly recommend that you create a new form from scratch, to ensure that you are able to implement all changes.

To assist you further, we created additional FAQs based on questions collected from researchers and administrators at Columbia University. They are meant to supplement NIH’s FAQs. In addition, we will be hosting monthly webinars to walk you through the forms. Stay tuned for a separate communication with the webinar schedule.

We are scheduling webinars in the coming weeks to provide an overview of these changes. NIH is also planning to release additional resources and training materials in the coming weeks. If you are in the process of creating either a Biosketch or Other Support format page for applications and RPPRs due on or after May 25, 2021; Updated Biosketch resources, including FAQs and sample Biosketch format pages can be found here. ; Updated Other Support resources, including FAQs and sample Other Support format pages can be found here. ; One of the most important changes in the Biosketch instructions is Section B: "List in reverse chronological order all positions and scientific appointments both domestic and foreign, including affiliations with foreign entities or governments. This includes titled academic, professional, or institutional appointments whether or not remuneration is received, and whether full-time, part-time, or voluntary (including adjunct, visiting, or honorary)." These changes are critical. The senior/key personnel, and mentors for training grants, have to include all positions and appointments, not just select ones, or ones relevant to the proposal. It’s not just the heading of Section B that changed, it’s the instructions to Section B; The changes as outlined in the announcement are as follows:

Additional Information: On Behalf of CUIMC Executive Leadership - Dean Armstrong, MD; Subject: New Physician-Scientist Pathway Initiative; Sent: Wednesday, December 21, 2022 3:59 PM; "I want to discuss a subject that will be a central focus for VP&S in 2023 and beyond: our global leadership in advancing biomedical research and maximizing its impact on human health. I am very pleased to be able to announce today the first major initiative in this long-term effort, a new physician-scientist pathway program supported by another transformative gift from Roy and Diana Vagelos, our indispensable benefactors."
"The Vagelos College of Physicians and Surgeons already attracts exceptionally talented graduate students, physicians in training, and early-career physician-scientists seeking the best environment for launching careers that will change medicine through scientific discovery. Extraordinary work in recent years on the medical school curriculum and in clinical departments reflects our faculty’s commitment to these students, trainees, and early career faculty. Examples of this existing institutional commitment are the Moynihan Clinical Research Fellowship for psychiatry residents exploring clinical applications of neuroscience research; the Irving Institute’s TRANSFORM program, offering career awards, resources, and peer programs for physician-scientists; the Allan Gordon Scholars Fund, providing critical support for early-stage investigators in the Department of Neurology; the Young Faculty Mentoring Program offering mentorship and career guidance for young investigators in the Department of Medicine; and many other initiatives of this type across the medical school."

Additional Information: COVID-19 Updates for the Research Community: January 3, 2022; Dear Members of the Research Community, We write to highlight key COVID-19 updates for the research community: First, as stated in the Provost's (Update on the Start of the Spring Semester) December 22 message, faculty, researchers, staff, and students involved in research, administration and all other non-instructional activities should work remotely, if feasible, during the first two weeks of January. All in-person, indoor gatherings of any kind are prohibited during the first two weeks of January.; Second, research is not being paused or suspended at this time. However, to the extent feasible, research activities, including human subjects research, should be conducted virtually. Individual units and principal investigators may determine which team members are required to be in person versus remote. They should also take into account the needs and safety of research participants and study-specific requirements. As always when making such determinations, a precautionary approach is warranted and strongly recommended.; Third, the Research page of the University's COVID-19 Resource Guide contains updated information specific to the research community. This page includes a new FAQ for principal investigators regarding steps to consider in the event that a team member tests positive for COVID-19.; Finally, below are important reminders: [1] If you are eligible, get a vaccine booster as soon as possible. Upload documentation no later than January 31, 2022 (details on upload to follow).; [2] Wear a properly-fitting face covering for all indoor activity on campus and outdoors in large gatherings.; [3] Comply with University testing requirements, including new recommendations as of December 29, 2021. Those who are returning to campus will please note that: all faculty and staff that have traveled, have been away for a period of time, or have participated in social events and gatherings are strongly recommended to get a PCR test from a local testing site 48 hours prior to returning to University facilities. There is no need to provide proof of this test, unless it is positive.; [4] All visitors, including those who enter any campus facility for any period of time, must be vaccinated and show proof of vaccination as part of visitor attestation. This vaccination policy does not apply to individuals accessing a facility for research screening or research participation.; [5] For in-person human subject procedures, research participants must comply with these guidelines and complete an attestation before entering campus spaces. The attestation is available in English and Spanish. As noted above, the visitor vaccine requirement is not applicable to research participants.; [6] If you have COVID-19 symptoms or test positive for COVID-19, you must stay home and isolate as directed by your provider or contact tracing outreach. If you test positive, irrespective of location of the testing, please notify covidtesttrace@columbia.edu.; [7] Close contacts who are fully vaccinated do not have to quarantine and can continue to work in-person, but should test between 5-7 days of exposure/notification.; [8] The Research Ramp-up Ambassadors continue to be a resource for individuals with concerns about on-campus research activities.; [9] The Research Ramp-up Ambassadors continue to be a resource for individuals with concerns about on-campus research activities. If you have questions, please feel free to send them to COVID19_research@columbia.edu.; As always, we thank you for your continued care and commitment to safety and to our research enterprise, and we look forward to a productive 2022.; Sincerely, Jeannette M. Wing; Executive Vice President for Research, Professor of Computer Science, and Chair, Research Working Group*; *The Research Working Group advises the President's Task Force on COVID-19 and the Council of Deans and includes: Rui Costa, Director and Chief Executive Officer, The Mortimer B. Zuckerman Mind Brain Behavior Institute, Professor of Neuroscience; Garud Iyyengar, Vice Dean of Research, The Fu Foundation School of Engineering and Applied Science, Tang Family Professor of Industrial Engineering and Operations Research; Arthur Lerner-Lam, Senior Advisor to the Co-Deans, Columbia Climate School, Lamont Research Professor; Robert Mawhinney, Dean of Science, Faculty of Arts and Sciences, Professor of Physics; Gerald Rosberg, Senior Executive Vice President; Naomi Schrag, Vice President for Research Compliance, Training and Policy; Michael Shelanski, Senior Vice Dean for Research, Vagelos College of Physicians and Surgeons, Henry Taub Professor of Alzheimer's Disease and the Aging Brain.

NOT-OD-23-097: NIH Can No Longer Grant Common Rule Exceptions to the Use of a Single IRB for Multi-site Research After the COVID-19 Public Health Emergency Expiration Date of May 11, 2023

Sponsor: Office of the Director, NIH
Deadline(s): 05/11/2023 (Expiration Date, Public Health Emergency)
Contact: NIH Office of Extramural Research; Email: SingleIRBPolicy@mail.nih.gov

Additional Information: The purpose of this Notice is to remind the extramural research community that once the federal Public Health Emergency for COVID-19 expires, NIH will no longer be able to grant single IRB (sIRB) exceptions for multi-site research that is subject to the revised Common Rule cooperative research provision under the Office for Human Research Protections (OHRP) Determination of "Exception to the Single IRB Review Requirements for Certain HHS-Conducted or -Supported Cooperative Research Activities Subject to the 2018 Requirements During the Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19) Public Health Emergency."; The Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) is planning for the Federal Public Health Emergency (PHE) for COVID-19, declared under Section 319 of the Public Health Service (PHS) Act, to expire at the end of the day on May 11, 2023. As indicated by OHRP in their Important Updates about the COVID-19 Single Institutional Review Board (IRB) Exception, as of the date of the conclusion of the public health emergency, the COVID-19 Single IRB exception will expire and cannot be applied to additional studies. All exceptions that have been granted by NIH prior to May 11, 2023, will be effective for the duration of the research or the time they were granted, as indicated in the determination letters; To ensure that sIRB exception requests for research that is subject to the revised Common Rule cooperative research provision can be reviewed, and a determination made prior to May 11, 2023, NIH suggests submitting any new exception requests no later than March 31, 2023 per the process outlined in NOT-OD-21-006.

Additional Information: Dear fellow members of the Columbia community, We are writing to provide updates on our December messages regarding Columbia University COVID-19 policies and procedures. We are carefully monitoring the COVID-19 pandemic status in the New York City metro area and among our affiliates. While Columbia is doing its own asymptomatic testing on campus, we also urge you to report any outside positive test results you do receive to covidtesttrace@columbia.edu so that we have an accurate picture of COVID-19 positive cases amongst our affiliates and can provide you with information on available resources. As you are aware, the Omicron variant has been shown to be more transmissible than prior virus variants. However, there are reassuring data suggesting that this variant causes less severe illness and that our vaccines, and particularly once boosted, also protect against symptomatic and severe COVID-19. We have three important updates to share with you:

1. Changes in isolation and quarantine guidelines: New York State, acting on guidance from the CDC, has modified isolation and quarantine as follows: Isolation: All individuals who test positive for COVID-19 can end their isolation after 5 days if they are asymptomatic. Day 0 is considered the first day of symptom onset and/or the day of a positive test result. Quarantine: Individuals who are fully vaccinated and have received booster dose, do not need to quarantine. Such individuals are recommended to get tested on day 5-7 after last exposure. Individuals who are not vaccinated or not fully vaccinated or are eligible for a booster but have not yet received one should quarantine for 5 days – where day 0 is the last day of exposure – provided symptoms do not appear. Such individuals are recommended to get tested on day 5-7. Full details can be found on the New York State Department of Health website.

2. Changes in gathering/events and dining policies: In addition to the policies that were announced on December 20 and December 22, Columbia-related non-academic gatherings on and off campus are prohibited until the end of January. In all dining halls, only grab-and-go food will be available for the first week of the undergraduate return beginning January 18th. All affiliates are strongly urged to avoid indoor social gatherings wherever they are located, unless aware of vaccination and testing status of all attendees. Masking in these locations is also strongly recommended as well as in crowded outdoor social gatherings. Masking indoors at Columbia will continue through March 31, and we urge wearing of masks indoors in all public settings as well as in crowded settings when outdoors. Columbia athletic events will permit no fans for the first two weeks of January. Uploading vaccine and booster information: Next week, we will provide you with the links to be able to upload your booster information. New hires seeking to upload any vaccine (not booster) information may do so on our ReopenCU website. Students can currently upload their vaccine and booster information. For CUIMC students go here. For all other students, go here. Sincerely, Donna Lynne; Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, CUIMC; University COVID Director; Gerry Rosberg; Senior Executive Vice President

Additional Information: Related Announcements: OTA-22-006 - NIH All of Us Engagement, Communications, and Enrollment Partners Other Transactions (OT) Research Opportunity Announcement (ROA): The All of Us Research Program is a historic effort to gather data from at least 1 million people, with the goal of accelerating health research and medical breakthroughs, and enabling individualized prevention, treatment, and care. The program is creating a national research resource to inform thousands of studies, covering a wide variety of health conditions. Researchers will use data from the program to learn more about how individual differences in lifestyle, environment, and biological makeup can influence health and disease.; The purpose of this announcement is to fund organizations who can help All of Us build its cohort of volunteers who reflect the rich diversity of the United States and are actively engaged as partners. These funded organizations will help design and implement strategies to raise awareness of the program through community and health care provider organizations, drive increased enrollment of participants, foster regular communication with participants, and engage the research community to use the data being gathered.

Additional Information: Many different factors—biological, social, and environmental—affect human health. It is also increasingly recognized that interactions between these factors play a significant role in prevention, pathophysiology, and management of human disease. Sex/gender differences, being a member of a sexual and/or gender minority group, and race/ethnicity are among those factors with a significant impact on human health and disease. However, consideration of these factors in research projects remains limited.

Additional Information: Hello, all. With the standard due date coming up for NIH Research Career Development awards (K-awards), due Monday, February 14th (moved from the 12th since that falls on a weekend), our office has received a lot of questions about the requirements for Other Support forms for mentors and co-mentors, given the new NIH Other Support requirements that took effect January 25, 2022. The instructions for Current & Pending Support (which is what it is called for mentors in K-awards, as opposed to Other Support) remain unchanged, with the exception of the change from ‘annual direct costs’ to ‘total costs’, and the addition of the electronic signature.; There is still a 3-page limit for each mentor, and it is limited to the mentor’s/co-mentor’s current and pending research support relevant to the candidate’s research plan. In addition, “percent effort/person months” and “overlap” should not be included. See page 61 of the new FORMS-G instructions for K-awards, which outlines what should be included in Current & Pending Support.; The new Other Support format pages should be used to create Current & Pending Support in K-award applications. Do not reuse and recycle old Other Support forms.; We recommend the use of DocuSign to meet NIH’s electronic signature requirement. User guides and training videos on the use of DocuSign are on our website here.; NIH will request full Other Support forms, to include all resources made available to a researcher in support of and/or related to all of their research endeavors, during Just-in-Time (JIT), upon request.; Should you have any questions, please reach out to your SPA Project Officer.; Important Are you ready for the new NIH Biosketch and Other Support requirements, effective January 25, 2022? Additional Information: NIH Director’s Early Independence Awards (DP5); Limited Submission; NIH Director’s Early Independence Awards (DP5); Internal Proposal due at 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday, May 31, 2023; Internal Application and Instructions– Internal Applications must be completed on our InfoReady Review site at: https://columbia.infoready4.com/#competitionDetail/1901459; Please click the “Columbia University Login” button to view instructions and begin your application; Funding: Up to $250k in direct costs per year, plus applicable Facilities and Administrative (F&A) costs, for five years; What: The NIH Director’s Early Independence Award supports exceptional investigators who wish to pursue independent research especially after completion of their terminal doctoral/research degree or end of post-graduate clinical training, thereby forging the traditional post-doctoral training period and accelerating their entry into an independent research career. For the program to support the best possible researchers and research, applications are sought which reflect the full diversity of the research workforce. Individuals from diverse backgrounds and from the full spectrum of eligible institutions in all geographic locations are strongly encouraged to apply to this Funding Opportunity Announcement. In addition, applications in all topics relevant to the broad mission of NIH are welcome, including, but not limited to, topics in the behavioral, social, biomedical, applied, and formal sciences and topics that may involve basic, translational, or clinical research. The NIH Director’s Early Independence Award is a component of the High-Risk, High-Reward Research program of the NIH Common Fund; Important: This is not a postdoctoral program. Applicants must move into an independent faculty position if awarded. If the Early Independence investigator is staying at the same institution at which they trained, the institution must indicate how independence from degree/fellowship mentors will be established and maintained.; Individuals must commit at least 9.6 person-months each year (i.e., 80% effort of a 12-month appointment) during the first two years of the project period to research supported by the Early Independence Award. In the final three years of the project period, awardees may reduce effort toward the Early Independence Award project, but the total effort towards independent research in general must remain at least 9.6 person-months each year (i.e., 80% effort of a 12-month appointment).; To be eligible, investigators, at the time of application, must have received their most recent doctoral degree or completed clinical training within the previous fifteen months or expect to do so within the following twelve months. To be consistent with the NIH Definition of Early Stage Investigator (ESI) Policies | grants.nih.gov; eligible clinical training includes clinical residency and clinical fellowship. For full eligibility requirements, see Section III. Eligibility Information in the RFA.; Who: The PD/PI must have received their terminal doctoral degree, or completed their clinical training between June 1, 2022, and September 30, 2024. The end of post-graduate clinical training includes residency and fellowship periods. The PD/PI must not have served as a post-doctoral fellow for more than 12 months following a previous, non-terminal doctoral degree before June 1, 2022. Those holding Assistant Professor appointments are not eligible.; When: Internal Proposal due May 31, 2023 (9:00 a.m.); Letter of Intent due August 4, 2023; Full Proposal due September 6, 2023; How: To apply, please visit the internal application and instructions on our InfoReady Review site.

It is expected that investigations supported by these grants will yield high impact findings and result in major grant applications and significant publications in high impact journals. This funding mechanism is designed to support research studies of brain function in health and disease in well-established research laboratories, under the direction of established investigators (Professors and Associate Professors). Studies should be related to either normal human brain development or specifically identified disease states, including molecular and clinical neuroscience as well as studies of neural, sensory, motor, cognitive, behavioral and emotional functioning in health and disease. The grant proposal must detail a new research project that is not funded by other sources. This grant is not to be used as a source of bridge funding. Each total award is limited to $150,000 (direct costs) for a two-year grant period. Exact dates will be provided by the BRF upon application approval. 100% of these SIA funds must be utilized for direct costs. These costs may include: Eligibility: This funding mechanism is designed to support creative, exploratory, cutting-edge research in well-established research laboratories, under the direction of established researchers. Applicants must meet the following requirements: - Hold a full-time appointment at Columbia as Associate Professor or Professor; - Current major NIH or other peer-reviewed funding is preferred but evidence of such funding in the past three years is required; - Previous recipients of BRF Scientific Innovations Award are not eligible, unless 5 or more years have passed since the start date of the prior award and all grant requirements were met.; When: Internal deadline – 9:00 a.m. on Tuesday, May 16, 2023; Sponsor deadline – Thursday, June 22, 2023, at 5:00 p.m. EST; How: To apply, please visit the internal application and instructions on our InfoReady Review site at: https://columbia.infoready4.com/#competitionDetail/1902942; Questions: Greg Culler and Casey Rollins at limitedsubmissions@columbia.edu.

Dear Colleagues, On behalf of the leadership of the Herbert Irving Comprehensive Cancer Center, we are thrilled to launch a 2024 Pew-Stewart Scholars for Cancer Research. The award will provide four-year funds of $300,000; Application Submission Deadline: Monday, May 8th, 2023, 11:59 pm EST. You can apply through the InfoReady web portal. https://columbia.infoready4.com/#competitionDetail/190531; Please contact Dr. Sadiqa Quadri with any questions on the program at skq1@cumc.columbia.edu; Best, wishes, Sadiqa; Pew-Stewart Scholars for Cancer Research; The Pew-Stewart Scholars for Cancer Research supports assistant professors of outstanding promise in science relevant to the advancement of a cure for cancer. The award provides $300,000 in flexible support—$75,000 per year for a four-year period. For the 2024 award, one nomination will be invited from each of the participating institutions listed at the bottom of this page.; In line with The Alexander and Margaret Stewart Trust’s mission to invest in innovative, cutting-edge cancer research that may accelerate and advance progress toward a cure for cancer, applications are invited from nominees conducting cancer research. This program is distinct from the Pew Scholars Program, and it follows a different, but parallel set of guidelines and procedures for nominating an applicant whose research is related to cancer.

The PD/PI may be a Core director or non-tenured faculty member of the applicant organization; he/she must be affiliated with the applicant organization, and must be registered on eRA Commons.; Major User Group - A Major User group composed of three individuals who have substantial need for the instrument must be identified. Each member of this group must be a PD/PI on a distinct NIH-funded research grant or cooperative agreement award in an area of basic, translational, or clinical research. (The requirement is at least one award per investigator. An award given to multi-PDs/PIs is counted only once towards the fulfillment of this requirement.) PDs/PIs on NIH training or fellowship grants (e.g., T and F mechanisms) and other non-research grants such as conference grants are not eligible to be Major Users. Once the eligibility requirement has been met, additional users with active research awards from NIH or other sources may be added as Major or Minor Users.; To demonstrate the clear need for the requested instrument, the projects supported by NIH research grants should together require at least 75 percent of the Accessible User Time (AUT). Major Users supported by NIH grants should together require at least 35 percent of the AUT.; Accessible User Time (AUT) is the number of annual hours the instrument can be used for any research purpose.; When: Internal application deadline – 9:00 a.m. on Thursday, April 20, 2023; NIH deadline – June 1, 2023; How: To apply, please visit the internal application and instructions on our InfoReady Review site at https://columbia.infoready4.com/#competitionDetail/1898295; RFA: PAR-22-080: Shared Instrumentation Grant (SIG) Program (S10 Clinical Trial Not Allowed) ; https://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/pa-files/PAR-22-080.html ;

Additional Information: Sending this internal funding opportunity on behalf of the Department of Neurology for the 2023 Carol and Gene Ludwig Pilot Grant Program in Neurodegeneration; Eligibility: Columbia faculty members across all disciplines, from either the Morningside or CUIMC campuses, whose work addresses the development of new knowledge about the pathobiology of neurodegenerative disease and dementia. In order to promote research collaborations, applications must be submitted by research teams consisting of two or more faculty researchers with at least two fields of research experience and expertise; Budget: Proposals may be funded for up to $300,000 direct costs over 2 years.; Process: Applications must be submitted via email to Daniel Krug at djk2178@cumc.columbia.edu; Due Date: March 15, 2023 for LOI; and May 15, 2023 for full application.; Questions should be directed to Drs. Peter St George-Hyslop ps2764@columbia.edu and Elizabeth Bradshaw emb2280@columbia.edu; Call for Proposals: The Carol and Gene Ludwig Pilot Grant Program in Neurodegeneration (Deadline March 15, 2023); The Carol and Gene Ludwig Pilot Grant Program in Neurodegeneration will provide grants to support high-risk/high-reward research projects in promising areas of neurodegenerative disease, with the goal of building a cohort of researchers focusing on the mechanisms of neurodegeneration and translation of the new knowledge into clinically useful tools. For additional details, please see the attached FOA.; Eligibility: In order to promote research collaborations, applications must be submitted by research teams consisting of two or more researchers with faculty appointments at Columbia University.; Research teams should have at least two fields of research experience and expertise.; Funding Amount: Up to $150,000 per year over 2 years. The committee is expecting to fund 2-4 projects annually. Funding will be based on merit.; Key Dates and Submission Information: Request for Application Open: January 1, 2023, and annually thereafter.; Letter of Intent: March 15, 2023, and annually thereafter (Invitations for full applications will be sent out in April).; Full Application: May 15, 2023, and... annually thereafter.; Anticipated Award Decision: June 2023, and annually thereafter.; Project Duration: 24 months from July 1-June 30; Letters of intent and full application packages should be sent to Daniel Krug  djk2178@cumc.columbia.edu prior to the application deadline.; Key Contacts: Peter St George-Hyslop ps2764@columbia.edu; Betsy Bradshaw emb2280@columbia.edu; Daniel Krug djk2178@cumc.columbia.edu; Topics of Interest: The Ludwig Family Foundation Pilot Research Program seeks applications focused on developing new knowledge about the pathobiology of neurodegenerative disease, and dementia in particular, that will enable the development of innovative tools and molecules to diagnose, monitor, and treat these diseases.; The proposed work program must focus on neurodegenerative disease, and an emphasis on neurodegenerative dementia is especially encouraged.; The proposed work program should be multidisciplinary, and should contain at least two independent laboratories with naturally complementary skills.; Investigators with projects that are directed towards delivering actionable biomarkers or novel therapies in any stage of development that are based upon a valid target and have a translational/commercialization trajectory are encouraged to apply.; Therapeutic strategies including small molecules, biologics, novel delivery approaches, gene therapy, and cell therapeutics will be considered.; While all applications in this area are welcome, a non-restrictive set of examples include: Artificial Intelligence/Machine Learning (AI/ML) approaches and coupled validating biological studies that identify resilience factors that might: i) lead to novel biomarkers or; ii) to therapeutically actionable targets; The exploitation of recent genetic studies that identify resilience alleles in risk genes; Exploration of recent cellular, biological and clinical studies relating to microglial proteins with potential protective effects.

Dr. Cato worked as a staff nurse at NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital providing care for surgical oncology patients and as a clinical analyst, working on projects to improve patient safety through the use of the hospital's electronic systems. Dr. Cato’s program of research focuses on the use of data science to investigate ways of improving patient safety, quality of care, and individual health. Towards these goals, Dr. Cato’s previous work has included National Institute of Health funded research in health communication via mobile health platforms, shared decision making in primary care settings and data mining of electronic patient records. His current projects include automated data mining of electronic patient records to discover characters about a patient that are often missed by clinicians. He has published his findings in numerous peer-reviewed journals and at national and international conferences;

They also released the new Parent T35, which is a re-issue of PA-20-162: Ruth L. Kirschstein National Research Service Award (NRSA) Short-Term Institutional Research Training Grant (Parent T35) (also expires May 8, 2023). Therefore, if you are planning to prepare a NEW or COMPETING RENEWAL application for the May 25, 2023 deadline or later, you would use this new FOA PA-23-048 for T32s, and PA-23-080 for T35s.; This is timely, because I was about to ask the PIs and training grants administrators via these listservs who is planning to submit an institutional training grant this year in 2023. Please reply to me if you plan to submit this year. Every year I take inventory, and then strategize about how to roll out training and consultations for those of you planning to submit.; Please indicate: The name of the PI(s); Department; The training grant title; The grant #, if one exists (for example, T32CAXXXXX); New or Competing Renewal. Also indicate if it is a resubmission.; Due Date; The names of the administrative points of contacts; I have not even had a chance to review the differences between the old funding announcements and the new ones, but will soon. Once I get the inventory of planned proposal submissions, I will be reaching out with additional information.

Policy and Regulation on ClinicalTrials.gov Registration and Reporting | grants.nih.gov

Additional Information: Last week, the NIH implemented new system validations for Research Performance Progress Reports (RPPR) for clinical trial registration and results reporting. RPPRs that have associated clinical trials that are non-compliant with these requirements will receive errors preventing submission of the RPPR. See NOT-OD-22-008 for more details. As a reminder, failure to register or report results data for an Applicable Clinical Trial (ACT) as per FDAAA 801 and the Final Rule or the NIH Policy on the Dissemination of NIH-Funded Clinical Trial Information can result in immediate suspension or termination of funding, monetary civil penalties of up to $10,000 per day of non-compliance, criminal or civil prosecution, and/or a permanent notice of non-compliance publicly posted on the ClinicalTrials.gov record for a study. Of note, the FDA issued its first Notice of Noncompliance to an individual investigator conducting a trial sponsored by an academic institution. The Principal Investigator (PI) failed to submit required results data to ClinicalTrials.gov. As a result of this noncompliance, the ClinicalTrials.gov record for the study will be permanently marked with and searchable by the “FDAAA 801 Violations” field, even though results were posted a day after the Notice was issued. The requirements for registration and results reporting are as follows: Applicable studies must be registered no later than 21 days after enrollment of the 1st participant (i.e., date of when the 1st participant signs a study consent form); Results information for applicable studies must be submitted to ClinicalTrials.gov no later than one year after primary completion date (with limited exceptions) for the primary outcome measure, and one year after the study completion date for all other outcome measures, including safety data; If you require assistance with ClinicalTrials.gov registration or results reporting, please contact the University’s system administrators at ClinicalTrialsGov@cumc.columbia.edu. Additional Information: Please see below article from today’s NIH Extramural News on new NIH administrative supplements to support diversity mentorship. You can also read the article here if you’re having trouble seeing it below. [brought to our attention by Stephanie Scott]; NIH Extramural Nexus – 2021; Posted: Wednesday, February 9, 2022 by Marie A. Bernard; Subject: New NIH Administrative Supplements Available to Support Diversity Mentorship; Marie A. Bernard, M.D., NIH Chief Officer for Scientific Workforce Diversity;

I am pleased to announce the availability of a new NIH administrative supplement that recognizes the crucial role outstanding mentors play in fostering future leaders in the biomedical research enterprise.; Qualified investigators can now submit proposals in response to the Chief Officer for Scientific Workforce Diversity (COSWD)-led xxx, Notice of Special Interest (NOSI) NOT-OD-22-057: Administrative Supplements to Recognize Excellence in Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Accessibility (DEIA) Mentorship. Proposals are due by April 7, 2022.; Mentorship is a critical part of recruiting and retaining an inclusive scientific workforce. Evidence suggests mentorship helps foster scientific identity and career progression in science, technology, engineering, mathematics, and medicine (STEMM) disciplines. For example, research shows that grant-writing mentorship for early-career biomedical investigators from underrepresented groups can foster increased publication productivity, a key contributor to scientific career advancement.; Based on this evidence, one goal of my office is to support and amplify the impact of programs that develop scientific talent through training and mentorship. Thus, this new NOSI is part of our commitment to enhancing mentorship within NIH-supported research, with an emphasis on scientists from underrepresented groups.; The participating NIH Institutes and Centers will supplement the existing awards of scientists who have demonstrated a commitment to exceptional training and mentorship, especially to individuals from groups identified as underrepresented in the biomedical sciences.; Supplements are available for various grant types, including career development, training, cooperative, and Research Project Grants (R01). They will provide up to $250,000 in direct costs, not to exceed the direct costs of the parent award. Investigators may use the funds to perform additional research within the parent grant’s scope, develop curricula or training activities to strengthen mentor training, or help foster the research career development of additional students, post-doctorates, or other trainees.; The NIH has an array of mentorship initiatives and resources, and I am excited about this addition to the agency’s offerings. I encourage all eligible investigators to take advantage of this opportunity to be recognized for outstanding mentoring, and for promoting inclusive excellence.

Additional Information: The National Institute of Diabetes and Digestive and Kidney Diseases (NIDDK) announces a program that provides NIDDK-supported K01, K08, K23, and K25 recipients the opportunity to apply for Small Grant (R03) support during the latter years of the award period of their K award. Through the use of this mechanism, the NIDDK is seeking to enhance the capability of its K01, K08, K23, and K25 award recipients to conduct research as they complete their transition to fully independent investigator status. The R03 grant mechanism supports different types of projects, including pilot and feasibility studies; secondary analysis of existing data; small, self-contained research projects; development of research methodology; and development of new research technology. The R03 is, therefore, intended to support research projects that can be carried out in a short period of time with limited resources and that may provide preliminary data to support a subsequent R01, or equivalent, application.

The program has also expanded its collection of wearable data to now include 11,670 paired participant Fitbit records, a 42% increase from its last update, making this one of the largest publicly-available sets of digital health technology data available. Researchers interested in exploring the data and conducting analyses can apply for access after their institutions have signed a data use agreement with the program. At this time, any U.S.-based academic, nonprofit, or health care organization can enter into a data use agreement with the program. The program anticipates releasing the first set of genomic data in the next refresh, anticipated this winter.

Contact: ExtramuralNexus@mail.nih.gov

Additional Information: NIH-Wide Strategic Plan for FY 2021-2025 Now Available; We are pleased to announce that the NIH-Wide Strategic Plan for Fiscal Years (FYs) 2021-2025 is now available. This updated plan articulates NIH’s highest priorities over the next 5 years, outlining our vision for the future direction, capacity, and stewardship of biomedical and behavioral research.; The plan is organized around a framework of three key objectives; [1] Advancing Biomedical and Behavioral Sciences; [2] Developing, Maintaining, and Renewing Scientific Research Capacity; [3] Exemplifying and Promoting the Highest Level of Scientific Integrity, Public Accountability, and Social Responsibility in the Conduct of Science.; The plan weaves five cross-cutting themes across these objectives, centered around minority health and health disparities, women's health, public health challenges across the lifespan, collaborative science, and data science. The plan also mentions several achievements made during the previous FY 2016-2020 plan, but please recognize that this plan is not meant to describe everything NIH does.; As Dr. Francis Collins, the NIH Director, notes in the opening statement, "NIH will [invest] efficiently and effectively in a wide range of basic, translational, clinical, and applied research, while at the same time supporting the workforce and infrastructure required for a sustainable research enterprise. As outlined in this Strategic Plan, this approach will enable NIH to build a solid foundation of fundamental knowledge about living systems that will serve to accelerate research aimed at addressing our most pressing health needs."; We appreciate members from the research community, professional societies, advocacy groups, and the public who worked with us and provided feedback throughout the process to develop this plan.

Dear Colleague,

We are excited to share the latest Research.gov proposal preparation functionality available May 2nd, New Postdoctoral Fellowship Proposal Type. The Postdoctoral Fellowship proposal type is available in Research.gov for proposals submitted in response to postdoctoral fellowship solicitations that do not contain reference letter requirements. The postdoctoral fellowship solicitations will be updated to include information about proposal preparation and submission in Research.gov.

To initiate a postdoctoral fellowship proposal in Research.gov, the proposer must first have the Postdoctoral Scholar/Principal Investigator (PI) role, which is different from the PI role. Refer to the Postdoctoral Fellowship Proposals topic Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) on the Research.gov About Proposal Preparation and Submission page for instructions to add the Postdoctoral Scholar/PI role. Additional guidance is available in the Add a New Role - Postdoctoral Fellowship Principal Investigator section of the Account Management Guide on the Research.gov About Account Management page.

Postdoctoral fellowship program solicitations will only display in Research.gov and be available for selection for proposers preparing a proposal as a Postdoctoral Scholar/PI.

New Research.gov Proposal Features:

- Expanded Where to Apply Options: Proposers now have the ability to choose additional Directorate/Division/Program options (i.e., secondary units of consideration) to direct proposals to NSF. Refer to the Managing Where to Apply topic FAQs on the Research.gov About Proposal Preparation and Submission page.

Regards,

National Science Foundation

Additional Information: Please see this important announcement from NSF regarding the required use of Research.gov, and the decommission of FastLane. Policy-related questions should always be directed to your SPA Project Officer. [brought to our attention by Stephanie Scott}; NSF sent the announcement below reminding the research community that FastLane will be decommissioned at the end of this calendar year. NSF currently requires the use of Research.gov for many program solicitations. See Program Descriptions that Require Proposal Preparation and Submission in Research.gov or Grants.gov, a document that identifies program descriptions requiring Research.gov preparation and submission and the associated effective date. This document will be updated on an ongoing basis.; Please see NSF’s full announcement below, which contains training resources to assist you. For questions, please contact your SPA Project Officer; [brought to our attention by Stephanie Scott] ; Required Use of Research.gov for Preparation and Submission of Proposals in Response to Program Descriptions; System Update; Dear Colleague: In accordance with Important Notice No. 147, many National Science Foundation (NSF) program solicitations now require the use of Research.gov for the preparation and submission of proposals. Please be advised that NSF will now start requiring the use of Research.gov for the preparation and submission of proposals in response to program descriptions. As a reminder, FastLane is targeted to be removed as a submission option from all funding opportunities by December 31, 2022. Grants.gov will remain a submission option for most NSF proposals.; To assist the research community, NSF developed a dynamic listing of program descriptions that require submission in Research.gov. Follow these steps to determine if your proposal for a specific program description must be prepared and submitted in Research.gov: Access the relevant NSF.gov program description page (e.g., Magnetospheric Physics, PD 98-5750); View the advisory in the Program Guidelines section on the right side of the program description page and click on the link in the advisory: Alert: Many NSF programs are only accepting proposals in Research.gov or Grants.gov. FastLane may no longer be a submission option. For more information, please visit Program Descriptions that Require Proposal Preparation and Submission in Research.gov or Grants.gov.; The document will identify program descriptions requiring Research.gov preparation and submission and the associated effective date. This document will be updated on an ongoing basis as FastLane will be removed from all program descriptions as a proposal preparation and submission option by December 31, 2022.; Since many program solicitations also require submission in Research.gov, proposers should pay close attention to the requirements identified in those specific funding opportunities; Research.gov Proposal Capabilities and Transition from FastLane Proposal Preparation; Nearly all FastLane proposal preparation and submission capabilities are now available in Research.gov. For details about the remaining proposal features that will soon be added to Research.gov, please see the Proposal Submission Capabilities table on the Research.gov About Proposal Preparation and Submission page. Summary of Significant Changes to NSF 22-1 (nsf.gov)
NSF 22-1
PAPPG Chapter II (nsf.gov)
Dear Colleague:

Now Available: New Proposal and Submission Types in the PAPPG (NSF 22-1)

Effective October 4, 2021, the National Science Foundation (NSF) made a number of system updates for proposals submitted in Research.gov, FastLane, and Grants.gov in accordance with the implementation of the Proposal & Award Policies & Procedures Guide (PAPPG) (NSF 22-1); 10/04/2021 (Effective Date). These changes during next week’s Research Administration Forum, taking place on Wednesday, October 13th at 11am (click link for more information about the Forum); As always, please feel free to reach out to your SPA Project Officer should you have any questions; [brought to our attention by Stephanie Scott] ;

Updates to NSF websites. Updated system enhancements to Support the Revised PAPPG (NSF 22-1); Dear Colleague: Effective October 4, 2021, the National Science Foundation (NSF) made a number of system updates for proposals submitted in Research.gov, FastLane, and Grants.gov in accordance with the implementation of the Proposal & Award Policies & Procedures Guide (PAPPG) (NSF 22-1). Please see the list of PAPPG (NSF 22-1) significant changes and clarifications for all of the updates. New proposal and submission types were also enabled in the Research.gov Proposal Submission System; New Proposal Types in the PAPPG (NSF 22-1). The PAPPG (NSF 22-1) incorporates two new “Other Types of Proposals”: Planning Proposals; Planning proposals must be prepared and submitted in Research.gov; Refer to PAPPG Chapter II.E.1. for Planning proposal requirements; Career-Life Balance (CLB) Supplemental Funding Requests; CLB supplemental funding requests must be prepared and submitted in FastLane.; Refer to PAPPG Chapter II.E.8. for CLB supplemental funding request requirements.; Updates to NSF-approved Biographical Sketch and Current and Pending Support Formats; The NSF-approved biographical sketch and current and pending support formats were updated to incorporate revisions in the PAPPG (NSF 22-1) and must be used for proposals submitted or due on or after October 4, 2021.; The current formats are posted on the NSF biographical sketch and current and pending support websites. Updated system-related Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) are also available: FAQs on using SciENcv and FAQs on using NSF fillable PDF. SciENcv documents created using the previous version (i.e., NSF 20-1) prior to October 4th are automatically converted in SciENcv to the current version after October 4th.; Biographical sketch format updates include increasing the page limit from two to three pages.; Current and pending support format updates include the addition of new sections for information on objectives and overlap with other projects to help NSF and reviewers assess overlap/duplication.; Biographical sketches and current and pending support information also must be uploaded with Change of Principal Investigator (PI) and Add/Change co-PI requests in FastLane.; When notifying NSF that active other support has changed since the award was made, or since the most recent annual report, current and pending support information must be uploaded in annual and final project reports in the Research.gov Project Reporting System.; Research.gov, FastLane, and Grants.gov will generate a compliance error message if a proposer or grantee attempts to upload a prior version of the biographical sketch or current and pending support formats on or after October 4th.; Removal of Blank Pages from the Current and Pending Support Fillable PDF; Research.gov, FastLane, and Grants.gov will remove any pages which do not contain data entered by users (i.e., blank pages) from the NSF-approved current and pending support fillable PDF.; The trimming service is triggered in Research.gov and FastLane during document upload and during proposal submission in Grants.gov; The trimming... service only applies to the NSF-approved current and pending support fillable PDF and not to any other uploaded PDFs. Current and pending support PDFs generated in SciENcv do not include blank pages.; The current and pending support fillable PDF document is paginated, and the PDF page numbers will not be updated during the trimming process. This means that it is possible for the trimmed PDF to have skipped page numbers corresponding to the blank pages removed from the fillable PDF.; Research.gov Proposal Submission System Enhancements; The Grant Opportunities for Academic Liaison with Industry (GOALI) and Planning proposal types and the Letter of Intent submission type are now available for submission in Research.gov.; New automated compliance checks and associated error and warning messages for the enabled proposal and submission types were also implemented. Error messages will prohibit proposal submission to NSF, whereas warning messages still permit proposal submission.; All supported proposal and submission types as well as associated compliance checks are also enabled in the Research.gov Proposal Preparation Demo Site.; New FAQs were added to the Research.gov About Proposal Preparation and Submission page, and the Proposal Submission Capabilities page has been updated to reflect the latest development updates.; Research.gov proposal features continue to expand to support the transition of all proposal preparation and submission functionality from FastLane to Research.gov by a target date of December 31, 2022. Many NSF funding opportunities are supported in Research.gov and clearly specify whether submission via Research.gov is available or required.; Questions? If you have IT system-related questions, please contact the NSF Help Desk at 1-800-381-1532 (7:00 AM - 9:00 PM ET; Monday - Friday except federal holidays) or to rgov@nsf.gov. NTW [REENTRY]

Notice of Special Interest (NOSI): Research Supplements to Promote Reentry and Reintegration into Health-Related Research Careers (NOT-OD-21-134)

Sponsor: NIH Office of Research on Women's Health
Deadline(s): 08/26/2021 (First Available Due Date); 10/07/2023 (Expiration)
Contact: Scientific Contact; Paul Cotton, Ph.D., RDN; Phone: (301) 496-1051; Email: NHLBI_DivReEntry@nhlbi.gov

Additional Information: NIH NOSI supports returning biomedical researchers; NIH Office of Research on Women's Health; NIH NOSI Supports Returning Biomedical Researchers; NIH has announced a new supplements program for researchers returning to biomedical careers after a qualifying absence. Under “Notice of Special Interest (NOSI): Research Supplements to Promote Reentry and Reintegration into Health-Related Research Careers” (NOT-OD-21-134), successful applicants will be able to participate in full- or part-time mentored research experiences through existing NIH research grants. Eligible for these reentry supplements are individuals whose research careers have been interrupted for at least 6 months because of family responsibilities or other qualifying circumstances. The reintegration supplements will enable individuals to find supportive scientific environments after departure from an unsafe or discriminatory environment resulting from unlawful harassment.; Most candidates for the reentry supplements will have a doctoral degree or equivalent; however, some awarding NIH Institutes and Centers may enable predoctoral students, including those enrolled in dual-degree programs, to apply. Postdoctoral and predoctoral students are eligible to apply for reintegration supplements to allow them to transition to a safe, supportive research environment and complete their graduate degrees.; Click here for more information, including detailed eligibility requirements and staff contacts.

The first available due date for submissions is August 26, 2021, and the supplements program is set to expire on October 7, 2023.; Related Announcements: PA-20-272 - Administrative Supplements to Existing NIH Grants and Cooperative Agreements (Parent Admin Supp Clinical Trial Optional)

Contact: NIH Grants Information; Email: grantsinfo@od.nih.gov

Link(s): https://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-22-205.html

Additional Information: Continued Extension of Certain Flexibilities for Prospective Basic Experimental Studies With Human Participants; Notice Number: NOT-OD-22-205; Purpose: This notice replaces NOT-OD-21-088. The purpose of this notice is to further extend interim policy flexibilities regarding registration and results reporting for a subset of NIH-funded research whose primary purpose is basic experimental studies with humans (BESH) submitted in response to BESH Funding Opportunity Announcements (FOAs). These studies, referred to in NOT-OD-18-212 as “prospective basic science studies involving human participants,” meet both the NIH definition of a “clinical trial” and also the definition of basic research. This additional extension will last through September 24, 2024. During this extension period, NIH will continue to work with the BESH community to achieve effective and efficient dissemination of information that is useful to other researchers and members of the public, while also maintaining the NIH commitment to stewardship and increasing transparency.

Additional Information: NOSI: Emerging and Existing Issues of Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19) Research Related to the Health and Well-Being of Women, Children and Individuals with Physical and/or Intellectual Disabilities; FOA Number: NOT-HD-22-002; Key Dates: First Available Due Date: June 5, 2022; Expiration Date: June 6, 2024; Purpose: The purpose of this funding opportunity is to provide an avenue for researchers to pursue funding to conduct research addressing these and other emerging and existing COVID-related issues among pregnant and lactating people, infants, children and adolescents, and individuals with physical and/or intellectual disabilities. The goal of this NOSI is to not replace or compete with the various COVID-related funding opportunities currently available. Instead, the purpose is to complement them by offering a funding opportunity to address key issues in a most timely manner not currently covered by available COVID-related funding announcements among these populations. Research projects addressing issues that are the focus of currently available or future COVID funding opportunity announcements will be encouraged to submit to those announcements. Also, applicants responding to this NOSI are strongly encouraged to describe plans for the rapid sharing of data and results as well as innovative data analytics approaches. The sharing of COVID-related data and resources and effective communication of results are a high priority of the NIH.; view NOT-HD-22-002

Notice of Special Interest (NOSI): Social, Behavioral, and Economic Impact of COVID-19 in Underserved and Vulnerable Populations

Sponsor: NIH
Deadline(s): 10/05/2021 (First Available Due Date); 09/08/2024 (Expiration Date)
Contact: Scientific/Research Contact(s); Adam Haim, Ph.D.; National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH); Email: haima@mail.nih.gov; (and others listed in the rfa)

Additional Information: NIH releases NOSI on COVID-19’s impact on underserved and vulnerable populations; View it as a Web page.; NIH NOSI to Support Studies on COVID-19’s Impact on Underserved and Vulnerable Populations; ORWH has announced its participation in Notice of Special Interest (NOSI): Social, Behavioral, and Economic Impact of COVID-19 in Underserved and Vulnerable Populations (NOT-MH-21-330). The COVID-19 pandemic has demonstrated that prevention and mitigation strategies for the pandemic are uneven—for a range of reasons, including a lack of trust in health systems, economic circumstances, and challenges in sustaining long-term adherence, especially for underserved and vulnerable populations. By increasing our understanding of the multifaceted effects of the COVID-19 pandemic and public health interventions that mitigate risk and promote resilience in high-risk populations, we can improve the long-term response to the pandemic and prepare more effectively for future public health emergencies.; To strengthen the understanding and response to social, behavioral, and economic effects of the COVID-19 pandemic, NIH is encouraging the submission of applications that will: Address the roles and effects of interventions, particularly those under the umbrella of digital health, as well as community-engaged and multilevel interventions in health care settings to address access, reach, delivery, engagement, effectiveness, scalability, and sustainability of services that are utilized during and following the pandemic; Encourage the leveraging of existing large-scale data sources with broad population coverage to improve prediction of various mitigation efforts (including vaccinations, masking, and physical distancing) on transmission reduction and on social and economic effects and assess the downstream health and health care access effects, with an emphasis on underserved and vulnerable populations; The first submission date is October 5, 2021, and subsequent receipt dates will extend through September 8, 2024.

Additional Information: HHEAR public data available! The HHEAR Data Center’s public data repository has recently been updated. To benefit the broader research community, the HHEAR Data Center hosts a public data repository that contains both de-identified original study and de-identified harmonized data from all studies accepted into the CHEAR and HHEAR program that have passed the embargo period. The goal of this repository is to promote the secondary analysis of pooled environmental health data by providing data in a manner that is findable, accessible, interoperable and reusable. The repository is searchable by a number of features and users are able to compile and download customized datasets from CHEAR and HHEAR research studies. The repository is updated periodically as studies come off embargo. To access both types of data, go to HHEAR Data Center website.; Thank you, The HHEAR Coordinating Center; [update 01/2023] Publicly Available HHEAR Data; The HHEAR Data Center’s public data repository has recently been updated. The repository contains de-identified study-specific epidemiologic and laboratory analysis data from HHEAR projects that have passed the embargo period.; The HHEAR data repository also contains harmonized study data that can be combined for multiple HHEAR projects. Users are able to search and download customized datasets from these research studies.; To access the data in the repository, go to the HHEAR Data Center Portal, select the login link on the top menu and follow the instructions to register or log in with your HHEAR username and password. Once logged in, from the top menu, select Studies to download study-specific files, or select Harmonized Data to create a custom dataset.; The repository is updated periodically as projects pass embargo and complete the harmonization process.; If you have any questions about using the HHEAR data repository, contact hhearsupport@mssm.edu.

Drs. Fiehn and Du will discuss how computational workflows are utilized for extracting the tens of thousands of features in untargeted exposomics data, identifying and annotating the features, and predicting what compounds could have produced those features that do not have confident matches with existing in-house and publicly available compound databases.

Additional Information: New Funding Opportunity: Evaluation of Antimicrobial Resistance in Wastewater and Sewage Sludge Treatment and its Impact to the Environment; New Funding Opportunity; National Priorities: Evaluation of Antimicrobial Resistance in Wastewater and Sewage Sludge Treatment and its Impact to the Environment; Request for Applications; The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) is seeking applications to address knowledge gaps in the occurrence, fate and transport, and persistence of antimicrobial resistant organisms and genes found in municipal wastewater effluent and biosolids. ; Ensuring safe and sustainable water is one of EPA's top priorities. Antibiotic resistant organisms, which can make it harder to treat certain infections in animals and people, has become an increasingly prioritized global health problem in recent years. The World Health Organization has identified antimicrobial resistance (AMR) as one of the greatest threats to human health, and natural and engineered water environments have increasingly been shown to play significant roles in AMR evolution and spread.; Research is needed to fill knowledge gaps to better identify and manage AMR risks.; The RFA is encouraging applicants to focus on one of the below research areas but will still allow applicants to include aspects of both research areas in their applications: Understanding the selection and removal of antimicrobial resistant genes and bacteria throughout wastewater and biosolids treatment trains.; Understanding the environmental burden and public health impact of antimicrobial resistant genes and bacteria from different municipal wastewater sources on downstream applications and from biosolid use on the environment.; Applicants are also asked to consider current AMR standardization efforts and justify methods chosen based on their study objectives so that data and results are transferrable and generalizable.; To view the full details of the request for applications and information on how to apply, click the Apply Here button below. ; Apply Here ; If you are interested in potentially serving on the external scientific Peer Review Panel, rather than applying, please send your contact information and a copy of your resume to Ron Josephson (Josephson.Ron@epa.gov) at your earliest convenience.; Opens: May 19, 2023; Closes: August 16, 2023; Informational Webinar: June 1, 2023; 1:30 - 2:30 p.m. ET; Learn more about EPA Research Grants.

Additional Information: New Funding Opportunity—Primary Care: Expanding Access and Advancing Racial Health Equity New York Health Foundation (NYHealth) (nyhealthfoundation.org); New NYHealth Funding Opportunity Now Open: Primary Care: Expanding Access and Advancing Racial Health Equity ; The New York Health Foundation (NYHealth) has released a Request for Proposals (RFP) in our new Primary Care priority area to support projects across New York State that expand access to primary care and advance racial health equity through primary care; High-quality primary care provides ongoing, relationship-based care that meets the health needs and preferences of individuals, families, and communities. Primary care is a rare "win-win" in health care that improves individual and community health, enhances health equity, and saves money. Despite the return on investment, we underinvest in primary care, and too many New Yorkers—especially New Yorkers of color—have difficulty getting care when and where they need it; Through this RFP, awards of up to $250,000 will be granted for New York-targeted projects that have regional or statewide impact, disseminate best practices, test replicable models, and contribute to policy and systems change.; Applicants must first complete a letter of inquiry form (LOI). LOIs are due on June 13, 2023 at 1:00 p.m. Upon review, selected organizations will then be invited to submit full proposals due on August 24, 2023 at 1:00 p.m.

Additional Information: MCHF is committed to supporting programs that advance comprehensive access to healthcare, especially for low-income and vulnerable populations. Broadly defined, access to healthcare is the ability to obtain quality care when and where it is needed. Medically underserved communities and vulnerable populations contend with a range of barriers to access, the cumulative impact of which contributes to inequity in health outcomes. MCHF strives to support programs that help ensure all New Yorkers have access to the full complement of health services they need, when and where they need them, without financial hardship. Programs within this portfolio will address a variety of factors that impact access to quality healthcare; [brought to our attention] Allyson Velez, MPP; Senior Director of Corporate & Foundation Relations; Columbia Mailman School of Public Health [amr151]

DoD/CDMRP - COVID-19 Impact on Research Awards

[No Link Provided]

CDMRP continues to be concerned about the impacts of COVID-19 on Service Members and the public. We are aware of the challenges it poses and are tracking some of the impacts to current awardees and ongoing research. While not every program will have financial resources available to assist, awareness of any significant unresolved issues affecting current research awards is important.; The intent of this notice is to remind recipients of the requirements in 32 CFR Part 1134, Subpart E Other Reporting. This provision specifies the requirement for recipients to disclose significant developments as soon as they become known. These include problems, delays, or adverse conditions that will materially impair your ability to meet the objectives of your awards.; Disclosures of significant developments may be made on your next interim performance report or at any point between scheduled performance reporting dates by contacting the Science Officer or Grant Specialist assigned to your award. This disclosure must include a statement of the action taken, or contemplated, and any assistance needed to resolve the situation

Sponsor: Department of Defense
Deadline(s): NA

Contact: For questions concerning this notice, please contact the Grants Specialist and Science Officer or Grants Officer’s Representative listed in your award

Additional Information: funding opportunities for the Department of Defense (DOD) programs managed by the Congressionally Directed Medical Research Programs (CDMRP). CDMRP understands that applicants remain impacted by COVID-19. Submission deadlines for pre-applications and full applications will incorporate the maximum time that is feasible for each FY23 program. Thank you for your efforts during this challenging time. FY23 Funding Opportunities released: A pre-application is required and must be submitted through the electronic Biomedical Research Application Portal (eBRAP) at https://ebrap.org prior to the pre-application deadline. All applications must conform to the final Funding Opportunities/Program Announcements and General Application Instructions which can be found on the Grants.gov website https://Grants.gov/. A listing of all CDMRP and other USAMRDC extramural funding opportunities can be obtained on the Grants.gov website by performing a basic search using CFDA Number 12.420.; New for FY22: The applicant organization must be registered as an entity in SAM https://www.sam.gov/SAM/ and receive confirmation of an “Active” status before submitting an application through Grants.gov. As published in the Federal Register 10 July 2019 https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2019/07/10/2019-14665/unique-entity-id-standard-for-awards-management, the Unique Entity Identifier for awards management generated through SAM will replace the Data Universal Numbering System (DUNS) number as of April 2022. CDMRP has transitioned to use of the Unique Entity Identifier (SAM) and will utilize the latest SF 424 which includes the UEI. The DUNS will no longer be accepted.; For email notification when CDMRP funding opportunities are released, subscribe to program-specific news and updates under “Email Subscriptions” on the eBRAP homepage at https://ebrap.org. Additional Information: NOSI: Dissemination and Implementation Research to Advance Mental, Emotional, and Behavioral Health Preventive Interventions in School Settings; FOA Number: NOT-AT-22-004; Key Dates: First Available Due Date: June 5, 2022; Expiration Date: June 5, 2024; Purpose: The purpose of this Notice of Special Interest (NOSI) is to stimulate dissemination and implementation research to support innovative approaches to identifying, understanding, and developing strategies for overcoming barriers to the adoption, adaptation, integration, scale-up and sustainability of evidence-based preventive interventions to support children's mental, emotional, and behavioral (MEB) health in school settings. This NOSI encourages applications which focus on dissemination and implementation research to deliver interventions in the school setting that will promote healthy MEB development and/or prevent MEB disorders. Applications should include a focus on one of the following: (1) primary/universal prevention MEB programs designed to promote healthy MEB development by decreasing risk factors and increasing protective factors to prevent onset of an MEB disorder; or (2) secondary/selective prevention programs designed to support screening and early identification of MEB disorders to slow progression with early intervention. Applications focused on tertiary/indicated treatment of MEB disorders will be considered non-responsive to this Notice.; View NOT-AT-22-004

Additional Information: The National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA) is requesting feedback from researchers, community stakeholders, and other interested public parties regarding the type of epidemiologic information that would be most useful to understand U.S. illicit drug markets and to inform prevention, intervention, treatment, and harm reduction efforts. This RFI is not a request for applications. This RFI is being issued for the purpose of obtaining knowledge and information for planning purposes.; Note: It is important to read this entire RFI notice to ensure how to submit adequate responses and to understand how the responses will be utilized.

Additional Information: Notice of Intent to Publish a Funding Opportunity Announcement for NIH Blueprint and BRAIN Initiative Program for Enhancing Neuroscience Diversity through Undergraduate Research Education Experiences (BP BRAIN-ENDURE); (R25 Clinical Trial Not Allowed); Notice Number: NOT-NS-23-048; Key Dates: Estimated Publication Date of funding announcement: August 1, 2023; First Estimated Application Due Date: February 8, 2024; Earliest Estimated Start Date: December 2, 2024; Purpose: NIH Blueprint for Neuroscience Research and BRAIN Initiative intends to reissue a Notice of Funding Opportunity (NOFO) for receipt of new and renewal applications for its research education program for neuroscience focused undergraduates. The overall objective of this funding opportunity will be to increase the number of undergraduate participants from diverse backgrounds, including individuals from underrepresented groups who successfully enter and complete Ph.D. degree programs in the neurosciences. To accomplish this goal, this initiative would support the development of collaborative research education partnerships to increase participant’s awareness and interest in the neurosciences, develop participants’ scientific knowledge and research skills that would allow them to progress and transition to more advanced neuroscience related research education and training activities, and establish working networks within existing Ph.D. degree granting and NIH-supported predoctoral T32 neuroscience programs.

Human studies using invasive technology are often constrained by a limited number of patients and available resources, and frequently the resulting datasets need to be aggregated across sites to achieve sufficient statistical power. To overcome these fundamental barriers and to investigate high-impact questions in human neuroscience, this NOFO seeks applications to assemble diverse, integrated, multi-disciplinary teams that cross boundaries of interdisciplinary collaboration.

This funding opportunity seeks applications to optimize instrumentation and device technologies for recording and modulation of neural cells and circuits, to address major challenges and to enable transformative understanding of dynamic signaling in the central nervous system. It is expected that the proposed technologies and approaches have previously demonstrated their transformative potential through initial proof-of-concept testing, and are ready for accelerated refinement through iterative engineering and end-user feedback, appropriate for a path towards sustainable dissemination and user-friendly incorporation into routine neuroscience research.

Additional Information: Longevity Impetus Grant Announcement; FYI Below. Yousin shared this. Applications open on 9/13: https://www.impetusgrants.com/; Impetus Grants provides funding for scientists to start working on what they consider the most important problems in aging biology, without delay.; www.impetusgrants.com: September 7, 2021; Dear AGE Member, I’d like to bring to your attention a new source of grant funding for bold ideas in aging research: the Longevity Impetus Grants. These grants will support bold ideas with the potential to change how the field thinks and works, including high-risk projects. For more information about the program and to apply, please visit the website.; The applications are ~1 page, and decisions are made within three weeks. Impetus Grants range from $10K to $500K, with a maximum of 10% institutional overhead. There’s no restriction on project period, and no strings attached.; The ideal application is able to explain how the project would broadly impact the field, by developing/validating new tools and/or changing how we think about aging biology. Such proposals could seek to prove or disprove common assumptions in the field, discover new ways to reverse aging processes, synthesize isolated manifestations of aging into a systemic perspective, and/or develop widely applicable methodologies.; Please consider sharing this email within your institution, and with anyone else you think should apply.; I highly encourage you to consider applying for a Longevity Impetus Grant.; Sincerely, [brought to our attention by] Matt Kaeberlein; CEO and Chair, American Aging Association; Impetus Grants provides funding for scientists to start working on what they consider the most important problems in aging biology, without delay. Such work should not be held up by red tape: we offer grants of up to $500k, with decisions made within 3 weeks. Our review process asks "what’s the potential for impact" rather than "could this go wrong"; Our goal is to have a broad impact on the field, by supporting projects that challenge assumptions, develop new tools and methodologies, discover new ways to reverse aging processes, and/or synthesize isolated manifestations of aging into a systemic perspective. To ensure that we learn from every project, we’re organizing a special issue of GeroScience to provide an opportunity to publish both positive and negative results from funded studies.; Applications will open on September 13, 2021

Additional Information: Imagine a country in which all individuals, families, and communities have ready access to enough affordable, nutritious food to sustain healthy lives. However, this was still an illusory notion for at least 13.8 million food insecure US households in 2020. Household food insecurity is defined by having difficulty at some time during the year providing enough food for all members because of lack of resources. Moreover, in 2020, the prevalence of food insecurity among African American/Black households was estimated at 21.7%, and among Latino/Hispanic households was estimated at 17.2%, both substantially higher than the overall estimated prevalence of 13.5%.

Additional Information: PAR-22-072: Measures and Methods to Advance Research on Minority Health and Health Disparities-Related Constructs (R01 Clinical Trial Not Allowed) The purpose of this Funding Opportunity Announcement (FOA) is to support research that will advance the measurement and methodology of complex constructs relevant to minority health and health disparities.; The NIEHS seeks applications that advance innovative development of new measures and methods, or validation and adaptation of existing measures and approaches, to address the complex interplay of the physical, chemical, cultural, social, and built environmental factors that contribute to or exacerbate environmental health disparities. Applications of interest may include, but are not limited to: The use of mixed methods approaches that integrate qualitative and quantitative data collection methods and measures of factors that contribute to environmental health disparities, including how qualitative methods can inform the development and validation of quantitative surveys and instruments that evaluate these factors.; Application and testing of methods and measures of SDOH, and structural racism and discrimination, to the study of environmental health disparities.; Establishment of novel interdisciplinary collaborations (including, but not limited to, methodologists, behavioral scientists, exposure scientists, epidemiologists, bioinformaticians, biostatisticians, data scientists, social scientists) to incorporate concomitant chemical and built environmental factors with existing or developed measures of structural and individual racism into a multilevel assessment of environmental health disparities.; Development, testing and adaptation of methods and measures that capture the lived experience of intersectionality to identify structural factors contributing to disproportionate exposures to chemical and non-chemical stressors at the community and individual level.; Application of community engaged approaches to identify or develop measures that are based on the interests and primary concerns identified by multiple community stakeholders, such as parents, schools, organizations, and fence-line residents, particularly for communities that are under resourced and populations that have historically been combating environmental injustices and disparate rates of adverse health outcomes.; Examination of the ethical issues related to methods and measurement approaches in the study of environmental health disparities, including issues around data harmonization and the collection of common data elements.; Enhancement of existing place-based indices, environmental exposures models and geocoded data to account for social level factors, to explain environmental health disparities at the regional or community level. Of interest are the extent to which these measures demonstrate how placed-based structural racism and discrimination exacerbate environmental risk factors and/or limit protective factors.; Novel use of SDOH and structural racism and discrimination methods and measures to guide the development of multi-level, evidence-based prevention and intervention strategies to reduce environmental health disparities.;

Additional Information: NOT-HL-23-001 Notice of Special Interest (NOSI): Epidemiologic studies in Asian Americans, Native Hawaiians, and Pacific Islanders (Parent R01 Clinical Trial Not Allowed) The purpose of this Notice of Special Interest (NOSI) is to stimulate novel epidemiological research to address key knowledge gaps within and between subpopulations of Asian Americans, Native Hawaiians, and Pacific Islanders. These populations are frequently aggregated in research, potentially masking important social and health differences. Given clear heterogeneity in ancestry, culture, immigration patterns among Asian Americans, socioeconomic position, and acculturation into American life, a critical need exists for epidemiological research to enhance our understanding of the interplay of environmental exposures, lifestyle, behavioral, genomics, social, neighborhood, and biological factors that impact the health of Asian American, Native Hawaiian, and Pacific Islander subpopulations. The National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences encourages submissions of applications that are within the mission of NIEHS, which is to discover how the environment affects people to promote healthier lives. Exposures of interest include, but are not limited to, chemicals that people are exposed to via air, water, food, or direct dermal exposure (e.g., personal care products), including air pollutants, pesticides, metals, industrial chemicals, nanomaterials, environmental tobacco smoke, certain microbial products, and certain physical agents, such as environmental radiation. Applications examining the impacts of climate change on health are encouraged and could include a focus on weather extremes (e.g., prolonged or excessively high heat waves, droughts, severe unseasonal cold spells) and extreme weather-related disasters (e.g., hurricanes, storm surges, floods, wildfires) attributed to our changing climate.; Specific topics of interest include but are not limited to environmental epidemiology studies: Characterizing environmental health... disparities among Asian American, Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander subpopulations; Investigating exposures at the intersection of the physical, chemical, built, and social environments, including social determinants of health, and how these exposures affect health outcomes in Asian American, Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander subpopulations; Examining the linkages between structural racism and discrimination, environmental exposures, and health outcomes in Asian American, Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander subpopulations; Examining resilience among Asian American, Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander subpopulations in the context of climate change and climate change-related disasters; The NIEHS strongly supports research conducted in partnership with communities. Studies that utilize community engaged and/or citizen science approaches done in partnership with Asian American, Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander communities and/or community-based organizations are strongly encouraged. Applications that utilize report-back methods to increase the environmental health literacy within these subpopulations are also strongly encouraged; NIEHS Program Contact: Lindsey Martin lindsey.martin@nih.gov

Additional Information: NIH Announces Funding Opportunity to Study the Role of Work in Health Disparities in the U.S.; ORWH recently announced its participation in The Role of Work in Health Disparities in the U.S. (R01 Clinical Trials Optional) (PAR-21-275). The funding opportunity will support innovative population-based research designed to identify and characterize pathways and mechanisms through which work or occupation influences health outcomes and health status among populations with health and/or health care disparities; The main objective of this initiative is to determine the extent and mechanisms by which work, as a social determinant of health, both contributes to and helps alleviate disparities related to health and health care.; Of particular interest are: Projects designed to examine pathways and mechanisms using conceptual model(s) grounded in minority health and health disparities theories that recognize that health disparities arise by multiple and overlapping contributing factors acting at multiple levels of influence; Intersectional approaches that consider different social identities and the embeddedness of individuals within families, households, and communities; Projects that explore whether work can explain the health or health care disparities seen within diseases or conditions (e.g., COVID-19, opioid use disorder, mental/behavioral health, diabetes, cancer, heart disease, asthma, and maternal and infant health); Projects that explore how work contributes to health care disparities—including, but not limited to, disparities in access to preventive, specialty, and emergency care in health insurance coverage and disparities in quality of health care; Applications for The Role of Work in Health Disparities in the U.S. (R01 Clinical Trials Optional) will open on September 5, 2021.

[NTW] [COVID-19]
Extending the Special Exception to the NIH/AHRQ/NIOSH Post-Submission Material Policy During the COVID-19 Pandemic

Sponsor: National Institutes of Health
Deadline(s): This Notice extends the special exception for post-submission material (see NOT-OD-20-123) to applications submitted for the May 2021 Council round; For applications submitted for the May 2021 council (beginning with applications submitted for the September 25, 2020 due date for Spring 2021 review meetings), the NIH, AHRQ, and NIOSH will accept a onepage update with preliminary data as post-submission materials for applications submitted under all activity codes, ONLY if the Funding Opportunity Announcement (FOA) used for submission allowed preliminary data in the application. One page of preliminary data will be accepted for single component applications or for each component of a multi-component application.; The deadline for submitting all post-submission materials, including preliminary data, will be 30 days before the study section meeting. Because applications for emergency competitive revisions and urgent competitive revisions undergo expedited review, post-submission materials will not be accepted for those applications.; All other materials listed in NOT-OD-19-083 as acceptable post-submission materials will continue to be accepted if submitted 30 days before the study section meeting. The goal of this funding opportunity is to support the submission of multi-component biomedical research grants (e.g., SPORE, U01, U54, P01, P50). It is expected that the Principal Investigators of the pilot award will also be the Principal Investigators of the subsequently submitted applications for external funding grants.
Application Deadline: Friday, May 31, 2023, 11:59 pm EST: Purpose and Research focus; Novel projects within the full spectrum of cancer research, including early detection and prevention; pathogenesis; therapeutic approaches to cancer; survivorship; and reducing cancer-related health disparities are some of the topics of interest. Pilot projects may include interventional early-phase clinical studies that have no or partial other source (s) of funding. Such studies should be highly innovative, early-phase clinical studies that are developed based on science from the HICCC’s Four Research Programs. Pilot projects that include clinical trials may be subject to NIH requirements for approval of human subjects, planned enrollment, and inclusion reporting; Relevance to the HICCC Catchment Area: Projects should interact with the HICCC’s Community Outreach and Engagement (COE) Office to address the cancer burden in our Catchment Area through research related to reducing cancer health disparities including cancers* at high incidence or mortality in the catchment area. Prospective applicants are encouraged to contact Kimberly Burke (krb2160@cumc.columbia.edu, COE Assistant Director of Operations) and the Research Program COE liaisons (CGE: Drs. Jennifer Ammengual and Chao Lu; POSB: Drs. Alison Taylor and Neil Vasan; TBM: Drs. Flora Momen-Heravi and Sam Yoon; CPS: Dr Parisa Tehranifar. Awardees will be expected to work with the COE Office to disseminate their research to the community (see below for more information).; *Diseases relevant to the Catchment Area include but are not limited to: GU (prostate); GI (colorectal, pancreatic, upper GI, hepatobiliary-pancreatic); lung; breast; brain and other CNS cancers; hematologic malignancies (lymphoma, leukemia); GYN (uterine, cervical, ovarian); and pediatric.; FUNDING: Applications are being accepted for this one-year pilot award program providing $80,000 each for up to two (2) projects. Funds should be directed to the experimental milestone that will make the project eligible for follow-up multi-component biomedical research funding through government (e.g., SPORE, U01, U54, P01, P50), major foundation grants, and/or industry partnerships.; Expenses may include technologist/staff salary, supplies or research-related services. Please calculate any salaries using a fringe rate of 31.5%; Up to $5,000 can be used to conduct EAB meetings. Travel is only permitted if needed to support EAB participation.; Faculty salary and benefits are not permitted.; Major equipment and computer costs are not permitted.; Subawards are not permitted.; Indirect costs are not permitted.; We require that all funds be used during the one-year activity period to avoid carryover. Any remaining funds will be returned to the HICCC; Eligibility Criteria for Principal Investigators (PIs); Principal Investigators must have a faculty appointment of assistant professor or higher in any department at Columbia University Irving Medical Center among the four health professional schools; Senior and executive faculty leadership in the Irving Institute and HICCC are eligible to apply.; Awardees who previously received funding within last three years through this pilot award mechanism are not eligible unless the proposed project will support a new type of grant.
submission than the prior award.; Individuals holding two or more active HICCC pilot awards are also not eligible to apply.; Individuals from underrepresented groups are strongly encouraged to apply.; Application Requirements; Proposals should describe activities that support the submission of an eligible multi-component/multi-PI grant within three (3) months of the end of the pilot one (1)-year award term.; Proposals must include a description of the team and evidence of progress toward submission of an eligible multi-component/multi-PI grant (e.g., established External Advisory Board (EAB), established schedule of team meetings, discussions with a program director/official from the funding agency, etc.); If the relevant eligible multi-component/multi-PI grant has previously been submitted and considered by an external funding agency, evidence of reasonable expectation of funding on resubmission (e.g., a score and summary statement), and a plan to address the reviewers’ comments, are required.; We strongly encourage projects focusing on cancer health disparities and health equity.; We strongly encourage applications from underrepresented groups.; Proposals must include a description of relevance to the HICCC Catchment Area and how the proposed project will contribute to reducing cancer health disparities including cancers at high incidence or mortality in the catchment area.; Application Deadline: Friday, May 31, 2023, 11:59 pm EST. Apply via the InfoReady web portal. https://columbia.infoready4.com/#competitionDetail/1901325. Funding is expected to commence on July 1, 2023.; Award Information; All applicants will be notified in June 2023, with activation of the funding expected on July 1, 2023; Please contact Dr. Emer Smyth at es3551@cumc.columbia.edu and Dr. Sadiqa Quadri at skq1@cumc.columbia.edu if you have any questions about the pilot competition.

Additional Information:

Dear Mailman School faculty,
I want to give you an update on Research Support Services—the School’s new program for pre-submission external review and final editing. As Dean Fried wrote in October, the program is geared “to support faculty in preparing grant applications with the highest chance of success.”

I’m happy to report that those using the services this fall have found them valuable. Katherine Keyes in Epidemiology spoke enthusiastically at the recent Assembly: “It was a great experience. I got to focus on the science without having to deal with any of the administrative aspects. I got really good feedback. I will be using these services again.”

In my estimation, all the grants were greatly improved by these services. Of course, the ultimate test is how they are scored and funded. As soon I have that information, I will share it with you.

I encourage everyone to take advantage of Research Support Services to give your grants a competitive advantage. Please keep in mind the following deadlines:

- 5 weeks prior to submission deadline—Inform Research Resources (via Craig Kandell at ckk7@cumc.columbia.edu) if you plan on using Research Support Services with information about the type of grant at least five weeks prior to the grant due date. If you seek external review, please provide the name and contacts of at least three potential reviewers so we can reach out to them in your order of preference.

- 4 weeks prior to submission deadline—Send us your science draft for external review three to four weeks prior to submission. We will forward it to the external reviewer. Generally, they provide feedback within a week.

- 2 weeks prior to submission deadline—For editorial services, send us your manuscript at least 10 days ahead of the deadline. We will make arrangements with the editor. Comments will be returned to Craig and the PI for finalization and submission within a few days.

Please keep in mind that it may take you a day or two to incorporate comments and edits. For best results, get in touch with us prior to these deadlines.

Research Support Services cover first-time submissions, and we are pleased to expand the service to encompass resubmissions of R01, P, K, Center, T32, or other complex NIH proposals by full-time faculty with primary appointments in the School. I am available to provide feedback for grants that utilize this service and also for other grant types that are ineligible for the services.

If you have any questions about your eligibility or the above process, please visit Research Resources online or contact me at prf1@cumc.columbia.edu.

Best wishes,

Pam Factor-Litvak

Evidence for Action: Innovative Research to Advance Racial Equity

Sponsor: RWJF; https://www.evidenceforaction.org/

Deadline(s): Open

Contact: Email: evidenceforaction@ucsf.edu; Website: www.evidenceforaction.org

Additional Information: New funding opportunity: Innovative research to advance racial equity; As we enter into a year and a half of the pandemic there’s no doubt that we have had many difficult conversations as a country. One particular topic we should not stop discussing is the harm structural racism has on the health and well-being of society and how we can dismantle it; RWJF’s Evidence for Action program is currently seeking proposals to evaluate specific policies, programs, and practices that have the potential to contribute to dismantling and counteracting the harms of structural and systemic racism and improving health, well-being, and equity outcomes. Knowing that some approaches to disrupting racism are in early stages of development; other types of research that can advance racial equity will be considered. ; Learn more about eligibility an selection criteria >

Link(s): https://www.czbiohub.org/cz-biohub-network-applications/

Additional Information: Columbia University Coordination on CZ Biohub Letter of Intent; Dear Faculty: The Chan Zuckerberg Initiative recently announced a competition for a new Chan Zuckerberg Biohub to focus on developing new technologies to measure and observe human biology in ways that help deepen our understanding of human health and disease. The ideal scientific themes should be interdisciplinary in nature, have large engineering challenges to conquer, and should be wildly ambitious. The focus area of this new CZ Biohub should further diversify CZI’s existing research portfolio, which includes: infectious disease and quantitative cell science (San Francisco CZ Biohub); neuroscience and artificial intelligence (Kempner Institute for the Study of Natural and Artificial Intelligence at Harvard University); and the Chan Zuckerberg Institute for Advanced Biomedical Imaging.; The Letter of Intent (LOI) requires a minimum of three geographically proximate institutions collectively to propose a concept for the CZ Biohub. As an organizational structure, the CZ Biohub will be a nonprofit medical research organization that will enter into a collaboration agreement with its institutional partners, enabling the new CZ Biohub to support research at its partner Institutions. Funding is anticipated in the $200–250 million range, over an initial ten-year period, with the possibility for an additional five-year commitment of funds.; Columbia plans to endorse only one institutional partnership application for this opportunity. The EVPR's Office is working with schools to determine the theme and institutional partners for our Chan Zuckerberg Biohub LOI. I will appoint and convene a faculty committee to coordinate with relevant deans, Provost Boyce, and colleagues in Development on next steps. ; Please direct any questions to EVPR@columbia.edu with “CZ Biohub” in the subject line.;

RWJF; Pioneering Ideas: Exploring the Future to Build a Culture of Health

Sponsor: RWJF
Deadline(s): Open
Contact: pioneeringideas@rwjf.org
Additional Information: What can we do today to create a better, more equitable tomorrow? Through this new funding opportunity, RWJF seeks to understand and anticipate what dramatic changes we might see in the next five to 15 years in four areas: 1) Future of Evidence; 2) Future of Social Interaction; 3) Future of Food; and Future of Work. Additionally, this call for proposals seeks to support unconventional approaches and breakthrough ideas outside of these areas that could improve health equity and well-being for generations to come. We welcome proposals from scientists, anthropologists, artists, urban planners, community leaders anyone, anywhere who has a cutting edge idea that could alter the trajectory of health and increase opportunities for everyone in the United States to live their healthiest life possible. Please note, while this CFP is focused on broader and longer-term societal trends and shifts that were evolving prior to the COVID-19 outbreak, we recognize the unique circumstances and learning created by the COVID-19 pandemic may inform your response. It is at your discretion whether you propose a project related to the pandemic directly or indirectly.

Understanding Suicide Risk and Protective Factors among Black Youth (R01 Clinical Trial Not Allowed)

Sponsor: National Institute of Mental Health; National Institute on Minority Health and Health Disparities; Office of Behavioral and Social Sciences Research
Deadline(s): 06/20/2023; 06/21/2023 (Expiration)
Contact: Scientific/Research Contact(s); Eric R. Murphy, Ph.D.; National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH); Telephone: 301-443-9230; Email: eric.murphy@nih.gov
Additional Information: Understanding Suicide Risk and Protective Factors among Black Youth; (R01 Clinical Trial Not Allowed); FOA Number: RFA-MH-22-140; Key Dates: Open Date (Earliest Submission Date): September 18, 2022; Expiration Date: June 21, 2023; Purpose: This FOA aims to advance translational research to better understand factors that confer risk and resilience for suicide among Black youth. This FOA encourages research that is designed to identify neurobiological, behavioral, social, and structural/systemic mechanisms underlying risk and protective factors for suicide among Black youth, with consideration for identification of novel targets for future development of prevention and intervention efforts. This FOA is intended to support R01 research project grants that are adequately powered and of sufficient scope to examine the impact of empirically and theoretically suggested risk and protective factors on suicide and STB among Black youth, and the pathways by which these factors uniquely contribute to suicide related outcomes in this population. These studies should be adequately powered to definitively answer the primary research question(s), with well-justified hypotheses supported by pilot data. Support for earlier-stage exploratory developmental projects is provided via a companion FOA, RFA-MH-22-141; View RFA-MH-22-140

Sponsor: National Institute of Mental Health
Deadline(s): 06/20/2023; 06/21/2023 (Expiration)
Contact: Scientific/Research Contact(s); Eric R. Murphy, Ph.D.; National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH); Telephone: 301-443-9230; Email: eric.murphy@nih.gov

Additional Information: Understanding Suicide Risk and Protective Factors among Black Youth; (R21 Clinical Trial Not Allowed); FOA Number: RFA-MH-22-141; Key Dates: Open Date (Earliest Submission Date): September 18, 2022; Expiration Date: June 21, 2023; Purpose: This FOA aims to advance translational research to better understand factors that confer risk and resilience for suicide among Black youth. R21 exploratory grant awards in response to this FOA are intended to conduct preliminary work regarding the assessment and characterization of risk and protective factors, with consideration for the identification of novel targets for future development of prevention and intervention efforts. Studies may involve evaluating the relevance of risk and protective factors for Black youth and their families, identifying risk or protective factors (or their interactions) unique to Black youth (or subgroups of this population), developing new or adapted assessment methods that are developmentally and culturally appropriate, and/or examining the acceptability and utility of existing assessment methods. This FOA supports exploratory developmental projects focused on refining strategies for the assessment and characterization of risk and protective factors and collecting preliminary data needed as a pre-requisite to a larger-scale, definitive project. A companion R01 FOA RFA-MH-22-140 supports larger scale projects that are of sufficient scope and are powered to provide a definitive examination of risk/protective factors associated with suicide risk among Black youth.; RFA-MH-22-141

Additional Information: The purpose of this Funding Opportunity Announcement (FOA) is to support studies that will identify, develop, and/or test strategies for overcoming barriers to the adoption, adaptation, integration, scale-up, and sustainability of evidence-based interventions, practices, programs, tools, treatments, guidelines, and policies. Studies that promote equitable dissemination and implementation of evidence-based interventions among underrepresented communities are encouraged. Conversely, there is a benefit in understanding circumstances that create a need to stop or reduce (“de-implement”) the use of practices that are ineffective, unproven, low-value, or harmful. In addition, studies to advance dissemination and implementation research methods and measures are encouraged. Applications that focus on re-implementation of evidence-based health services (e.g. cancer screening) that may have dropped off amidst the ongoing COVID pandemic are encouraged.

Link(s): https://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/pa-files/PA-22-238.html

Additional Information: Funding Opportunity Purpose: The Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality (AHRQ) announces its interest in supporting conferences through the AHRQ Single-Year and Multiple-Year Conference grant programs (R13). AHRQ seeks to support conferences that help further its mission to produce evidence to make health care safer, higher quality, more accessible, equitable and affordable, and to work with HHS and other partners to make sure the evidence is understood and used http://www.ahrq.gov/funding/policies/foaguidance/index.html; The types of conferences eligible for support include: 1) Research Development; 2) Research Design and Methodology; 3) Dissemination and Implementation; 4) Research Training, Infrastructure and Career Development; AHRQ is especially interested in supporting conferences that demonstrate strategies that include plans for disseminating complementary conference materials and products beyond the participants attending the event. Regionally-based conferences are acceptable with the expectation that plans will be developed for national dissemination. Such strategies might include, but are not limited to, submitting articles for publication, posting information on a website, and seeking formal opportunities to discuss conference information with others.

Additional Information: ViCTER RFA Released! Hello Colleagues, just wanted to share information about the release of NIEHS's Request for Applications (RFA) for the multi-disciplinary "Virtual Consortium for Translational/Transdisciplinary Environmental Research (ViCTER)" RFA-ES-21-007, which posted yesterday evening. The purpose of the ViCTER program is to foster and promote early-stage transdisciplinary collaborations and/or translational research efforts to address fundamental research among basic (technology and mechanism oriented), clinical (patient-oriented) and population-based researchers in the environmental health field. The newly established collaborative teams will come together in common interest to investigate potential linkages between human health and one or more environmental stressor(s). The ViCTER program is intended to support innovative high-risk, high-reward transdisciplinary/translational research projects that are more difficult to achieve in a typical R01 application. Collaboration among investigators at different institutions through a virtual consortium arrangement is encouraged. The next due date is February 1, 2022. There will be a free informational webinar on November 18th from 2-3pm ET. Please visit the ViCTER webpage for a link to register to the webinar and for any updates related to this announcement: https://www.niehs.nih.gov/research/supported/translational/victer/index.cfm; I invite you to share this announcement with teams of researchers who might be interested in this funding mechanism. If you have questions, please don't hesitate to reach out to me; Thank you, Heather Henry; [brought to our attention by] Heather F. Additional Information: SAVE THE DATE 06/14/2023 Technical Assistance Webinar for New U24 funding Opportunity on Sickle Cell Disease (SCD) Pain.; The National Center for Complementary and Integrative Health (NCCIH/NIH) released a new funding opportunity: Research Network to Promote Multidisciplinary Mechanistic and Translational Studies of Sickle Cell Disease Pain (U24, Clinical Trial Optional). The purpose of this funding opportunity is to support a research network that promotes multidisciplinary mechanistic and transnational studies of Sickle Cell Disease (SCD) pain. This network is expected to develop compelling research frameworks and model systems that will support interdisciplinary collaborations; initiate pilot projects to test novel mechanistic hypotheses in the high-priority research areas listed below and develop novel technologies and methodologies to study pain in the organs(s) typically impacted by SCD; To accomplish these objectives, applicants can propose activities such as meetings, workshops, conferences, research collaborations, exchange of ideas through visiting scientist arrangements, or training opportunities. These activities will help identify unique research gaps and opportunities that can be addressed through the network in the form of pilot projects which will in turn generate the preliminary data needed for SCD pain investigators to successfully compete for more substantial NIH grants, including The Helping to End Addiction Long-term® (HEAL) Initiative grant awards. In addition, the network will sustain its scientific impact through a variety of dissemination and outreach strategies, including publication of research frameworks, reviews, and other best practices to foster the growth and development of research in the several priority areas; The application deadline is October 01, 2023.; REGISTER NOW: Technical Assistance Webinar Scheduled: June 14, 2023; 2-3:00 pm ET; We hope you find this information of interest. Please feel free to forward to colleagues who also may be interested in applying for this funding opportunity.; Best wishes, Inna Belfer, MD, Ph.D.; Program Director, Basic and Mechanistic Research Branch; National Center for Complementary and Integrative Health, NIH; Email: inna.belfer@nih.gov

NIH single IRB (sIRB) policy

Sponsor: NIH
Deadline(s): (for NIH application submissions on or after) 01/25/2018
Contact: If you are preparing an NIH application due on or soon after January 25th, 2018, you should contact the Human Research Protection Office (HRPO) immediately at irboffice@columbia.edu if your application proposes to: () Conduct non-exempt human subjects research; AND; () The same research protocol will be conducted at multiple domestic sites

Additional Information: The NIH single IRB (sIRB) policy applies to the domestic sites of new and competing renewal applications/proposals with due dates of January 25, 2018 and beyond for NIH-funded multi-site studies where each site will conduct the same protocol involving non-exempt human subjects research, whether supported through grants, cooperative agreements, contracts, or the NIH Intramural Research Program. If you are preparing an NIH application due on or soon after January 25th, 2018, you should contact the Human Research Protection Office (HRPO) immediately at irboffice@columbia.edu if your application proposes to: () Conduct non-exempt human subjects research; AND; () The same research protocol will be conducted at multiple domestic sites. If Columbia University is being proposed as one of the participating sites in an application to be submitted this month or soon after by another applicant organization, you must also contact the HRPO immediately. Moving forward, it is recommended that you contact the HRPO as soon as a decision is made to participate in a multi-site study to which the NIH sIRB Policy applies. An official process that details the requirements for addressing the NIH sIRB Policy is being finalized, to be released shortly. In the meantime, PIs and/or departments can reach out to irboffice@columbia.edu to inform the HRPO about these applications. Upon receipt of your email, HRPO will send you an online form to be completed, and you will be provided with next steps. In addition, we are offering several options to learn more about the sIRB process. Note: Protocols that address the same research questions, involve the same methodologies, and evaluate the same outcomes are considered to be the "same research protocol." Additionally, sites that are accruing research participants for studies that are identical except for variations due to local context consideration would be considered to be conducting the "same research protocol." If you have any questions, please contact irboffice@columbia.edu. Our website contains resources to help you while you get accustomed to all of the policy changes impacting proposal preparation. We have an Excel checklist to help you complete the new PHS NIH Human Subjects and Clinical Trials Information Form. We also have a one-page reference guide (thank you Katherine Rochmat of School of Social Work for the initial template): https://research.columbia.edu/content/nih-proposai-information: As always, feel free to contact your SPA Project Officer should you have any questions about NIH proposal preparation. Additional Information: Contacting Staff at the NIH Institutes and Centers; In today’s NIH Extramural News blog, the NIH staff posted a handy chart of the major roles of NIH staff: Program Officials, Scientific Review Officers, Grants Management Officials, and staff of the Division of Receipt and Referral in NIH’s Center of Scientific Review. It explains each role’s responsibility, when it is... appropriate to contact them, and where to find their contact information.; See Who At NIH Can Answer my Question About...?; Remember that your Sponsored Projects Administration (SPA) Project Officer must communicate with NIH staff directly when submitting proposals, negotiating awards, submitting Just-in-Time information, submitting formal requests for prior approval, submitting progress reports, clarifying NIH policies, and discussing financial or administrative issues. However, there may be times when contacting NIH directly is appropriate, for example, to identify the right type of grant program and/or funding opportunity for you and your research, or to verify that your idea fits within the mission and priorities of an NIH Institute or Center. When in doubt, reach out to your SPA Project Officer.; [brought to our attention by] Stephanie F.
